

The Star.

Subscription $1.50 per year, or $1.00 if paid strictly in advance.

C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub.
WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1898.

An independent local paper, published every Wednesday at Reynoldsville, Jefferson Co., Pa., devoted to the interests of Reynoldsville and Jefferson county. Non-political, will treat all with fairness, and will be especially friendly towards the laboring class.

Subscription price $1.00 per year, in advance. Communications intended for publication must be accompanied by the writer's name, not for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. Interesting news items solicited. Advertising rates made known on application at the office in Froelich-Henry Block. Lengthy communications and change of advertisements should reach this office by Monday noon.

Address all communications to C. A. Stephenson, Reynoldsville, Pa.

The Oil City Blizzard says: "To court-martial a Spanish general because he did not whip the Americans, is like asking, 'Why can't the devil skate?'"

According to a recent ruling by Major and Quartermaster McCauley, soldiers on furlough can wear either their uniforms or civilian clothes, as they please.

Every woman in Reynoldsville expects to wear silk dresses in the near future, or as soon as the new silk mill is in operation.—Punxsutawney News. You bet. Come and see them.

The trouble with the man who doesn't smoke and spends his cigar money for other things, spends four times as much as his cigars would cost him.—Johnsonburg Breeze. Bro. Jones' conscience must be troubling him and he is trying to find consolation in believing the above statement.

The handsome new drinking fountain recently purchased for the corner of the court square was set up last week and is now in full operation. It is surprising how many people suddenly discover that they are thirsty when they see the silver stream of pure and cold spring water gushing forth.—Ridgway Advocate. Ditto here when we get our new fountain set up.

There has been some doubt as to the necessary revenue stamps required for marriage licenses, but from a recent ruling by Revenue Commissioner Scott it appears that the only internal revenue stamp required to be placed on papers relating to marriage licenses is a ten cent stamp. This must be affixed to the certificate given to the contracting parties by the officiating clergyman or magistrate.

State Dairy and Food Commissioner Wells has decided that the chemist of his department shall not be required to establish any method by which analysis of cider vinegar shall be made. The law requires that nothing but pure apple juice be used in the manufacture of cider vinegar and sixty days shall be given dealers to dispose of all adulterated stock. At the end of that time prosecutions will be made against all dealers in anything but the pure goods.

The casualties amongst coal miners are greater at all times in proportion to the number of men engaged than those of the present war, fever infected camps included. And yet there is little fuss made about it. We have become so much accustomed to reading of mine explosions, deadly fire damp accidents, and men being crushed to death by a fall of rock, that we look upon it as a matter of course and are not exercised about it. The men who take their lives in their hand and go into the bowels of the earth to meet all the dangers of deadly gases and falling rocks, are not generally looked upon as heroes, nor do they regard themselves as such. But they are heroes, and of the most useful and sincere type. There is no ostentation or ambition for glory about it. Their enthusiasm is not aroused by the blare of trumpets, the cheers of their companions and the roar of battle. They walk deliberately and quietly to meet death, and when they find their names are not emblazoned upon the scroll of fame, nor do they have any public monuments erected to their honor.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

The legislature at its last session for 1897 repealed the local laws for governing the collection of dog tax and the payment out of the same for losses sustained by owners of sheep which were killed by dogs. Prior to 1897 the dog tax was levied and collected by the local authorities, and the funds so accumulated were paid into the school treasury of each school district, and losses sustained by the killing of sheep by dogs were paid out of the moneys in the school treasuries in the several districts. The legislature of 1897 now puts the collection of the dog taxes under the jurisdiction of the county commissioners under and in pursuance of an act of the legislature passed in 1893. Hereafter no money for dog taxes shall be paid into school treasuries, nor losses for sheep out of such money, but the moneys collected for taxes on dogs will be paid into the county treasury, and the losses for sheep killed by dogs will be paid out of such treasury. The levy of the dog tax in cities will be levied by the city authorities and paid into the city treasury, and the losses of sheep from dogs killing them will be paid out of the moneys in the city treasury.

High School Bulletin.

EDITORIAL STAFF:
Editor-in-Chief, Will Smith, '99.
Asst. Editor, Elvin S. Coleman, '99.
Local Editor, Aida B. McIntire, '99.

What's this?
The board of editors.
What board of editors?

Why, the editors of the High School Bulletin. Through the kindness of THE STAR the High School has been tendered the free use of a special column to be known hereafter by the title above. In line with the progress of events, the rapid advancement of our schools, and especially of that unique organization known as the Reynoldsville High School, we have deemed it very fitting and highly necessary to take this step. Patrons of education are always interested in the welfare of our educational institutions. Parents are delighted to hear of the success of their children. All are anxious to know of happenings, important and unimportant, which go to make up the round of the student's daily toil and occupation. Now, here will be condensed or enlarged, described and chronicled items of interest, both important and unimportant. Don't laugh at all we do or say, nor scorn a coming smile away, when you are not delighted with our "sayings." Crude though our efforts be, don't notice all mistakes you see, but read on. Here we'll make our maiden, and boyish efforts, too, in the realm of scholastic journalism. [Well, now, you Sub-juniors who don't understand that, please don't mention it nor laugh and show your folly. When you arrive at the age of responsibility and acquire that appreciation of literary taste which comes to those of higher rank than you—Juniors and Seniors—the secret meaning of our learned style will be revealed to you. So read on.] No, we don't expect to perform like veteran editors, much less authors, at the start. So kindly pardon our errors and excuse our faults, though numerous they be. Here will be aired the literary art of writers who never wrote before. Here will be published attempts at composition on which, in riper years, we'll look with no small degree of regret that they were ever printed; yet again, with pride because they'll indicate the progress we have made. The books of Fate contain the names of those who shall be our future journalists, and are now taking up their pens for the first time. Frown on the youth—you may dampen the prospects of a hero. So, once again, be lenient, even though we oft trespass the bounds of literary propriety.

The present staff of editors for this column will hold office two months, when our places will be filled by others, more worthy than ourselves, we hope, to perform the arduous and responsible duties which have fallen to our lot.

The organizations of the High School have been very prompt in resurrecting themselves for a continuance of their work during the ensuing year, in the several fields for which they are designed. We are glad to present to those interested the officers of these progressive bodies.

LOCAL.
Class Officers, Class of '99—President, James Pentz; Vice Pres., Will Smith; Sec'y and Treas., Pearl Barto.
Class of '00—Pres., Clara Geisler; V. Pres., Ella Lenkerd; Sec'y, Lois Robinson; Treas., Bertha Marshall.
Shakespearean Literary Society Officers—Pres., James Pentz; V. Pres., Pearl Barto; Sec., Gertrude Deible. Critics, Prof. Breed, Florence Stone, Joe Mitchell. Program Com., Ella Lenkerd and Lydia Mellinger.

Miss Mollie McDonald was visiting in DuBois over Sunday.

A number of High School students rode to Falls Creek Thursday evening to attend the ox roast.

There was a fruit contest on Grant street one evening last week. A number of girls were eating grapes on a wager.

Prof. Lenkerd, Misses Lois, Caroline and Erma Robinson drove to DuBois Saturday.

The percentage of attendance for the High School juniors and seniors during the month is perfect. These classes are to be congratulated.

One month of school gone—seven more to come and go.

In the game of the Reynoldsville "Pirates" and DuBois "Indians" on the Reynoldsville grounds, and also in the contest of the former with Brookville last Saturday, the following school boys played for the home team: Leon Ferris, '01; Reynolds Gibson, '01; Harry Herpel, '00.

Wait till you see the Juniors' pins. Meetings are a daily occurrence for the '00's and very frequently their caucuses are disrupted by internal disorders of some kind or other, it is not known just what. The nature of the trouble might be inferred by a careful observation of an adjournment scene, when they reassemble in squads and talk it all over again. Never mind, though, they predict some pleasant surprises for us soon.

Lots of men's shoes on the counter at J. E. Welsh & Co.'s shoe store that you can get for a bargain.

Silk Mill Good for Girls.

The big silk mills of Williamsport have opened up a field for girls to earn a livelihood that has been taken advantage of by hundreds. It is understood, however, that there are not enough girls to fill all the places, and the two establishments here could accommodate several hundred more. As a result it is no longer an easy matter to secure a good girl for general housework, as most of them find more remunerative employment in the silk mills. Williamsport is considered a good place for girls, and as the silk industry increases it is probable that the manufacturers will find it necessary to invite girls from other localities to come here and earn good wages as silk weavers. This city is a safe place for them, and it is gratifying to know that we have such a splendid opening for female labor, and that the demand is constantly increasing.—Williamsport Bulletin.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bot. at H. A. Stoke's Drug Store.

A Last Opportunity.

The Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg Railway will run the last autumnal excursion of the season to Bradford Sunday, October 9th, leaving Falls Creek at 9.10 A. M. The autumn trip to Bradford, with a two day limit of ticket, affords an excellent opportunity of visiting friends and renewing old acquaintances in the Great Oil Metropolis of Western Pennsylvania. The low rate of $1.25 for the round trip does not occur often enough that you can afford to miss this, the last excursion of the season.

A Common Danger.

If you have ever had a cold which you permitted to "wear away" it may interest you to know that it was a dangerous proceeding. Every cold and cough which is neglected paves the way for consumption, bronchitis, asthma or catarrh. Otto's Cure, the famous German throat and lung remedy, will cure any cough or cold and save you from consumption. Call on H. Alex. Stoke and get a sample bottle free. Large size 25c. and 50c.

It is Humorous.

Miss Mary E. Wilkins' new serial is the humorous story of an up-to-date city woman who attempts to reform a quiet village and educate the people up to the latest fads of the town. It is called "The Jamesons in the Country," and its serial publication will be commenced in the next issue of The Ladies' Home Journal. It will have Mrs. Alice Barber Stephens as its illustrator.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by H. Alex. Stoke.

Letter List.

List of unclaimed letters remaining in the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Pa., week ending Oct. 1, 1898:
Franklin Cable, Miss Sara Enterline, Lydia Hiltan, Mrs. Austin Matthey, Patrick Morrison.

Say advertised and give date of list when calling for above.
A. M. WOODWARD, P. M.

Some Reynoldsville people are trying to raise money enough to erect a public drinking fountain to be put in the most convenient place. This is an excellent idea and one that Punxsutawney should imitate. A public drinking fountain erected in the "market place" would be a blessing to man and beast.—Punxsutawney News.

It takes cash to buy flour. You put down one dollar and ten cents and we will sell you a No. 1 sack of flour, and for one twenty-five we will sell as fine flour as in the city. We have dry goods, groceries, drugs, hardware, houses and lots, farms, horses and wagons all for sale. You can't go amiss here. J. C. KING & CO.

Common Pleas Court.

The list of cases set for trial at the September term of the Court of Common Pleas was finished last Wednesday morning, when the court adjourned. The verdicts in the cases disposed of were as follows:

Mary Hoch, et al., vs. McCalmont Township School District. Appeal. Jury disagreed and discharged. Case settled by the parties by a confession of judgment in favor of plaintiff for $45.

Harry McGregor vs. W. M. Fairman, et al. Assumpsit. Verdict for plaintiff for $45.47.

Cyrus Crabbs, for use, vs. C. W. Hile. Judgment opened. Verdict for plaintiff for $420 and interest from August 20, 1893.

Cyrus Crabbs, for use, vs. C. W. Hile. Judgment opened. Verdict for plaintiff for $840 and interest from December 20, 1893.

Betty Gould vs. J. M. Askey. Assumpsit. Verdict for plaintiff for $222.98.

J. William Gaul vs. Nancy Gaul. Divorce. Verdict in favor of libellant and that Respondent, Nancy Gaul, is guilty of adultery as specifically charged against her in the petition of libel filed in the case.

John Elkin, for use, vs. Catharine C. Harris, Executrix. Sci. Fa. Sur Judgment. Verdict for plaintiff for $98.73.

Frank Davis, vs. Theo. S. Wilkin, Trespass. This was an action brought by plaintiff against defendant to recover damages on account of injuries sustained in an accident on the mill of Heidrick, Matson & Co. in Brookville. Verdict for plaintiff for $162.50.

These cases were settled by the parties: N. G. Edelblute vs. Emma and Daniel Long, executors; R. W. Dinsmore vs. Lewis J. Grabe, et al.; Lon Pantall, cashier, vs. John Ronco, et al.

Reduced Rates to Pittsburg.

On account of the Knights Templar Triennial Conclave, to be held at Pittsburg, Pa., October 10 to 14, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets from stations on its line to Pittsburg and return at rate of single fare for the round trip, with minimum of 25 cents.

Tickets will be sold October 8 to 13, good to return until October 17 inclusive. The return limit of tickets from Harrisburg and points east thereof can be extended to October 31 upon depositing same on October 13 to 17 with the Joint Agent at Pittsburg and the payment of fifty cents.

On account of the Knights Templar Conclave at Pittsburg October 10th to 13th, the Allegheny Valley Railway will sell excursion tickets to Pittsburg and return October 8th, 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th, good to return until October 17th, for the following rates: Falls Creek $4.40, Panoast $4.30, Sherwood $4.25, Reynoldsville $4.20, Hopkins $4.10, Camp Run $4.05, Fuller $3.95, Iowa Mills $3.85, Brookville, $3.65. If the tickets are deposited with joint agent at Pittsburg not earlier than October 13th nor later than October 17th and on payment of fee of 50 cents return limit can be extended until October 31st.

Headache for Forty Years.

For forty years I suffered from sick headache. About a year ago I began using Celery King. The result was gratifying and surprising, my headaches leaving at once. The headaches used to return every seventh day, but thanks to Celery King, I have had but one headache in the last eleven months. I know that what cured me will help others.—Mrs. John D. VanKeuren, Saugerties, N. Y. Celery King for the Nerves, Stomach, Liver and Kidneys is sold in 50c. and 25c. packages by H. Alex. Stoke.

Excursions to Pittsburg.

The Allegheny Valley R'y will run excursions to the Pittsburg Exposition on Wednesdays, Sept. 14, 21, 28, October 5, 12 and 19th. Tickets for round trip from Reynoldsville, including admission to the exposition, $4.45. Tickets good for four days, including day of issue.
