This act should be of interest not only to bicycle riders but also to people who do considerable walking through the country.
New Robes.
 The Degree Staff of the Lady Winslow Lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, composed of twenty-one members, will soon have the prettiest robes to be found in this section of the state. The robes are made out of white cashmere, trimmed with different colors of satin. It required something like 230 yards of cashmere to make the robes. These robes are only worn for initiations, or degree work. The Daughters of Rebekah of this place came near being engaged to do the Degree work at the I. O. O. F. anniversary celebration at Warren on the 26th inst. The staff is a good one and with their new robes they would have made a hit at Warren.
Short on Postage Stamps.
 Uncle Sam seems to be a little short on two cent postage stamps, which may be the result of the wave of prosperity that is sweeping over the country, or perhaps it is caused by using his presses to make stamps for our new possessions recently received from Spain. Postmaster Woodward sent in an order a few weeks ago for 40,000 two cent stamps, but the stamps failed to come and Mr. Woodward had to borrow 5,000 from the Brookville office last week. Postmaster Boner, of Sandy Valley, ordered some two cent stamps six weeks ago, but the order was not filled. Last week he sent to Reynoldsville for two cent stamps and Mr. Woodward sent him some 1 cent stamps. There is no danger, however, of much of a famine on two cent stamps.
Public Road Confirmed.
 A few months ago a petition was presented to the court asking for a new public road, which is to connect with Fifth street, in this borough, and the new road to Hopkins, near the big cut. The court appointed viewers, who did the work and made a return to the April term of court. Last week Judge Reed confirmed the road and now all that remains is to make it. It will require two bridges, one across the Sandy Lick creek at foot of Fifth Street, which will be built jointly by this borough and Winslow township, and the other bridge will be across the big cut near the silk mill. This bridge will be built at the expense of Winslow township. The persons who were instrumental in getting the road viewed and confirmed by the court, say they expect the road to be made just as soon as possible.

One hundred and fifty, or more, joined the organization. Edward McKay, of Buena Vista, and Barney Rice, of Brookwayville, were the speakers at this meeting. A delegate was elected to attend the miners' convention in DuBois Thursday.
Making a New Road.
 Supervisors L. P. McCleary and V. R. Holman, of Winslow township, blasted out stumps, rolled off logs and cleared away the brush last week off the line of the new public road between West Reynoldsville and Hopkins. This week they are repairing some of the public roads in the township and as soon as that is completed they will begin making the new road between the two places named. The supervisors received several bids for making the road, but they thought the bids were high and that they can save money for the township by making the road themselves.
Big Audience.
 Madame Rosa D'Erina, Ireland's famous prima donna and world renowned lady pianist, assisted by G. R. Vontom, the tenor and humorist, gave an entertainment in Centennial hall Wednesday evening of last week before a very large audience. Madame D'Erina has a good voice and is an excellent pianist. Mr. Vontom said they hoped to have the pleasure of appearing before a Reynoldsville audience again in the near future. The entertainment was given under the auspices of the Catholic church and the church realized a snug sum of money from it.
Sells Big Lot of Seed.
 Ninian Cooper, who has been selling clover and timothy seed in Reynoldsville the past twenty-three years, sold 25 bushels last Saturday. He handles nothing but the Anchor Brand Clover and Fancy Timothy seeds. The farmers, far and near, know where to get good seed. Mr. Cooper gets orders from New Bethlehem, Knoxdale, Big Run, DuBois, Brookwayville and Warsaw. He sells seed at a reasonably low price, and can do this because he buys direct from a wholesale house in Toledo, Ohio. Mr. Cooper keeps his seed in the rear of C. C. Gibson's shoe store. He received a fresh stock last Saturday. Call and examine his seed before buying elsewhere.
Promised Spring Chicken.
 At the Jefferson County Sunday School convention held in Brookwayville last year there was a discussion about holding the convention in May this year, which is earlier than had been the custom before, and among those who objected to the change of time was C. C. Bencoter, Esq., of Brookville, and his objections were raised because the convention would be held too early for spring chickens to be ripe. As the convention is to be held here this year, Mary Cooper and other delegates from this place, who attended the Brookwayville convention, pledged themselves to see that hens would set in January so that there would be no lack of spring chicken for delegates this year. A representative of THE STAR was interrogated Monday at Brookville by Mr. Bencoter concerning the promise made by the Reynoldsville delegates. Who knows whether the pledge has been kept or not?

Ten Thousand Dollar Dicker.
 Ethan E. Stewart, of this place, who was born on the Stewart farm within two miles of Reynoldsville, recently closed a land deal in Washington State which added ten thousand dollars in cash to his worldly possessions. A dozen years ago Mr. Stewart decided to go to the "wild and woolly" west and take up a claim on government land. He found a good claim in Snohomish county, Washington Territory, and there he "squatted." He proved his first claim and took up another. For thirteen months Mr. Stewart had to "rough" it to prove his claim. A little shanty built around a tree, was his dwelling. The nearest village to his claims was seventeen miles away. Several weeks ago Mr. Stewart offered his land on the Pacific slope to some capitalists for $10,000 and they accepted the offer. Last Saturday he received word that the deal had been closed and that his money was paid into the First National bank at Seattle.
 Mr. Stewart thinks Washington state is alright, and it is his intention to return to that state in the near future. He does not expect to bring his $10,000 east, but will invest it in the state where it is now banked.
Three Prisoners in One Day.
 On Monday of last week John H. Null, of Sykesville, the new constable for Winslow township, was at Brookville and was sworn in to perform his duties faithfully as an officer. Tuesday warrants were placed in his hands for the arrest of three brothers, near Rathmel, who were charged with larceny. Constable Null went in quest of the chaps wanted and Tuesday night had them behind the bars of the Reynoldsville bastille. George, Harry and Wesley Kougher were the young men arrested, and Robert Smith, who runs a country coal bank, was the person who preferred the charges of larceny against them. Mr. Smith blames them for stealing from his coal bank. The trio had a hearing before Squire Neff and he bound them over to court under $500.00 bail apiece. George gave bail, but the other two were unable to get bail and Wednesday afternoon Frank P. Adelsperger took them to the county jail.
