Andrew Paum Dead

Andrew Baum, who was well known in this section, died at the home of his brother-in-law, A. T. McClure, at Pancoast at 5.00 A. M. Saturday. June 10th. His remains were buried in the Rumberger cometery, DuBols, Sunday afternoon. From the DuBois Express we clip the following notice of Mr. Baum's

"Though in failing health for a number of years, his death was unexpected. as he was not taken seriously ill until Friday afternoon. A complication of diseases, resulting in paralysis and dropsy, was the principal cause leading to his death.

"Mr. Baum was born in Jefferson county 71 years ago. For many years he engaged extensively in real estate, mining and business movements in Jefferson, Clearfield and surrounding counties. He was proprietor of a large section of Falls Creek at one time and formerly owned the Baum home, which stood for many years on the site now covered by the Evergreen hotel, at that place. He was prominently connected with many land litigations involving large tracks in this vicinity, which were never and probably never will be settled. At one time he was counted among the wealthiest men in this part of the state.

"He is survived by a family o' four daughters, Mrs. William Burke of Falls Creek, Mrs. Munch of DuBois, and Misses Edith and Birdie Baum, also of this city. Mrs. Baum belonged to the at which time there was a great deal of well known family of McClure, and died | drinking going on, about eight years ago."
