A Little of Everything.

Yes, the days is gittin' longer, and I reckon pretty nigh Half the winter was sild past us, kinder prambulating by. Afore we're rally 'quainted with it—sorter bluffin' at a freeze. Then turn 'round and rain, a-makin' nearly all creation sneeze. Ketch a little cold and bust it with a dose of old quinine. And a sweat, and dress up heavy, and the sun is shone to shine. Hot enough for sproutin' viliets; leave yer coat to home, and then BIF comes up a cold nor'wester, freezin' of yer up again. —Chicago Record. Robinson's shoes take the lead. Six inches of snow fell last evening. Bicycle agents will soon be numerous. Washington's Birthday next legal holiday. Some fine shoats for sale at the Bon Ton bakery. Big reduction in clothing and shoes at Millirens. Go to W. T. Cox's grocery store for fresh shredded wheat. Call and see the bargains at J. E. Welsh & Co.'s shoe store. Now is the time to save money on shoes. All odd pairs for less than cost at Robinson's. It is disgraceful the way Millirens have slaughtered prices on clothing, hats and shoes. Rose jelly takes the lead for sores and burns. For sale by J. E. Smith, Prescottville, Pa. A commercial man came to town yesterday who carries seventeen large trunks with him. Wanted—A man to take care of a team of horses and do general work. Inquire at THE STAR office. Just think of it! Men's box calf and patent calf shoes, worth $5.00, our cut price only $1.50. Robinson's. L. F. Hetrick, the butcher, kills the best of country cattle. If you want good, tender meat, buy from him. At the regular sales meeting of the Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association Monday evening $5,200 were sold. Undertaker John M. Hays had a tussle with the grip and it left him with a lame back. He was not able to attend the funeral of Mrs. Fugate yesterday and Thomas Evans had charge of the funeral. "Will you please insert this obituary notice?" asked an old gentleman of an editor. "I am bold to ask it because the deceased has a great many friends here who would be glad to hear of his death." At the regular meeting of John C. Conser W. R. C. Friday evening, January 20th, a vote of thanks was extended to all who took part in the "Drummer Boy of Shiloh." Also to those who loaned property or assisted in any way towards making the entertainment a success. Following is a list of officers that were installed in Confidence Lodge No. 344, K. of P., in Rathmel by District Deputy W. S. Weaver: C. C., James Roberts; V. C., E. L. Moore; Prelate, August Jacob; M. at A., Ed. Taube; M. of W., Jacob Morningstar; Inside Guard, William Tucker; Outside Guard, George Roberts.

The Prohibitionists of Reynoldsville borough will hold their primary meeting for nominating candidates for the borough offices in Centennial hall Friday, January 27, 1899, at 8.00 P. M. James V. Young has purchased the machinery for the large planing mill he will start at this place the coming spring, the particulars of which were published in THE STAR two weeks ago. Travel on the B. R. & P. afternoon train between this place and Falls Creek is increasing. This train hauls more passengers now than the noon trains on the same road. It is a convenient train. An Italian tried to move from this place to DuBois last week without paying his taxes, but he didn't escape from Tax Collector Cox, although that official had to stop the Ike's household goods until the taxes were paid. M. C. Coleman, of this place, and "Squire" J. L. Long, of Sykesville, who were appointed by the court to view a two and a half mile road near Sykesville, performed that work last week. Eli Coulter, of Poxsuttawney, was the surveyor. J. W. Dempsey, who has been assisting Joseph Shaffer, the Adams Express Agent, a few weeks, got his right leg so badly pinched while loading a truck on the express wagon at the silk mill Friday that he has been compelled to stay close to the house since. W. J. Shaffer, with the assistance of G. Willey Llycd, special agent for the Central Accident Insurance Co., has written two hundred and fifty thousand dollars insurance in Reynoldsville the last twelve days. This certainly speaks volumes for the company these gentlemen represent. The latter part of last September Kate Floyd, of Pittsburg, and Jeremiah McKee, of this place, were married in Pittsburg. Yesterday Mrs. McKee packed her belongings and returned to the "Smoky City" where she will take up her residence as before she was married in September. The Executive Committee of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Jefferson county meets in the Methodist Episcopal church in this place to-day. There will be two sessions to-day, this afternoon and evening, and three sessions to-morrow, forenoon, afternoon and evening. The Marion Center Independent issued a handsome supplement last week in the shape of a book in which are a number of half-tone pictures of buildings and individuals of Marion Center, and a good write-up of the town. C. R. Griffith, the editor and proprietor of the Independent, is a good newspaper man and he gets out a good country weekly. Herbert A. Sprague, the impersonator, presented the play of "Rip Van Winkle" in Assembly hall last Friday evening to a large audience. This was the fourth entertainment in the public school course. The last one of the course will be given by Rev. Thomas McLary Friday evening, February 24th. Rev. McLary's subject will be "Sunshine in Labor." William C. Murray, one of the present county commissioners, was in town the latter part of last week. Mr. Murray has proven himself to be a competent man for the position of public trust he now holds. The people generally have nothing but kind words to say of him as a man and official. The present commissioners are carefully looking after the interests of the county. A young man of this place engaged Dr. C. C. Rumberger to marry him after the 4.39 P. M. train arrived here last Thursday, the young lady was to arrive on that train. Dr. had intended going to Craigville to visit his father, but he postponed the visit to perform the marriage ceremony. The time arrived but the young man did not put in his appearance with, or without, the young lady. W. J. Shaffer, candidate for Register and Recorder, at the June primaries, on the Republican ticket, paid THE STAR a visit on Saturday. Mr. Shaffer is well known in this community, having sold cigars for the R. W. Jenkinson Co. in this territory for nearly eight years. Mr. Shaffer, if elected, will certainly do his duty, as he has always enjoyed a reputation for honest dealing and strict integrity. C. F. Hoffman, the jeweler, has sold his English setter dog, Rex, to B. Frank Hall, of St. Marys. Mr. Hall has been trying to buy the dog for sometime, but Mr. Hoffman did not want to part with Rex. Mr. Hall came over last Thursday and bought the dog, giving $50.00 cash and a Gordon setter pup for him. Mr. Hall is going south in a few weeks on a hunting expedition and that is why he was so anxious to get the dog. Rex is an excellent hunter. Judging from the number of sidings the B. R. & P., is putting in between here and Falls Creek preparation is being made to accommodate far more than the present traffic. At one or two points there are six parallel tracks and many of them are a mile long. Between the two points the road controls enough ground on which to lay twenty miles of sidings if necessary. Considerable filling has to be done all along, but at the rate it has been going the bottom will be before long a network of rails.—DuBois Courier.

Pastor Resigns. Rev. Edward Haecker, who has been pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church in this place nine months, has resigned his pastorate here. He will preach his farewell sermon on Sunday, February 4th. May Lose an Eye. A. L. Sheesley, an energetic young man of Paradise, met with an accident while cutting props one day last week which may cost him the sight of his right eye. A chip struck him in the eye. Cuban Letter. In this issue of THE STAR will be found a very interesting letter from Camp Columbia, Cuba, that was written by Capt. Robert B. Beer, of Co. H, 3rd Neb. V. I., to his mother, Mrs. R. D. Beer, in West Reynoldsville. Unique Chair. Wesley Motter, who is a first-class carpenter, has made a pretty and unique rocking chair out of an old spinning wheel, which was an heir-loom handed down to Mrs. Motter. The spinning-wheel-chair is not only a useful piece of furniture but it still preserves the heir-loom for Mrs. Motter. Sued County for Damages. George W. King, of Summerville, whose five-year-old son, Harry, is supposed to have fallen off the county bridge at Summerville in January, 1898, and was drowned, has sued the county for $5,000 damages. The case will come up at the April term. Odd Fellows' Sign. A sign made up of the four letters, "I. O. O. F.," was put on the Reynoldsville Hardware Co.'s new building Monday morning by Reynoldsville Lodge No. 824. The letters of the sign are 18 inches high, block letters, with the front bronzed and sides red. It is an attractive sign and it is in keeping with the quarters the Odd Fellows will soon occupy on the third floor of the building. Special Meetings. The special meetings are still in progress in the Presbyterian church. The meetings are well attended and quite an interest is manifested. Several have united with the church on profession of faith. Rev. Kerr, of Pittsburg, who assisted Rev. Reber last week, is a brilliant young man and the people were well pleased with his preaching. This week Rev. C. W. Cherry, of Natrona, is assisting Rev. Reber. He is a very able preacher. Killed on Railroad. Ralph Beck, seven-year-old son of J. W. Beck, of Summerville, was killed by a passenger train at noon last Wednesday. Ralph was on his way home from school for dinner when the accident occurred. A freight train was doing some shifting on the siding and the boy was watching the freight train and stepped on the track in front of the passenger train and was struck by the pilot and thrown several feet. His skull was crushed. He lived about four hours after the engine hit him. Died in Buffalo. George I. Miles, youngest son of Robert L. Miles of this place, died suddenly in Buffalo, N. Y., last Saturday of apoplexy. The young man had not been staying at home the past fifteen years. Last year he spent several months here, leaving about Thanksgiving. He was a railroader. He was thirty-one years old the 5th of last October. His parents did not learn of his death until Monday noon and yesterday Robert Miles went to Buffalo, where the remains will likely be buried to-day. "Cuba and the Maine." Rev. Joseph A. Kluecker, of Oswego, N. Y., a popular and eloquent advocate of temperance, will deliver two illustrated lectures in Centennial hall, Reynoldsville, on Thursday and Friday evenings of next week, February 2nd and 3rd. The subject Thursday evening will be, "Cuba and the Maine." Rev. E. Davis, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Rome, Pa., in speaking of Rev. Kluecker and his entertainment, says: "As a speaker the reverend gentleman has qualities which are seldom met with and the pictures are exceptionally clear—that of the Maine alone being worth the price of admission. Entertainment begins at 8.00 P. M. Admission 10 cents. Gone to Brookville. Dr. Reid Wilson, of this place, who opened a dental office in DuBois about one year ago, will hereafter be found doing business in Brookville. Saturday he purchased the office of Dr. Chester Lowery, who committed suicide several weeks ago, and Monday morning Dr. Wilson opened the office for business. We have been told by persons in Brookville that Dr. Lowery had the best equipped dental office to be found outside of the large cities. Dr. Lowery also had a large practice, which, no doubt, Dr. Wilson will be able to retain, as he thoroughly understands the dental business, therefore, Dr. Wilson is to be congratulated on securing a fine office and stepping into such a large practice. The people of Brookville will find him an honest, upright and trustworthy young man. We wish him success. He will sell his office in DuBois.

Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the Pennsylvania State Editorial Association was held in the parlors of the Loecheil Hotel, Harrisburg, last Wednesday. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, R. B. McKee, Freeport Journal; first vice-president, W. C. Kreps, Greenacres Press; second vice-president, A. P. Burke, Philadelphia Ledger; third vice-president, Cyrus T. Fox, Reading Times; secretary and treasurer, Col. R. H. Thomas, Mechanicsburg Farmer's Friend; assistant secretary, R. H. Thomas, Jr., Mechanicsburg; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. W. Stoffer, Middletown Chronicle. "Bob" McKee, the new president, is a jovial fellow and will make a good president of the Association. There was some talk of the summer outing this year being to Washington, D. C., and home via Gettysburg. If this trip is made it should not be later than the last week in May or first week in June. He Prayed Too Late. "Mack" Springer, the colored chap who was convicted of larceny at the criminal court this month, and who made an attempt to escape a few days before being removed from county jail, was taken to the penitentiary last Friday by Sheriff Burns. "Mack" got a religious streak the night before he was taken to the "pen" and did considerable praying. He prayed for the Lord to help and deliver him out of his present predicament. He didn't want to go to the penitentiary. "Mack's" religious inclinations did not seize him soon enough. Had he been in a praying mood before he committed the larceny he would have escaped the "pen." Repenting of a criminal act after it has been committed is a little late for repentance with expectation of obtaining mercy from the court or an answer to prayer for deliverance. Candidates for Nomination. At the Republican suggestion meeting held in Hose House No. 2 Monday evening, the following persons were suggested for the primary next Saturday: Council—A. J. Pierce, J. H. Corbett, W. F. Marshall, F. D. Hoover. School directors—W. S. Stone, C. N. Lewis, U. G. Scheafnocker, Dr. B. E. Hoover. Constable—John Hawlett. Borough constable—Jacob Henninger. Auditor—C. C. Gibson, Thos. J. White. Poor overseer—John Trudgen, George Warnick, James Campbell. Judge of election, 1st pre.—J. C. Ferris. Inspector, 1st pre.—L. W. Scott. Judge of election, 2nd pre.—T. C. Reynolds, W. H. Ford. Inspector, 2nd pre.—J. C. Barto. Register, 1st pre.—Edwin Hoare. Register, 2nd pre.—J. C. Barto. Marriage Licenses. The following marriage licenses were issued the past week by John S. Barr, Clerk of Courts of Jefferson county: George McClelland and Sophia Grafius, both of Poxsuttawney. John H. Olson, of Corsica, and Annie Royer, of Clarinton, Forest county, Pa. Lester M. Sibley and Nancy Esther Steel, both of Sugar Hill. Ezra R. Chambers and Nora V. Comroy, both of Waller. James Tovey and Elizabeth Ann Tucker, both of Reynoldsville. J. H. McQuown, of Poxsuttawney, and Minnie B. Faulk, of Ringgold. Upset on Main Street. Mrs. S. M. Gourley had a narrow escape from serious injury or death last Thursday. She was driving Mr. Gourley's young roan horse, which had not been out of the barn for several days and was feeling unusually frisky, and the animal became unmanageable on Main street and collided with the rear end of a wagon that was standing near Hannau's dry goods store. The buggy was upset and Mrs. Gourley was protected from a hard fall by the buggy top being up. Fortunately for her, when the buggy struck the wagon portions of the buggy gave way and the horse ran without dragging her along in the buggy top. Experience Meeting. Following is the program of the entertainment to be given by the Ladies' Work Society in the Presbyterian church next Monday evening, January 30th: Selection..... Male Quartette Experiences from Five Ladies. Recitation..... Miss Edna Myers Song..... Experiences..... G. W. Palen Recitation..... Miss Edna Boyd Selection..... Male Quartette Experiences..... Miss Lizzie Bond Song..... I. B. Arnold Recitation..... Annie Harding Adults 10 cents, children 5 cents. Not Good After Feb. 1st. All prize cards and due bills against A. D. Deemer & Co. will not be good after February 1st. A. D. DEEMER & CO. As usual this is the month that Millirens give big bargains. If you're looking for bargains in shoes, you have only to go to Robinson's. Oysters only 25c. per qt. at the Bon Ton bakery. Oxfords for 50 cents per pair on J. E. Welsh & Co.'s bargain counter.

Death from Pneumonia. Isaac J. Merideth, one of the brothers who recently started the large brick plant at Merideth, three or four miles west of Reynoldsville, died at that place Wednesday morning from pneumonia and brain trouble. He had only been sick one week. He was a member of John M. Reed Masonic lodge of this place and had attended lodge the Tuesday night of the week before he died. He remained in Reynoldsville all night, returning home Wednesday morning and soon after his arrival at home he was so ill that a doctor was sent for. He gradually grew worse and the next Wednesday morning he was dead. The deceased leaves a widow and three small children. It was Mr. Merideth's intention to build a fine residence at Reynoldsville this year and move his family here and travel to and from Merideth on the morning and evening trains, but the Grim Reaper frustrated all his plans. The deceased was born in Clarion county November 11th, 1862, making him 36 years years old last November. The remains were taken from Merideth to Bellview Saturday morning where the funeral services were held in the United Presbyterian church, conducted by Rev. C. C. Rumberger, pastor of the M. E. church of this place. The pall-bearers were all Masons and all members of the Masonic lodge of this place except Dr. C. C. Rumberger, as follows: Charles A. Herpel, Richard Jennings, John H. Bell, L. G. Liddle, Errol Sutter and Dr. C. C. Rumberger. Another Mother Gone. At 4.30 last Thursday afternoon, January 19th, Mrs. Mary Colkit Pierce, wife of A. C. Pierce, died. She had been suffering more or less for several years with heart trouble, but was able to be up and around until four weeks before the Death Messenger called for her. The deceased was born in Clarion county December 28th, 1828, making her 70 years old last December. Her maiden name was Mary Colkit. When quite young her parents moved to near Georgeville, Indiana county, Pa. In 1847 she was married to A. C. Pierce. To them a number of children were born, eleven of whom—5 boys and 6 girls—are still living. Eight years ago this coming March, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce moved from Indiana county to Reynoldsville, into the house at the corner of Jackson and Fifth streets, where Mrs. Pierce died. The deceased was a very lusty lady and it was difficult for her to walk, hence she did not go far away from her residence in the past few years. Mrs. Pierce was a very kind mother and an excellent neighbor. She was good natured and was patient in all her afflictions and sufferings. Funeral services were held at the home of Mr. Pierce at 7.30 Friday evening, conducted by Dr. C. C. Rumberger, and on Saturday morning the sorrowing family and friends started to Georgeville, Indiana county, with the mortal remains of Mrs. Pierce. Interment was made at Georgeville Saturday afternoon. Primary Elections. The Republicans of this borough will hold their primary election in Hose House No. 2, January 28th from 3 00 to 8 00 P. M. The Democrats of this borough will hold their primary election in Hose House No. 1 on Monday evening, Jan. 30th, at 7 30. The Republicans of Winslow township will hold primary election in the Prescottville school house Saturday afternoon, January 28th. The Democrats of Winslow township will hold primary election in the township election house Saturday, January 28, from 3 00 to 7 30 P. M. The Republicans of West Reynoldsville will hold primary elections in the borough building Saturday, Jan. 28th, from 3 00 to 7 00 P. M. League Pin for Winner. A literary contest of recitations will be the second evening's entertainment during the Brookville Sub-District convention at Summerville in May. The favorite will be awarded a solid gold League pin. Contestants must be active League members residing in the Clarion District and should enroll as soon as possible, giving length of recitation, in minutes. FRANK COLLINS, Pres., Brookwayville, Pa. The Deadly Grip. Is again abroad in the land. The air you breathe may be full of its fatal germs! Don't neglect the "Grip" or you will open the door to Pneumonia and Consumption and invite death. Its sure signs are chills with fever, headache, dull heavy pains, mucous discharges from the nose, sore throat and never-let-go cough. Don't waste precious time treating this cough with troches, tablets or poor cheap syrups. Cure it at once with Dr. King's New Discovery, the infallible remedy for bronchial troubles. It kills the disease germs, heals the lungs and prevents the dreaded after effects from the malady. Priced 50 cts. and $1.00. Money back if not cured. A trial bottle free at H. A. Stoke's Drug Store. The select oysters at the Bon Ton bakery are fine; only 40c. per qt. This week you can buy overcoats and suits at Millirens at about half price.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. Glimpses of the People who are Passing To and Fro. Mrs. M. E. Weed visited in Corsica the past week. I. H. London and wife visited in Kane last week. J. H. Hughes is in Clarion county this week. Miss Edna Lewis is visiting relatives in Lindsey. Mrs. D. M. Dunsmore visited in Driftwood last week. C. C. Bensecter, Esq., of Brookville, was in town Monday. Ewing, of Apollo, formerly of this place, is visiting his son, John Ewing, in this place. William Warnick, of New Maysville, spent Sunday with his brother, George Warnick, in this place. Hon. Jacob Truby, of Reading, Pa., visited his sister, Mrs. Joseph Butler, on Grant street yesterday. Mrs. Harry B. Field, of DuBois, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. T. Bing, during the past week. Fin Roll, of Johnsonburg, was in Reynoldsville Saturday. This was Mr. Roll's first visit to this place in four years. Rev. J. Vernon Bell and wife, of DuBois, were the guests of Rev. and Mrs. W. Frank Reber in this place last Wednesday. Dr. J. C. Sayers was called to Hawthorne, near New Bethlehem, Saturday to see a young lady that was dangerously ill with diphtheria. G. Willey Lloyd, the hustling accident insurance agent of Pittsburg, was confined to his hotel most all of last week with a gripe. George Camp was at Penfield and Winterburn on business last week, and he reports a large number of people with the grip in those places. Peter Hetrick, of Shannondale, visited his son, L. F. Hetrick, in this place last week. The old gentleman is getting well on in life's pilgrimage. He is 86 years old. Miss Roberta Ayres, the music teacher, was called to Allegheny City ten days ago by the serious illness of her sister, Miss Jennie Ayres, and has been compelled to neglect her pupils. She expects to return home in a few days. M. J. McEnteer, of Driftwood, passenger conductor on A. V. R'y., was in this place Friday. Mr. McEnteer was a highly respected citizen of Reynoldsville a few years ago and made many warm friends here who are always glad to see him. Gil Reitz, of Stanton, Pa., who was a candidate two years ago for the nomination for county treasurer and who will be a candidate for nomination for the same office at the Republican primaries in June, was in Reynoldsville several days last week. Dr. J. P. Colgrove, of Salamanca, N. Y., spent Sunday with Mayor H. Alex. Stoke. Thirteen or fourteen years ago Mayor Stoke was a clerk in Dr. Colgrove's drug store in Salamanca. Dr. has retired from the drug business and practice of medicine and is now engaged in the oil business. People Who Pay the Printer. The following persons have paid their subscriptions or added their names to our list since last week: Martin Syphrit, Reynoldsville, January 3, 1900. John Brooks, Reynoldsville, [new] July 11, '99.
