Lightning struck the chimney at E. S. Brewer's residence Saturday afternoon, but the damage was light. Members of the 'Indian' football team met last night to reorganize for the coming season. The 'Indians' played good ball last year. Postmaster A. M. Woodward has received a copy of the new money order that goes into use the 4th of September. The new order includes a receipt to the person paying the money for order. Aaa Fetterman, a young man who lives in the East end, had his thumb caught between the chain and sprocket wheel of his bicycle on Friday last and the thumb was almost severed from the hand. A large rattlesnake—four feet nine inches long—has been the attraction in one of the show windows at Millirens clothing store several days. Harry Truitt brought the snake from Driftwood. There will be preaching in the M. E. church next Sunday morning and evening by the pastor, Dr. C. C. Rumberger. The morning subject will be 'The Lord's Day, the Christian Sabbath, When and by Whom Instituted.' A special train over the B., R. & P. R'y will be run from this place to Punxsutawney each day while the fair continues. Train leaves here at 8.10 a. m. Returning, leaves Punxsy at 6.30 p. m. Fare for round trip $1.00. Jefferson county will have another murder trial at the November term of court. Hyacinth Gracco, of Anita, who was stabbed by Mrs. Jennie Ferrari, died at the Adrian Hospital. Mrs. Ferrari is in the Brookville jail. Ninian Cooper, register in the second precinct of this borough, requested us to state that he would be at Hose House No. 2 on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 5th and 6th, to give all who want to register an opportunity to do so. The P. O. S. of A. State convention was held at Wilkesbarre, Pa., last week. The delegates from this section were: John W. Best, Reynoldsville Camp, August Huntinger, Emerickville Camp, and Frank Morris, Allens Mills Camp. On account of the Hebrew New Year, 5690, which will be celebrated by the Jewish people from Monday to Wednesday, September 4th to 6th, the People's Bargain store will be closed next week from 6.00 p. m., Monday, to 6.00 p. m., Wednesday. The barbers of this place held a meeting last Thursday and adopted a scale of prices for their work and also resolved to close their shops at 8.30 p. m. sharp every night during the week but Saturday night when the shops will be kept open until midnight. A heifer owned by Joseph Schugars, who lives near Emerickville, died suddenly one day last week. The animal had the symptoms of anthrax, but it is not known positively what caused her death, as she was dead two days before Mr. Schuckers found the dead body. On account of the Grand Army Encampment at Philadelphia next month, the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg Railway Co. will sell excursion tickets September 2, 3, 4 and 5, good to return until September 12. The rate from Reynoldsville to Philadelphia and return will be $9.00. Mrs. Elizabeth Miller died at the home of her son on Worth street Saturday evening. She had a stroke of paralysis and only lived two hours afterwards. She was 66 years and 4 months old. Funeral services were held in the Trinity Lutheran church yesterday forenoon. Interment was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery. Miss Mayme Sutter gave a party Friday evening to thirty-five young friends. The party was given in honor of Miss Lenore Hamilton, of Vandergrift, and Miss Myrtle Smith, of Driftwood. Miss Anna Belle Hamilton and Miss Edna Myers gave recitations during the evening and Wells Clary played and sang. Refreshments were served at 11.00 p. m. The mayor of Philadelphia is appealing to the citizens of Pennsylvania for aid for the sufferers in Porto Rico. Contributions can be sent to the mayor or to Drexel & Co., treasurer Porto Rico Relief Fund, 5th and Chestnut streets Philadelphia. All contributions of money, however small, will be gladly received, and promptly acknowledged. An Italian child was taken to a local physician for treatment Monday which had been scalded about ten days ago and was treated by the parents for the injury. A kettle of boiling water had been upset on its feet and legs and the injured members were bandaged with the leaves of a common weed. Mortification had taken place before skilled treatment was sought. The body of Col. Henry Cooper, the giant, who died in British Columbia several weeks ago, and was temporarily buried there, will be brought to Eleonora, this county, when the cold weather comes and will be buried in the Eleonora cemetery. Mrs. Cooper, mother of the deceased, lives at Eleonora and the giant had been spending his summer vacations at that place. Col. Cooper was a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge at Eleonora and also a member of an I. O. O. F. lodge in Philadelphia.

Another Bicycle Stolen. Wednesday night of last week Reed Millirens's bicycle was stolen from his back porch. The bicycle was stolen sometime after midnight. Cheek Bone Broken. Alex. Dunsmore, of Pittsburg, who is an employee on the A. V. R'y, had his left cheek bone broken one day last week by a switch ball hitting him. Alex spent Sunday in this place. Married at Hotel Imperial. Charles Montgomery, of Bellwood, Pa., and Miss Harriet C. Keihl, of New Bethlehem, were married in room No. 14, Hotel Imperial, this place, Saturday evening by Squire E. Neff. They spent Sunday here and went to Bellwood Monday. Died in Missouri. O. C. Reed, son of Abner Reed who resides near Skylesville, died at Carthage, Missouri, last week. Death was caused by rheumatism attacking his heart. Mr. Reed was interested with some Reynoldsville people in a zinc mine at or near Carthage. New Reservoir. The Water Company has decided to build a new brick cement reservoir. It is to be 30 feet wide, 60 feet long and 16 feet deep and will hold something like 400,000 gallons of water, over double the amount that the present reservoirs hold. The old reservoir will not be destroyed. Teacher Married. G. M. London, of Skylesville, and Miss Ida Mowry, of Emerickville, were married last Thursday morning by Rev. A. G. Mills. They expect to go to house-keeping on the second floor of Wm. Foster's brick block in this place. Mr. London will teach the Salt Works school the coming term. Horse Killed by Lightning. A horse owned by Nelson Brady, who resides on Fourth street, was killed by lightning during the heavy storm Saturday afternoon. The horse was tied to a wire clothes line and it is claimed that lightning struck the horse and then ran along the clothes line to house and did some damage to the building. Not Guilty of Murder. Louis Lavino, an Italian, was tried in the Jefferson county court last week for murder, but the jury's verdict was "not guilty." April 5th, 1896, Lavino shot Joseph Biango, a fellow countryman at Eleonora, and skipped out before he could be arrested. Recently Lavino returned to this section and was arrested for murder. At the trial last week it was shown that Lavino had shot Biango in self defense. Township School Board Meeting. The school directors of Winslow township held their regular monthly meeting at Frank's Tavern Saturday and elected three teachers to take the places of those who were elected a month ago and resigned, as follows: A. C. Powell was changed from Pancoast to principal of Skylesville school; Ira O. Couch, Pancoast; Miss Annie Fleming, Snyder, and Roy McDonald, Philippi. The township schools all begin September 11th, unless the two new buildings are not ready and those schools will be a little later in beginning. The school board bought new desks for the Owens and Prescottville new school rooms. Another Express Company. We understand that the American Express Company will open an office at this place the first of September and that E. C. Davis will be the agent here. A few years ago the American Express Company had an agent at Reynoldsville, but at that time there were no regular passenger trains into town over the R. & F. C. R'y and the express had to be hauled from Falls Creek on freight trains, which made too much trouble for the agent, F. P. Adelsperger, for the pay that was in it at that time, and it was abandoned. It is different now with two passenger trains a day each way and a good prospect of at least two more. The American Express Agency here has been badly needed and our business men will be glad to have it re-established. A Cherub Gone. At 2.30 p. m., Saturday, August 26th, the Death Angel entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. K. A. Alexander, on Grant street, and carried away in His bosom the spirit of their cherub baby, Louise Katharine, to the realms of Eternal Joy. Louise was born January 20, 1898, making her one year, seven months and six days old when she departed this life. Pneumonia was the immediate cause of death. Louise was a very pretty child, was affectionate, had a sweet disposition and was the flower of the family circle. Funeral services were held at the home of the parents Monday at 4.00 p. m., conducted by Rev. W. F. Rober, pastor of the Presbyterian church. The floral designs from members of B. P. O. E., Mrs. F. M. Brown and Mrs. J. M. Smith, grandmother of Louise, were beautiful. The little remains were dressed in white, placed in a white casket and taken to Beulah cemetery in a white hearse behind a team of white horses. The funeral was large for one so young.

CONTEST CLOSED MONDAY. Miss Elsie Ross Won First Prize and E. R. Syphrit Second. May 17th, 1899, THE STAR offered one year's free scholarship in the Clarion State Normal, one of the best schools in the State, to the person getting the largest number of votes up until August 28th. A second prize of a free trip to Niagara Falls was also offered. Six young people entered the contest, and when the judges, Glenn A. Milliren, Dr. B. E. Hoover and Dr. R. DeVere King, made their final report yesterday morning, the vote was as follows: Miss Minnie Whitmore 2,127; Miss Elsie May Ross 8,460; Miss Margaret W. Davis 1,765; Walter B. Reynolds 40; George Keagle 2,076; Ed. R. Syphrit 3,491. The report of the judges shows that Miss Ross gets the free scholarship and that Mr. Syphrit gets the trip to Niagara Falls. Miss Ross had almost 5,000 votes more than the winner of the second prize. The contest was conducted without any partiality on the part of THE STAR. No more favors were given to one of the contestants than to another. The secretary, S. M. McCreeght, and the judges were very careful that everything was conducted in an honest and fair manner. The strike among the miners affected the contest considerably and had a tendency to discourage some of the contestants. Miss Ross will go to Clarion next Monday to begin the year's course in the State Normal. Public Road Viewed. Louis O. Mellinger, civil engineer, Ward Clark Elliott and ye editor, who were appointed by the court to view a public road from near Sandy Valley, Winslow township, to McIntosh's, Washington township, viewed the road the latter part of last week. If the road is opened, and there is little doubt about that, it will be an excellent road and will cost a small amount of money for the length of the road—about three miles. The road starts in on the road that was made to McDonald's old camp, and near the camp it strikes the line of the McDonald log railroad and follows that to John Cristie's, giving an easy grade for a public road. The only grade of any consequence is the small hill between the Christie and McIntosh residences. This road will give the citizens of Rockdale Mills, and various sections of Beechwoods, a public road to Reynoldsville that will not compel them to drive up the Patterson hill coming to town nor the Stevenson hill on the return trip home. Besides that the old road over the hill drifts full of snow during the winter months and sometimes is impassible. Then again the new road will give three or four farmers an outlet that they badly need. Lawyer G. M. McDonald, John Christie, Roderick McDonald and William McIntosh helped the viewers locate the line of the new road. Mrs. John Christie had an excellent dinner ready for the hungry gang when they reached Mr. Christie's at noon Friday. Ox Roast at Sykesville. The ox roast at Sykesville last Thursday was a great success financially, socially and every other way. The receipts of the day amounted to almost $300.00. Early in the forenoon the people began to assemble from far and near and by the time dinner was ready there was a large crowd in Romantic park. There were only tickets enough sold at one time to fill all the long tables that were spread under the friendly shade of the towering trees, and those who were slow about buying their tickets for dinner were not admitted to the spacious dining room when the stentorinous voice of W. A. London proclaimed that dinner was ready. Ye scribe was among the number to get in first, and consequently, had the first chance at the good things provided, but the supply was so great that for two or three hours hungry crowds were admitted within the gates and were given plenty to eat. The dinner was excellent, in fact was better than might be expected on such an occasion. The ox (which was a two-year-old heifer) was nicely cooked. The entire affair was well managed, for which the Ladies' Aid Society, and the gentlemen who assisted, all deserve credit. Labor Day. Labor Day, September 4th, will be celebrated in Frank's Park, Reynoldsville, under the management of the United Mine Workers of America. The first thing on the program will be a parade at 11.00 a. m., which will form at the park. After that dinner will be served in the park. At 2.00 p. m. there will be speeches by Mrs. Jones, of Pittsburg, Edward McKay, of Buena Vista, Richard Gilbert, of Southampton, and George Harris, of this place. The sports begin at 2.00 p. m. with a bicycle race, open to all amateurs in Jefferson county. The prize will be a $50.00 bicycle. There will be a football game, baseball game, foot races, wheelbarrow races and potato races. The races will be run on Main street. There will be a dance at the park. An Italian band of forty pieces will furnish music during the day and evening. Large crowds are expected here from other towns in the county. A big time is expected.

AN OLD CITIZEN GONE. H. I. Cartin Died Thursday Morning—Was an Invalid for Years. Henry I. Cartin, an old veteran and a highly respected citizen, departed this life at 7.00 a. m., Thursday, August 24, 1899, at the advanced age of over 87 years. Mr. Cartin was born at Drogheda, Ireland, March 3, 1812. When nineteen years old he came to America, spending several years in New Jersey and then came to Birmingham, Huntingdon county, Pa., where on October 8th, 1843, he was married to Margaret Spellman, who survives him. Several years after he was married Mr. Cartin moved to Center county. While residing in that county he answered his adopted country's call for soldiers and joined Company C, 148th regiment, and served one year. After the war he moved to Brookville and engaged in the grocery business. During the month of March, 1874, Mr. Cartin moved to Reynoldsville and opened a grocery store, over after residing here. Fifteen years ago he had the first stroke of paralysis, which affected his right side. Had been an invalid three years before death, and was confined to his bed the last year of his earthly existence. At five o'clock Tuesday evening he had the last stroke of paralysis and the following Thursday morning his spirit took its flight from the tired body. Funeral services were held in the Catholic church at 9.00 a. m., Saturday, at which time Father Edward Driscoll celebrated High Mass. The deceased being a member of the Grand Army Post, that order, the Sons of Veterans and the Woman's Relief Corps attended the funeral in a body, and the former had charge of the services at the Catholic cemetery. The funeral was a very large one. To Mr. and Mrs. Cartin nine children were born, five of whom are living, as follows: Thomas H., Morgan, Allegheny county; Mary Reed, Reynoldsville; James T.; Harry J., Newport, Ark.; Emma C. Applegate, of this place. The B., R. & P. Trains. The fast trains of the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg, that will be running in and out of the Allegheny station of the Pittsburg & Western will be solid vestibules and of a class of equipment that will make them distinctive. All equipment will be new, and the free reclining chair cars will have lavatories at one end and a buffet at the other. The regular coaches will have seats of the high back pattern of those of the Empire State express of the New York Central with the backs somewhat higher than those of the famous train. Whether the sleeping cars to be used will be Pullman or Wagner cars has not yet been decided. C. O'D. Pascult, division passenger agent, who is at the head of the local passenger interests of the road, said that only the accommodation train will be installed on September 4th. This will run to and from Reynoldsville. The through trains will begin running later. Schedules are now being completed for the passenger service.—Kittanning Times. Ticket Agent Davis at this place has not received any official notice yet of the accommodation train being put on between Reynoldsville and Pittsburg Monday, but he thinks it will be put on at that time. A Good Play. "The Hidden Hand" was given at the opera house last evening by home talent. The play was well rendered, all the participants played their parts exceedingly well. Time and space will not permit comment on the parts taken. There was a large audience present. The play was given under the auspices of the Daughters of Rebekah. The cast of characters was as follows: Mal. Ira Warfield, Winfield Sterley Wood, his servant, Reynolds Gorsline Herbert Grayson, Clement Flynn Capitola's lover. Black Donald, the coliner, Albert Gelsler Col. LeNoir, his son, Ira Hutchison Craven LeNoir, his son, George Farrell Four Cent Man, Sheldon Applegate Traverse Rocke, Sheldon Applegate Headlong Hal, Frank Foley Judge. Gentleman Dick, William Ward Stealy Steve, Samuel C. Collins Pomp, Leon Ferris Officer, Lizzie Schughrow Capitola, Newsboy and Heiress, Garris Deeter Clara Day, Nellie G. Collins Mrs. Conditment, Margaret R. Gorsline Dorcas Knight, Blanche Harding Pitta-pat, Mary V. Collins Unknown. Between acts Misses Althea Sutter and Kate Schughrow sang a duet and Master George Rupert danced. Modest Preacher. Not long ago a minister from the rural district came to town and entered one of our drug stores to buy a rubber nipple. There was no one in the store but a lady clerk and the preacher was too modest to ask for a nipple, but after standing around awhile with a genuine blush on his face, he said to the clerk: "Do you sell rubber points?" The lady knew what he wanted, but increased his embarrassment by asking him whether he wanted a white or black one. School Began Monday. The West Reynoldsville public schools opened Monday with an enrollment of 160 pupils, as follows: room 1, 56, room 2, 35, room 3, 37, room 4, 32. The school begins with good prospects for a very successful term. The instructors are Prof. A. J. Postlethwait, principal, Misses Hannah Stauffer, Orpha Beer and Clara Carrier. Little gent's shoes $1.00. Robinson's.

Thomas Adams, of the Robinson Shoe Store, went to Brockwayville Monday to visit his parents. He is suffering from hay fever and may possibly go to Kane a few days for benefit of his health. New Firm and New Quarters. Robert J. Thomas and James Butler are now partners in the barber business, Mr. Butler having bought a half interest in the shop. They have moved their shop from the basement of Hotel Imperial to the room formerly occupied by the Cochlin Sisters' millinery store. The new location is an excellent room for a barber shop, and when Messrs. Thomas and Butler got things arranged the way they want them they will have a very nice barber shop. Both gentlemen are first class barbers. Buried at Brookville. The remains of Conductor Daniel Faust, who resided at New Bethlehem, were buried in the Brookville cemetery Friday afternoon. Mr. Faust was a member of F. & A. M. Lodge of Driftwood, and the services at the cemetery were conducted according to Masonic rites. The following Reynoldsville people attended the funeral: George Mellinger and wife, Dr. B. E. Hoover and wife, Miss Eleanor Reed, Mrs. W. J. Weaver, C. C. Hammond, James Evans, L. J. McEntire, Ira Smith, M. Montgomery, Jacob Henninger and M. E. Weed. How to save and make money at the same time—by buying your shoes from Robinson Shoe Co.
