Under a Coal Car.

Dominic McHale, fifteen year old son of Patrick McHale, who is employed as a trapper in the Hamilton mine, was badly injured in the mine yesterday forenoon by falling in front of a moving ear. It was an empty car or the result might have been more serious. Dominic attempted to get on the front end of car and fell. He had no bones broken, but was badly bruised.

Stabbed the Trio.

Last Saturday night three English speaking miners, from the Virginia mine, assaulted a Polander near Tom Reynolds' barn, on Main street. They knocked him down and while getting up he drew a knife out of his pocket and was successful in using it on all three of his assailants. Bob. Goodyear, one of the trio, was cut up so badly that he had to get Dr. Sayers to sew up the wounds. One of the other fellows was stabbed in the foot.

Barns Burned by Lightning.

The barns of Ex-Commissioner S. M. Shields and Jacob Hetrick, both in Clover township, were struck by lightning Saturday night and burned down. Mr. Shields had two barns on his place, one for live stock and the other for hay, grain, &c. It was the latter barn that was burned. He carried $1,700.00 insurance on the barn and grain. Mr. Hetrick had no insurance on his barn. The barns burned were not many miles apart. One was struck early in the evening and the other one was struck about ten o'clock.

Log Railroad.

Patrick McDonald, the extensive lumberman of Reynoldsville, is having three miles of railroad built to haul logs from a large tract north of Falls Creek The branch road will connect with the R. & C. R'y a mile above Falls Creek. The logs will be run down the Sandy Lick creek from Falls Creek to the Hopkins mill below Reynoldsville. The new tract, to which Mr. McDonald is now having the railroad built, contains between thirty and forty million feet. Of this amount about one million is hardwood, one million and five bundred thousand pine and the balance hemlock. Mr. McDonald expects to cut fifteen million off the new tract and off the Rathmel tract for this year's sawing at the Hopkins mill.

Real Estate Corporation.

Ten young business and professional men of this place, whose names will be given later, have formed a real estate corporation and will apply for a charter. They claim that their intentions are to buy and improve real estate in Revnoldsville. This "syndicate" has already bought the lot on Main street where Dr. J. B. Neale's office and the gas office are now located, and as soon a amicable arrangements can be made with the gas company, who hold a year's lease on the lot, the frame buildings now there will be razed to the ground and a fine two story brick building erected on the lot. One member of the corporation informed ye editor that the building they propose to erect will be the finest structure in Reynoldsville.

Mother and Baby Dead.

Mrs. J. B. Williams, of West Reynoldsville, died at 9.00 A. M. yesterday, March 28th, from pneumonia and childbirth. Monday morning, while Mrs. Williams was not expected to live, she gave birth to a still-born baby. This afternoon the dead mother and baby will be taken to Limestone, Clarion county, and to-morrow morning will be buried in one grave together. To add to the sadness of the case Mr. Williams and a five-year-old son are both dangerously ill with pneumonia and cannot attend the funeral. Postmaster A. M. Woodward, Mr. Williams' partner in the livery business, will see to the burying of Mrs. Williams and baby.

Mrs. Williams' maiden name was Mary Small. She was born at Worthville, Jefferson county, 34 years ago. She was married to J. B. Williams February 10th, 1882. To them ten children were born, seven of whom are living and three dead. The youngest living children are twins, a boy and girl. They will not be three years old until June.

NEW OPERA HOUSE.

At Last This Town is to Have a Modern Opera House.

It is a well known fact that for years Reynoldsville has been badly in need of a larger and more modern opera house than we now have to keep up with the progressiveness of the town. There has been considerable talk and conjecture as to who would build a new opera house and where it would be located. We are able this week to inform our readers that the town is to bave a new opera house and that it will be built at the corner of Main and Fifth streets. H. Alex Stoke, one of our enterprising and publie spirited citizens, has decided to erect a magnificent modern opera house on the location above states: The new structure is to be built of brick. An Altoona architect has drawn up the plans for the new opera house, which were shown to a representative of THE STAR yesterday. Mr. Stoke will be ready in a few days to receive bids for the construction of the opera house, and It is expected that the work will be started as soon as the frost is out of the ground.

The opera house is to be modern in every respect. The parquet, which will be on the ground floor, dress-circle and gallery altogether will seat from 800 to 1,000 people. Opera chairs will be used for seating purposes. There will be at least two private boxes. The stage will be large enough to allow the use of any or all the scenery carried by the best companies that travel. The house will be first class in every respect. It will be built for easy exit in case of

Boy Drowned at Brookville,

John, 12-year-old son of C. J. Hoon, of Brookville, was drowned in the Sandy Lick Creek last Saturday afternoon. John Hoon and Frank Burns, youngest son of Sheriff E. C. Burns, built a float above the dam at Long View and got on it and started down stream. Before reaching the chute Frank got off the float and wanted his companion to jump off, but he remained on to ride over the chute. The float struck a log on the chute and Hoon was thrown into the stream. The boy struggled hard for life but he was unable to save himself and was drowned. Twenty minutes after he went down the last time his body was taken for the stream and doctors worked two hours to revive him, but they were unable to bring back life.

Birthday Surprise Party.

Birthday Surprise Party.

Misses Annie and Marie Black gave their twelve-year-old sister. Rosig Myrtle Black, a birthday surprise party at Hotel McConnell Saturday afternoon. Invitations were sent out to twenty-eight of Rosie's girl friends and twenty-five of the invited were present. It was a genuine surprise to Rosie, so much so that she cried and so did a number of the invited guests. Rosie had hoped that she could have a birthday party, but the day arrived and there were no indications of a party and this caused her to shed a few tears. However, it was arranged that Rosie was to put on a new dress in the afternoon and go to new dress in the afternoon and go to the hotel to show it to Annie and Marie. When she arrived at the hotel, 2.30 P. M., Annie looked at the dress down-M., Annie looked at the dress down-stairs and then sent Rosie up to the parlor to show the dress to Marie, When she entered the parlor and found the crowd of smiling girls she cried and some of the other girls cried with her. The tears were soon forgotten in a joy-ous time. At five celock an excellent supper was served to the jolly lassles and at six o'clock they returned to their homes. Rosie receivery pretty presents. Rosie received a number of Don't Believe Everything.

The article in the Falls Creek Sun last week about how a tramp printer was inhumanly treated in a Reynolds-ville printing office, was entirely false. The hobo lied to the Sun editor. The fellow did not work in either one of the printing offices in this place. He was not in The STAR office at all, but did loaf in the office of our contemporary several hours. He did not ask for work, but did ask for money and because his breath had a whisky scent he was not given any money. About nine o'clock that evening the foreman of THE STAR office gave the fellow money to get something to eat. The tramp slept at one of our hotels that night and got his breakfast before leaving town. Our loaf in the office of our contemporary breakfast before leaving town. Our friends in the Sun office, "who had enough love for the brotherhood to give him a meal," should not believe every-thing that tramps tell them.

It was "On the Pig."

Mayor H. Alex Stoke, the druggist, who believes in newspaper advertising and uses that medium quite liberally, got up a Diamond Dye advertisement last week that was "on the pig." but it attracted the people for a day. He built a picket fence on the inside of one of his large display windows, had two little pigs painted red with Diamond Dye and turned the pigs loose in the display window pen. A large card advertising the Diamond Dyes for coloring Easter eggs, was conspicuous in the pen. The little pigs did their pleasure, grunted, rooted around in the straw or laid down together and slept, regard-less of the crowd of boys that stopped to look at them.

Buried Saturday.

Thomas Clark, aged sixty-one years, who made his home at James Tyson's, on Jackson street, died at six o'clock Thursday evening. His demise was the result of dropsy. Funeral services were held at the residence of Mr. Tyson at 2.00 P. M. Saturday, conducted by Rev. A. E. Hooper, pastor of the Baptist church. The Knights of Golden Eagle, of which deceased was a member, atof which deceased was a member, at-tended the funeral in a body. Inter-ment was made in the Reynoldsville Cemetery.

DEATH OF M. I. WINSLOW.

Consumption was Cause of Death-Buried Sunday Large Funeral.

Milton Irvin Winslow, a respected citizen of Reynoldsville, who had re-sided here almost a quarter of a century, died at his home on Jackson street at 11.30 P. M. Thursday, March 23rd, aged 49 years and 25 days. Mr. Winslow was sick six mentles. At first, he was con-fined to his home by rheumatism and that kept him in until consumption had sapped his strength away and finally caused his death. He was a patient sufferer during the six months. The dec-ased was born in Bennezette, Eik county, February 26th, 1850. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Eben Winslow, deson of Mr. and Mrs. Eben Winslow, deceased. He came to Reynoldsville in 1874. September 8th, 1875, he was married to Annie May Jones. He built a property on Main street, where D. M. Bolger's tailor shop stands. This building was destroyed at the time of the big fire in Reynoldsville and Mr. Winslow creeted another building on the site and it is now occupied by Bolger's tailor shop and Miss Cochiin's millinery store. shop and Miss Cochiin's millinery store.

Mr. Winslow conducted a restaurant in the building a number of years. He was a carpenter and builder by trade. He scaled timber for Degnan & Mc-Donald ten years, and at one time run a meat market in town.

Mr. Winslow was a member in good standing in the L.O.O. F. lodge at this place at time of death, and had been a member for twenty-five years. The lodge attended the funeral in a body to pay the last tribute of respect to their death. departed brother. Funeral services were held in the M. S. church Sunday at the held in the M. 6. chorch Sunday at the regular morning service hour, 11.00 A. M. The church was packed. Dr. C. C. Rumberger selected his text from the ninetieth Psalm: "Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations." Mr. Winslew was not a member of a church, but during the last weeks of his earthly existence he become very much interested in religious matters. The floral tributes from the L. O. O.

The floral tributes from the I. O. O. Daughters of Rebekah and Woman's Relief Corps were beautiful. A sheaf of wheat was sent by Renovo friends, but it did not arrive until Monday morning, too late for funeral.

The mortal remains of Milton Winslow were buried in the Reynoldsville Cemetery. The beautiful ritual cere-mony of the I. O. O. F. lodge was used at the cometery.

The deceased is survived by his wife, two sons, Irvin D., and John J., and one daughter, Miss Ethelyn Claire, four brothers, Frank W., of DuBois; Warren, of Medix Run: Lafayette, of Benezette; Roy, of Straights, and one sister, Mrs. Mary Murray, of Depew, N. Y.
