EDITORIAL STAFF:
Editor-in-Chief, Pearl Barto '99.
Ass't Editor, Hattie Schultz '00.
Local Editor, Frankie King '01.

Last Friday the Shakespearean Literary Club elected the following officers: Pres., Harry Herpel, '00; Vice Pres., Bertha Marshall, '00; Sec., Florence Stone, '00; Program Committee, Hattie Schultz, '00, and Clara Gelsler, '00; Critics, Lydia Mellinger, '00, Prof. Bess; Ella Lenker, '00. Next in order came nominations for editors of the BULLETIN. Several persons were nominated for editor-in-chief, but each declined. It was decided to elect the editorial staff by ballot, when Pearl Barto, '99, was elected editor-in-chief; Hattie Schultz, '00, ass't editor, and Frankie King, '01, local editor.

We who have been chosen for positions on the BULLETIN hope that we may perform as admirably in the capacity of editors as those who have retired. Prof. Lindsey arrived Friday. He gave an elegant entertainment in the Assembly hall Friday evening. Taking the weather into consideration the audience was not so small as was expected. Prof. Lindsey began on Monday with his work of training the Juniors for the elocutionary contest which is to take place commencement week. The quality of Prof. Lindsey's work is well known, hence we do not feel called upon for any commendation.

The Senior Class finished the required amount of work in Caesar on Thursday, March 30th. This eclipses both of the classes which have graduated from our High School. The class of '99 is now reading the fourth book of Caesar.

The good discipline of the Reynoldsville schools is ever evident, especially in marching. The manner in which the pupils of the different rooms carry themselves going to chapel and at dismissal would do credit to a soldier.

Mr. Weaver, teacher of room 10, has improved the appearance of his room and made it more cheerful, by painting different scenes upon the windows. They also show from the outside, making his corner the prettiest in the building.

Squire John M. Hays has completed the work of putting the fire escapes on the school building. There is one in each second story room and two in Assembly hall.

Miss Mabel Hetrick, of the High School, who has been very ill, is recovering.

The Juniors served abstracts of all kinds Tuesday. They were taken from the story, Rip Van Winkle.

The pupils of room 13 are very bright Grammar students; one of the girls remarked, "I did hold up my hand."

Judging by the time it takes room 13 to prepare for dismissing they must be very industrious when the bell rings.

Miss Whitmore, teacher of room No. 5, and her pupils are buying some small books to be read by the children in their spare moments. This will not only keep the little ones busy, but will also help them in their school work.

The Seniors boast of having in their ranks two parsons and a lawyer.

The Sub-Junior class will have control of the literary work until school closes, in order that the Seniors and Juniors may have more time for their commencement work.

On last Wednesday the Seniors had an examination in Physics on the subject, "Light."

There was something very soothing, in the Geometry lesson Tuesday, as Junior No. 5 suddenly fell asleep.

The warm weather has a serious effect on Junior No. 9.

Prof. Teitrick gave a very interesting talk at chapel Wednesday morning of last week.

The Junior class will visit the primary rooms next week to seek for "travelers" in order that they may understand Zoology better in the future.

Cornie Deible returned to school last week after a brief absence on account of sickness.

One day last week a Sub-Junior made the following statement: "Meetings of the Senior and Junior classes have been numerous of late. I, for one, would like to be a silent observer of one of these meetings, for when the members of these respective classes return from the class room, after debating pro and con, they have an air, as much as to say, "We, are the people." The members of the above named classes think this would be observer has not made a misstatement.

Miss Lydia Mellinger, Junior No. 8, is a lover of music and she especially enjoys cornet solos.

The musical given by Misses Lydia Mellinger and Lois Robinson on Tuesday evening was very much enjoyed by the large audience that greeted them.

Paradise.

Fred Biggie bought a valuable young cow from Mr. Vandervort last Wednesday.

Miss Harriet Norris and Miss Millie Shooley were the guests of Miss Iva Newcome at O'Donnell last Thursday.

Some of the girls have been playing that this is leap year.

There are still a few mumps in the community.

Isaac Hollenbaugh is going to build a store house at Scotch Hill and go into the store business.

J. W. Syphrit is going to Homestead as soon as his school closes at Big Soldier.

Some of the boys attended the entertainment at the Salt Works school house.

John Dougherty sold a young team of horses the other day and started out to buy another team.

Dick Yohe is moving his family to the old homestead where he is going to farm.

Ed Hillis is engaged in hauling lumber to build himself a new house.

Frank Hillis purchased himself a camera. He is going to take pictures the coming summer.

George Myers is visiting friends in Armstrong this week.

Silk Mill Notes.

Every loom is now supplied with a warp. Every department is now working in full. 300 operatives at least are employed at the mill.

Orders are received every day at the office and heavy shipments are taking place every day, sometimes in the morning sometimes in the afternoon.

There have been a few absences caused by slight illness, but not being of a dangerous nature they are not worth being reported.

The weather seeming to turn bright and shining gives a kind of cheerfulness to the various branches of work in the mill, from winding to picking, passing through quilling, warping, twisting and weaving.

Spring is at our doors. Spring birds and green leaves are timidly yet but constantly pushing their way out around the mill.

We hope we will get rid of that dreadful snow with the new moon, which commenced Monday last.

BLACK JOHN, EX-LOOM FIXER.

Rathmel.

W. E. Bady, of Punxsutawney, was in town last week.

L. G. Lidle is visiting in Ohio this week.

Mrs. Grace Price, who has been visiting her children in Ohio for sometime, returned home last Saturday.

Mrs. John Meeson, sr., of Boston, Mass., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. David Price, and friends in our village.

G. M. Henry had the index knuckle of his right hand broken last Tuesday while working in the Henry mines.

Peter Anderson will move to Oil City this week.

James Hyndman will move to Bradford the first of next week.

Jacob Shoth will move to Ford City Friday of this week.

Headache for Forty Years.

For forty years I suffered from sick headache. About a year ago I began using Colery King. The result was gratifying and surprising, my headaches leaving at once. The headaches used to return every seventh day, but thanks to Colery King, I have had but one headache in the last eleven months. I know it, what cured me will help others.—John D. VanKeuron, Saugerties, N. Y. Colery King for the Nerves, Stomach, Liver and Kidneys is sold in 50c. and 25c. packages by H. Alex. Stoke.

An exchange thinks it is funny that when farmers wish to retire they move to town. Town people when they wish to retire move to the country. A farmer has poor health and he moves to town to rest up and get well, where he will not be bothered with hard work. The town man when he has poor health will go to the country with his tent and pitch it under some shady tree, where he may enjoy the country air and rusticate in the enjoyment of a perpetual picnic.

This is splendid advice from an exchange: "Don't buy ahead of your pay day, so that when it comes your wages will all go in a single day to pay for what you have already had. If you have gotten into this old rut, get out of it. Do without the necessaries of life until your salary is yours on pay day, then buy for cash. Lay aside a little each month for rainy days—they come in the lifetime to every man."

Pay for Triennial Convention.

In our last issue we stated that school directors would receive two dollars for attending the triennial convention, but we were slightly mistaken in the statement. Following is the first section of the new law:

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That hereafter school directors of this Commonwealth who shall attend the triennial convention of directors for the purpose of electing a county superintendent, as provided by act of May eighth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, shall receive one dollar each, and, in addition, the sum of three cents for every mile necessary to be traveled in going to and returning from the place where the election shall be held, the amount to be paid by the school treasurers of the respective districts on the proper vouchers, and the account to be audited as other expenses.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I could hardly sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it and am now well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at H. A. Stoke's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

The Allegheny Valley Railroad, from the president down to its conductors, is offered by as fine a lot of men as ever trod upon shoe leather. They are genial and obliging, and gentlemen from the ground up. The road is run for the convenience and accommodation of the public, and is first-class in every particular. Mile for mile there is scarcely another road in Pennsylvania that cost so much to build or that is more thoroughly substantial.—Punxsutawney Spirit.
