

The Star.

Subscription $1.50 per year, or $1.00 if paid strictly in advance.

C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub.
WEDNESDAY, MAY 17, 1899.

An independent local paper, published every Wednesday at Reynoldsville, Jefferson Co., Pa., devoted to the interests of Reynoldsville and Jefferson county. Non-political, will treat all with fairness, and will be especially friendly towards the laboring class.

Subscription price $1.50 per year, in advance. Communications intended for publication must be accompanied by the writer's name, not for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. Interesting news items solicited. Advertising rates made known on application at the office in Froelich-Henry Block. Lengthy communications and change of advertisements should reach this office by Monday noon.

Address all communications to C. A. Stephenson, Reynoldsville, Pa.
Entered at the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Pa., as second class mail matter.

A bank failure may not upset the depositor, but it may cause him to lose his balance.

The dandelion is now the popular field flower and soon will come the daisy and golden rod to take its place.

Humanity is unequally divided between those who can't stand prosperity and those who can't get any to stand.

Some smart philosopher has discovered that although "one swallow don't make a summer, one frog makes a spring."

The Supreme Court has declared the direct inheritance tax unconstitutional on the ground of its lack of uniformity, and other bad features.

The summer outing of the Pennsylvania State Editorial Association will be held at Washington, D. C., next month, June 19th to 24th.

The announcement of S. M. Shields, of Clover township, for county commissioner, subject to action of the Republican voters at the June primaries, will be found in this issue of THE STAR. Mr. Shields served the county one term as commissioner and is so well known in the county that it is not necessary for THE STAR to comment on his ability to fill the office he now seeks.

Shall the country boy continue to deplore his lack of chance? A reporter has recently ascertained that 70 per cent. of the cleverest men of the Chicago exchange were brought up on farms. While mere circumstance of birth may sometimes make or mar success in life, it is doubtless true that the all-round education of the farm is one of the best foundations for specialization in any future career.

Under a recent act approved by the Governor it is lawful for any justice of the peace within this commonwealth, residing and having an office within the county in which any fair or agricultural association may be located and where exhibitions are held, to have an office on the grounds, at the request of the managers. It will be lawful for the justice to issue warrants in cases of disorderly conduct. It is thought this act will make it easier to preserve order at county fairs.

A good citizen from Rockdale Mills was in town the latter part of last week complaining about the naughty conduct of a haec load of young men from Reynoldsville who had driven through Rockdale Mills several nights before en route to and from Coal Glen. The gentleman said when they returned through Rockdale—about midnight—they did considerable yelling and used some very vulgar language. We don't know who the parties were, but we do know that such conduct is disgraceful and should not be indulged in by any person in this civilized land.

We notice in some of our exchanges that a neat swindle is being successfully worked in various towns. A woman book agent appears and leaves sample copies for examination. A few days later a man calls to see if the books are wanted. A day intervenes and again the woman appears and on being told that the man has taken away the books she weeps great globes of tears, says the man has been collecting her books all over town, pleads poverty and sorrow and generally preys upon her unsuspecting victims to the extent of a liberal compensation. Don't be hoodwinked.

Governor Stone has attached his signature to an act of the 3rd of April, that provides that in all cases where viewers are appointed by the courts of this commonwealth to view and lay out a public road, or where a review or re-review is ordered, viewers shall give the county commissioners or their clerk at least six days notice in writing of the time and place of holding such view, review or re-review, and a copy of such written notice, properly attested shall be filed with the report of such view, review or re-review, and a failure to comply with the provisions of this act shall be sufficient grounds to set aside the entire proceedings; provided that this act shall not apply to counties having special laws upon the subject.

Corner-stone Laying.

The formal ceremony of the laying of the corner-stone of the M. E. church will take place on Sunday afternoon, May 28, at 3.00 o'clock. Bishop Fowler will formerly lay the stone, and other short addresses will be made by visiting ministers.

In the morning of the same day, at 11.00 o'clock, Bishop Fowler will deliver a sermon in the M. E. church, at which time an effort will be made to raise funds for the new church. In the evening Rev. H. G. Hall, of Franklin, will be present to deliver the sermon.

On the following Tuesday—Decoration Day—Bishop Fowler will deliver his celebrated lecture on Abraham Lincoln, in the opera house at 8 P. M., and the G. A. R. Post will escort the speaker to the place of meeting and occupy the platform with him. Free admission is given to the old soldiers, but an admission fee of 50 cents will be charged all others. Those wanting reserved seats can secure them by paying ten cents additional at Mean's drug store.—Punxsutawney News.

W. C. Murray for Commissioner.

William C. Murray, of Punxsutawney, candidate for Republican nomination for county commissioner, was in town this week. Mr. Murray feels confident that his chances are all right for the nomination and he will put up a lively hustle. As a commissioner during the past term Mr. Murray has proven himself competent and in every way worthy of the position and there is no reason why he should not be re-elected. As a man W. C. Murray is honest and upright and when he does a thing he does it right. Mr. Murray has hosts of friends all over the county who realize his fitness for the office of commissioner and who will not forget him on the 17th of June.—Brockwayville Record.

Democratic Committee Meeting.

On account of the date of the Democratic State Convention being fixed for June 14th, it has been made necessary to call a meeting of the County Committee to elect delegates to the State Convention or our county will be without representation, as our County Convention does not meet until July 3d.
