Thanking you for trade in the past and wishing you
A Merry Christmas and Happy New Year,
 I am Yours Respectfully,
Scott McClelland,
 BELL'S OLD STAND. REYNOLDSVILLE, PA.

Teachers' Institute.
 The talent for the coming teachers' institute held at Brookville December 25-29, is selected from the leading educators and entertainers of the day. The evening entertainers are among the very best that can be obtained.
 Monday evening, Dec. 25th.—Concert. This will be an opportunity to hear as good solo music as has ever been heard in any of our large cities. Ernest Gamble, basso; Miss Maude Ribhl, concert pianist; Miss Maude Rogers, soprano. Mr. Gamble has one of the most powerful and musical voices on the stage today. He captures his audience from the start and wins encores at every appearance.
 Tuesday evening, Dec. 26th.—Lecture. Bishop C. H. Fowler, D. D., LL. D., "Great Deeds of Great Men." Bishop Fowler is recognized from ocean to ocean as one of the ablest lecturers upon the American platform.
 Wednesday evening, Dec. 27th.—John Thomas Concert Company. This is one of the best companies that is before the public. An evening with John Thomas in which he introduces his specialties, comprising humorous songs, recitals, and impersonations, is a delightful entertainment of itself, and in connection with his talented support, provides a great attraction. This company appears in Pittsburgh Dec. 28.
 Thursday evening, Dec. 28th.—Lecture. Russell H. Conwell, "The Silver Crown." The New York Sun says: "Now that Gough, Beecher and the other great lecturers are gone, he is the most popular lecturer in America. One cannot hear Russell Conwell without being a happier, more prosperous and useful citizen."

Brave Men Fall
 Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poison in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there is no need to feel like that. J. W. Gardner, of Idaville, Ind., says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he don't care whether he lives or dies. It gave me new strength and good appetite. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at H. Alex Stoke's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

Holiday Excursions.
 In accordance with an old established custom the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh R'y will this year issue excursion tickets between all stations on its line account of Christmas and New Years Holiday at a fare and one third for the round trip. Tickets will be sold and good going on Dec. 23, 24, 25, 30 and 31, 1899 and January 1, 1900, limited for return passage until Jan. 2, 1900.

The Allegheny Valley Railway will sell tickets at regular excursion rates from December 23 to 25, inclusive, December 30 and 31, 1899, and January 1, 1900, good to return January 2, 1900.

Paid Dear for His Leg.
 B. D. Blanton, of Thackerville, Tex., in two years paid over $300.00 to doctors to cure a running sore on his leg. Then they wanted to cut it off, but he cured it with one box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Guaranteed cure for piles. 25 cents a box. Sold by H. Alex Stoke, druggist.

Farm for Sale.
 Cheap to quick buyer, the Hawthorne homestead, situated in Knox township, three miles south of Brookville. Contains 60 acres, 40 acres cleared, balance wood land. 150 bearing apple trees, all choice grafted fruit, peaches, pears, cherries, green gages, plums, grapes, mulberries and other small fruits. A never-failing spring of good water. Four foot vein of coal opened. Will sell surface and mineral separate, or both, to suit purchaser. For further information inquire of Joseph Hawthorne or A. T. McClure, Reynoldsville Pa.

Notice of Stockholders' Meeting.
 The regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank of Reynoldsville, Pa., for the election of Directors for the ensuing year, will be held in the Banking Room on Tuesday, January 9th, 1900, at 3.00 p. m.
