SUDDEN DEATH.

Mrs. Arthur O'Donnel was Buried at New Bethlehem Thursday.

Mrs. Margaret D. O'Donnel, wife of Arthur O'Donnel, died suddenly at her home at O'Donnel Mill, at 8.15 on the evening of April 11th, from neuralgia of the heart. Four weeks previous to her death Mrs. O'Donnel had a tumor removed from her right breast, but was getting along nicely. She was sitting in an arm chair when she died. The last words she spoke was to say to her husband, who was sitting behind her, that she did not expect to rest as well that night as she had the night before. A young lady who made her home with Mr. and Mrs. O'Donnel noticed Mrs. O'Donnel's head drop and said, "What is the matter with mother?" It was first thought that she had fainted and, although there was no sign of life, they worked a half hour before they finally gave her up as dead. She died instantly. Mrs. O'Donnel had been troubled with neuralgic pains for several years, but her family had no thought of anything serious resulting from it.

Funeral services were held at the residence at O'Donnel Thursday noon, conducted by Dr. C. C. Rumberger, pastor of Reynoldsville M. E. church, and the remains were taken to New Bethlehem in a special combination car, attached to train No. 2 Thursday afternoon, and buried beside her four oldest children.

The deceased's maiden name was Margaret D. Graham. She was born at Centre Furnace, Centre county, Pa., April 13th, 1833, and was 66 years old, lacking two days, at time of death. Her mother died when she was three years old and her father, William Graham, died when she was eight years old. January 27th, 1853, the deceased was married to Arthur O'Donnel at New Bethlehem. To Mr. and Mrs. O'Donnel seven children were born, four sons and three daughters. Their first four children died when quite young. Two sons and one daughter, with the father, survive Mrs. O'Donnel, as follows: Charles G. and Arthur O'Donnel, jr., of Camp Run, and Mrs. Alexander L. Best, of West Reynoldsville.

In June, 1866, Mr. and Mrs. O'Donnel moved to the locality where O'Donnel's mill is now located, then a howling wilderness. Mrs. O'Donnel was a noble helpmate, loving mother and kind neighbor. She was held in high esteem by all who knew her.

Attempted to Burn a Hotel.

Andy Murray, a noted character in DuBois, attempted to destroy B. K. Fisher's St. Elmo Hotel in DuBois Saturday night. The facts in the case we clip from the DuBois Express of Monday: "He purchased a bucket of oil, charged the same to the hotel account and proceeded to put his plans into execution. He poured the contents of the bucket upon the floor of the restaurant department and applied a match. It blazed up in good shape and some lively work was required before the flames were extinguished.

Chief-of-Police Blair arrived on the scene and conducted Murray to the lock-up where he remained until this morning when he was taken before Justice Hay and given a hearing.

The testimony was quite damaging and the Justice placed him under $1,000 bail which Murray made no effort to secure. He was taken to the Clearfield jail to await trial."

The train will arrive in Pittsburg at 11.40 A. M. Returning will leave Pittsburg at 7.30 P. M. Mr. Hoch will sell tickets Saturday evening (from 6.30 to 8.30) and those who buy their tickets then will avoid the rush Sunday morning.

Spreads Like Wildfire.

You can't keep a good thing down. News of it travels fast. When things are "the best" they become "the best selling." Abraham Hare, a leading druggist of Belleville, O., writes: "Electric Bitters are the best selling bitters I have ever handled in my 20 years experience." You know why? Most diseases begin in disorders of the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, blood and nerves. Electric Bitters tones up the stomach, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, hence cures multitudes of maladies. It builds up the entire system. Puts new life and vigor into any weak, sickly, run-down man or woman. Only 50 cents. Sold by H. A. Stoke, Druggist, guaranteed.

Clarion River R'y Sold.

A dispatch from Ridgway to the Pittsburg Times Saturday says: "The Clarion River railway has been sold for $180,000 to a syndicate of New York capitalists, headed by John Byrns. Connections will be made with the Buffalo, St. Marys and Southwestern railroad by extending the road from Croyland to near Centerville. The line will be extended from near its southern terminus to valuable coal lands south of Brookville."

The Evidence.

A good many people in Reynoldsville are using the Cinderella Range, which is the best evidence of its merits. Sold and guaranteed by Reynoldsville Hardware Co.
