NUMBER 31.

Big Reduction! Your Opportunity!

Here is your opportunity to get good Shoes at a big reduction. Don't miss it.

Bargains In Shoes

I am now closing out my stock of Ladies' Coin Toe $2.50 Shoes for $1.75, and Men's Box Calf, Coin Toe, $3.50 Shoes, for $2.50. These shoes are first-class and a big bargain for the people who buy them.

I handle a fine line of the latest style in ladies' and gents' shoes which I am selling at a small profit. Call and see my stock before buying your shoes.

JAMES K. JOHNSTON, Nolan Block.

Handy Tools

are more than convenient; they're necessary. You want tools, and you want good ones, too. In our stock of hardware we carry the best tools made in this or any other country. It's a maxim in hardware that the better the article the better it pays to buy it. There's value in such goods and you want value for your money. To insure that we confine our stock to top grade. Don't go elsewhere for something that's too poor even for a gift.

Reynoldsville Hardware Co.

A. D. DEEMER & CO.

LOCAL.

The following persons visited the schools on Parent's and Patron's Day—last Thursday: Mrs. Daniel Nolan, Mrs. C. N. Lewis, Mrs. Lindsey Carl, Mrs. Wm. McCreeght, Mrs. James McCreeght, Mrs. Edward O'Reilly, Mrs. Dennis Bolger, Mrs. A. Katzen, Mrs. Elmendorf, Mrs. Griffiths, Miss Zola Griffiths, Robert Lusk, Wallace Mitchell.

We would advise some of the Subs to be a little careful in the manner in which they sit down and not shake the building so much.

There were no visitors in the High School on Parent's and Patron's Day.

Miss Alda McEntire has broken the attendance record of the Senior class. She has typhoid fever.

Wm. Hawley Smith visited the High School Friday morning.

Scholars get ready for murderation, i. e., examination.

Sub-Junior number 11 brings a small looking-glass to school every day so he may gaze at Sub-Junior No. 3 without looking around.

Friday, Dec. 16th, was the day for election of officers in the Shakespearean Literary Club. Those elected were, President, Will Smith; vice-pres., Maggie Davis; sec., Joe Mitchell; program com., Frankie King, Mollie McDonald; critics, Prof. Lenkerd, James Pentz and Gertrude Deible.

The Subs held a reception Tuesday, Dec. 13.

There will be no BULLETIN during vacation.

Some of the girls of the High School have such long feet that a person can count ten after they have set their heel down before their toes come in contact with the floor.

Jr. No. 9 has a peculiar pronunciation, especially in Latin. "Caesar" is Greaser. The champion ice-cutter has returned to school.

Two Jrs., Nos. 2 and 3, while out star gazing the other evening, a flash of lightning appeared and the one exclaimed, "Oh! look at the sheet-lightning. A minute later a smaller flash came from the same cloud and the other exclaimed, "Oh! look at the pillow-case lightning."

Did you see that? No, what? Why, that school director's meeting. Some Subs weigh a ton when they are angry.

We would advise some of the members of the High School to learn how to cut bread without cutting a finger or thumb.

Miss Lois Robinson is on the sick list.

Candy, Candy, Candy.

We have it. All kinds and prices, from 10c. to 25c. per lb., all fresh from the factory. Don't forget the place, at Clark's, next door to postoffice.

How to Look Good.

Good looks are really more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the liver is inactive you have a bilious look; if your stomach is disordered, you have a dyspeptic look; if your kidneys are affected, you have a pinched look. Secure good health and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good Alternative and Tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils, and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at H. A. Stoke's Drug Store. 50 cents per bottle.

A full line of men's dress gloves 50c. to $2.00 at Seely's.

The cheapest place to buy your holiday presents and toys for the little ones is at the Reynolds Drug Store.

When in town stop at Clark's restaurant and get a good cup of coffee or a bowl of soup, or a sandwich. Country produce bought and sold.

Santa Claus could do no better than load up with goods at our store. Look at the prices: Cook stoves $10.00, coal heating stoves $4.00, gas heating stoves $1.50, beautiful oil stoves $1.80.

HALL & BARTON.

You will find a bargain counter at J. E. Welsh & Co.'s shoe store.

If you want to save money, buy your men's and boys' overcoats at Deemer & Co.'s.

Millirens have Dr. Wright's Medicated Fleece-lined underwear.

Now is the time to select your Christmas presents. Go and see Gooder's swell line of holiday goods.

The next G. A. R. Encampment will be held in Philadelphia September 4 to 9, 1899. The "City of Brotherly Love" will give the old veterans a royal reception.

Rathmel.

A. L. Keagle and wife visited at Anita last Sunday.

The Sons of Temperance has been organized at this place.

There are a number of cases of diphtheria reported at this place. One that is known as the black diphtheria.

Edward Bowser, of Bag Dad, is visiting friends at this place.

G. L. Haven, who has been at Johnstown for sometime, was seen on our streets last week.

W. A. Loading, who has lived here for ten years, moved to Reynoldsville last week. Mr. Loading is employed by the Jefferson Supply Co. as book-keeper.

The new store of the Jefferson Supply Co. is now under roof and the inside work is being finished as speedily as possible.

Mr. Archie Wyant lost a valuable horse last Friday. Dr. Hoffman, of Brookville, after examination, said the horse had eaten something poison.

John Blakly has sold his property here and moved his family near Punxsutawney.

A. L. Marshall, who has been away from here for more than a year, returned home last week.

A brass band has been organized here with Joe Walker as leader.

A sleighing party from DuBois stopped at Hotel Hughes one evening last week and was going to "do up" some of our boys but they got left.

Rev. E. A. Bishop, D. D., president of the Chamberlain Institute, of Randolph, N. Y., lectured in the M. E. church Sunday evening.

The schools will be closed until after the holidays at least on account of so much sickness.

There will be preaching in the Church of God next Sunday morning and evening.

For Sale.

"Frank's New Tavern," stable, ice house and other buildings. House refitted and furnished. All modern improvements, closets, bath, &c. Almost three town lots. Reasons for selling, falling health. F. A. MCCONNELL.

Stockholders' Meeting.

The regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank of Reynoldsville, Pa., for the election of Directors for ensuing year, will be held in the Banking Room on Tuesday, January 10th, 1899, at 3.00 P. M.

JOHN H. KAUCHER, Cashier.

Four farmers' institutes will be held in Jefferson county next month, during the week beginning January 16th, at Paradise, Allens, Mills, Ringgold and Roseville.

The legislature will convene at Harrisburg the first Monday in January.

Everybody can afford to get a Bible this year, selling at cost at The Reynolds Drug Store.

Silver teaspoons that are guaranteed, from $1.00 up, at Gooder's jewelry store.

Cook stoves $10.00 and up, heating stoves, $4.00 and up, gas heaters $1.50 and up, oil heaters $1.50 and up, bachelor's stoves $5.00 and up at Hall & Barton's.

Special sale of Bibles during the holidays at The Reynolds Drug Store.

No old stock at Gooder's, everything new and up-to-date.

Men's overcoats from $5.00 to $15.00 at Seely's.

A large party of young people from Reynoldsville, composed entirely of employees at the new silk mill, arrived in DuBois Tuesday evening and took supper at the People's restaurant. They returned home about midnight.—DuBois Express.

A large new line of men's, youths' and boys' clothing cheaper than ever at Deemer & Co.'s.

Gooder watch work is guaranteed to give satisfaction.

French briar pipes and smokers' articles of all kind at Riston's.

Have you seen the new line of cross stripes in shirts at Millirens.

Holiday Excursion Rates.

In accordance with the usual custom the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh Railway will issue excursion tickets between all stations on its line, account Christmas and New Year's holidays, at a fare and one-third for the round trip. Tickets to be sold and good going on December 23, 24, 25, 26, 30 and 31, 1898, and January 1 and 2, 1899, limited for return passage until January 3rd, 1899.

The Allegheny Valley Railway Company will sell excursion tickets for the holidays on December 23, 24, 25, 26 and 31, 1898, and January 1 and 2, good for return trip until January 3rd, 1899.
