A valuable young horse owned by Jonathan Desmor, tax collector of McCalmont township, died a few days ago. The horse had distemper.

Adam Boehmura and Bronistawa Pals were married in the Catholic church Monday morning by Father Brady. Ruth, five-year-old daughter of Boyd Geer, of Big Soldier, died yesterday forenoon of lung trouble. Will be buried at Cool Spring to-day. Rev. C. J. Hall, of Buffalo, N. Y., will deliver a gospel temperance address in the M. E. church Sunday evening, October 1st, at 7.30, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. of Reynoldsville. Dr. James Eldon, who has been principal of the Central State Normal School at Lock Haven for fifteen years, has placed his resignation in the hands of the trustees to take effect January 1, 1900. A reunion of the 78th Regiment will be held at Punxsutawney October 12th. John A. Hopkins and James McMillen, Barney McCann, of this place, and Adam Mohny, of Emerickville, are members of this regiment. The B., R. & P. Ry. will sell excursion tickets from Reynoldsville to Dayton September 26th to 29th, inclusive, on account of Dayton fair. Tickets will be good to return on all trains until September 30. Fare for round trip $1.50. N. G. Pinney, the Brookville insurance agent who was so seriously injured by jumping out of a carriage in Philadelphia several weeks ago, was able to be moved to his home in Brookville Saturday. Hopes are now entertained for his recovery. Shick & Wagner will have their fall opening Thursday, Sept. 28th. They will also have a special sale of dress goods giving a discount of 10 per cent. on all dress goods sold that day. The Reynoldsville orchestra will furnish music in the evening from 7.30 to 10.00 o'clock. All are invited. Rev. Clarence Hart, of Jersey Shore, will deliver his lecture on "The Good Samaritan" in the M. E. church Friday evening, Oct. 6th, at 7.30 o'clock. The lecture will be free to the people of this place and all are cordially invited. This entertainment is provided by Reynoldsville Lodge No. 824, I. O. O. F. Orpha Agnes, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Swab, died at 12.30 a. m. Monday from typhoid fever. She was born Nov. 20, 1884, making her 14 years, 10 months and 5 days old. Remains were taken to Shanondale, Clarion county, yesterday for burial. Orpha was a bright girl and will be greatly missed in the home circle. Mrs. Valendina Delprincipe had Pietro Lambardo and his wife, Giavana Lambardo, arrested for assault and battery, and Mrs. Lambardo had Mrs. Valendina arrested on two charges, assault and battery. All three cases were tried before "Squire Neff last week and the defendants were discharged and each prosecutor to pay costs in the cases they were responsible for. Goodrich's circus appeared in Reynoldsville Friday. There was to have been two performances, afternoon and evening, but the necessary number of tickets to insure the afternoon performance were not presented at the entrance and the show was not given. Only eight or ten people bought tickets for the afternoon show. At night a large crowd was present. It was a dilapidated looking show. The 4.39 p. m. B., R. & P. passenger train was several hours late arriving in this place last Thursday. For some unaccountable reason, two wheels of the engine tank jumped off the track about a mile above town. The train was not running fast at that time or the result might have been serious. The wheels bumped over the ties some distance before the train was stopped. There was very little damage done. Constable John Null, of Sykesville, who is a large man and evidently hard to handle if he gets up his "dander," was knocked out in the first round one day last week and his left eye was encircled in a slobber shade for several days. Mr. Null's horse was eating grass and he was standing nearby when the animal threw up its head real quick and the constable of Winslow township was knocked ten feet, and that is the whysore of the black eye. A number of Polanders had a hilarious time at Big Soldier Saturday night. They guzzled beer and whiskey until they were in a fighting mood and then they went at one another with pokers, clubs and knives. Two fellows had their heads badly battered and others were cut on the arms and other parts of the body. The doctor estimates that it required at least one hundred stitches to sew up all the wounds on all the participants in the Saturday night row. The Gus Sun Rising Minstrels, composed of an array of artists seldom seen under the management of one man, will appear at the Reynoldsville opera house next Monday evening, October 2nd. In the selection of people Mr. Sun has spared no money or labor, and in the program will be seen artists fresh from their ovations in the principal amusement temples of Europe, as well as a corps of well known American minstrel performers, whose appearance on this occasion is a sufficient guarantee of the high character and wholesomeness of the entertainment.

Incandescent Lights. For years the Hopkins saw mill has been lighted with the arc light system but this is now being replaced with the incandescent lights. Arm Broken. Craig, eleven-year-old son of Dr. J. C. King, had his right arm broken near the wrist Monday afternoon. Some flag-stones were unloaded outside of Dr. King's lot and Craig and several companions attempted to carry one of the stones in and it fell on Craig's arm. Crowded With Work. The woolen mill at this place is crowded with orders and new orders are coming in almost daily, some by telegram, that have to be refused. The mill has been running evenings during the past week. It is likely that a night crew will be put on to rush out the work. Fell Through Window. John H. Wagner, of the Shick & Wagner dry goods firm, fell head first through one of the windows on the Fifth street side of their store room last Friday. Strange as it may seem, Mr. Wagner escaped without a cut on his head or face, but his left wrist and right hand were badly cut. Shut down for Logs. The Hopkins saw mill will shut down this week for want of logs, which cannot be floated to the mill on account of the water in the Sandy Lick creek being so low. With the numerous breakdowns and shortage of logs the mill will not saw the amount of lumber this season that was calculated on. High School Bulletin. The "High School Bulletin" column, which was run in THE STAR last year, edited by scholars of the school, has been started again and will be found elsewhere in this issue. The editorial staff for the first month is as follows: Harry Hoppel editor-in-chief; Miss Clara Geisler assistant editor, and Miss Lois Robinson local editor. Some of the local news was crowded out of the "Bulletin" this week. Electric Railway Ordinance. Elsewhere in this issue of THE STAR will be found the ordinance passed by the town council last Tuesday evening granting the right of way in this borough for the proposed street car line to Rathmel, Big Soldier, Sykesville and Eleanora. Mr. E. A. Ferrin, representative of the capitalists who will build the new line, has secured the right of way in West Reynoldsville, Winslow, McCalmont and Henderson townships. J. G. Dailey Quartette. The J. G. Dailey Quartette of Fredonia, N. Y., will give a concert in Centennial Hall on Wednesday evening of next week, October 4th. The Toronto, Canada, Globe says: "The concert given by the Dailey Quartette last week was brilliantly successful. Every number was received with applause and a handsome bouquet was presented by the mayor of the city to each of the young ladies. The quartette is composed of Prof. J. G. Dailey, Mr. Carlyle Dailey and Misses Margaret and Susie Dailey." Tickets 15 and 25 cents, on sale at Stoke's drug store. Narrowly Escaped Cremation. Mrs. Anna Feeney, aged about sixty years, fell down stairs Sunday night with a lighted oil lamp in her hands and doubtless would have been burned to death had it not been that a couple of her sons were in the house. Her clothing caught fire and her neck was badly blistered. Two bones of the right hand were broken. Mrs. Feeney had been up stairs and in some manner the lamp globe was broken and she started down stairs holding her hand in front of the blaze to keep it from going out and she made a misstep with above results. New Officers. At the meeting of the Ladies' Village Improvement Association in Stoke's hall last Thursday afternoon the following new officers were elected: President, Mrs. H. Alex. Stoke, 1st vice-president, Miss Eleanor Reed; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. S. S. Robinson; secretary, Mrs. T. C. Reynolds; treasurer, Mrs. A. T. Bing; executive committee, Mrs. F. M. Brown, chairman, Mrs. W. B. Alexander, Mrs. J. M. Hays, Mrs. Alex. Riston, Mrs. Dr. S. Reynolds, Mrs. V. R. Pratt and Mrs. J. B. Arnold. The regular meetings of the Association have been postponed indefinitely. They will meet at call of president. A full report will be written by secretary for next week's issue. Cotton Caught Fire. Last Friday morning there was a little blaze in rear of J. J. Sutter's store room that might have been more serious had it not been for some quick work by James E. Mitchell, who has a ladies' tailoring department in that part of the room. Mr. Mitchell was standing near the end of a counter when he struck a match to light a cigar, and in some manner a lot of cotton on the shelves behind him caught fire and in short order a blaze was running through the cotton. The back door was open and the way James threw balls of fire out into the yard for a few minutes would be hard to surpass, but by his lively work many dollars worth of goods were saved.

WILLIAM THOMAS KILLED. Two Companions Injured—Result of Fall of Slate in Virginia Mine. At 8.30 last Friday forenoon William Thomas, son of Morgan Thomas, was instantly killed in the Virginia mine by a fall of slate. John Thomas, brother of the boy killed, and John McIntyre, who were in the same room, narrowly escaped meeting the same fate as that which befell William. John Thomas had his left leg and shoulder badly injured and McIntyre's left ankle was crushed and he was otherwise injured. William Thomas' head was crushed and he was injured internally. The deceased was only 14 years and 6 months old. Funeral services were held at home of parents, who reside near Dean school house, Sunday afternoon conducted by Rev. J. E. Dean, and the remains were interred in Prospect cemetery. The funeral was very large. Morgan Thomas and son, John, are members of the Improved Order of Red Men and that order attended the funeral in a body. Doctors and Druggists. This week the following young men of this place will go to Philadelphia to enter medical and pharmaceutical colleges, as follows: Charles C. Hammond, first year in the Medico-Chirurgical College; Charles Feicht, the well known druggist, will take the second year's course in the Medico-Chirurgical College; Clarence H. Reynolds, second year in the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy; Vincent Reynolds, second year in the Medico-Chirurgical College; Harry W. Truitt, third year in the Medico-Chirurgical Dental College. Francis McDonald will go to Philadelphia next week to take up the second year's course in the Medico-Chirurgical department of pharmacy. Clarence Reynolds, Francis McDonald and Vincent Reynolds are preparing themselves for the drug business and the others, with exception of Harry Truitt, dentist, expect to have M. D. attached to their names. Irene Taylor Company. The Irene Taylor company ended a week's engagement at the Reynolds opera house Saturday evening. Miss Taylor and her excellent company won a place in the hearts of the theatre-going people of Reynoldsville that will assure the company a good audience at any future time they may visit this town. Aside from Miss Taylor's talented acting, which is noted for its naturalness and utter absence of artificial affectation, one of her chief charms is the refreshing and delightful personality she imparts to the various roles she assumes. The magnificence of her wardrobe and exquisite taste in dressing the various roles is not surpassed by many, if any, on the American stage. The company was handicapped here on account of being unable to use their own scenery, which was too large for the stage. Reynoldsville Taken In. The Pittsburg annual conference of the United Evangelical church, held at Canonburg, Pa., recently, took in Reynoldsville as an appointment, which will be served by Rev. C. D. Slagle, of DuBois. Rev. Slagle's charge embraces DuBois, Falls Creek and Reynoldsville. The DuBois Express says: "The return of the Rev. C. D. Slagle to the pastorate of the DuBois church will be appreciated by the members of his congregation and the citizens of the town in general. The church has been materially strengthened and improved under his charge and his second year's labors will commence under the most auspicious of circumstances. He is an energetic, practical and earnest minister, taking an interest in the affairs of the town as well as concern in the progress and prosperity of his congregation." Another Cherub Gone. Lauretta, three-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Montgomery, died at noon Saturday, September 23. Death was caused from brain trouble. Although the little cherub had been in the family only three short months, yet she had endeared herself to all and it was with much sorrow that the family parted with her. Funeral service at residence Monday forenoon conducted by Father Driscoll. The following out of town people were here to attend the funeral: Charles Keener, James Montgomery and wife, of New Bethlehem, William McEnteer and wife, George O'Donnell and wife, of Kane, and Mrs. Charles Gribbon, of DuBois. The Big Minstrel Co. Manager Reynolds informs us that he has booked The Gus Sun Rising Minstrels at the opera house for Monday evening, October 2nd. The company travels in their own $10,000 Pullman Palace car and numbers thirty-five people headed by the famous comedian, Henry J. Yorkey, assisted by an able corps of singers, dancers, musicians, acrobats, burlesquers, European novelists, and last, but not least, Mr. Gus Sun, the wizard who has astonished the two continents with his wonderful juggling and balancing. The engagement promises to be a record breaker, and a program of unusual merit. Seats now on sale at Stoke's drug store. Rooms to let in West Reynoldsville. Inquire of Stoke, the druggist. Bing & Co. are showing a large and exclusive line of furs and wraps.

FEENEY-LEE NUPTIALS. Pretty Church Wedding—Numerous and Costly Presents—Large Reception. Last Wednesday morning at 8.30 Miss Elizabeth Lee, charming daughter of Mrs. P. J. Ward, of West Reynoldsville, and Martin Feeney, a promising young man of this place, were united in marriage in the Catholic church, Father Edward Driscoll performing the ceremony. Both young people are popular and a large number of friends were in the church to witness the ceremony. The bride was dressed in pure white and made a queenly appearance. Miss Catharine Williams was bridesmaid and William Feeney was groomsmen. After the wedding ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Feeney, William Feeney and Miss Williams drove to DuBois and took dinner at the Terpe House, returning in the evening in time for the wedding feast at the residence of Constable P. J. Ward, step-father of the bride, in West Reynoldsville. About 150 guests partook of the feast which was indeed a feast. After the good things were disposed of a reception was held in the Nolan block, where a few hours were whiled away in "tripping the light fantastic" and playing games. Mr. and Mrs. Feeney received the finest lot of presents that have been given to a newly wedded couple in this place for some time. The presents consisted of a handsome sideboard, dining room chairs, dining room table, beautiful set of dishes, rocking chairs, toilet sets, silver and china ware, fine linens, bed room suite, in fact almost a complete outfit for housekeeping. Those who bought the presents used good judgement in buying. Mr. and Mrs. Feeney will go to housekeeping this week. THE STAR joins their legion of friends in wishing them unbounded success as they travel life's pathway together. ELECTRIC RAILWAY ASSURED. Engineers Will be at Work Soon—Now for Electric Lights. There is little doubt now but that before this time next year our town can boast of a first-class street car line. Mr. Ferrin returned to Harrisburg last night and to-morrow he will go to Philadelphia and complete arrangements with the company he represents for the building of the street railway. A charter for the Reynoldsville Traction Company will be applied for this week. An engineer will be here the first of next week to look over the route and a corps of engineers will be at work within thirty days. It is the intention of the company to get the material here this fall so there will be no delay in building the road as soon as possible in the spring. For years there has been talk of electric lights in Reynoldsville, but it has always ended in talk. The coming of the street car line will give the town an excellent opportunity to get electric lights. Surely we have walked in the darkness long enough. All our neighboring towns have electric lights, and we should not be behind in that respect. If we would be a prosperous town we must be up-to-date. An Old Circuit Rider. Rev. T. J. Baker, of Rogers, Ohio, who was a Methodist Episcopal preacher in this section in the sixties, visited J. W. Dempsey in West Reynoldsville last week. Rev. Baker was appointed to what was known as the Luthersburg charge in 1866 and remained three years. His places to preach were at Luthersburg, Rocton, Rumberger, (now DuBois), Reynoldsville, Troutville, Paradise, Emerickville and Shadagee. This embraced his regular appointments, but he preached at outside appointments. Rev. Baker preached at his regular appointments once in three weeks. During the summer months he traveled from place to place on horse back and when there was snow on the ground he traveled in a sleigh of his own make. His salary was between $350 and $400, part of which was paid in sausage, pork, flour oats, &c. Rev. Baker who is 65 years old, is on the superannuated list. Dividend Declared. At a meeting of the directors of the Reynoldsville Water Company last Wednesday a dividend of eight per cent was declared, and checks have been written for the amount due each stockholder. At a meeting of the stockholders held Monday afternoon A. G. Milliren and C. Mitchell were elected directors and Albert Reynolds was re-elected treasurer. Murder or Suicide. Fred Smith, who either committed suicide or was murdered at Buffalo, N. Y., last week, was buried at Brookville yesterday forenoon. His parents live in Brookville. Card of Thanks. We hereby tender our thanks to our neighbors and friends for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and after the death of our darling baby. MR. AND MRS. M. MONTGOMERY. Dewey Day Excursion to New York. The Allegheny Valley Railway Co. will sell excursion tickets Sept. 27 and 28, reading to New York and return at rate of $13.34. These tickets will be good to stop off at Philadelphia in either direction, within the limit. They will be good returning, leaving New York October 4th. M. J. FARRELL, JAS. F. ANDERSON, Agent. Gen'l Passenger Agent.

They will visit the Export Exposition at Philadelphia before returning home. Miss Maggie Schultze, who has been clerking in a large store at Latrobe for some time, is home on a visit and she may not return to Latrobe, although the firm for whom she clerked is anxious to have her return. Hon. J. E. Hall and wife, of Klatskan, Oregon, were guests of the former's brother, C. R. Hall, in this place several days last week. Mr. Hall and wife attended the G. A. R. Encampment at Philadelphia and stopped off here on their return. Mrs. W. H. Snyder, of Renovo, arrived in this place last Friday to spend several months with her mother, Mrs. J. B. Ayres. Mr. Snyder has been offered an excellent position in North Dakota and has gone there to try the position before moving his family to Dakota. Spain's Greatest Need. Mr. R. P. Olivia, of Barcelona, Spain, spends his winters at Aiken, S. C. Weak nerves had caused severe pains in the back of his head. On using Electric Bitters, America's greatest blood and nerve remedy, all pain soon left him. He says this grand medicine is what his country needs. All America knows that it cures liver and kidney trouble, purifies the blood, tones up the stomach, strengthens the nerves, puts vim, vigor and new life into every muscle, nerve and organ of the body. If weak, tired or ailing you need it. Every bottle guaranteed, only 50 cents. Sold by H. A. Stoke, Druggist. We have just received a large consignment of genuine granite ware, every piece guaranteed.
