"When all your bones are aching.
And your brain seems quite on fire.
When your nerves are weak and shaking
And your lungs can scarce respire—
You will know then what a cough is,
And you'd better take a trip
To the nearest doctor's office,
For you surely have the grip."

August Benson, night operator at New Bethlehem, visited his parents. Mr. and Mrs. John Benson, in West Reynoldsville, this week. August was agent at Oak Ridge the past two months while Irven Dempsey, the regular agent, had charge of the Brookville office in the absence of John Strong, and August came home on a short visit before returning to New Bethlehem.

John Wagner, a member of the firm of Shick & Wagner, dry goods merchants, who taught school at Big Run the past winter, closed his school last week and came to Reynoldsville and is now discharging his duties as a member of the firm. Mr. Wagner seems to be a very pleasant young man and, no doubt, will make a good business man, although he has had little experience in the dry goods business. David C. Whitehill, of Brookville, is not satisfied with the score he made in a series of fifty games of checkers played with Will H. Tyson, of Big Ron, last month and has asked Mr. Tyson to play the match over again on same conditions. We have not learned yet whether Mr. Tyson is willing to play the match over again. Twenty-five of the games last month were played in Brookville March 8th and 9th, and the other twenty-five were played in Big Run March 22nd and 23rd.

Shoulder Broken.

Easter Sunday.

Special Easter services were held in the Catholic and Methodist churches in this place. The Catholic church was bandsomely decorated with out flowers, &c., and the singing and other services were specially arranged for the Easter occasion. The M. E. church was nicely decorated with evergreen and a special program of songs and recitations was rendered at the morning service.

Business Change.

J. J. Satter, formerly a member of the Bing & Co. dry goods firm, bas bought Samuel Tilton Reynolds' dry goods store and has taken charge of the same. Mr. Sutter left here yesterday afternoon for Philadelphia and New York City to buy a large stock of new goods. Frank O. Sutter, who had six years experience in the dry goods business while his father was a partner with Mr. Bing, will manage the store. Mr. Sutter has named his store "The New Store."

Another Meeting To-Morrow.

A few of our citizens met in hose house No. 1 last Thursday evening to take some action towards organizing a home fire insurance company. M. S. Sterley was elected chairman and C. C. Gibson secretary of the meeting. After discussing the matter for a short time, it was considered advisable to adjourn until to-morrow, Thursday, evening. Each person at the meeting promised to be present to-morrow evening and take six other persons along who were not at the meeting last week.

Real Estate Co.

The Reynoldsville Real Estate Company, who purchased the lot now occu pled by the offices of Gas Co. and Dr. J. B. Neale for $3,000.00, mention of which was made in THE STAR last week, is composed of the following ten gentlemen: G. M. McDonald, Esq., James V. Young, Dr. Harry B. King, William F. Marshall, G. J. Corwin, Dr. R. DeVere King, Joseph S. Hammond, F. H. Beck, W. H. Moore and John H. Kaucher. This company intends building a two-story brick block on the corner above mentioned. The cellar will be fitted up for a barbershop, there will be two good store rooms on first floor and the second will be arranged into business offices exclusively. The structure will be fitted out with closets, &c.

No Grave Ready.

Mrs. M. Charity, an Italian lady about fifty years old, died at Eleanora Saturday from apoplexy. A Reynoldsville undertaker was sent for and be went to Eleanora Sunday to bury the woman, but the Italians had made no arrangements for a place for burial. A telephone message was sent to Jacob it and when the funeral party arrived there was no grave dug and there could be no burial that evening, so the remains of the Italian woman were put in the undertaking rooms of Brumbaugh & Hillis until Monday forenoon and were then buried in the Catholic cem-

New Officers Installed.

Officers were installed in the I. O. O. F. lodge on Saturday night. The roads being in bad condition for driving, J. L. Allison, of Punxsutawney, regular installing officer was unable to be pres ent and deputized L. G. Lidle to officiate for him and the following were installed: Noble Grand, M. E. Weed: Vice Grand, S. Short Strike at Silk Mill.

A notice was posted in the silk mill two weeks ago, that on and after Monday, April 3rd, the working hours would be changed to allow a half holiday on Saturdays. The working hours were to be as follows: Begin at 6.45 P. M., one hour for dinner and work until 6.30 P. M. and on Saturdays work until 1,00 P. M. A number of the employees were, apparently, not satisfied with the hours specified, and at 6.00 P. M. Monday quit work and started home and returned at the usual time yesterday morning. The mill is now running on same hours as heretofore and sniess Mr. Place, who will be here this week, insists on enforcing the notice as to change of working hours, the mid will run from 7.00 A. M. to 6.00 P. M. every day, including Saturdays, from this time on, so we are informed by Mr.

An Old Man Gone,

George Washington Lewis, aged 85 years, 7 months and 14 days, died at the home of his son, Ed. Lewis, on Jackson, street at 1,00 P. M. Friday, March 31st. Death was the result of old age. The deceased was born in Elk county August 17th, 1813. His wife died about five years ago in Clearfield county and the old gentleman then came to Revnolder ville and made his home with his son. He had made preparations for the Eternal World and for some months had been anxiously awaiting the summons to depart this life. Funeral services were held at the residence of Ed. Lewis Sunday afternoon, conducted by Dr. C. C. Rumberger, and the mortal remains of the old pilgrim were taken to Millport, Clearfield county, Monday for burial. The deceased is survived by two sons and two daughter, as follows: Thomas Lewis and Mrs. Etiza Sloppy, of Gazzam, Alice Lewis, of Clearfield, and Ed. Lewis, of Reynoldsville.

Lots are not so Cheap Now. There is a marked difference on the price of real estate in Reynoldsville now and twenty-five years ago. Week before last the Real Estate Co. bought a lot at the corner of Main street and Swamp alley for $3,000.00, and twentyfive years ago Notary Public Albert Reynolds sold the same lot for $75,00, He sold almost the entire square from Swamp alley to Fourth street, Fourth to Jackson street and up Jackson street to Swamp alley to Charles H. Gordon for $200.00, and thought at that time that he was getting a good price. About the same time the lot at corner of Main and Fourth streets, where Hotel Imperial now stands, was sold for $300.00, including a good frame house.

Band Reorganizod. The Keystone Band reorganized on March 14th and elected the following officers for the year: President, George Beck: Vice President, Wm. Robertson; Secretary, E. O'Reilly; Treasurer, Henry Shields; Musical Director, Richard Ramsey; Assistant Musical Director, Charles Aiman; Business Manager, Chas. S. Kirchartz. It is the intention of the band to furnish plenty of free music this season. They have secured all new music and meet twice a week for practice. They are ready to fill any engagements either in or out of town. Prices for same given on application to business manager.

Personal Opinions.

The Princess of Wales-"The melodies of Moore are truly beautiful and your singing of them I have never heard equalled. Please sing for us 'Rich and Rare."

President and Mrs. Grant-"Your magnificent voice is capable of inspiring the noblest feelings of the heart, whilst your majestic organ performances we have never heard equalled."

Archbishop of New York-Much as I have heard of you, it but feebly expresses the admiration one must feel at your wondrous performance.

At Centennial Hall Wednesday evening, April 12th.

New Ticket Seller.

I. M. Hoch, telegraph operator in the A. V. R'y office, now sells the tickets at the A. V. R'y ticket office, beginning Henninger about noon Sunday to dig a last Saturday. M. J. Farrell, who has grave in the Catholic cemetery, but been ticket and freight agent here for there was some misunderstanding about a number of years, will continue in the same capacity, but Mr. Hock will sell the here at six o'clock Sunday evening tickets, giving Mr. Farrell more time to look after other business. Mr. Farrell will not have to get to the office so early in the morning and will not have to stay in the office after supper. Mr. Hoch is a genial young man and will, no doubt, make a good ticket seller.

School Directors Convention.

On the first Tuesday of May, four weeks from yesterday, the school directors of this county will hold a convention in Brookville, at which time a county superintendent of common schools will be elected. Under the act passed by the present legislature, and signed by Governor Stone, school directors will receive two dollars for the day they spend in attendance at this, triennial convention. The law forbids the payment of directors' expenses by candidates and prescribes the punishment therefor.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses were issued the past week by John S. Barr, Clerk of Courts of Jefferson county: D. H. Shaffer, of Clarion, and Jeannette Hess, of Horatio.

A. L. Bowers, of Chester, Pa., and Grace McKibbon, of Summerville, D. H. Fisher, of Clover township, and Kittie M. Knapp, of Rose township.

Peter Thomas, of Columbia county, and Amanda McCane, of Center county.

James H. Neel, of Knox township, and Ida M. Simpson, of Union township.

Miners' Mass Meeting. At the tenth annual convention of District No. 2, United Mine Workers of America, held at Tyrone March 23rd. 24th and 25th, among other resolutions was one to observe Saturday, April 1st, as a holiday and that mass meetings should be held at as many points as speakers could be provided for, and at these meetings an effort should be made to institute the eight-hour day throughout central Pennsylvania.

In accordance with the resolution of the convention, the miners of this see tion held a mass meeting in the K. of P. hall at Rathmel Saturday forenoon. The meeting was not well advertised and the attendance was, consequently, not as large as it othewise would have been. William Warner, ex-secretarytreasurer of the Pittsburg district, and George Harris, of this place, ex-president of District No. 2, were the speakers at the Rathmel meeting. There was no action taken at the meeting.

Silk Mill Notes.

town yesterday and visited the West The president of the company is ex-pected this week at the mill.

Large orders have already come to the mill and continue to come both in black, bright and lively colors.

Superintendent Philippe Chavent has been ill a few days but is at his desk now altogether well and looking strong.

The Easter celebration has taken The Easter celebration has taken from the mill quite a number of first-class hands, who are now visiting their families all the way from 20 miles to 120 miles away, which some of them have not seen since the beginning of operations at the slik mill, that is, about five months ago, but they will return in a few days. Meanwhile there are every day new applications for work are every day new applications for work at the silk mill.

A little explanation seems in order in regard to the statement of the receipts of the "Household Fair" held March 17th and 18th. As first reported, the receipts of said fair were $87.44. This was correct with the exception of $10.00 which was given to the different booths or change, and had not been deducted Of this amount, $77.46, the King's Daughters claimed $26, 10 for fancy work and candy sold, leaving the Work Society with a balance of $42.87 after expenses were paid. The net profits at present writing are $45.27.
