Injured With a Lead Pencil.

The little girl had found a lead pencil and was running in the hall with it in her mouth and fell. Fortunately she did not have the sharp end of the pencil in her mouth or it would have been more serious. As it was the roof of the mouth was badly lacerated and the little girl could take but very little nourishment for several days.

Poisoned With Canned Ham.
 G. A. Patton, Deputy Supreme Organizer, who was in Reynoldsville a few weeks trying to organize a conclave of the Heptasophs, was poisoned one day last week from eating canned ham in a sandwich. Mr. Patton wanted to go up the A. V. R'y on the 6:01 p. m. train and not being able to get supper at his hotel in time to go on the train, he stepped into a restaurant and ordered a ham sandwich. Soon after eating the sandwich he became very sick. He went to Falls Creek and was too sick to do any business and returned to this place on the 8:08 p. m. train. He was under a doctor's care several days.

Prof. Breed Goes to Kane.
 Prof. F. S. Breed, who was assistant principal of the Reynoldsville schools the past year, was elected principal of the Kane high school at the meeting of the school board in that city last week. Prof. Breed is a scholarly young man, a good instructor and a gentleman. He was an applicant for assistant principal of our schools for the coming term, but he acted very honorable about the matter and requested the board to take no action on his application at the first meeting in June as he had applied for the principalship of the Kane high school, a more lucrative position, and if he secured it he would withdraw his application at Reynoldsville. We are sorry to lose Prof. Breed and congratulate Kane on securing him as principal of their high school.

Fourth of July Celebration.
 The Knights of Golden Eagle are making preparations for a big Fourth of July celebration in this place and there will be no excuse for any of our people to go elsewhere to have a good time on that day. The amusements of the day will consist of a big parade—industrial, fantastic and civic societies—bicycle races, foot races, three-legged race, wheelbarrow race, etc., platform dance in Frank's Park, ball game in afternoon and fireworks in the evening. The famous Keystone Cornet band will furnish music. A prize of twenty dollars will be given to any out-of-town society that has the largest number of members in line, there must be at least 25 in line. L. J. McEntire will be marshal of the day and Thomas E. Evans assistant marshal.

Killed on the Rail.
 Evan R. Llewellyn, who was well known in Reynoldsville, having lived here a number of years, was killed on the P. & E. R. R. at Glen Campbell Wednesday of last week. Mr. Llewellyn had been a brakeman on the railroad three weeks before he met a horrible death. In attempting to jump on a moving train he fell under the cruel wheels. His left leg and left hand were cut off and he was otherwise injured. The accident happened at 10:00 A. M. and he died at 2:00 p. m. His remains were buried at Glen Campbell Friday. He was 31 years old. The deceased was married to Hattie Stewart, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart of this place. Mr. Stewart and daughter, Miss Florence, drove to Glen Campbell to attend the funeral. Mrs. Llewellyn will come to Reynoldsville this week and live with her parents.

Farewell Party.
 Simon Justham, of Roslyn, Washington, who has been visiting his parents in this place since the 20th of April, left here yesterday for Roslyn, where he owns a large interest in a gold mine. Mr. Justham having been a resident of this place at one time, has many friends here, and in order to have a jolly time with them on the evening before his return to Washington state, he gave a party in the grove on Pleasant Avenue Monday evening. Invitations were issued to eighty young men and their "best girls," and most of all them accepted the invitation, consequently there was a large crowd present. Mr. Justham proved himself a genial host. A dancing platform was erected and a part of the evening's amusement consisted in "tripping the light fantastic." During the evening Wm. Binney, John Reed, Simon Justham, Miss Lizzie North and Thomas Kohoe furnished the crowd with songs. Eloquent refreshments were provided by Mr. Justham and about the midnight hour some time was spent in doing justice to the refreshments. At 2:00 A. M. the party broke up and Mr. Justham's friends returned home thankful to him for the good time provided and wishing him abundant success and great riches from the Huckleberry gold mine.

"Gyp, the Waif."
 "Gyp, the Waif," a comedy-drama in three acts, will be given in the Reynolds opera house to-morrow evening, June 15th, by home talent under the auspices of the Village Improvement Association. The cast of characters is proof positive that the play will be produced in first class style. Following is the cast, look it over:
 Gyp, the Waif..... Edna Myers
 Mrs. Hardwell..... Inez Brown
 Belle Hardwell..... Frankie King
 Nellie Crosby..... Lydia Stollinger
 Mattie..... Grace Myers
 Irving Hardwell..... Will Herpel
 Ned Hardwell..... Harold Arnold
 James Monroe..... Harry Reynolds
 Richard Ryan..... Will Smith
 Charles Mayhew..... James Pentz
 Mike O'Connor..... Al. E. Harris
 Joseph Murphy..... Glen Flynn
 Squire Crosby..... Frank Alexander
 Nathan Hardwell..... H. E. Phillips

In consideration of the fact that the drama is a good one and will be well played, the price of admission small and the proceeds for a worthy cause, the opera house should be over-crowded. The ladies of the Village Improvement Association are deserving of all the financial encouragement that our citizens can give them. The price of admission will be 15 cents for children, 25 cents for general admission and 35 cents for reserved seats.

Adelsperger Resigned.
 Frank P. Adelsperger, who has been on the police force in this place twelve years, six years as chief of police, and in addition to that has served a number of terms as constable and four years as night watchman, has resigned as policeman and night watchman. Mr. Adelsperger has been the best policeman the town has ever had, and the fact that not a robbery has been committed in the business portion of town—his beat—during the four years he has been night watchman, is proof sufficient that he performed his duty faithfully in that capacity. Frequent robberies have been reported from other towns in the past few years; but the robbers didn't attempt to work their profession on Reynoldsville stores, due, we believe, to the fact that they thought Adelsperger was not to be fooled with.
 Now that Mr. Adelsperger has resigned as night watchman, it will show wisdom on the part of our business men and town council to have another good man put on as night watchman immediately. Don't allow petty jealousies to jeopardize the stores and property of the town.
