

The Star.

Subscription $1.50 per year, or $1.00 if paid strictly in advance.

C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub.
WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 16, 1899.

An independent local paper, published every Wednesday at Reynoldsville, Jefferson Co., Pa., devoted to the interests of Reynoldsville and Jefferson county. Non-political, will treat all with fairness, and will be especially friendly towards the laboring class.

Subscription price $1.50 per year, in advance. Communications intended for publication must be accompanied by the writer's name, not for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. Interesting news items collected. Advertising rates made known on application at the office in Freshlich-Henry block. Lengthy communications and change of advertisements should reach this office by Monday noon.

Address all communications to C. A. Stephenson, Reynoldsville, Pa.
Entered at the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Pa., as second class mail matter.

It is now claimed that a bill is to be introduced in the next Congress authorizing the issue of silver certificates of the denomination of 10, 25 and 50 cents.

A new form of hair scurvy, due, it is believed, to the introduction of natural gas into the region, is causing a great many men and women in Gaines to lose their hair, and threatens them with baldness.—Look Haven Democrat. That may account for so many shining pates in Reynoldsville.

Profanity should have no place in argument. The bad boy, the ruffian and the ignoramus use it profusely because they know of no other weapon of defense. So does the parrot and the split-tongued crow. Those who make any pretense whatever towards refinement and education, only neutralize the legitimate vehicles of thought by resorting to profane explosives and vulgar epithets.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

The management of the Punxsutawney Fair Association did not forget to send THE STAR a complimentary ticket for the old time county fair to be held at Punx's August 29, 30, 31 and Sept. 1st. Accept our thanks gentlemen. Special attractions have been secured for every day of the fair, consisting of bicycle races, horse races, balloon ascensions, high wire performances, ball games, World's Fair Midway Plaisance, &c. Admission to grounds 25 cents, season tickets $1.00; excursion rates on railroads.

"There is no reason why a man should not be honest and straightforward in politics as in any other position in life," correctly asserts an exchange. "The schemer always poses and gains temporary advantages, but there is founded no permanent confidence and the political life is of short duration. The man that thinks he rules the people is a poor ass whose bray is music to none but his own ears, and those about him shudder. Truthfulness and fidelity to friends, a faithful performance of duty, larger or small as it may be, is the best guide to success, and the people are quick to see the correctness and good intentions of the man adopting this rule. The cowardly friend, the one who smiles a warm greeting and is bound enough to make remarks after you pass by that he dare not make to your face, is the lowest kind of an animal."

In commenting upon the coal situation, the Coal Trade Journal says editorially: There is a continued large product of bituminous coal, and this is evidence of an excellent condition of affairs in the general industrial pursuits of the country, for every railroad seems to be occupied to its fullest extent in moving various commodities from the producer to the consumer, and its continuance is most likely for several months to come. The output this year will exceed that of any year, and we may find, upon comparing statistics that the United States will have outstripped Great Britain in its soft coal product. At Buffalo the soft coal market continues to be as strong as ever, the supply continuing to fall far short of the requirements of the market. Prices are stiff, with every indication of an advance. The exports for the month were—anthracite, 21,938 tons; bituminous, 105,612 tons.

Bob Burdette says: "My son, when you hear a young man growling and scolding because Moody gets $200 a week for preaching Christianity, you will perceive that he never worried a minute because Ingersoll got $200 a night for preaching atheism. Remember, my boy, the good things in the world are always the cheapest. Spring water costs less than corn whiskey; a box of cigars will buy two or three Bibles; a gallon of old brandy costs more than a barrel of flour; a 'full hand' at poker often costs a man more in twenty minutes than the church subscription amounts to in three years; a State election costs more than a revival of religion; you can sleep in church every Sunday morning for nothing, if you're mean enough to dead-beat your lodging that way, but a nap in a Pullman car costs you $2.00 every time; fifty cents for the circus and a penny for the little ones to put in the missionary box; one dollar for the theatre, and a pair of trousers frayed at the ends, baggy at the knees, and utterly bursted as to the dome, for the Michigan sufferers; the dancing lady who tries to wear the skirt of her dress under her arm, the waist around her knees, and kicks her slipper clear over the orchestra chairs every night, gets $400 a week and the city missionary gets $500 a year."

HAPPY WEDDING.

Dr. Reid A. Wilson, a Reynoldsville Young Man, the Groom.

Dr. Reid A. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Wilson, of this place, was married in DuBois last Wednesday afternoon. Dr. Wilson, who has spent his entire life in Reynoldsville, with the exception of a few years, is so well known in town that comment from us is unnecessary. From the DuBois Express we clip the full account of the wedding:

One of the most important events of the season and in which a large number of DuBois people felt interested, was the happy wedding of Dr. Reid A. Wilson, of Brookville, and Miss Genevieve Smith, the popular and accomplished daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Smith, of East Long Avenue. The marriage was solemnized at the home of the bride, by her father, the Rev. Smith, assisted by the Rev. A. R. Rich, D. D., pastor of the first M. E. church of the city.

The ceremony was performed at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon, in the presence of a large number of invited guests. Mrs. R. H. Zerby, the town's accomplished musician, played "Lohengrin's Wedding March" as the wedding party slowly walked into the drawing room and in response to the officiating divine's words pledged to each other their life's devotion and love. As the words "I now pronounce you man and wife" were uttered, the strains of "I Promise Thee" rose from the piano and the impressive service was at an end. The young couple received their congratulations with an ease and elegance of manner and many were the heartfelt expressions of happiness and success accorded them. After congratulations, the company was seated at large and small tables and a feast of dainty and choice edibles served.

The young couple are too well known in town for any introduction here. The bride has spent a number of years in DuBois, and enjoys a very close circle of friends. She is an accomplished musician, a very pleasing incident being the fact that she played at Mrs. R. H. Zerby's wedding the very same wedding march that Mrs. Zerby in turn performed for her. Dr. R. A. Wilson, the groom, was once a practitioner here but removed to Brookville where he now enjoys a large dental practice.

Dr. and Mrs. Wilson left on the evening train for Philadelphia, Atlantic City and other eastern cities. Upon their return they will make Brookville their future home, which town, fortunately is not so far away from DuBois as to lose the couple from their old time friends and associates here.

The Last Sunday Excursion.

The Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg R'y will run the last Sunday excursion of the season to Buffalo and Niagara Falls on Sunday, August 20th. Special train will leave Reynoldsville at 6:10 a. m. arriving at Buffalo at noon and Niagara at 12:50 p. m. Returning train will leave Niagara at 6:30 p. m. and Buffalo at 7:30 p. m. Tickets are good going and returning on trains scheduled above, also good for return passage from Buffalo on regular trains Monday, August 21st. The fare will be only $2.50 for the round trip. As this is the last opportunity on Sunday to visit the Pan-American city and wondrous Niagara, no one should fail to take advantage of the extremely low rate named and go.

Spain's Greatest Need.

Mr. R. P. Olivia, of Barcelona, Spain, spends his winters at Aiken, S. C. Weak nerves had caused severe pains in the back of his head. On using Electric Bitters, America's greatest blood and nerve remedy, all pain soon left him. He says this grand medicine is what his country needs. All America knows that it cures liver and kidney trouble, purifies the blood, tones up the stomach, strengthens the nerves, puts vim, vigor and new life into every nerve, muscle and organ of the body. If weak, tired or ailing you need it. Every bottle guaranteed, only 50 cents. Sold by H. A. Stokes, Druggist.

Christian Endeavorer Convention.

The program of the Ninth Annual Convention of Jefferson County Christian Endeavor Union, which meets Tuesday and Wednesday, August 22 and 23, 1899, in the Cumberland Presbyterian church, Punxsutawney, Pa., is an excellent one, as indicated by the variety, range and timeliness of the topics and the number and ability of the speakers. The first session will be at two o'clock p. m. on Tuesday, and thereafter until the close, the time will be thoroughly and profitably occupied.

No Christian Endeavorer or any one interested can afford to miss this convention if it be possible to attend. Ample entertainment will be provided for all delegates.

Railroad rates on the B., R. & P., one and a third fare for round trip, and P. & N. W. one fare for the round trip.

A Young Girl's Experience.

My daughter's nerves were terribly out of order. She was thin and weak; the least noise startled her, and she was wakeful at night. Before she had taken one package of Celery King the change in her was so great that she could hardly be taken for the same girl. She is rapidly growing well and strong, her complexion is perfect, and she sleeps well every night.—Mrs. Lucy McNutt, Brush Valley, Pa. Celery King for the Nerves, Stomach, Liver and Kidneys is sold in 25c. and 50c. packages by H. Alex. Stoke.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses were issued the past week by John S. Barr, Clerk of Courts of Jefferson county:
