NEGRO DESPERADO!

Shot an Officer-Was Captured on a Passenger Train.

Three Prisoners Taken to County Jail Last Thursday Afternoon

The citizens of Punxsutawney, Lindsey and in the neighborhood of the large tunnel on the B., R. & P., near Punxsy. have been having more or less trouble and annoyance with the negroes who were working on the new railroad. They seem to be very tough customers, many of them at least, and have already added quite an expense to Jofferson county by their devillsh propensities. Two negroes were sent to the penitentiary at the last term of court for shooting and almost murdering Policeman Palmer, of Punxsutawney.

Tuesday of last week Constable Me-Ciure, of Lindsey, went to the tunnel to arrest a weman and two men for assaulting and robbing a Jewish pediar. While attempting to arrest the colored woman implicated a negro slipped up to the shanty and shot the officer with a 44calibre revolver. The ball struck Me-Clure on the left side of the neck and passed downward into the back of his left shoulder, breaking the shoulder blade. The shot did not prove fatal. The negro, Ike Lowls, who did the shooting, escaped and was not captured until Thursday morning. Clark Me-Gregor, a young man from Punxsutawney, boarded the early B., R. & P. passenger train Thursday morning on his way to Brookville to be sworn in as deputy sheriff, and when the train stopped at Big Run Ike Lewis got on the train and McGregor, who knew the "coon" well, spoke to him calling him by name, but the "coon" denied the name McGregor gave him, and said his name was Harry White. Soon after the train started Lewis went into the closet and McGregor quickly followed. Upon opening the door he found Lewis trying to raise the window, presumably to es-The negro wheeled around quickly and drew a large revolver, but before he had time to use it, after a hard struggle, McGregor took the revolver. Then the negro drew a razor but when he looked into the muzzle of his own revolver and also saw the determined look in McGregor's eyes, he wilted. When the train arrived at Falls Creek a pair of handcuffs were secured and put on the desperado. He was taken back to Punxsy, given a hearing and he and John Thompson and Mary Lightfoot, all colored, were taken to Brookville jail Thursday after-

Brookville Woolen Mills.

The company owning and operating this property has been reorganized, and its capital stock increased from $40,000 to $75,000. The additions to the company are the George Weber estate, and R. M. Matson. The company now comprises Levi Heidrick, G. W. Sykes. Sarah E. Weber and R. M. Matson, under the firm name of The Brookville Woolen Mills of Brookville, Pa. This firm now includes all the members of the old firm of Heidrick, Matson & Co., rated among the strong lumber concerns of this part of the state, with G. W. Sykes added. It brings to the woolen business abundant capital and experience to place the plant in a leading position in its line of trade. Both Mr. Heidrick and Mr. Sykes have large experience in the woolen trade. The mill is now making fine flannels, cloths and blankets, and has added a department for making pants and overalls. The capacity of the mill is 200 pairs of blankets, or 1,500 yards of flannel per day .-Brookville Democrat.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles found herself sound and well: now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at H. A. Stoke's Drug Store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

It is only when a newspaper man attempts to collect back subscriptions that he finds out how poor this country is, or at least some of the Inhabitants thereof. One exchange remarks that there are many persons who believe in a free press, the freer the better, and when some are requested to pay up they still think it should be free-as far as they are concerned.
