"The grip is in the land,
Sweet Marie,
It may take you by the hand,
Love to thee:
It will fill you full of groans
With a pain to all your bones
And your somes will be but mones,
Sweet Marle.

Quinine is in domaind,
Secret Marie,
Better keep some at your hand,
Lovels She:
And a bottle full of rye.
Is the stuff for you to try
Be caveful or you'll die,
Sweet Marie.

The sneezing feature of the complaint is an evidence that when grip gets a man down it gives it to him in the nose. The man whols willing to earn money by the sweat of his brow is apt to be jostled by the fellow who hopes to win It by the slickness of his check. There were days when the present opera house was large enough for the population of Reynoldsville, but those days have been stored away in the archives of time, as was plainly evident Monday evening.

The Lindsey Piess, one of our live exchanges, came out last week under a new management. H. W. Work, who has so successfully edited the Press over four years, soid out to Clark Rodgers & Sons, and from the appearance of the paper last week the new management will continue to give the Lindsey people a good local paper.

A movement is on foot in some sections of the State which proposes to dispense with the grand jury. Th grand jury arrives at its conclusions b the same process as that which th magistrate employs in the preliminar hearing, only that it is done in secre which is at variance with American i stitutions. There is no appeal from the decisions of the grand jury, just or u just, and it may impose costs upon litigant, while he remains in ignorance of the process by which the jury reached such a determination.

Young man, save your money. It represents, as a rule, energy and time, a part of your very life. There will come a time, if you are permitted to live, when you will be old an incapable of earning even a living, and all that will stand between you and the poor house will be what you have saved. To be old and dependent is a hard lot. An old man in affluent circumstances is not an object of sympathy. He may be referred to occasionally as a measly old skin-flint, but he doesn't seem to mind it much. He goes right on enjoying life and paying his taxes, while the liberalhearted fellow, who "blowed himself" when a young man, and failed to provide against the exigencies of age, re proaches himself bitterly, and spends most of his time reflecting on "what a fool he was." And his neighbors all agree with him on that particular point .- Punx sutawney Spirit.

The dwelling house of Frank Carson. at a log camp near Medix. Pa., was burned down Thursday night and four of his children, three sons and one daughter, were burned to death. The boys were two, five and twelve years old and the girl was seven. Mr. Carson was working at a neighboring camp and his wife and children were alone when the horrible calamity befell the three sons and daughter. When Mrs. Carson first discoverd the fire the flames were enveloping the house so rapidly that she had to jump out of the window with her baby in her arms and leave the other children to their awful fate. Some men from a nearby camp hastened to the scene, but were too late to rescu the children from the flames. Thes brave men and the mother had to stan by helplessly and hear the childre scream as they were being burned death.

High School Bulletin.

EDPTORIAL STAFF: -in-Chief, James G. Pente, '99, Ase't Editor, Lois Robinson, '00. Local Editor, Florence Stone, '00.

Mrs. H. E. Hons, of Falls Creek, visited the High School last Thursday afternoon. Miss Dollie Sutter, a graduate of the class of '98, paid her regular visit to the High School Friday.

Mr. Snyder, a native of Switzerland, delivered quite an interesting and instructive lecture on his native land, Switzerland, last Friday morning. One of the facts of his lecture was the origin of the name Switzerland. He said that his native land "vash de hillish" country, and as a result of this the people were compelled to work bard to gain a livelihood, and in so doing sweat very much, thus the name, Schwelts (Ger.) land, or Sweat (Eng. land, hence, Sweitzerland. While telling the above our entertainer perspired considerably. From Mr. Snyder's description the home of the Swiss must be a very beautiful land. Though very small it surpasses any other in Europe for its wonderful scenery. One can imagine himself in the heart of the little Republic beholding with admiration the massive snow capped mountains, whose rugged sides are made to sparkle here and there by numerous rivulets, which even from their source in the white region, rush forward, leaping from rock to rock and resulting in the formation of many entarnets, which, blending with the soft radiance of our luminary, seem to crown the already existing grandeur with the effulgent rays of some unseen jewel. The lecturer thinks the United States is a very beautiful place, but he said we would not boast of our good roads after seeing Switzerland's highways, as they may be traveled many miles during the rainy season without loss of the traveler's time in hunting up minature Raleigh robes to cross muddy places in his route. His talk was seasoned by a brief history of the country, and by his description of the manner the Swiss would wage war, should it be made a part of the future history. Mr. Snyder concluded by singing several solos in his native tongue.

A number of High School students and several teachers enjoyed a sleigh ride to Brookville Saturday afternoon. Soon after supper they assembled for their journey to Reynoldsville, where they arrived safe.

Several ladies, who drove from Punxsutawney, visited on the first floor one afternoon last week.

The Juniors know how to display their hospitality, too. Everybody along with them last Saturday enjoyed the pleasant run to Brookville. Prof. Lenkerd, as chaperon-in-chief, assisted by Mr. Breed and Mr. Ballentine, (Hammond being absent, Ballentine taking the place of two), conducted the affair without a break. Lois Robinson, as manager of the event, very carefully looked after the convenience of all. Representatives of both the other classes were among the invited guests. A company of noisy little "jaspers" made up of the famous Browny band, shot along behind and lent a cheer to the occasion quite frequently with their melodious shricks and harmonious yells. Their company was highly appreciated we assure you.

The earth flew up and hit one the teachers on Saturday. Have we been correctly informed that many of the Sub-Juniors are wasting a great part of their valuable time in school by misrepresentation in class? A representative on being asked why the questions which came up in her class were not answered more readily, replied, "Because we don't want to." We would suggest that the Subs adopt other class rules than those now in vogue, for they cannot learn too soon that it is of great benefit to them to answer the questions of their teacher when they can. By such intentional failures to answer, the teacher, thus being misinformed, occupies a greater time than is necessary for the explanation of those points. All students in the High School, especially those who limit their school work to day hours only, should know the value of the recitation period.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses were issued the past week by John S. Barr, Clerk of Courts of Jefferson county: Domineo Massamina and Flormina Mangino, both of Adrian. William E. Parker, of Desire, and Carrie May Swartz, of Eleanora.

Edmond Arthur Bish, of Knox township, and Annie C. Wayland, of Pinecreek township. Jacob H. Shick, of Redbank township, Armstrong county, and Vina Doverspike, of Brookville. John L. Park, of Howe, and Belle

Love, of Brookville. Henry Perkins Sidelinger and Rua Amshort, both of Brockwayville.

George Haverilla and Annie Kopcia, both of DeLancey. M. M. Moser, of Eleanora, and Annie

Martin, of Desire. Every day is bargain day at Robinson's shoe store. Oxfords for 50 cents per pair on J. E. 72 Welsh & Co.'s bargain counter.

At a regular session of Mountain Cliff Castle No. 359, K. G. E., February 16th, 1899, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS. It has pleased our Heav-enly Father in His all-wise providence to take from our midst the beloved wife of J. G. Musser, therefore he it

Resolved. That while we mourn the ioss of our brother's wife, we bow in humble submission to Him who doeth all things well

Resolved. That we recognize in her sudden departure the divine warning, "Be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not, the sen of man cometh."

Charles Sherwood is hauling hay to the Henry mines at Rathmel.

Zenas Burkett has been making good use of the sledding the past week to haul lime from Crawford's.

Edward Frank's children have the whoeping cough.

A certain man in this neck o' woods, who was engaged in bewing ties for his neighbor, claimed that some person had stolen his broad-ax. After hunting in the woods almost three hours for his ax, he remembered he had taken it home the evening before to grind it.

Rev. A. G. Mills, of Emerickville, conducts services in the hall at Deemer's Cross Roads every other Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Sherwood visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Beebe, at Sandy Valley a couple of days last week.

Edward Frank had all his apples, potatoes and canned fruit frozen during the recent cold weather.

Homer Burkett, of McKean county, is visiting his parents in Hormtown.

The Odd Fellows' meeting, which will be held at Warren on the 26th of April, promises to be one of more than usual interest. The occasion is the celebration of the Eightieth Anniversary of Odd Fellowship in America. The Warren meeting is under the auspices of the Northwestern Central District Anniversary Association, I. O. O. F. of Pa. This association is composed of Lodges. Encampments, Cantons, and Rebekah Ledges of Elk, Clarlon, Clearfield, Forest. Potter, Jefferson, Warren and Me-Kean counties, and has for its object the advancement of interest in the Order of Odd Fellowship in this section of the State, the bringing of the Lodges in the several counties represented into a closer fraternal relation, and the establishment of a suitable observation of the birthday of the Order in America. Speakers of well known ability will be at Warren, and the parade will be worth going miles to see. The members of the Order in this part of the district are looking forward to a "big day.'

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors had given me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth. I would meet my absent ones above. My busband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at H. A. Stoke's Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refund-
