Try an orange and celery phosphate; good drink when you are tired. 5 cents. Reynolds Drug Store. Mothers, are you going to send the boys to school? If you are, call and see Millirens suits and hats. J. A. Carl has bought the Rea milk wagon and dairy. He made his first trip on the wagon yesterday. Miss Lydia Mellinger entertained a number of young people at her home on Grant street Monday evening. For Sale—Five horses and one three coated hack. Inquire of Carmine Marano, Italian Store, Big Soldier. Nine-month-old child of Thomas Nowack, of Big Soldier, was buried in the Catholic cemetery Saturday afternoon. Thomas Wray was thrown off a bicycle Sunday while coasting down a hill near Sykesville and dislocated his left arm. Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Lizzie Lee and Martin Feeney, which will take place on Wednesday, September 20. Rev. B. F. Hankey, of Kittanning, will preach in the Trinity Lutheran church at this place next Sunday at 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. The thirteenth annual state convention of the Pennsylvania State Christian Endeavor Union will be held at Washington, Pa., October 3rd, 4th and 5th. The Pittsburg Sunday Post contained a three column write-up of the Allegheny Valley Railway and towns along the line, which included Reynoldsville. L. P. Seeley, of Pittsburg, a member of the Seeley, Alexander & Co. bank and the Seeley clothing store in this place, was in town several days the past week. The eastbound passenger train on the A. V. Ry, due here at 1.00 p. m., was two hours late Monday. An engine jumping off a switch at Kittanning was what caused the delay.

The Helping Hand Society of the M. E. church will hold a market at Mrs. G. W. Bussard's meat market next Saturday afternoon.

William Copping received a letter from England Monday which contained the sad news that his mother had died the 24th of last month. She was 78 years old.

Ex-postmaster E. T. McGaw, who was bookkeeper for J. V. Young during the past summer, has tendered his resignation to accept another position the first of October.

The People's Bargain Store, A. Katzen proprietor, will be closed from Wednesday at 6.00 p. m. till Thursday evening at 6.00 o'clock on account of Jewish holiday.

Six-month-old son of William Hamilton, of Big Soldier, died Saturday and was buried in Beulah cemetery Monday afternoon. Rev. W. Frank Reber conducted funeral services.

V. C. Freas, formerly of Bechtrees, is temporarily an assistant at the B. R. & P. station in this place. Mr. Freas moved into Capt. T. C. Reynolds' house on Jackson street the first of this week.

A number of young ladies and gentlemen of this place drove to Panoacet Friday evening and were the guests of Arthur McClure. Refreshments were served before the young people started on the homeward trip.

The Altar Society of the Catholic church will hold a lawn fete Saturday afternoon and evening at Rev. T. Brady's lawn. Ice cream, cake, coffee and sandwiches will be on sale. Everyone cordially invited to attend.

If you want a good, substantial and pretty buggy at an extremely low price, you can get it at the Reynoldsville Hardware Co. store. The buggies are being sold at a big reduction. See them before buying elsewhere.

Frances Laverick, aged 3 years, 11 months and 15 days, daughter of John Laverick, died Friday and was buried in Beulah cemetery Sunday afternoon. Funeral services were conducted at residence of parents by Rev. W. Frank Reber.

Florence, seven-year-old daughter of D. W. Atwater, gave a party to forty little friends in the orchard back of the Burns House Saturday afternoon. As usual on such occasions the tots had a delightful time. Refreshments were served.

The B. R. & P. Ry will sell excursion tickets to Clearfield on account of the Clearfield county fair from Sept. 26th to 29th at rate of $1.15 from Reynoldsville, good to return Sept. 30th. Trains leave at 7.15 a. m., 12.45 and 4.42 p. m. for Clearfield.

A youthful chap stole a watch from a residence in West Reynoldsville one day last week where he had gone on business and was left in the room alone a few minutes. When accused of the theft he returned the watch and the matter was dropped.

The King's Daughters Circle of the Presbyterian church will have a sale of ice cream, cake, home-made taffy, fresh popcorn and carnations, Saturday evening, September 16th, in the room next the gas office. Proceeds for the benefit of the chapel fund. A liberal patronage is solicited.

Edward McKay, of Beuna Vista, and Mrs. Mary G. Jones, of Chicago, delivered addresses to a small audience in Centennial hall Monday evening. An admission fee of 10 and 15 cents was charged, which no doubt was the reason the house was not well filled. Mrs. Jones is a radical socialist.

A picnic was held by a number of residents of West Reynoldsville in the woods north of that borough last Friday evening. On account of the dampness of the weather in the early part of the day the attendance was not large. Those present had an enjoyable time. The West Reynoldsville band, which under the directions of Richard Ramsey is becoming a good musical organization, entertained the picnickers with a number of selections.

The Young People's Union of the Baptist church held a social at the residence of Lawyer C. Mitchell Monday night. George Rea, ex-president of the Union, and Joseph Macro leave here next week to attend the Bucknell University and the social was given in their honor. It was the intention to hold the social on the lawn, but the rain during the forenoon, non-appearance of "Old Sol" in the afternoon and the chilly atmosphere in the evening drove the young people into the house. However, it was a delightful social. Refreshments were served.

One evening last week after the 9.28 train arrived, the Hotel Imperial bus team made a quick trip from A. V. Ry station to hotel without a driver. At click of the bus door as it closes the driver always starts from the station, and on this occasion a commercial man stepped off the train into bus and closed the door. The driver was not on the bus but at the click of the door the team started at rather a reckless speed. By the time the horses got to the bridge the commercial man had decided to get out of the bus, which he did and also skinned his shins in falling on the bridge. The horses came up to the hotel and stopped.

Arm Broken. Mrs. Dougherty, a widow of Prescottville, fell down a pair of steps one day last week and broke her left arm at the wrist.

Sewer Work Started Yesterday. Messrs. McAtee & Wright, who have the contract to put in the sewer in a portion of the town, began the work at noon yesterday.

Ankle Crushed. Thomas Broad, a miner in Big Soldier, had his left ankle crushed by a fall of coal one day last week. Thomas will be forced to take a two months' vacation from his labor.

Naturalization Court. Judge Reed held naturalization court at Brookville Monday and about one hundred foreigners became American citizens. Some of them were pretty "tough" looking citizens.

Jailed Yesterday. Constable John Null, of Sykesville, took Adam Danko, a Slav, to the Brookville jail yesterday morning. The charge against Danko was violent assault and battery and attempt to rape. The Slav could not get bail and had to go to jail.

Severe Tobacco Cure. Samuel D. Martin, who was injured at Hopkins mill a few weeks ago by a lath penetrating his abdomen to the depth of three inches, was an inveterate tobacco chewer up until the time he was injured and since that time he has no desire for tobacco, although he carries a plug in his pocket.

Arrested for Profanity. Saturday afternoon Constable P. J. Ward, of West Reynoldsville, arrested Thomas Wray on Main street for using profanity. Wray was taken before "Squire E. Neff who imposed a fine on him for swearing. If more fellows were served in a like manner there would not be so much profanity heard on our streets as there is.

Hold Services in Centennial Hall. The Presbyterian services will be held in Centennial hall, beginning next Sunday, September 17th, while the chapel is being built to the church, which will be two or three months. Sunday school, preaching services and Endeavor meetings will be held in the hall at the same hour that services were held in the church. Prayer meeting will be held at the Presbyterian parsonage this evening.

Business Change. Scott McClelland, of Brookville, formerly a citizen of this place, has purchased the L. P. Seeley clothing store. Mr. McClelland's host of friends here would be glad to have him move back to Reynoldsville, but this he does not intend doing. George W. Stoke, jr., will continue as manager of the store the same as when Mr. Seeley was proprietor. Mr. McClelland, who is one of the directors of the First National bank, will make frequent visits to look after his interests here.

Skull Fractured. Harry, twelve-year-old son of John C. Richards, had his skull slightly fractured last Thursday evening. Some boys were pitching horse shoes in front of J. C. McEntire's blacksmith shop in West Reynoldsville and the game was so interesting that they were continuing it after the evening shadows began to make it difficult to see the pegs, and that was the reason the accident occurred. The shoe was thrown by one of the boys and Harry did not see it and was hit on the head.

Was a Good "Devil." James G. Pentz, who graduated from the high school of Reynoldsville last May, will go to Meadville the latter part of this week to take up a four year course in the Allegheny College. James, who is one of our bright and promising young men, has decided to prepare himself for the law profession, and we believe he will make a good lawyer. He was "devil" in THE STAR office several years ago and he was a good "devil." We wish him success in his work at the Allegheny College.

A Good Machine. In this issue of THE STAR will be found a full page advertisement of testimonials, &c., for the Folding Automatic Spring Washer, of which G. W. Hartwick is owner of patent. Mr. Hartwick, who came to Reynoldsville over one year ago, is a hustler in the machine business and has sold a large number of machines in this section. Those who buy are well pleased with the machine. Mr. Hartwick does not misrepresent his business and, consequently, people who buy from him are satisfied.

Quarterly Meeting. Quarterly meeting services will be held in the M. E. church Friday evening and Sunday as follows: Preaching at 7.30 Friday evening by Presiding Elder R. C. Smith, after which the fourth quarterly conference will be held. Sunday services: Love feast at 10.00 a. m., preaching at 11.00 by Presiding Elder, after which the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered; Sunday school at 3.00 p. m.; teachers' meeting immediately after Sunday school; preaching in the evening at 7.30.

William Null, Sr., Dead. William Null, who resided in Henderson township, about one mile below Sykesville, died at his home Sunday morning, Sept. 10th. Mr. Null, better known as "Grandpa," was 65 years old. He was born in Lebanon county, Pa., in October, 1834. When eight years old he went to Clearfield county, where he lived until 1852, when he came to Jefferson county and bought a farm in Henderson township, where he has since resided. In 1853 Mr. Null was married to Miss Elizabeth Hall, of Clearfield county, with whom he lived happily till 1880, when death called her to enjoy the reward she had so well earned. Unto them six children were born, five of them still living. They are: John H., George E., Milton and William, jr., all of Sykesville, and James E., of Lindsey. He was a member of I. O. O. F. and of the Sykesville Baptist church, of which he was one of the leading spirits in organizing and building. His life was one of christian service and now he has gone to enjoy the reward of the righteous.

Camille Well Presented. The Irene Taylor Company presented the celebrated French drama, "Camille" at the York opera house last evening. The company was at its best and demonstrated that in strong plays it is at home. Miss Taylor, as Camille, was superb and her support was strong. It is so seldom we see a good emotional actress in repertoire that when one visits us we feel it our duty to give her all the praise she merits. Too much cannot be said in praise of Miss Taylor, she is a talented and finished artist, and the large and fashionable audiences which attend her performances prove that her fine acting is appreciated.—York (Pa.) Daily. At the Reynolds opera house every night next week.

Acknowledgement of Falsification. State of Pennsylvania, County of Jefferson, ss. Before me, E. Neff, Esq., one of the Justices of the Peace in and for said county, personally came Roy Newberry who, being duly sworn according to law, did depose and say that any slanderous things that he may have published or uttered about Miss Hellen Worden is untrue and was uttered without any foundation, and further saith not.

Sworn and subscribed before me at Reynoldsville, Pa., this 30th day of August, A. D. 1899. E. NEFF, Justice of the Peace.

Game Season. We have been requested to publish the open season for killing game, which is as follows: Wild turkey, pheasant, grouse, quail, partridge and squirrel, from October 15th to December 15th; woodcock during the same period; rail and reed birds, September 1st to December 1st, elk and deer, (no dogs to be used) November 1st to December 1st; hares and rabbits, November 1st to December 15th; plover, July 15th to January 1st; web-footed wild fowl, September 1st to May 1st.

Excursions to Pittsburg. The Allegheny Valley Ry has announced its excursion rates from points along the line, to Pittsburg on account of the Exposition at the latter place. They will be run on Wednesdays and will include the following dates: Sept. 13, 20 and 27, Oct. 4, 11 and 18. Tickets will be good four days returning, including date of issue, and include admission to the Exposition. The rate will be $4.00 from DuBois, Reynoldsville and intermediate stations and $3.00 from Brookville.

Are Doing a Nice Business. The trains of the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg running between this city and Reynoldsville are already doing a nice business. They have from 50 to 70 passengers on board on some trips, and many of them come from points on the old line or transfer from other lines to see the new road. The coaches and engines are very fine, and the new road has so far made a favorable impression on Pittsburg people.—Pittsburg Post.

Card of Thanks. We desire to thank our neighbors and friends for their kindness through the sickness and death of our beloved child. MR. AND MRS. CONRAD HEEMER.

Lost—A silk umbrella was lost Sunday between E. D. Seeley's residence and Beulah cemetery. Initials F. K. A. on handle. Finder will be rewarded by returning umbrella to this office.

Ladies you can get a beautiful pair of shoes for $2.00 at Robinson's.

Town Council Meeting. Town council met in regular session Wednesday evening, Sept. 6th. President Elliott in the chair and all members present. Minutes of the previous meeting read and approved.

Mr. J. S. Hammond was present in the interest of the R. & F. C. Ry Co. and asked the council to cause a new sidewalk to be laid on west side of Fourth street extension, from south side of Jackson street to R. & F. C. depot. President Elliott informed him that an ordinance was already prepared.

Mr. David Lane was present and asked to be exonerated from paying a dog tax, claiming he had no dog. On motion was exonerated.

Dr. S. Reynolds was present and protested against the erection of a side or footwalk on west side of Bradford street along his property.

E. Neff was present and asked the council to take some action towards taking care of the surface water at Hill and Third streets and also in the alley between Grant and Hill streets.

Tax Collector G. W. Swartz made the following report of taxes received since August 1st: borough, $12.37; bond, $402.87; water, $133.54 and poor, $336.08. Secretary of the Board of Health reported receipts to be $21.00.

President Elliott presented a release from the Burns heirs of Willow alley extension, consideration $14.26. On motion it was accepted and an order drawn for the amount.

On motion ordinance No. 58, relative to sidewalk on Fourth street extension, south side of Jackson street, was read on first reading.

On motion an order was ordered to be drawn in favor of Jacob Henninger for $200.00, part payment for Fifth street extension.

Street committee reported the following sidewalks to be in bad condition and needing immediate repairs: J. H. Murray, lot near iron bridge, Main street; Miss Ida M. Reynolds, Third and Grant streets. E. C. Burns, Fourth street.

Five Generations Living. Mrs. Janet McCracken, who resides in East Franklin township, near Adrain, will celebrate her 89th birthday October 9th. She was born in Andre, Scotland, and came to this country 50 years ago. It required eight weeks to come over the water, and two weeks to make the trip, mostly by canal, from New York to Worthington. Mrs. McCracken has been married twice, the first time to a man named Adams, and the second time to the man whose name she still bears. She had a brother who served under Sir John Moore, and shared in his retreat from Caronna. Two of her sons, James and Thomas McCracken, participated in the War of the Rebellion, and she has a grandson, Robert Adams, jr., now in the Philippine Islands, fighting the insurgents. Her son, Robert Adams, sr., of Rathmel, from whom we learned the above, was down visiting her this week. He is the father of Robert Adams, who is at Manila.—Kittanning Times.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at H. A. Stoke's drug store.

We sell the Crown drill, which sows all kinds of grain and grass seed, plants corn, beans and peas, distributes fertilizer and never chokes.
