

A SONG.

Ab, what is better than this, my dear,
What is better than this?
The thought of a night which has lost its way
Between tomorrow and yesterday.

JUST A CURTAIN FIRE.

It was in a girls' boarding school
and did complicated damage.

A fire in a skyscraper may be thrilling,
but for dramatic episodes and unexpected complications
a fire in a girls' boarding school surpasses it.

One evening last week two girls, who occupy a microscopic hall bedroom in a swell up town school, took the globes off the gas fixtures for hair-curling purposes and left them off, because it was easier to do that than to put them on again.

When he arrived, things looked rather hopeless. Curtains and woodwork were blazing finely. The floor was littered with prostrate forms, and when three girls have fainted on the floor of a hall bedroom there isn't much space in the room for promenading.

Washington's Tomb.

Washington was buried in what is now known as the old vault, which is perhaps 200 feet away from his present resting place.

One of Toole's Greatest Jokes.

One of Toole's greatest practical jokes was as follows: He once gave a supper to 80 of his friends and wrote a note to each of them privately beforehand, asking him whether he would be so good as to say grace, as no clergyman would be present.

Yes, it was the first time she had ever been on board a warship. "And this," the lieutenant went on to say, "is the quarter deck." "And that deck over yonder," he exclaimed, indicating the fore-castle with a pretty gesture, "is that the 5 cent deck or the 10 cent deck?"—Detroit Journal.

A Greek Colony in Corsica.

At Corsica we have the remarkable spectacle of a Greek population with its own church settled down on the coast of Corsica. Our inn is kept by a Greek from Corfu, as his name, Corfotti, tells us and as the locquacity of his wife would lead us to infer; for at Corsica the Corsican taciturnity has given place to the Hellenic love of talk.
