WEDNESDAY, MAY 24, 1899.

An independent local paper, published every Wednesday at Reynoldsville, Jefferson Co. Pa., devoted to the interests of Reynoldsville and Jefferson county.

With a little tact a man who doesn't know much of anything may get along in this world without exposing his colossal ignorance—providing he has sense enough to keep quiet—for most people see much more anxious to make a display of the little knowledge they have than to gain more.—Punch's Spirit.

Under a recent act of the legislature, the judge, sheriff and county commissioners constitute a board which has authority to put prisoners in the county jails at work on the streets and roads and use them at any work which can be done without the aid of machinery.

During the year 1898 the United States bureau of engraving and printing issued 2,500,000,000 of the common red two cent stamps, enough to go almost twice around the earth.

Apropos of the question as to whether or not women should remove their hats in church, a Lexington man suggests a return to the good old custom under which the men sat on one side and the women on the other.

The Berwind-White coal mining company, one of the large producers of bituminous coal, which has mines in Center, Clearfield, Jefferson, Cambria and Somerset counties, notified its employees last week that on June 1st an increase of wages would go into effect.

The names of the contestants for the free scholarship to the Clarion State Normal, that is offered by THE STAR, will be found on the eighth page of this issue.

The Williamsport Sun says: The lumber business in this section has, in fact, taken on new life, and a marked improvement is noticeable everywhere.

County Treasurer W. H. Lucens will be at the following places on the days and dates given below to receive county, state, bond and dog taxes for the year 1899: McCalmont township—Wednesday, May 24, in the afternoon, at Park Hotel, Eleanora, and Thursday, May 25, in the forenoon, at the house of Curt North; in the afternoon at Anita. Washington township—Monday, May 29, in the afternoon at Westville, and Tuesday, May 30, in the forenoon, at Rockdale store; in the afternoon at Falls Creek. Winslow township—Thursday, June 8, at the Imperial Hotel, Reynoldsville. Reynoldsville borough—Friday, June 9, at the Imperial Hotel. West Reynoldsville borough—Saturday, June 10, in the forenoon, at the Ross House.

Excursion to Kinzua Bridge. The Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh Railway Company announce a delightful excursion to the great Kinzua Viaduct, Sunday, May 28th, leaving Falls Creek at 9.30 A. M. Returning special train will leave the Bridge at 4.00 P. M., and the fare for the round trip has been placed at the extremely low rate of $1.00.

An early spring excursion is always enjoyed, especially so when an attractive point is the object sought. An opportunity of a trip to the Bridge on above date will delight those fortunate enough to go and will long be remembered. Low prices is what makes the clothing, hats and furnishing at Millirens so famous. A large stock of knives and forks just received at Gooder's jewelry store. Everything up-to-date in styles at Seely's clothing store.

Bing's bunch of bargains

BUYING AT REAL WORTH. The public have learned to appreciate the Economy of this store—it's helpfulness—to rely upon its statements. They realize that each transaction is based on value—one of the results of right buying and right selling—of modern methods—the keeping out of the old-time ruts, and staying out.

MAY PARASOL SALE. Bright colorings—subdued shades—no matter the style you've in mind, you'll find it here with a price attached that means a smaller outlay than you supposed. Styles right—prices right—making a May sale of unusual interest.
