Some time ago the writer made mention of Joseph Stormer, sr., moving to Salem, a small town in the northern part of Ohio. Since that time we have been informed that Mr. Stormer and his son, Lee, drove across the country, making the entire trip in five days, a distance of 250 miles.

Chas. Wetzel, sr., who has been confined to his home the past two months with a paralytic stroke, is at this writing very low and very little hope is entertained for his recovery.

Frank Ohl, formerly of this place, now a resident of Shannondale, Clarion county, spent Sunday with friends here.

Mrs. Harry Wentzel, of Herndon, Northumberland county, is visiting her brother in this place, Emanuel Weiser.

W. G. Ohl is building an addition to his house, which, when done, will be a very handsome dwelling.

A Big Timber Land Sale.
On Thursday of last week Mesars. Alonzo Inskip, of McKeesport, C. R. Vasbinder, of Brookville, W. A. Crossman, of Redelyffe, and William Smearbaugh and William Lawrence, both of Tionesta, purchased from the executors of James W. Daniels, deceased, the tract known as "the Williams lot" in Barnett township, Jefferson county, for the price of $45,000; they also purchased on the same day from the heirs of Charles S. Daniels, deceased, the tract in the same township known as "the Herring lot," for the price of $15,000. The former tract contains 160 acres and the latter 210 acres. Both are well timbered with fine white pine, oak and hemlock timber. It is the intention of the purchasers to put in from the Williams lot at least two hundred thousand cubic feet of square timber this fall and winter.—Brookville Democrat.

Guide for Exposition Visitors.
The National Export Exposition management has received inquiries from many intending visitors as to the most direct route from the railway stations to the Exposition. The distance is not great, the way is easy and a single fare only is required on any street car line bringing the railway stations and the Exposition into communication.

Visitors arriving in Philadelphia at the Broad Street Station of the Pennsylvania Railroad or at the Reading terminal of the Reading Railway, take cars going west on Market or Walnut street as far as Thirty-sixth street, where they will be transferred to cars reaching the Exposition grounds. Single fare.

Visitors arriving at the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Station, at Twenty-fourth and Chestnut streets, take cars west on Chestnut street or Walnut street to grounds. Single fare.

South Street Station, on the Philadelphia, Wilmington & Baltimore Railroad, is within a minutes walk to the grounds.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has arranged for special excursion rates to Philadelphia on November 8 and 22, on account of the National Export Exposition. Round-trip tickets, good to return within ten days, including day of issue, will be sold on above dates from New York, Trenton, Belvidere, Atlantic City, Cape May, Pottsville, Reading, Wilkesbarre, Lancaster, Harrisburg, York, Williamsport, Canandaigua, Erie, and intermediate points at rate of single fare for the round trip, plus admission to the Exposition (no rate less than one dollar).
