Solicitor's Views.

The following should have appeared in the minutes of the town council in the last issue of THE STAR, but was omitted for lack of space and time:

To the Honorable Town Council of the Borough of Reynoldsville, GENTLEMEN:-I have been requested by one of your number to give my legal views on the financial side of the question of opening Fifth street to Sandy Lick Creek. As I am informed, the facts present themselves in this way The Court has laid out a public road from Jackson street along the line of Fifth street across Sandy Lick creek to a point in Winslow township. That an ord r to open has been served on the burgess of the borough; that the burgess demands of the council the money to open the road; that the council say that they neither have, nor can they raise the funds the present year to open the read, that the burgess says he will go on and open the street at the expense of the borough without the aid of council as to getting money to pay for the

In order to make myself understood, I will first say that the road law of the State requires of the supervisors, that where an order to open a read has been served on them, the read should be effectually opened as soon as may be practicable (Rearing Book Road 140 Pa., page 639). In this case, the judge says: "We may assume that the Court below (meaning the Common Pleas) would grant them (the supervisors) any reasonable indulgence rendered necessary by the financial condition of the township were they engaged in a bona fide attempt to carry out the order.' The foregoing law will apply with just as much force to a burgess of a borough as it does to supervisors of a township.

Money to enforce the purposes of the road law in townships is raised by taxes levied by the supervisors. Money to enforce the laws relative to a borough are raised by taxes levied by the town council, subject to the approval of the burgess.

The appropriation of funds to open the street in question cannot be done by the burgess alone, but has to be done by the joint action of both in a legal way.

Respectfully submitted. M. M. DAVIS, Solicitor. Summer Outings.

TWO CONVENTIONS.

The B. Y. P. U. and Clearfield Baptist
Association Held Interestin - Meetings at Allens Mills.

The association opened on Friday morning with the moderator, Rev. J. H. Palmer, of Sykesville, in the chair. The introductory sermon was preached by Rev. J. L. Plush, of Zion church, who took as his text James 1: 12. The thought was that the Christian life is a struggle against the allurements of the flesh, and worldly methods of raising money for the church of Christ is in contradiction to Christ's spirit. The remainder of the morning session was given up to business,

In the afternoon session of Friday reports were made on the various benevolent societies. The two most prominent of these were the Educational society, represented by Dr. Leroy Stephens, and the Publication society, represented by Dr. O. F. Flippo. Dr. Flippo gave an interesting account of the Chapel Car work of the society. These cars penetrate to the most remote parts of the land. The only thing of a similar character in the other denominations is the Mission Steamer supported by the Methodists in southern waters. "But," said he, "the natural order seems to be reversed. The Methodists have taken to the water and the Baptists to the land."

On Saturday the most noteworthy feature was the address given by Miss Fay and her Burmese convert. This missionary has a wonderful grasp of missionary problems and knowledge of heathen worship.

The afternoon session was largely given to business, praise and prayer. The The association was a success. Every one came home pleased with the hos pitality of the people of Allens Mills and benefitted by the uplift of thought and fellowship of the brethren.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather and distance some of the delegates had to come the B. Y. P. U. convention held at Allens Mills Thursday, June 15th, opened with a goodly number of delegates and visitors present. The young people of the church furnished excellent music through all the meetings, the pastor, Rev. J. W. Crawford, having charge of the musle.

Miss Edna Moore welcomed the young people in behalf of their, church. She not only welcomed us to the spiritual blessings but also to the temporal bless ings of their homes. Any one who has over atttended a convention at Allens Mills will say with me that the people's hearts and homes are open to their guests. Rev. F. L. Bardens responded to the words of welcome.

"Committee Work" was opened by Rev. A. E. Hooper and discussed by the convention.

After dinner, which was served picnic style in the parsonage, we elected our new officers. Mr. George Null was elected president, Messrs. Chas. Houch and George Rea vice-presidents, Miss Maude Rea secretary, and Miss Ada Fye treasurer.

The following papers were read and discussed: "Junior Work and Its Failare in Clearfield Association" by Miss Minnie Whitmore, of Reynoldsville; Relation of B. Y. P. U. to Mission Work," Rev. Geo. Muller, Punxsutawney; "How to Win the Young Men." Mr. Charles E. Houch, Clearfield. "B. Y. P. U. as an Evangelizing Force, Mr. Edward Baker, DuBcis.

Mr. M. C. Coleman, of Reynoldsville, conducted a very interesting song service in the evening, and was followed by the Rev. C. H. Fitzwilliams, of Pittsbug, who held the audience spell-bound for more than an hour with his famous lecture, "Jerkers, Shirkers and Workers." He is not only an orator, but a fine impersonator, also a fine christian gentleman, who not only aims to entertain his hearers but to bring Christ before them. This closed the convention. which adjourned to meet at West Liberty, Friday, Dec. 8, 1899.

MINNIE WHITMORE. Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles found herself sound and well: now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at H. A. Stoke's Drug Store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

A Young Girl's Experience.

My daughter's perves were terribly out of order. She was thin and weak: the least noise startled her, and she was wakeful at night. Before she had taken one package of Celery King the change in her was so great that she could hardly be taken for the same girl. She is rapidly growing well and strong. her complexion is perfect, and she sleeps well every night.-Mrs. Lucy McNutt, Brush Valley, Pa. Celery King for the Nerves, Stomach, Liver and Kidneys is sold in 25c. and 50c. packages by H. Alex. Stoke.
