Money talks; so do women. Yet man can't get along without both.
It will always be a question whether a man would better pick out a rich, cross father-in-law, or an amiable, poor mother-in-law.
The possibility of being invited to $10 dinners where their wives can only look on and are not permitted to talk, may induce a good many married men to go into politics.
A man with a strong minded wife may be an agnostic, but he can hardly be called a free thinker.
Actions may speak louder than words, but my wife prefers words, and always wants the last one, too.
If women had to shave they would soon learn better than to use a razor to cut corns with.
I always feel sadder for a friend who's being married than for a friend who's being buried. The latter is through with his earthly battles; the other is just beginning them.
It is not on record, but it is probable that when Noah told his wife it was going to rain for 40 days, she began to throw out hints about how dreadfully unfashionable her old mackintosh was. —Pittsburg Daily News.

Wheeler's GRAVITY CREAM SEPARATOR.

Patented in the United States, Nov. 22, 1898.
Patented in Canada Sept. 6, 1898.
Process of Separation Patented Sept. 6, 1898.

A new device to separate cream from milk by the dilute process, which reduces the viscosity of the milk thereby securing the cream in two hours. No tea to handle, no cranks to turn, no machinery to run and keep in order. It is way ahead of the best Separators, because it is the Cheapest, Best and Easiest device to handle milk on the market, and you will make no mistake if you investigate its merits.

VISCOUSITY.
There is a property in milk called viscosity. It is caused by the solids in milk aside from the butter fat. It is a sort of stickiness that retards the raising of the cream. By proper dilution we can so reduce this viscosity that the cream will separate or raise in two hours. And, on the same principle, anything that will help the cream up quickly, will also help it to come up thoroughly, therefore we claim we get the cream, not only much quicker, but cleaner, than with the creamery.

OUR OWN EXPERIENCE.
Have used the GRAVITY CREAM SEPARATOR in our own dairy the past two seasons to the satisfaction of ourselves and our customers, who pay us an extra price for our butter. Every dairyman that makes butter should use the Gravity Cream Separator, and those that patronize the cheese factory should use it spring, fall and Sundays.

Those that keep only one or two cows, as well as the large dairyman, can have the advantage of a separator at a small cost, compared with the centrifugal separator or creamery.

Important Things to Think About.
In these times of low prices, how can we reduce the cost of production? FIRST—In handling our milk, we can reduce the first cost several hundred per cent. over any other device by using the Gravity Cream Separator.
SECOND—It does away with storing, handling and cost of ice.
THIRD—It saves more than half the work.
FOURTH—It is easy to wash and keep clean.
FIFTH—It runs itself.
SIXTH—It is durable, being well made of heavy tin.
SEVENTH—It makes the ladies happy.
EIGHTH—It is endorsed by the Grange.
NINTH—Practical dairymen give up their creameries and high priced Separators to use the Gravity Cream Separator.

Since so many creameries have been built up in the United States the farmer has been induced to believe he could do better by selling his milk to creameries at 5 to 6 cents per gallon than he could by making butter. But it is a great mistake, and one that is being found out by the farmers rapidly, and as a result many creameries are being closed, as farmers will not sell their milk for nothing. It is an established rule of commerce that the manufacturer's product makes a better profit than the raw product. With the Wheeler's Gravity Cream Separator it will pay the farmer much better to make his own butter at home. With the exception of a short time in summer good butter will sell for from 20 to 25 cents, and at this price milk made into butter will pay better than selling milk to creameries.

STARTLING FACTS
Brought to light by the experience of practical dairymen the past season have shown that the diluted sweet milk from the Gravity Cream Separator is superior for feeding purposes to the undiluted sour milk from any system. And many claim it is better than the milk from the Centrifugal Separator. This may look like a bold assertion, but it is easily explained.

THE REASON WHY.
The solids left in the milk after the butter is extracted are what give the feeding value to the skimmed milk. The Gravity Cream Separator leaves these solids in the milk, but the Mechanical Separator, by its great speed, collects these solids and deposits them in the bowl of the Separator in the form of roapy, sticky and offensive substance, made often-ly by the great speed and friction in the bowl of the machine.
