The Brockwayville Record has been enlarged to a six column, eight page paper and is now printed on a cylinder press. The Record made its first appearance last week in the new form. A decided improvement.

The postoffice authorities at Washington recently issued orders that, beginning July 1st, all postoffice clerks will be allowed fifteen days vacation, with full pay. Heretofore the clerks obtained their vacations by doing each other's work.

C. H. Freas, editor of the Falls Creek Sun, has sold his interest in that paper to Arthur Whitehill. Hereafter the Sun will be published by L. L. Gourley, former partner, and Arthur Whitehill. Both these young men are practical printers.

It is reported that postmasters of the United States will be required by the department to wear a uniform hereafter, consisting of light blue trousers with red braid running down the legs, a white blouse with gold shoulder straps, and a skull cap with a silver star in front.

An exchange says that a certain groceryman complains that he can stand in his door and see dozens of people on bicycles riding merrily by, while they owe him grocery bills. They doubtless owe for the bicycle, also, but a grocer's bill is a luxury while a bicycle is a necessity.

The Pennsylvania school law provides that a school director who shall neglect to attend any two regular meetings of the board in succession, unless detained by sickness or prevented by absence from the district, the directors present shall have power to declare his seat in the board vacant and to appoint another in his stead.

The bill passed by the last Legislature appropriating $40,000 towards defraying the expenses of a complete survey of Pennsylvania, has been signed by Gov. Stone. This work will be under the directions of the United States Geological Survey and the United States appropriates an equal sum to that of the State towards paying the expenses.

It is estimated that the bicycle side paths to be erected in the various counties of Pennsylvania will cost $400 a mile, which would mean an actual expenditure of $5,000 to construct twelve and a half miles in a county. The paths are expected to be raised 12 to 18 inches above the road level. The minimum width must be three feet and the maximum six feet.

Judge Mitchell, of Tioga county, says: "A bicyclist has no right upon a sidewalk, and no borough can by ordinance give him that right, or make his riding upon sidewalks legal. A bicycle is a vehicle, and as such, has no more right to run upon the sidewalks than a cart or wagon drawn by horses. If a bicyclist rides upon the sidewalk he is there illegally, and if he should accidentally run over a child or any person and kill him, he would be guilty of manslaughter, no matter if he were riding with the greatest precaution and care, for the reason that his being upon the sidewalk was in itself illegal and would make an accident of this kind serious in results to the bicyclist; whereas, if he were legally upon the highway, possibly no blame could be attached to him by reason of the unavoidable accident of the character referred to."

The whistle of every locomotive on the Allegheny Valley is known to some household along the line, and the tooting of a puffing locomotive that has no interest for a casual observer tells a plain story to some wife or sweetheart. It says as plain as can be that the husband or lover is "going through," and he never fails to notify the loved ones at home of his approach along the bright rails. Often at night an answering signal is seen at the window and this exchange of communication all unknown to the untutored observer is sufficient to assure the man on the engine and the one at home that "all's well." Who can estimate the comfort and pleasure there is for both in this sort of telegraphy, and how it cheers on the way through the storm and darkness the weary engineer, and makes him better for the work at hand and more careful and solicitous of himself and his fellow workmen for this touch of nature? The thought that some one was waiting for him, and trusting in him, and believing in him, has brought out all the good and best qualities in many a man when they would otherwise have lain dormant.—East Brady Herald.
