Alex. Riston keeps the largest and finest line of guns in town. Call and get prices. He also handles ammunition.
Notwithstanding the strictness of the law, the small boys seem to have no trouble in getting cigarettes to smoke.
Cochlin Sisters can show you all the new styles, greatest variety and undoubtedly the lowest prices in millinery.
Mrs. Michael Cannon was buried in the Catholic cemetery Friday forenoon. Mrs. Cannon was almost a hundred years old.
Dr. S. C. Swallow, Prohibition candidate for Governor, will deliver an address at Sykesville on Saturday, October 22, beginning at 9.00 A. M. A good program has been prepared.
Fresh oysters received at Clark's restaurant, near postoffice, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Fresh oyster crackers always on hand.
Mrs. Sarah E. Rudolph vs. Clark Leach, of Rathmel, had a trespass case before Squire Neff's tribunal Thursday forenoon. The case was settled.
John Caylor, who was a charge on the Winslow township poor district, was buried in the Prospect cemetery Wednesday. He was 75 years old.

Richard Ramsey, Joseph Gelsler and Adam Miller, of this place, are in Pittsburgh this week with the DuBois Volunteer band.
G. C. O'Donnell and Mabel P. Sybert were united in marriage at the home of the bride, on Main street, yesterday by E. Neff, Esq.
Don't miss the opening of the silk mill next Monday. It may be your only opportunity, as the mill will be closed to the public after Monday.
Seven-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Sherwood, of West Reynolds, died Monday night. Remains will be buried at Sandy Valley this afternoon.
Dr. L. L. Means, of this place, has opened a dental office in Rathmel, in the room over Miss McKee's millinery store. He will be in Rathmel on Tuesday of each week.
Albert Gooder, brother of our townsman, Ed. Gooder, and Miss Gertrude Bethune, of Brookville, were married in the Catholic church at that place last Wednesday morning.
At the special meeting of the school board Friday evening it was decided not to open another room in the school building at present, and not at all if it can be arranged otherwise.
Two large pouches of letters were received at the post office in this place Monday morning. This is the largest batch of letters received at one mail since A. M. Woodward has become postmaster.
The thirteenth reunion of the 105th Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, will be held at Punxsutawney on Wednesday, October 19th. Persons desiring orders for excursion tickets can get same by asking S. E. Brillhart.
John C. Dillman, proprietor of Hotel Belnap, lost a valuable horse by death Friday morning. The horse had been sick several days. It was one of the new roan horses that Mr. Dillman recently purchased for his bus team.
Messrs. Small and Strawcutter, of this place, finished the Dickey school house last Tuesday and school began there the next day with forty-two scholars. This is evidence that more school accommodation was needed in that section.
In mentioning the special B., R. & P. train that was run to Pittsburgh Monday, the Courier says: "When the DuBoisites got aboard at Falls Creek fifteen cars were well filled." When the special arrived here it had ten cars, one of which was a baggage car.
The A. V. Ry pay car made its monthly trip over the road Monday, three days earlier in the week than usual. This was done to allow the paymaster and his assistants to get back to Pittsburgh Tuesday morning in time to see the big parade yesterday.
Evangelist Williams, of Beechtree, will preach in the Baptist church next Sunday. Morning subject: "Genesis, First Chapter—It's Moral Power." Evening: "Genesis First Chapter—It's Dispensational Power." Both subjects will be illustrated with a large oil painting.
R. M. Matson, of the R. M. Matson, Son & Co. brick works, of Falls Creek, was in town Saturday. This company has the contract of furnishing brick for the B., R. & P. near Punxsutawney. It will require 300 cars of brick for the tunnel and will take five months steady work to fill the order.
George B. Ayers and Frank E. Hartle were arrested last night on the charge of highway robbery. David Dacey was robbed two weeks ago Saturday night near Prescottville and that is the job charged against these young men. They were each one placed under $1,000 bail for their appearance at court.
Henry J. Wilson, Esq., of Big Run, Republican candidate for Assembly, was in Reynoldsville last Thursday looking after his political fences. Mr. Wilson is a bright young man, perfectly capable of representing the people of this county in the Legislative Halls of this Commonwealth, if elected to that position of trust.
Daniel Nolan was accidentally thrown out of his cart while driving up Main street Sunday morning. His right hand was injured and a piece of skin the size of a dollar was peeled off his right cheek. Mr. Nolan had his little child in his arms and in saving the child from injury he could not save himself.
The remains of Woodward Reynolds were buried in Beulah cemetery Thursday afternoon. Services were held at home of parents, conducted by Rev. W. F. Heber. A large crowd attended the funeral. The pall bearers were: Will P. Woodring, K. C. Schugars, Charles Feicht, Ammon Swartz, Bert Cox and Jack Gibson.
Mrs. Mary A. Fisher, wife of Philip Fisher, of St. Marys, died Tuesday, aged 55 years. Funeral Thursday morning. The deceased was the youngest sister of Wm. C. Schultze, of this place, and was a sister-in-law of Charles E. Burns, of this place. Wm. C. Schultze and wife, Maggie Schultze, Albert Schultze, Charles E. Burns, Sheriff Ed. C. Burns, Charles Burns, Jr., Harry Burns, Ida Burns and Mrs. D. W. Atwater were at St. Marys attending the funeral.

Dr. Swallow Coming.
Dr. S. C. Swallow and Volney B. Cushing will speak Thursday, October 20th, 1898, at Falls Creek 1 o'clock, P. M.; at Reynoldsville 4 o'clock P. M.; at Brookville 8 o'clock P. M. and at Punxsutawney Friday, October 21st at 1 o'clock P. M.
Rev. E. Cressman Dead.
Rev. E. Cressman, who was pastor of the Lutheran church several years and resigned in 1892 to accept the pastorate of the Lutheran church at Ridgway, died at his home in Ridgway suddenly Thursday evening from heart trouble. He had been out in the country and died in a few minutes after arriving at his home.
Rev. Hooper Resigns.
The members of the Baptist church met with a genuine surprise last Sunday when Rev. A. E. Hooper resigned the pastorate here to accept a call to the Baptist church in Reynoldsville, Pa. His congregation was, of course, taken by surprise at his unexpected resignation. During his short stay in Kingsville he has been a diligent and untiring worker. He will remain here for at least two more Sundays.—Kingsville Tribune.
Silk Mill Opening.
The silk mill at this place will be open for inspection on Monday next, October 17th, from 4.00 to 8.00 P. M. The expectations are that at this time the whole plant will be running, although silk will be woven on but a few looms. Warpers, winders and quillers will be in operation. The entire plant will be illuminated by electricity. Addresses will be made by prominent men. The Reynoldsville Keystone band will be invited to be present. All are invited to attend this opening and see the interior of one of the largest and finest equipped silk mills in the country.
Waiting for Seats.
The schools have not opened at Big Soldier yet on account of the failure of the seats arriving, and the directors don't know when they will get here. When the seats did not arrive on time the directors wrote to the house from whom the seats were bought and they received an answer that seats had been shipped and a tracer would be sent after them. After a reasonable length of time and seats didn't arrive, another letter was sent. In answer to this letter the company claimed that some of the material used in the manufacturing of seats had been in a railroad wreck and that they were delayed in getting order filled. So the directors are at sea. They look for the seats every day.
Goes to Johnsonburg.
Frank McGinnis, who has been working for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company two years and a half, and who has been very successful in that line of work, goes to Johnsonburg, Pa., next Monday to take charge of the office at that place for the above company. Not many months ago Frank was given a promotion here, but he now takes a step higher in responsibility and better wages, Frank is a hustler in the insurance business, which fact is appreciated by the Metropolitan company and that is the why of his promotion. Mr. McGinnis does not expect to move to Johnsonburg until about the first of December. George Camp, of Philadelphia, takes Mr. McGinnis' position at this place.
Assaulted and Robbed.
On Saturday night a foreigner who resides at Big Soldier was assaulted and robbed while on his way home from this place, after receiving his two weeks' pay. About eight o'clock three men on their way to Big Soldier passed three other men along the track near the latter place, who drew their hats down over their eyes as if to disguise themselves. A short time after eight the foreigner came along and was struck over the head with some hard instrument, supposed to have been a coupling pin, by some person or persons, possible the three men previously seen along the track. After striking the blow, which almost killed the man, his money, about seventeen dollars, was taken from him and his assailants made their escape.
In Pittsburgh This Week.
Reynoldsville is well represented in Pittsburgh this week. The following persons went on the special B., R. & P. Ry train that passed through here at 1.00 P. M. Monday: George Mellinger and wife, Ira Smith and wife, Henry Delbie and wife, T. C. Reynolds and wife, William Copping and wife, Lawrence J. McEntire and wife, Richard Smith and wife, Andrew P. Weitzel and wife, G. J. Corwin, Charles Herpel and wife and son, Harry, Mrs. Henry Herpel, Miss Amelia Morrow.
Those who went on regular trains Saturday and Monday: Will W. Wiley, Thomas Jennings, Mrs. John M. Hays and daughter, Phyllis, R. M. Morrison and daughter, Miss Fannie, of Beechwoods, Dr. C. C. Rumberger, Peter Burkhardt, Ed. Gooder, Joseph Hammond and wife, David Young and wife, J. J. Sutter and wife, G. W. Allen, David Metherwell, Robert Cameron, John H. Bell and wife and daughter, Miss Mary, Agnes Riston, Mrs. W. S. Ross and daughter, Miss Byrd, Mrs. E. Neff, Alex. Riston, Annie Norris, Mrs. Rufus Kirk, John Delaney and wife, H. Alex. Stokes, M. J. Coyle, George H. Mundorff, Ella Cox.

JAS. BURNS CRUSHED TO DEATH.
Was Caught Between Two Coal Cars at Big Soldier Yesterday.
James Burns, a young man who was employed in dropping cars over the Big Soldier scales, was instantly killed about 10.45 A. M. yesterday by being squeezed between two cars. No one saw the accident and it is not known how it happened. He was caught across the breast between the bumpers. He died a few seconds after the accident. The body was brought to Reynoldsville on a special train and taken to Priestor Bros' undertaking establishment. The coroner was unable to be here and Squire E. Neff empaneled a jury, as follows: C. C. Gibson, foreman, Ninian Cooper, George W. Stoke, Jr., C. J. Kerr, F. J. Weakley and Robert Williams, who viewed the body yesterday afternoon and adjourned to meet at 7.30 last evening to hear testimony. Three or four witnesses were heard and the jury adjourned to meet at nine o'clock this morning. The verdict will be accidental death.
The body was not badly mutilated. His left hand was cut off and there was a small hole in his right breast and one in his back, and the body was black and blue about eight inches across the breast and back—the width of the bumpers.
James Burns was the son of Charles Burns, sr., and a brother of Sheriff Ed. C. Burns. He was born in Reynoldsville August 12th, 1875, and was over 23 years old. "Jim," as he was called, was well liked by his associates. The announcement of his sudden death was a shock to the citizens of Reynoldsville, and when his body was taken into the undertaking establishment the scene was so sad that strong men assembled there mingled their tears with those of the father and brothers of the deceased.
Funeral services will be held in the Presbyterian church at 2.00 P. M. tomorrow, Thursday, conducted by the Episcopal minister from DuBois. Interment will be made in Beulah cemetery.
Meeker-Mitchell Nuptials.
At eleven o'clock Thursday forenoon, October 6th, at the residence of Lawyer C. Mitchell, on Grant street, in the presence of a few immediate relatives of the contracting parties, Miss Annie, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Mitchell, and G. Newell Meeker, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. E. M. Lightfoot, pastor of the Brookville Baptist church, performed the wedding ceremony, which was a very pretty and impressive one. After the usual congratulations, a sumptuous wedding dinner was in order. The bride received a number of presents. Mr. and Mrs. Meeker left on the 1.35 P. M. train for Homestead, Pa., their future abiding place.
Miss Annie Mitchell was one of Reynoldsville's finest young ladies, and it is not too much to say that Mr. Meeker has secured an excellent wife—a jewel. Miss Annie will be greatly missed in the home circle where she was more than an ornament.
Newell Meeker, who was in business in this place a few years ago, and is well and favorably known here, is now a promising young business man of Homestead.
THE STAR joins with Mr. and Mrs. Meeker's legion of friends in wishing them unlimited success and joyousness in life's journey together.
Those out of town who attended the wedding were: Thomas L. Mitchell and wife, James E. Mitchell and wife, of Kane, Frank Mitchell and wife, of Driftwood, Mrs. Wm. Mabon, of Marion Center, Pa., and Mrs. Merrill Meeker, of Brookville.
"Pirates" Skinned the "Tiger."
An aggregation of muscular young men of this place, who dub themselves the "Tigers," but whose football work shows no evidence of ferocity, undertook to lower the colors of the "Pirates" from Reynoldsville, on the Brookville gridiron, Saturday last, but they didn't get it accomplished. The young men from Silkmillville acted real rude, and wouldn't let our fellows have the ball, and they walked right through the "Tigers" like a colony of animal trainers. After 35 minutes Marquis of Queensberry slug-and-be-slugged the visitors counted up a comfortable margin of three touchdowns and two goals—17 points—while our hopefuls' sum total was expressed by that lone solitary figure which civilized man uses to signify the acme of "bumness"—0.—Brookville Republican.
Time of Holding Court Changed.
Judge John W. Reed has made an order changing the time of holding the regular terms of court in this county to the second Mondays of January, April, August and November. The change to go into effect the second Monday of January, 1899. Heretofore the several terms of court were held in February, May, September and December. The change was by the recommendation of the Jefferson County Bar Association.
Caution Notice.
Notice is hereby given that my wife, Ella Kallfelz, has left my bed and board without just cause, and I will not be responsible for nor pay any debts contracted by her.
MIKE KALLFELZ, Rathmel.
Special Sale
Of sailors, walking hats and children's hats Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Cochlin Sisters.
Special trimmed hats at Flo. Best's October 28 and 29.

TO VOTE FOR POOR FARM.
Judge Reed Has Made An Order Submitting the Question to the Voters.
For two years or more THE STAR has frequently advocated a poor farm for Jefferson county, and finally the matter was taken up and a petition to be presented to Judge Reed, requesting an order of court to submit the question of a poor farm to the voters of Jefferson county, was circulated in all the poor districts of the county and signed by all the poor overseers of the county with but a few exceptions, among whom were the poor overseers of this town. The petition was presented to Judge Reed and on the 22nd of last month and the Judge made an order as requested by the petition of the poor overseers, setting Tuesday, February 21st, 1899, as the day for the voters of Jefferson county to say whether the county shall have a poor farm or not. Following is the order of the court on the petition of the overseers:
"And now, September 22nd, 1898, upon due consideration of the within petition, it is ordered that the question of selecting and purchasing real estate, erecting thereon buildings, providing tools, machinery and stock, by the commissioners of Jefferson county, as they, in their judgment, may deem necessary, proper and sufficient for the purpose of furnishing relief to the poor, destitute and paupers of said county; giving them employment, etc., as provided in the act of June 4, 1879, be and the same is hereby submitted to the voters of the qualified electors of said county at an election to be held for that purpose on the third Tuesday of February next, to-wit, on the 21st day of February, 1899, between the hours of 7 o'clock A. M. and 7 o'clock P. M. of said day. Said election to be held at the respective places in the several election districts and precincts in said county fixed by law for holding the township, general and special elections, and to be held and conducted by the officers provided by law for holding elections in said respective voting districts and precincts within said county, and according to laws governing municipal and general elections within this Commonwealth; at least sixty days notice of said election to be given by the sheriff of said county, in two newspapers published within said county."
Town Council Should Wake Up.
We are fully aware of the fact that there is considerable work for councilmen to look after, when they perform their duties faithfully, and that they get more commendation than thanks for what they do, yet it is a position of trust given them by a vote of the people, and it should be carefully looked after. The meetings of the council are held the first Wednesday of each month, but there has not been a meeting of that honorable body in this borough since August. On the night of the regular meeting in September John H. Corbett and Henry Delbie were the only councilmen who were present, and of course they could not do anything. Last Wednesday, the regular night for the October meeting, these two councilmen, and town clerk, met again at the regular hour, 7.45 P. M., and at 9.00 Councilman Albert Reynolds made his appearance and the three councilmen and clerk waited until 10.00 and no other councilmen appeared, so there was no business transacted. It is likely that some of the councilmen can give good excuses for not being present, yet there ought not to be two meeting nights missed in succession. We mention this because a number of our townspeople have been wondering why the council was not looking after certain things, especially has this been the case with those interested in the sewers. It is to be hoped that our borough "dads" will not be so negligent about their official duties in the future.
