John Dixon, jr., of Prescottville, who works in Big Soldier, had his left arm badly squeezed one day last week by having it caught between a car and prop in the mine. A. Platt, Brookwayville. There will be no preaching services in the Presbyterian church October 30th and Nov. 6th. Parson Reber went to Fayetteville Monday and from there he goes into the state of matrimony to-morrow evening and will be absent two weeks. The boys accepted the invitation and were present. Hall & Barton at the new hardware store, Centennial hall building, take pleasure in announcing they are now ready for business and invite all to attend their opening on next Saturday, Oct. 29th. A useful household article presented to each lady calling. There was a large amount of ice put up in Reynoldsville last winter, but for some reason the supply was not sufficient for the demand. John C. Dillman, proprietor of Hotel Belnap, is the only hotel man in town who has not had to have ice shipped in from other places. The editor of THE STAR is thankful to James M. Clark, Chief of Bureau of Industrial Statistics, for a copy of annual report, part 3, the Secretary of Internal Affairs of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The report covers the manufacture of paper, with illustrations; the entire production of pig iron, steel, iron and steel rolled into finish form, and tin plate. It has been reported around town that the Keystone band boys wanted the $2.00 apiece to turn out and meet the soldier boys the evening they returned home. We have been requested to say that the report is false. The band would have gladly turned out free of charge if they had known when the soldiers would arrive in town. They did not know it until it was too late. The Schubert Glee Club, of Chicago, gave one of their delightful entertainments at the State Normal School and were greeted by the largest audience which has assembled in the school hall for a number of years. Each number received an encore which was cheerfully responded to, which fact in itself made them popular with their listeners.—Edinboro (Pa.) Independent, April 21, 1898. At Assembly Hall Friday evening. The "Pirate" foot ball team of this place went to Punxsutawney Wednesday and were defeated by the high school team of that place. Foster, Leon Ferris, Ford Fink, Frank Foley, "Dub" Sharp, Riley Burns, Fred Bohren, Willis Hoon, Frank Bohren, Reynolds Gibson, Joe Williams.

Annual Inspection Train.
The annual inspection train goes over the A. V. R'y to-day. Officials and section bosses of the road will be on the train.

Prohibition Meeting.
E. D. Nichols, of Wilkesbarre, Prohibition candidate for Lieutenant Governor, will deliver an address in Centennial hall at three o'clock next Sunday afternoon. It is claimed that Mr. Nichols is a good talker.

Woolen Mill Shut Down.
The large woolen mill at this place shut down Saturday night for a short time. The last order in was filled Saturday. While the mill is idle a new $2,000.00 machine—a condenser—will be added to the already well equipped plant.

A Special Thanksgiving.
Governor Daniel H. Hastings issued a proclamation last Thursday night setting apart Thursday, October 27th, as a day for special Thanksgiving to Almighty God for the great victories in the war with Spain. Governor recommends that special religious services be held in the usual places of worship.

Republican Meetings.
A Republican meeting will be held in Centennial hall on Wednesday evening, November 2nd. Congressman Hicks, of Altoona, and other prominent speakers will be present and address the people. A meeting will be held in P. O. S. of A. hall, Rathmel, Monday evening next. Prominent Republican speakers will be present.

Out of Season.
One day this week Miss Lucile Deible, while out on a suburban hill side, found some red raspberry bushes with ripe berries on them. Being such an uncommon thing to find at this time of year, Miss Lucile broke a few branches off and brought them to THE STAR office. The berries were as delicious as those that ripen in berry season.

Stroke of Paralysis.
Mrs. George Burtop, of Beechwoods, is lying at her home in a critical condition from a stroke of paralysis which she received on the night of the 16th inst. Mrs. Burtop's entire right side is paralyzed and her brain is affected. She has not spoken since she was paralyzed and has been living on a very small quantity of milk and chicken broth. Mrs. Burtop is about fifty-one years old.

Began Sawing Monday.
The latter part of August the big saw mill at Hopkins was compelled to shut down for want of logs, and the water was too low to get logs to the mill. The hard rains Friday and Saturday night raised the water in the Sandy Lick creek so that the logs that had been hauled from Rathmel to this place, over the R. & F. C. R'y, were floated down to the mill and on Monday the mill was started up again.

Asleep on Picket Duty.
Walter D. Williams, one of the soldier boys who arrived home from Porto Rico Wednesday evening, retired earlier than his brother, Robert, and when Robert got in bed Walter, who had been asleep, jumped up and stentoriously said: "Halt, there! Where are you going?" When sufficiently awakened to be convinced that "Bob" was not an enemy invading camp, Walter allowed him to pass over into the "land of nod."

Will Not Open Another Room.
Considering the fact that there were 79 vacant seats in the rooms already open in the public school building, the directors decided not to put an extra expense upon the tax-payers of the borough by opening a new room to relieve the overcrowded condition of some of the rooms, but to re-grade the school. The re-grading may cause a little dissatisfaction among some of the pupils, but it ought not to affect the schools, and it will be quite a saving to the tax-payers.

His Health Failed.
Roy Bartle, who enlisted about the first of September when recruits were gathered up for battery K, Fourth Artillery, and was sent to Sheridan Point, W. Va., was discharged from service last Wednesday on account of poor health, and arrived at his home in this place Thursday morning. Roy had the fever and was in the hospital most all the time he was away. He looks bad, but the bracing atmosphere of this section will soon restore him to health, we hope. He has the privilege of enlisting again when he regains his health if he desires to do so.

Swallow Was Here.
Dr. Silas C. Swallow, dubbed the "fighting parson," the Prohibition candidate for gubernatorial honors, delivered an address in Centennial hall Thursday afternoon to a good sized audience, considering the hour of the meeting. Dr. Swallow and Volney B. Cushing were to address the meeting, but Mr. Cushing did not remain for the meeting here. He drove to Brookville to open the meeting at that place at 8.00 P. M., and Dr. Swallow went down on the evening train. Dr. Swallow did not abuse the Republican and Democratic parties, but he did talk plainly of the bosses, more especially of Senator Quay. There are quite a number of Democrats and Republicans here who say they will vote for Swallow for governor.

Gets Married To-Morrow.
Rev. W. F. Reber, the talented young pastor of the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church, will be married at 8.00 P. M. to-morrow, Thursday, to Miss Jane Renfrew Greenwalt at the home of Hon. H. C. Greenwalt, the father of the soon-to-be Mrs. Reber, at Fayetteville, Pa., in the presence of a number of invited guests. Rev. Reber and bride will spend Thursday night at Harrisburg and on Friday will start on a two weeks' wedding trip. Among the places they will visit will be Washington, D. C., Newark, N. J., and Pittsburg. They expect to arrive in Reynoldsville Thursday, Nov. 10th. From persons who are acquainted with Miss Greenwalt we learn that she is an estimable lady, highly educated, refined, pleasant and possesses a sweet disposition. The Presbyterian parsonage is being repaired and fixed up for the pastor and his bride.

Wagon Bridge on Fourth Street.
We mentioned last week that a foot bridge had been built across the Sandy Lick at foot of Fifth street, and did not know at the time that a bridge large and strong enough to drive teams over was to be built across the Sandy Lick creek at foot of Fourth street. The bridge is completed. A sidewalk is to be built down Fourth to bridge. The wagon bridge and foot bridge were both built by subscription. There is a rivalry among some of the citizens as to which street shall be opened to silk mill, Fourth or Fifth.

Will Mohney Dead.
Will Mohney, formerly of Rathmel, died at Eleanor's, Saturday at the age of 23 years, 8 months and 2 days. His remains were taken to Rathmel Monday afternoon and funeral services were held in the M. E. church at that place. Interment was made in Beulah cemetery. Will Mohney was a member of the Rathmel P. O. S. of A. and that organization turned out in a body to the funeral. Six members of the P. O. S. of A. went to Eleanor and acted as pallbearers for their deceased brother.

Buried in Beulah Cemetery.
George Hirst, aged 12 years, 4 months and 21 days, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Hirst, of Tyler, and grandson of Mrs. Joseph Butler, of Grant street, died at Tyler at 10.45 A. M. Friday, from pneumonia. His remains were brought to Reynoldsville on the 8.05 P. M. train Saturday and taken to the residence of Mrs. Butler, where funeral services were held at 2.00 P. M. Sunday, conducted by Rev. W. F. Reber. Interment was made in Beulah cemetery. George had been an invalid for seven years.

Captured a Rochester Audience.
The Schubert Glee Club, of Chicago, completely captured the audience at the Lyceum Theatre last evening. The audience itself was a good natured one, and very persistent. The excellent work by the Club was rewarded by the applause of the listeners.—Rochester (New York) Chronicle, March 21, 1898. At Assembly hall Friday evening.

SOLDIER BOYS AT HOME.
Arrived Wednesday Evening—Company L Will be Given a Reception Here.
"On the tossing Minewaska Came the Pennsylvania troops From the region where the soldiers Live on red tomato soups." Walter D. Williams, Jay W. Evans, Herbert R. Burns, H. Fred Stauffer and James Foley, members of Company L, 16th Reg., P. V. L., who left their homes in this place on the 13th of July, returned last Wednesday evening. Their friends were delighted to see them return home again. The boys were mustered in at Punxsutawney July 15th and on Saturday, July 16th, started for Chieamuga, Ga., where they remained in camp until July 27th and were moved to Newport News. August 17th the company was moved to Middletown, Pa., where they camped until September 13th and were ordered to Porto Rico. They sailed from New York for Porto Rico on 14th of September and arrived at Ponce, Porto Rico, September 22nd. October 11th the 16th left Ponce for the return trip and arrived in New York on the 17th inst. The voyage to Ponce was a very rough one, as they encountered a heavy storm at sea. The return voyage was smooth and pleasant, but food was scarce and the supply of meat had to be thrown overboard. The boys arrived here at 8.00 P. M. Wednesday and were given an excellent supper at Hotel Imperial by Wiley and Switzer, proprietors of that hotel. Had it been known in time when they would arrive the band would have been out to meet them. During Company L's nineteen-day stay in Porto Rico it rained every day but three. The first week the soldiers had to sleep on the wet ground. Had it not been that the Reynoldsville boys were robust chaps they would not have returned looking as well as they do, for they endured considerable hardship. The 16th regiment is in Philadelphia this week assisting in the Peace Jubilee. The Reynoldsville boys went to Punxsutawney yesterday and the company goes to Philadelphia to-day. The Sons of Veterans and Woman's Relief Corps of this place will give all members of Company L a reception and banquet in the Bell hall as soon as it can be arranged for after the company returns from Philadelphia.

Won't be Mustered Out.
A regular army man, who keeps in close touch with military affairs, expresses the opinion that the Sixteenth regiment will not be mustered out until its term of service expires. He bases his opinion upon the general indications. He reasons that the war department has reduced the volunteer army as much as is believed to be safe under the circumstance of uncertainty regarding the peace negotiations. No more regiments are being mustered out and the department has signified its purpose to retain in service all regiments now on the rolls. Furthermore, the Sixteenth stands high in favor on account of its record and soldierly qualities, and the department was reluctant to order it home. The gentleman referred to says it is quite likely that after the 60-day furlough has expired the regiment will be sent south into camp and later on ordered to Cuba as part of the army of occupation.—Ridgway Democrat.

Dissolution Notice.
The partnership heretofore existing between A. Z. Snyder and J. O. Johns, in merchant, tailoring business in Reynoldsville under the firm name of Snyder & Johns, has been this, 17th of October, 1898, dissolved by mutual consent, J. O. Johns retiring from the firm. The business will be conducted by A. Z. Snyder, who will collect all accounts due the late firm. A. Z. SNYDER, J. O. JOHNS.
