A Little of Everything.

John Barleycorn.

Kind friends as sure as you are born, Don't trifle with John Barleycorn. For he'll surely get the best of you. And run your soul and fortune through. He'll spend your face, he'll tear your clothes. He'll put a blossom on your nose. He'll knock you down and take your cash. And then he'll call you dirty trash. He'll turn your family out of doors. And take your credit from the stores. He'll put a coating on your tongue. Your nerves and brain will be unstrung. And last of all an insublime Or paper's grave your bound to fill. Yes, friends, don't take another horn. Don't trifle with John Barleycorn.

Monday is Labor Day. Next Monday is a legal holiday. Borough school begins Monday. St. Marys vs. Reynoldsville to-day. The oyster season opens to-morrow. The New Klondyke hat at Millirens. Get your bicycles repaired at Gooder's. Don't miss the game of ball this afternoon. Lawn fete at S. S. Robinson's this evening. A full line of confectionery at the Bon Ton bakery. The prettiest line of fall ties at Millirens. See them. Furnished rooms to let. Inquire at THE STAR office. Don't forget to have your bicycle repaired at Gooder's. Robert Ferguson has moved from Reynoldsville to Hopkins. Have you seen the Granophone at Gooder's jewelry store. The school bell will be heard in this borough next Monday. Oxfords for 50 cents per pair on J. E. Welsh & Co.'s bargain counter. If you are hungry or want something for the table call at Bon Ton bakery. The Epworth League will hold a moonlight picnic on the ball grounds this evening. Hamblet & Swartz have reduced all $20.00 and $21.00 suits to $17.00, $18.00 and $19.00, etc. A number of young people held a dance in the pavilion in Frank's Park Friday evening. James K. Johnston is selling shoes at closing out prices. Don't miss the bargains he is offering. Graphophones and records for sale at Gooder's jewelry store. Come and see them and get prices. Rev. D. C. White, of Turtle Creek, Pa., will preach in the Baptist church at this place next Sunday. Take your watches to Gooder's and have them repaired. All work guaranteed to give satisfaction. Lots of men's shoes on the counter at J. E. Welsh & Co.'s shoe store that you can get for a bargain. Room No. 13 seems to be an unlucky number this year to secure a teacher for. Two teachers have resigned. Walter Reynolds rode his bicycle to Kane last Friday and is visiting his sister, Mrs. Thomas Mitchell, at that place. Now is your opportunity to get shoes cheap at James K. Johnston's store. Shoes are being sold at closing out prices. M. C. Coleman traded a mule for thirty-two sheep Monday and yesterday he drove the sheep to the farm in Clarion county. For Sale—House and three lots on Pike street, West Reynoldsville. Inquire of Jas. M. Moore, Reynoldsville, Pa., or THE STAR. Sheriff's sales at the court house in Brookville at 1.00 P. M., Friday, September 9th. See list elsewhere in this issue of property to be sold.

Important to know—where to buy good footwear cheap, old reliable shoe house, Robinson's. The Baptist Aid Society will hold a lawn fete at the home of Mrs. Truitt, Main st., Saturday evening. During the remainder of this month Jas. K. Johnston, the shoe dealer, will sell shoes at closing out price. Wilson Gross has gone to Big Run to work in the tannery at that place during the idleness of the tannery at this place. The Daughters of Rebekah will hold a lawn fete at the residence of J. B. Orr, in West Reynoldsville, on Saturday evening. George Kline got the contract of laying the pipe line from Fifth street to the silk mill for the Reynoldsville Water Company. Frank S. Hoffman has an insurance on his house so that the damage caused by lightning Wednesday will be paid for by an insurance company. Esq. E. Neff has secured a pension of $8.00 per month for Charles Gibson, dating from October 21, 1897, when the application was made for pension. John L. Diekey and Miss Alice Shaffer, both of Paradise, were married at the M. E. parsonage, Emerickville, last Thursday at 8.00 A. M. by Rev. A. G. Mills. The Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. D. W. Riston on Friday afternoon, September 2nd, at half past two o'clock. Prof. E. D. Baker, who was married to one of our town ladies, Mollie McKee, has been elected principal of the public schools at Parker's Landing, Pa., for the ensuing term. The Helping Hand Society of the M. E. church will hold a lawn fete at the home of S. S. Robinson, on Main street, this evening. Ice cream, sherbet, cake, &c., will be served. The Kelso furniture store will be moved from the room now occupied in the Centennial building to the room in the Bee Hive building at corner of Main and Fifth streets. The Junior League of the M. E. church held a picnic near the Grange hall in Paradise Thursday. The young people were given a hay-ride to and from the picnic grounds. Mrs. W. M. DeHart went to Lawns-ham Monday to attend the funeral of her half-brother, Clark Henderson, who died at Pittsburg Friday. The deceased was a single man, aged 24 years. The rain about noon Wednesday marred the Baptist Sunday school picnic in Kline's grove. The picnicers all had to huddle into the Kline school house and eat their dinner there. The Annual Convention of the Jefferson County W. C. T. U. will be held in the M. E. church, Stanton, Pa., Sept. 7th, 8th and 9th, commencing 2.00 P. M., Wednesday and closing Friday noon. Miss Alice Cochlin, the milliner, went to Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday to attend the wholesale opening of fall trade. She will be absent two weeks and her store will be closed during that time. Rev. Mr. E. Haecker is attending the meeting of the Pittsburg Synod at East Liverpool, O. There will be no service in the Lutheran church on next Sunday, September 4th. Sunday school as usual. Mrs. Thomas J. Moody, of Eleonora, died Thursday morning with consumption. Her remains were brought to this place Thursday evening and taken to Fairmount on the 8.05 train. Funeral at Fairmount Friday. The deceased was 28 years old. Charles Decker, of Holton, Kansas, who has been visiting with P. B. Rhodes, the butcher, for a number of months, left here the first of this week on a trip to Bellefonte, Williamsport, Buffalo and Niagara Falls. From the latter place he will return to his home in Kansas. W. G. Hartwick, patentee of the Automatic Spring Washer, was in Clearfield the first of this week helping W. G. Campbell and H. L. Fireman, of this place to introduce the washing machine in Clearfield county. Messrs. Campbell and Fireman have bought the right to sell in the above county. "Chad" Bitters, the Reynoldsville base ball pitcher, who played with the New Kensington, Pa., club last year, and the Westfield, N. Y., club this year, returned to this place Monday evening to remain a short time. "Chad" has gained quite a reputation as a pitcher and our people expect to see him pitch a nice game this afternoon. Miss Maggie McMillen, whose maiden name was Maggie Cox, wife of Postmaster John McMillen, of Homer City, Indiana county, Pa., died Friday afternoon from quick consumption. Her remains were buried in the Greenwood cemetery at Indiana Sunday afternoon. The deceased was 52 years old. She is survived by her husband and one daughter. Mrs. McMillen was a daughter of Peter Cox, deceased, late of Washington township. William T. Cox, of Reynoldsville, and Elisha and James Cox, of Sandy Valley, drove to Homer City Saturday to attend the funeral of their sister.

School Begins Monday. Our public schools open for the winter term on Monday next. For the best interest of both the schools and the scholars, every scholar should be in attendance on the opening day. Reception of Members. A class of fifty-six probationers was added to the membership of the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday evening. There are a number of other probationers yet to be taken into the church. Third Teacher Elected. Monday evening the school board elected J. G. Ballentine, of Reidsburg, Clarion county, as teacher for Room 13. T. B. Mitchell was elected and he resigned. S. M. Whitmore was elected and he also tendered his resignation. It is hardly likely that Mr. Ballentine will resign. 'Twill Be a Good Game. This afternoon the St. Marys ball club will play the Reynoldsville club on the grounds at this place. Game will be called at 3.00. Admission to grand stand, ladies 10 cents, gentlemen 15 cents. "Chad" Bitters will pitch for the home team. The lovers of this sport can expect a good game, as the St. Marys club plays good ball. Lieutenant Stoke. Mayor H. Alex Stoke, of this place, has received notice from Division Commander A. S. Moulthrop that he has been appointed Aide-de-Camp for Jefferson County, of the Division of Pennsylvania, Sons of Veterans, U. S. A. This puts Mayor Stoke in the rank of First Lieutenant. Mr. Stoke was surprised when he received his commission as Aide-de-Camp, as he had not expected the appointment. Are You Registered. September 6th and 7th are the last days for registering voters in order to qualify them to vote at the next general election. It is the duty of every man to vote, and to do this with as little trouble as possible to himself his name ought to be on the registry list. If he is not registered he cannot pay taxes and if he has not paid his taxes he cannot vote. Don't forget to be registered September 6th and 7th, or any date previous to that time. Jailed Friday. Robert Runyon, who was released from the penitentiary a few weeks ago, was arrested in West Reynoldsville last Friday for assault and battery. He was given a hearing before Squire W. L. Johnston and, failing to get bail, was taken to the county jail Friday afternoon by Constable Samuel Brillhart. Mrs. Charlie Sweyers, of "poverty flat," also had a hearing before Squire Johnson Friday forenoon on charge of larceny on bail. She failed to get bail and Constable Brillhart escorted her to jail with Runyon. Irish Stories Galore. Mrs. Sarah J. Brewer and daughter, Miss Jennie Brewer, of Colden, who were visiting at the home of A. T. McClure, at Panoeast a couple of weeks, returned to their home in the "Empire State" Saturday. Mrs. Brewer is a relative of Mr. McClure whom he had lost all trace of until about a year ago. Mr. and Mrs. McClure made a little party Friday in honor of their York State visitors. A number of the invited guests were born in Ireland and there were numerous Irish jokes and stories told during the afternoon. Ox Roast. The ox roast held at Emerickville last Thursday by the M. E. church of that place, to raise funds for church purposes, was a very successful affair. The crowd was so large that had there been twice as many tables at the noon hour they could not have served the people as fast as they crowded in, and the ox was devoured before all had been fed. Besides the beef, four sheep, one pig and a number of chickens had been prepared. Over 800 people took dinner on the grounds. Supper was also served in the evening, and ice cream and other refreshments all day. The attendance from this place and Brookville was large, and the roast was quite a social, as well as money-making event. The Hazen Twin Brothers Band furnished good music for the occasion. The church people cleared $220.00 from the proceeds of the day. Public Fountain. One of the things that Reynoldsville is badly in need of is a fountain on the Main street where strangers can get a drink. There is a fine spring in front of the Presbyterian church and the ladies of the W. C. T. U. have been talking of piping the water to the corner of Main and Fifth streets and there put in a fountain where pedestrians can get a drink, also a basin where horses could be watered. For some reason the W. C. T. U. ladies have about given up the idea of putting in the fountain. No one can gainsay the statement that this is an enterprising and capital scheme, and that it should receive substantial encouragement from every citizen of the town. It would not cost a great amount of money to pipe the water and put in the fountain, and it would certainly be evidence of progressiveness for Reynoldsville to put in such a fountain. The ladies should not give it up yet.

Doctors' Annual Picnic. The Jefferson County Medical Society's annual picnic and business meeting was held in Frank's Park at this place last Friday. The weather man helped the Reynoldsville doctors—who had charge of the picnic—in making it a complete success by giving an ideal day for a picnic. Dinner was served in the pavilion at 2.00 P. M. and it was certainly a feast of good things, and one noticeable feature was that the doctors and their wives are good eaters. While the picnicers were partaking of the palatable productions from the culinary department, the Keystone band increased the pleasure of the meal by playing some lively tunes in their usual skillful manner. A preacher's fondness for chicken is an old standing joke, but we don't see why a chicken should run any faster when a preacher makes his appearance than when a doctor comes around—especially Dr. Booher, of Falls Creek. Cordially and sociability were as abundant as the supply of provisions that had been furnished. It was a very enjoyable picnic and we would be willing to accept an invitation to the next annual feast of the M. D's. It would be difficult to get together a better looking lot of men of one calling than the Jefferson county doctors, unless it would be the editors of the county. At the business meeting held in the afternoon Dr. T. R. Williams, of Adrian, was elected president of the Society for the ensuing year; Dr. T. C. Lawson, of Brookville, was elected vice-president, and Dr. A. F. Balmer, of Brookville, was elected secretary and treasurer. Dr. J. H. Murray, Dr. Humphrey and Dr. Sapp were admitted to membership in the Society. The annual picnic will be held at DuBois next year. Delaney-Wildauer Nuptials. At 8.30 A. M., August 24th, John Joseph Delaney and Miss Mary Wildauer, two young people well known and well liked in this place, were united in marriage in the Catholic church in the presence of a large company of people. The ceremony was performed by Father Lynch, of DuBois. Miss Elizabeth Delaney, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, and John Nolan was groomsmen. The bride and bridesmaid were both dressed in white. Mr. and Mrs. Delaney and a number of young friends drove to DuBois and took dinner at the National Hotel. They returned to Reynoldsville in time for a wedding supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wildauer, parents of the bride. About one hundred and fifty people partook of the supper. After supper the Keystone band serenaded Mr. Delaney and bride. The wedding festivities ended with a party in the Nolan block where a few hours were spent in the mazy dance. Mr. and Mrs. Delaney received a number of valuable and useful presents, among which was a beautiful silver set from M. J. Brennan, of Leadville, Col., an uncle of Mr. Delaney, and a handsome sideboard from a number of Mrs. Delaney's lady friends. Reynoldsville Gets First Prize. The eighth annual reunion of the Northwestern Reunion Association, Knights of Golden Eagle, held at DuBois last Friday, was attended by a large crowd of people from Reynoldsville beside the members of Mountain Cliff Castle, No. 359. There were ten Castles in the parade. Three prizes were given as follows: Mountain Cliff Castle, of Reynoldsville, got first prize, $30.00, for best appearance; Jefferson Castle, of Adrian, second prize, $20.00, for largest per cent of membership in line; Spring Castle, of Horatio, third prize, $10.00, for coming longest distance. The Golden Eagles of Reynoldsville are fine looking fellows when they get "togged out" for parade. The address of welcome at Electric Park was delivered by S. C. Shields, of DuBois, and responded to by Rev. J. C. McEntire, of Reynoldsville. At the business meeting Punxsutawney was chosen as the place to hold the next annual reunion, the last Friday in August, 1899. Clark Rodgers, of Punxsutawney, was elected president of the Association for the ensuing year, and Mr. Broadbent, of Delancey, vice-president. Woman's Relief Corps Benefit. Following is the program for the entertainment to be given in Centennial hall Monday evening, September 5th, under auspices of the Woman's Relief Corps: Introduction.....Gramophone Recitation.....Name Emery Waltz—Heart Throbs.....New York Metropolitan Orchestra Song—Tramp, Tramp, Tramp, the Boys are Marching. T. Guthrie, Esq. Admission 10c. Call and see the bargains at J. E. Welsh & Co.'s shoe store. Jas. K. Johnston is selling shoes at closing out prices this month. Closing out all summer oxfords at cost. Robinson's.

Silk Mill Notes. There are to be 300 looms down stairs, three rows on east side of building, full length of building—which is 331 feet long—and two rows on west side of building. There are just two sides down stairs, central aisle and a narrow aisle. One hundred and forty looms have already been fitted up and are in place down stairs. There will be a few looms up stairs, but most of the machinery on second floor will be winders, warpers, spinners, quillers, spools, reels, twistors, &c. Six car loads of this machinery is already on the second floor. Four gentlemen arrived from Massachusetts to put this machinery up. The office will be completed to-day. The grounds around the mill will be cleaned and possibly terraced. The electrician will wire the building within a few days for electric lights. There will be 1,000 incandescent lights in the building. The dynamo is one of the Westinghouse latest dynamos. Capt. P. K. Mullen is night watchman at the silk mill for the present. The company will be ready to receive bids for coal—run of mine—next Monday. The Reynoldsville Water Co. has let the contract for laying of water line to the mill. The engines and shafting for mill will be here in a day or two. The power house has been completed. A large number of people visit the mill daily now. The following gentlemen arrived here Friday: J. W. Place, president of American Silk Co.; Peter DuRaunt, loom superintendent; E. Greenbaum, secretary; Felix Malbertie, electrician; Philippe SheVaunt, superintendent; Charles Cooper, instructor in weaving. Mrs. Cooper, who will assist in instructing, is also here. There will be eighty more people here in a few days. There have been 500 applications from people of this section for work in the mill, and 400 applications from outsiders. Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto. The Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg R'y. announce the last excursion of the season to Buffalo, Niagara Falls and the Toronto Fair for Tuesday, Sept. 6th. Special train will leave Reynoldsville at 12.45 P. M., arriving at Buffalo at 7.15 and Niagara Falls 8.15 P. M. Fare to Buffalo and return $3.50 and to Niagara Falls and return $4.00. Excursion tickets to Toronto and return, good for five days, via Lewistown & Niagara Navigation Co.'s Palace steamers can be obtained at Niagara Falls at the extremely low rate of $1.50. Buffalo and Niagara Falls tickets will be good returning on any regular train from Niagara Falls to Buffalo on or before Sept. 11th and from Buffalo on or before Monday, Sept. 12th. The Great Toronto Fair and Exposition will be held August 30th to Sept. 10th and promises to be bigger than ever this year. Do not miss it. Nothing like it in America. Absolutely the cheapest outing you can take and the most entertainment for the money. Do not forget the day and date, and for further particulars call on the nearest Agent of the Company. Highway Robbery. J. A. Guthrie, traveling salesman for the wholesale grocery house of Wm. K. Gillespie, of Pittsburg, was waylaid near DuBois about nine o'clock Monday night and robbed of $200.00. Mr. Guthrie left here before 8.00 to drive to DuBois and when within about one mile of that place four men stopped him, two of the men caught the horses by the bridles and the other two pointed revolvers at Mr. Guthrie and demanded his money. The agent tried to persuade the robbers that they had "held up" the wrong man, but they were not to be "bluffed" and one of them proceeded to go through Mr. Guthrie's pockets. The robbers secured $200.00 and then ordered Guthrie to be quick about driving away, and he was not slow in obeying their orders. Three of the men were dressed in dark suits and one had on a light suit. Four men, dressed that way, had been seen riding bicycles in the direction where the robbery occurred a half hour before Mr. Guthrie was "held up."
