

C. F. HOFFMAN—

The Jeweler and Optician, is ready for the holiday trade with an up-to-date line of goods.

See his display of fine Imported China.

A Little of Everything.

Williams for shoes. Mitchell, the Ladies' Tailor. Johns & Thompson, tailors. French ebony goods at Gooder's. Gooder's window tells its own story. Fine line of china at C. F. Hoffman's. See Brumbaugh & Hillis' ad. this week. The A. V. pay car was over the road last week. Rubber heels for men's shoes, 35c at Robinson's. A big line of boys' knee pants at McClelland's. The latest thing in footwear at Williams' shoe store. Millirens overcoats range in prices from $6.00 to $20.00. Bargains in oil stoves at the Reynoldsville Hardware Co. Our Emorickville letter was received too late for publication. Just in, a full and complete line of clothing, at McClelland's. "The Man of Galilee" at Assembly hall next Monday evening. Perfect fits guaranteed by Johns & Thompson, merchant tailors. Assessor William Copping is now making the annual assessment. Rooms to let in West Reynoldsville. Inquire of Stoke, the druggist. Eight families direct from Italy arrived in this place Monday noon. The large glass plant at Falls Creek began operation last Friday night. Six room plastered house on Hill street for rent. Inquire of Eleanor Reed. Kant rip shoes for boys, all solid leather, price $1.25 and $1.50 at Robinson's. A tablet given away with every pair of school shoes bought at Johnston & Nolan's. Brumbaugh & Hillis' furniture store across the street in the new brick after Dec. 1st. There were 19 F. and B. cases on the docket for the present term of court in Jefferson county. At the meeting of the Building and Loan Association Monday evening $2,800 were sold at a fair premium. The sweet, true natural sound is what the Edison phonograph reproduces. For sale by Gooder, the jeweler. All articles made for the Presbyterian bazaar should be taken to Mrs. J. Van Reed's on Wednesday, Nov. 29th. Don't be deceived by people who advertise 10 per cent. reduction sales, but go to Millirens and get honest goods at honest prices. "A Dress Rehearsal," a musical sketch, will be given in the opera house Thursday evening, Nov. 23rd, by pupils of Miss Scott's music class. The fall term of the Clarion State Normal School will close in a few weeks. The students have done exceptionally good work and shown a commendable spirit. A birthday party was given to Miss Nellie Foley Monday evening. Thirty-two ladies were present. Refreshments were served. The girls had a jolly time. Lost—On Wednesday, Nov. 15, between West Reynoldsville and Hill st., a lady's pocket-book containing about $10. Finder will be rewarded by leaving same at THE STAR office. The county commissioners have issued a call for the redemption of county bonds December 1, 1899, to the amount of $11,500, the call including $9,500 of the issue of 1889 and 2,000 of the issue of 1894. "Wendling is to-day the prince of the American platform, and this lecture on 'The Man of Galilee' is his greatest production."—Columbia (Mo.) Herald. At Assembly hall next Monday evening, Nov. 27.

Brush and comb sets, not the kind you find in drug stores and clothing houses, but the genuine articles, at Gooder's jewelry store. A. J. Merchant, D. D., who was pastor of the M. E. church at Punxsutawney several years ago, died at Meadville, Pa., Sunday morning, after a lingering illness. Prof. Oatman was to have organized a dancing class in the Star building last Friday evening, but the organization of the class was postponed until Friday evening of this week. The "Prodigal Father" at the opera house last Friday evening pleased the large audience present. Those who saw it say it was the best show that has been in the town for sometime. Dr. J. R. Flickinger, present principal of the Edinboro Normal School, has been elected principal of the Lock Haven State Normal, to succeed Dr. James Eldon, who resigned a few weeks ago. The B. P. O. E. No. 519, in this place, held a social session in their elegant rooms last Thursday evening and initiated five new members. This gives the Elks a membership of about seventy. Thomas Frazier received a deep cut over the left eye Monday afternoon while at work in Big Soldier by accidentally hitting himself with a pick. A half inch lower and he would have lost his eye. Hon. Calvin Rayburn, of Kittanning, president judge of the 33rd district, has been assisting Judge Reed in the Quarter Session Courts at Brookville the past week. Judge Rayburn was on the bench during the murder trial. Rev. J. G. Harshaw is holding a big revival in the M. E. church at Coal Glen, this county. The meetings have been in progress four weeks, and up to Sunday 128 had been happily converted. The meetings are increasing in interest. The ladies of West Reynoldsville are organizing a class for bible study and there will be a meeting at the home of Mrs. R. D. Beer November 27th, at 2.00 o'clock p. m. Everyone desiring to begin this study is cordially invited to be present. Rev. Sam P. Jones, the great evangelistic humorist, will lecture in DuBois Tuesday evening of next week, Nov. 28th. Tickets on sale at Hotel Imperial in this place. A large number of Reynoldsville people expect to go and hear Sam lecture. Following is the donation from the West Reynoldsville school last week for the Brookville Memorial Home: 10 heads cabbage, 1 1/2 bushels onions, 1 bushel turnips, 1/2 bushel beets, 1/2 bushel apples, 7/8 bushel of potatoes, 2 lbs. coffee, 1 box essence of coffee. Don't forget the entertainment to be given in the opera house to-morrow, Thursday evening, Nov. 23, by the vocal pupils of Miss Scott's class. Tickets on sale at Stoke's drug store. General admission 20 cents; reserved seats 25 cents. This will be a good entertainment. Mrs. Alice Foust, of New Bethlehem, wife of Daniel Foust, deceased, the A. V. R'y conductor who was so well known, received a draft last week for $2,000 from the A. O. U. W. lodge of East Brady, that being her husband's beneficiary certificate in the East Brady lodge. "The man who selects a subject, two thousand years old, a subject which has been treated in almost every conceivable way, and presents it in a distinctly new light is a genius. A grand lecture grandly delivered."—Hopkinsville (Ky.) New Era. At Assembly Hall Monday, Nov. 27. Reserved seat tickets on sale at 8.00 a. m. Saturday at Stoke's drug store. Visiting cards printed in the new "Engraver's Roman" type are very handsome and a fine imitation of steel engraving. Many people cannot tell the difference. We are the only printers in the county who can print cards in this type.—Lindsey Press. THE STAR office has had the "Engraver's Roman" type for six or eight months, and it does make a very pretty card. Dr. S. Reynolds, Jacob Deible and W. R. Reed, who had been out deer hunting and came home to look after some business matters, returned to the wilds of Elk county Monday. Will B. Reynolds, youngest son of Dr. S. Reynolds, accompanied his father to learn the ways of the old hunters, how to spend a number of days in the wilderness patiently waiting and hoping to shoot a deer and then come home without grumbling because the deer failed to get close enough to be killed. An intoxicated young man raised considerable excitement about two o'clock Saturday morning by gaining an entrance into Edward Phillips' dwelling apartments and barbershop. The fellow got into the cellar and from there into the other departments. The policeman was called and he captured the intruder and took him to the lock-up. When questioned the young man claimed he did not know how he got into the house or what he was there for. As no one appeared to prefer charges against him, the fellow was given his liberty Saturday.

Vice President Hobart Dead. Garret A. Hobart, Vice President of the United States, died at Paterson, N. J., yesterday morning. Heart failure was the cause of his death. Short of Logs Again. The Hopkins saw mill is getting short of logs again, and unless there is rain enough in the next few days to raise the water sufficient to float more logs to the mill, the mill will be compelled to shut down the first of next week. Murder Trial. The witnesses have all been heard in the murder trial of Mrs. Giovani Farari, who killed an Italian at Anita, this county, several months ago. The case will be given into the hands of the jury to-day. The woman will not likely be found guilty of murder. Death of G. M. Snyder. Glenn McClain Snyder, son of Isaac and Letitia Snyder, died at the home of his parents at Deemer's Cross Roads, Nov. 14th, 1899, aged 19 years, 10 months and 8 days. Funeral services were held in the Chestnut Grove Lutheran church on Thursday, conducted by Rev. F. B. Hawk. Will Organize Reading Circle. The Epworth League will hold a meeting in the lecture room of the M. E. church this evening to organize a reading circle. It is very likely that the C. L. S. C. course will be taken up. This is a step in the right direction and a large number of young people should become interested in it. Foot Injured. Bert Milliren, who was employed on P. McDonald's log train, had his left foot badly injured Saturday forenoon by the sharp point of a canthook running into his foot an inch and a half. Mr. Milliren was taken to his home, near Emorickville, after the foot had been dressed by one of our doctors. He will have to walk on crutches sometime. Closed Sunday Night. The ten-day gospel temperance meetings conducted in this place by C. J. Hall, of Buffalo, N. Y., under auspices of the W. C. T. U., closed Sunday evening. These meetings certainly did considerable good for the temperance cause. Over three hundred people signed the pledge. Mr. Hall is an earnest worker and an able talker. Will be Married To-morrow. At 8.00 p. m. to-morrow, in the Chestnut Grove Lutheran church, P. H. Smith, the young man who recently bought the Bon Ton bakery, and Miss Annie Mulholland, of Proscottville, will be united in marriage by Rev. A. A. Kinnard, Lutheran minister of this place. Miss Mabel Hetrick will be bridesmaid, S. W. Karstetter will be groomsmen. It will be a large wedding. Vaccination Law Enforced. The Board of Health gave thirty days' notice that the vaccination law would be enforced in the public schools of this borough on the 13th of this month. As there were a number that had not received certificates of vaccination at that time another week was given, extending the time to Monday of this week, and then the law was enforced. Consequently about fifty pupils were not admitted to school Monday. The matter is resting there at present. All That's Claimed. The recital by Alfred A. Farland, the banjoist, in the opera house Monday evening was a rare treat to the lovers of high class banjo music. Mr. Farland is certainly a genius, and Messrs. Bert V. Galbraith and James S. Canning, two of Brookville's musical young men, who gave the people of this place the opportunity of hearing this great banjo player, can congratulate themselves on the fact that Mr. Farland was all that they claimed for him and that he did not disappoint the Reynoldsville audience. Died at Hospital. Michael Dennis, who was shot in the abdomen Tuesday afternoon of last week at Big Soldier by a fellow countryman, mention of which was made in last week's issue of THE STAR, died at the Adrian Hospital Wednesday evening. There seems to be no doubt but that the shooting was accidental. The men, who were both Hungarians, were friends and were fooling with the revolver when it was discharged. The Hungarian who was implicated in the accident didn't know what the law would do with him and he skipped out to be on the safe side. Dennis had only been in America about six months. He leaves a wife and family in Hungary. "Bob" Bolton Dead. Robert D. Bolton, who had a paralytic stroke at Fort Wayne, Ind., eleven years ago and has not been able to work since that time, died at the home of his mother in this place at 11.30 a. m. last Thursday. Funeral services were held in the Catholic church Saturday morning. "Bob" was born at Meadville, Pa., January 16, 1862, making him almost 38 years old at time of death. His parents moved to this place about twenty-six years ago. His father, Robert Bolton, sr., who was an engineer on the A. V. R'y at one time, was killed in the A. V. yard at this place a number of years ago. When "Bob" was old enough he began railroading and followed that until the stroke of paralysis unfitted him for the work. "Bob" has been confined to the house for a year, the last six months was confined to bed.

MONEY IS WHAT TALKS! A Large Draft Placed to the Credit of the Reynoldsville Electric Co. The Reynoldsville Electric Company was organized at Philadelphia a few days ago. E. A. Ferrin was elected president of the company and Dr. W. B. Alexander was elected treasurer. Yesterday a draft for a large amount was received at the Sealey, Alexander & Co. bank to be placed to the credit of the Reynoldsville Electric Co. This is certainly convincing evidence that we are to have an electric railway and electric lights in Reynoldsville. New Schedules. Last Sunday new schedules went into effect on the A. V. R'y, B. & P. R'y, Ridgway & Clearfield and P. & E. railroads. The A. V. R'y put on three new trains between this place and Pittsburgh, and the B. & P. took off all trains into Reynoldsville except two afternoon trains. Trains are due here now as follows: ALLEGHENY VALLEY. Eastbound—No. 9, Driftwood accommodation, 6.53 a. m.; No. 13, from Pittsburgh to DuBois, 11.08 a. m.; No. 1, fast line from Pittsburgh to Driftwood, 12.38 p. m.; No. 5, from Pittsburgh to Driftwood, 6.02 p. m.; No. 7, "flyer" from Pittsburgh to DuBois, 9.13 p. m. Westbound—No. 8, from DuBois to Pittsburgh, 6.53 a. m.; No. 6, "flyer" from Driftwood to Pittsburgh, 8.45 a. m.; No. 2, fast line from Driftwood to Pittsburgh, 1.50 p. m.; No. 14, from DuBois to Pittsburgh, 5.08 p. m.; No. 10, from Driftwood to Brookville, 7.55 p. m. All the through trains from Driftwood connect at that place with through trains to and from the east on the P. & E. railroad. Trains No. 1, 2, 6 and 7 will have a parlor car attached. M. J. McEntee and James Martin are conductors on trains No. 8, 14, 13 and 7, with lay overs at DuBois. Frank Clusterman and David Blakley are engineers on the above trains. James Marsh is conductor on the Brookville accommodation and James Montgomery engineer. Patrick O'Conner, Robert Cribbs and Dennis McCormick are conductors on trains No. 1, 2, 5 and 6, and Michael Montgomery, Andy Denny and Frank Richardson are engineers on trains 1, 2, 5 and 6. B. & P. R. Y. Train No. 73, 1.20 p. m. This train leaves Falls Creek an hour after the vestibuled "flyer" from Pittsburgh arrives there. Train No. 72 leaves here at 2.20 p. m. and connects at Falls Creek with the vestibuled "flyer" for Pittsburgh. RIDGWAY & CLEARFIELD. Two new trains have been put on the Ridgway & Clearfield and P. & E. between Falls Creek and Kane. On the new schedule a train leaves Falls Creek at 1.15 p. m. for Ridgway and Kane, and a train leaves Kane at 3.50 p. m., arriving at Falls Creek at 5.45 p. m. Gone to His Reward. John Brooks, who died at his home on Grant street Monday afternoon, was a devout christian. He was not rich in this world's goods, but he laid up treasures where "moth and rust doth not corrupt," and he has gone to enjoy his heavenly possessions. For sixty years Father Brooks was a faithful member of the M. E. church. He was born at Stone Valley, Pa., in March, 1822, making him almost 78 years old at time of death. His death was caused by a complication of diseases. He had been confined to bed five weeks before he fell asleep "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms." He was not afraid of the Death Messenger. Mr. Brooks moved to Reynoldsville four years ago. He is survived by his wife and three daughters, Mrs. E. S. Hoover, of DuBois, and Misses Edith and Doshia Brooks, of this place. Funeral services were held at the residence at 7.30 last evening, conducted by Rev. Perry A. Reno and Rev. W. Frank Reber. This morning the remains were taken to Milroy, Mifflin county, Pa., where interment will be made this evening. Wendling Monday Night. Don't fail to hear George R. Wendling, the accomplished orator, deliver his great lecture, "The Man of Galilee," at Assembly hall Monday evening, Nov. 27. Reserved seats on sale at 8.00 a. m. Saturday at Stoke's drug store. Postponed. The Bible Day services that were to have been held in the Baptist church last Sunday were postponed until next Sunday evening on account of the gospel temperance meeting in Centennial hall last Sunday evening. An interesting program has been prepared. A package of neat calling cards is an appropriate Christmas present for lady or gent. Samples may be seen at THE STAR office. Orders should be left now. Come and see for yourself that Gooder's stock of holiday presents is the largest and best chosen to be found in town. Shoes at prices that will astonish you. Never so cheap before.—Robinson's. For Sale—12 lots in the Rhoads addition at $50.00 per lot. Inquire of Mrs. S. M. Rhoads. Watch Gooder's windows for nice Christmas presents. Planos and organs sold, rented, exchanged, repaired and tuned at Haskins' music store. Come and look at Gooder's stock of holiday goods.

AN OLD VETERAN GONE. George O. Riggs Dropped Dead on the Street—Heart Disease Was the Cause. About 4.30 on the afternoon of November 15th, George Oliver Riggs, who was walking to his home in West Reynoldsville, fell off the sidewalk in front of Michael Montgomery's residence on Broadway street. He was picked up and carried into Mr. Montgomery's house and a doctor was sent for, but when the doctor arrived he found that the old gentleman had passed beyond his assistance. Death was caused from heart trouble. Mr. Riggs had been suffering for some time from heart trouble, but neither he nor his friends thought the trouble of such a serious nature. George O. Riggs was born in Steuben county, N. Y., June 27, 1835, making him 64 years old last June. He moved to Jefferson county early in life and resided in the county ever since. April 11, 1861, he was united in marriage to Mary Jane McKee, of Roseville, this county. They were married in Beechwoods by Rev. D. F. Steadman. Unto them four children were born, two of whom preceded the father into the Eternal Land. He is survived by his wife and two children, Mrs. J. J. McCracken, of Richmond, Indiana county, Pa., and W. M. Riggs, of this place. In September, 1861, when a call was issued for brave and loyal men, Mr. Riggs joined Company D, 105th Regiment, and served three years and ten months in defense of the stars and stripes. He was in many a hard battle, but always faced the enemy bravely. Mr. Riggs was a member of John C. Conser G. A. R. Post in this place. His comrades and members of the W. R. C., attended the funeral Friday forenoon and paid their last tribute of respect to an honored soldier and friend. Funeral services were held at the family residence in West Reynoldsville, conducted by Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of the M. E. church, and the mortal remains of the old veteran were taken to the Beechwoods cemetery for interment. The following persons from out of town attended the funeral: Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McCracken, of Richmond, Indiana county, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Davie, J. C. Davie, Mrs. Joseph Spencer, of DuBois, David and William McKee, of Corsica, Mrs. Mal Humphrey, Joseph Lattimer and wife and daughter, of Port Barnett. People Who Pay the Printer. The following persons have paid their subscriptions or added their names to our list since last report: Ed. O'Reilly, Reynoldsville, January 1, 1900. F. G. Corbett, Prescotville, March 2, 1900. R. H. Wilson, Reynoldsville, October 20, 1900. C. Meade Lucas, Brownsville, Pa., November 8, 1900. M. Glenn Swartz, Steubenville, Ohio, [new] February 11, 1900. Mrs. A. E. Hetherington, Rimersburg, Pa., Nov. 14, '99. A. W. Smith, Grove Summit, Pa., April 15, 1900. O. S. Groves, Reynoldsville, September 6, 1900. W. S. Stone, Reynoldsville, October 1, 1900. Martin Feeney, Prescotville, [new] November 21, 1900. J. F. Hinderliter, Reynoldsville, July 20, 1900. P. H. Smith, Reynoldsville, [new] Nov. 21, '99. Letter List. List of unclaimed letters remaining in the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Pa., week ending Nov. 18, 1899: Mrs. Polly Carbaugh, David Hileman, Mrs. Lizzie Hicks, Wm. P. Minds, Mrs. Mollie Miller, Miss Katie L. Oborn, Isaac A. Smith. Foreign—Joseph Sciota. Say advertised and give date of list when calling for above. A. M. WOODWARD, P. M. Card of Thanks. We desire through the columns of THE STAR to thank our neighbors and friends for their sympathy and help during our sudden and sad bereavement. MRS. GEORGE RIGGS AND FAMILY. Estray Notice. A black muley cow, with a white spot in face, right ear split, and white spots on hind legs, strayed away from the premises of undersigned Nov. 3rd. A suitable reward will be paid to the person giving information as to where she can be found. ANDY STUPKA, Rathmol, Pa. If you want a bargain in clothing go to the People's Bargain store. Complete line of men's fall and winter clothing from $3.50 to $10.50 per suit. Clothing has advanced, but we sell these suits at a lower price than they can now be bought in eastern markets. The only place in town where you can buy the famous Edison records for the phonograph and graphophone is at GOODER, the Jeweler's. For neat dress pants go to McClelland's. An inspection will convince you that Millirens are the honest and low priced clothiers. Nobby suits, the very latest style, is what Johns & Thompson, merchant tailors, are turning out. Try them. Good goods and prices to suit all at Gooder's. Another invoice of neckwear just received at McClelland's. The largest stock of watches for Xmas presents, and you all know the lowest price at Hoffman's. The best store for shoes is Robinson's. You will find the best selected and largest stock of jewelry for Xmas gifts at C. F. Hoffman's. A beautiful oil painting given away with every pair of Queen Quality shoes bought at Johnston & Nolan's.

P. P. Womer and wife, of West Lebanon, N. H., who have been visiting here several weeks, went to Kane Monday evening to visit Rev. Womer's parents a few days and then they will go to their home in the "Granite State." Sevengala's Great Success. Speaking of Sevengala, who will appear at the opera house all next week, the Lock Haven Express says: "Sevengala, the wonderful hypnotist and telepathist, was at the opera house Saturday night and was greeted by a large audience. He found subjects plenty, and had no difficulty in having them do just as he directed. The tests were all eminently successful, but probably the most ludicrous were the 'poker game' and the 'village quartette.' The audience almost split their sides laughing at the manoeuvres of the three young men who sat down to play a social game with a broom and accused it of cheating. The quartette sang 'Break the News to Mother' in a manner that brought down the house. The 'cake walk,' 'side show and circus' and the 'bee hive' were also great laugh producers. Sevengala is undoubtedly the peer of all hypnotists that have come this way, and is deserving of the large patronage he received in this city. His friends, who are legion, will be glad to welcome him back at any time." Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents. Wear Robinson's shoes. If you want a good fitting suit or an overcoat, go to Johns & Thompson, merchant tailors. Flat, oval and chased band rings at Gooder's jewelry store. Something new in the shoe line at Johnston and Nolan's for railroad men. Call and see them.
