Ladies felt shoes for cold feet at Williams. Constable Frank P. Adelsperger has posted the notices for the February election.

Large crowds attend the Salvation Army meetings in Centennial hall every evening. If you want a good fitting suit or an overcoat, go to Johns & Thompson, merchant tailors. Wednesday, January 31st, has been set apart as "public school day" for the schools of Jefferson county.

The Allegheny Valley Railway will complete a double track between Pittsburg and Kittanning this year. The Royal Templars of Temperance will hold an oyster supper in Bell's hall Saturday evening, January 27th.

The Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association sold $1,800 at the regular monthly meeting Monday evening. Wanted—A steady, reliable young man to learn the blacksmith trade. Inquire at once. L. M. Snyder, Jackson St.

G. H. Small, an experienced butcher, will open a meat market in the shop next door to Swartz Bros.' grocery store. The Royal Templars of Temperance will hold an oyster supper in Bell's hall Saturday evening, Jan. 27. Everybody invited to help a good cause.

Any one can get an education now who earnestly desires an education. The Clarion State Normal School inspires young people to strive for a higher life. Edward Phillips, the barber, has bought the Scott property on Main street, next door to where Mr. Phillips now has his barbershop. Consideration $700.00.

On Thursday, Jan. 18, 1900, Earl M. Smith and Miss Mary Margaret Gray, of Big Run, were united in marriage at the M. E. parsonage in Emerickville by Rev. J. P. Hicks.

The ordinary gas meters used in town look very small beside the big meter to be used at glass plant. The big meter and a small one have been on exhibition at the gas office the past week.

On account of the illness of Prof. A. J. Postlethwait, principal of the West Reynoldsville schools, and Miss Orpha Beer, one of the teachers, there was no school in that borough yesterday.

We have paint to cover buildings, the largest stock of paint in town. Not cheap paint, but are made from genuine white lead, zinc, oxide and linseed oil as a base. Reynoldsville Hardware Co.

A series of special meetings will be started in the Presbyterian church next Sunday evening. Rev. Reber expects to have some minister assist him in the special work, but is not positive yet just who it will be.

Committees from an Erie Telephone Co., an Indiana Telephone Co., West Millville Telephone Co. and the Summerville Co. met in Brookville yesterday to make arrangements for connections for long distance lines.

According to the returns made by the assessors of the several districts in Jefferson county, there were 1015 children born in the county during the last six months of 1899 and 295 persons died.

Suele Foust, aged four years and seven months, daughter of Mrs. Gussie Foust, who resides in "Sharpstown," was buried at the Syphrit cemetery Wednesday. Death was caused by diphtheria.

An envelope trust, a paper trust, a type trust, and an ink trust now forming, not to mention the old-fashioned kind of "trusting," are evidences that the printer "has troubles of his own," says the Leo Gleaner.

The Prohibitionists of Reynoldsville will hold a caucus in Hose House No. 1 next Monday evening, January 29th, at 8 o'clock for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates to be voted for at the February election.

The editor of THE STAR has been appointed a delegate from the Pennsylvania State Editorial Association to attend the National Editorial Association meeting to be held at New Orleans the latter part of next month.

Cinderella stoves and ranges contain every improvement that is of value to a house keeper. Cleanliness, durability and economy are its strong points. Guaranteed to bake. For sale by the Reynoldsville Hardware Co.

Alexander Reynolds, of Pittsburg, nephew of Samuel T. Reynolds of this place, second son of Matthew Reynolds, will be married to-morrow to Miss Elizabeth Jane Murray, at home of the bride's parents in Lawrenceville.

Will H. Bell was thrown from a buggy Monday evening while driving from Eleonora and was slightly injured. The coupling broke and the front wheels ran out from under bed of buggy, precipitating Mr. Bell to the frozen earth.

On account of the inclement weather Saturday the teachers' local institute at Sykesville was not as well attended as it would have been had the weather been pleasant. However the institute was very interesting and was enjoyed by those who did attend.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will hold a cake sale on Saturday afternoon, January 27, at J. C. Froehlich's place of business on Main street. Anyone desiring cakes can leave their order with any member of the society before Friday.

The entertainment given in the West Reynoldsville town hall Monday evening by Adelbert Mills, of Jamestown, N. Y., was excellent. Mr. Mills deserves a place in the front rank as an impersonator. The program consisted of humorous, dramatic and pathetic selections.

To-morrow has been designated as a special day of prayer in the United States for Schools and Colleges and, consequently, to-morrow evening Prof. Lenker, principal of the borough schools, will deliver an appropriate address in the M. E. church at 7:30. After the address prayer services will be held.

In last week's issue we stated that the Republicans of Winslow township would hold their primary January 24th. This was a mistake. It will be held in the school house at Prescottville on Saturday next, January 27th. For poor overseer we put in the name of Noah Strouse when it should have been Noah Syphrit.

Some person started the report last week that the stone foundation under the electric light plant was giving away, which was false. In raising a truss on pulleys the heavy timber swung around and one end struck the top of foundation on lower side of building and bulged it out a little, and from that the report was put in circulation.

A Lincoln Kirk, of New York, the humorist and impersonator who gave an entertainment in the Presbyterian church last Saturday evening under the auspices of King's Daughters Circle, was not greeted with a large audience. The inclement weather kept a number of people away. The entertainment was very good and no doubt would have been better had Mr. Kirk had the inspiration of a large audience.

O. H. Broadhead, of Winslow township, has decided to be a candidate for delegate to the Republican State Convention to be held in Harrisburg in April. Mr. Broadhead, who is an intelligent gentleman, also an active worker in the Republican ranks, would be a good delegate to represent his party at the State Convention. As Jefferson county is entitled to three delegates, Ora Broadhead should be one of the three, and there is little doubt but what he will be.

At the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania State Editorial Association held in Harrisburg last week the following officers were elected: President W. C. Kreps of Green Castle; first vice-president, A. B. Burke, Philadelphia; second vice-president, Cyrus T. Fox, Reading; third vice-president, Frank Vogel, Greensburg; secretary and treasurer, R. H. Thomas, Mechanicsburg; assistant secretary, R. H. Thomas, Jr., Mechanicsburg; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. W. Stofor, Middletown; executive committee, Dietrich Lamade, Williamsport, Hiram Young, York, Frank Mortimer, New Bloomfield, R. B. McKee, Freeport, and W. H. Copwell, Dallas.

Leg Broken by a Fall of Coal.

Rock Dible, an Italian, had his right leg broken above the knee by a fall of coal in Big Soldier mine Monday.

Viewers' Report.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found the schedule of the damages, costs and expenses of the public sewers in this borough as reported by the viewers.

Tickets on Sale Saturday.

Reserved seat tickets for the next lecture in the public school course, February 2nd, will be on sale at Stoke's drug store at 8.00 a. m. Saturday, January 27th.

"Little Trixie."

May Smith Robbins, in her musical melo-drama, "Little Trixie," was greeted with a big crowd at the opera house Monday night. The company is a fairly good one, but the conduct in the gallery was anything but good.

Annual Meeting.

The annual congregational meeting was held in the Presbyterian church Monday evening. G. M. McDonald was elected chairman, J. B. Arnold secretary, S. B. Ramsey and L. M. Simmons trustees. A financial report for the year was read.

Will Close His Grocery.

William T. Cox, who has been in the grocery business in this place a number of years, has decided to quit the grocery business and has rented his room to J. A. Myers for his harness shop. Mr. Myers is to have possession of the room the first of next month.

McKay-Burns.

John McKay and Miss Lizzie Burns, of Prescottville, were united in marriage at the Catholic church at eight o'clock yesterday morning. Father Edward Driscoll performed the nuptial Mass. The newly married couple have many friends who wish them joy and happiness.

Recommended the Bridge be Built.

In the recent presentation of the grand jury to the Honorable Judge of the several courts of Jefferson county, it was recommended "that the supervisors of Winslow township be instructed to have the bridge over the railroad cut, at the round-house in Reynoldsville, built."

The Steam Laundry.

The Reynoldsville Steam Laundry, which was started the 6th of July, 1899, has established a reputation for turning out good work and is building up a good business, not only in town but also out of town. There are agents at Eleonora, Sykesville, Big Soldier, Wishaw, Rathmel, Falls Creek and Sandy Valley. The laundry is equipped with up-to-date machinery. D. W. Atwater is manager of the plant. If the business continues to increase, and there is no doubt it will, the plant will have to be enlarged.

Taken to the "Pen" Thursday.

In the court proceedings published in THE STAR last week it was stated that Frank McKenna was found guilty of assault with intent to rape. Sheriff Chesnut took McKenna to the Western Penitentiary last Thursday. McKenna lived at Punxsutawney and the girl he assaulted with intent to commit rape was only twelve years old. The Punxsutawney Spirit says: "As usual, the blow falls heaviest upon the innocent. McKenna has an excellent wife and a nice family, who will be left practically destitute, and who must feel keenly the disgrace of the husband and father."

M. E. Revival.

The revival in the M. E. church will continue all of this week. The meetings are very spiritual and interesting. Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of the church, is an earnest worker and he is preaching excellent revival sermons every night. Mrs. Reno is a sweet singer and an occasional song from her lips along the good work. Quite a number have joined the church on probation since the meetings began. Eight persons joined the church last Sunday morning by letter and thirteen on probation. Three prayer meetings are being held every afternoon this week at private houses, one in West Reynoldsville, one somewhere near the center of Reynoldsville and one in the east end of Reynoldsville, also a prayer meeting every evening in the lecture room of the church from 7.00 to 7.30.

Magnificent Spectacular Production.

The coming presentation of "Ten Nights in a Bar-room" by Welsh Bros.' Big Dramatic Company at the opera house Friday evening, January 26th, will be a theatre event of much importance. This organization this season is the strongest and best ever engaged to portray the parts of this stirring temperance play. Enormous crowds everywhere have attended this superb entertainment. The company will arrive here by special train, carry two bands of music and a master concert orchestra. All the scenery of the local stage will be removed, as the company uses all special sets and mechanical effects. The specialties between the acts are said to be of a high character and unusually entertaining. Tickets on sale at Stoke's drug store. Secure your seats early. Children 25c, adults 35c, reserved seats 50c.

Lost an Arm.

George Seehrist, who resides at Eleonora and works in the mines at that place, met with an accident in the mines last Thursday evening that cost him his left arm and came very nearly ending his earthly career. Mr. Seehrist, who is one of those "fellows" that are called "jumpers," was riding out of the mine on a trip of loaded cars and his cap struck a cross-beam in the mine, startling him, and he jumped off the cars at a narrow place in the mine and rolled back under the cars. His left arm was terribly mangled. He was taken to the Adrian Hospital where his arm was amputated close to the shoulder. Mr. Seehrist has a host of friends who are sorry to learn of the mishap. He is certainly having his share of troubles. About a year ago he was in a Philadelphia hospital a few weeks under treatment for stomach trouble.

Mr. Seehrist is one of the gentlemen whose names were suggested at the recent Republican suggestion meeting for one of the supervisors of Winslow township, to be voted for at the primary election next Saturday afternoon.

Democratic Suggestion Meeting.

The Democrats of Winslow township held a suggestion meeting in Bell's hall Saturday afternoon at which time the following names were suggested to be voted for at the primary election to be held in the school house at Prescottville next Saturday afternoon, January 27, from 3.00 to 7.00 p. m.: Justice of the Peace, W. H. Deemer. Tax collector, F. W. Deemer. Supervisor, A. C. Murray, J. L. Liddy, John Lyons.

School directors, G. L. Henry, Uriah Beck, J. M. Norris, Joel Snyder, R. A. Norris. Auditor, Levi Schuckers, A. W. Mulholland. Poor Overseer, D. B. Smith, Edward Moore.

Judge of election—East Winslow, L. L. Henry, A. S. Phillippi; West Winslow, Jonathan Snyder, F. P. Best, Isaac Hollenbough. Inspector, East Winslow, Lewis Lydie; West Winslow, A. M. Norris, John Lott.

Register—East Winslow, D. A. Smith; West Winslow, W. A. Shiesley, Isaac Snyder.

Republican and Democrat Tickets.

At the primary election last Saturday the Republicans of this borough nominated the following ticket: Justice of the Peace, John M. Hays; burgess, C. Mitchell; town council, John Cottle, M. J. Farrell; school directors, J. W. Foust, C. N. Lewis; tax collector, Albert Reynolds; overseer poor, John W. Howlett; auditor, John H. Ewing; register—1st precinct—Edwin Hoare; 2nd precinct, John C. Barto.

The Democrats of this borough held a caucus at Hose House No. 1 last evening and nominated a ticket for the February election, which we publish, except election officers, as follows: Justice of the peace, C. J. Kerr; burgess, G. M. McDonald; council, M. C. Coleman, C. F. Hoffman; school directors, Dr. J. C. King, L. J. McEntire; tax collector, George W. Swartz; auditor, W. J. Weaver; poor overseer, A. G. Milliron.

Mrs. Joseph Zimmerman Dead.

Mrs. Joseph Zimmerman, a highly esteemed lady of Pinecreek township, died suddenly at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Byerly, at Emerickville last Wednesday evening. Heart trouble was cause of her sudden death. Mrs. Zimmerman had gone to the home of her daughter to spend the evening and was apparently in good health. She was sewing carpet rags when she said to her daughter that she felt sick and asked for a drink of water. She expired in a few minutes afterwards. Funeral services were held at Emerickville Lutheran church Saturday forenoon, conducted by Rev. J. P. Hicks. Mrs. Zimmerman was in her fifty-eighth year. Her maiden name was Hettie Mottern, daughter of Levi Mottern of Worthville.

Good Orator.

Last Friday evening at the M. E. church, W. T. S. Culp delivered his famous lecture, "Uncrowned Kings," as the fifth in the People's Course. Many pronounce it the best in the entire course. His power as an orator is marvellous. It contained more good instruction and practical lessons to the square foot than any lecture we ever heard. Whenever he touched upon a scientific point it was presented in such a manner that showed familiarity with his subject. While solid and substantial, yet there were frequent bursts of wit that convulsed the house. He held the audience under complete control for two hours and ten minutes.—Mantau Herald. At Assembly Hall Friday evening, February 2nd.

Death of B. T. Hastings.

B. T. Hastings, one of the oldest and best known citizens of Brookville, died at his home in that place last Thursday and was buried beside his wife in the Brookville cemetery Saturday. Mr. Hastings was the father of Mrs. W. C. Elliott and Mrs. S. T. Dougherty of this place.

Just what you want in rubbers at Williams.

STILL THEY COME!

Another Large Industry Will Send a Representative Here to Look Over the Location AND CONSIDER OUR PROPOSITION.

Will be a Big thing for the Town if we Land It—Pay Roll $5,500 Per Month—Would Run Ten Months a Year.

Another large industry on the string for Reynoldsville. Our advantages for such a plant and a proposition to locate here have been submitted to parties looking for a location. Mayor H. Alex Stoke received word last night that the parties would consider the proposition and send a representative here to look over the grounds. The pay roll of this industry would be $5,500 in cash per month and would run ten months a year. The citizens should all pull hard to land this plant here.

Perpetual Injunction Not Granted.

B. M. Moore, J. L. Reicherter, W. H. Gray, V. A. Haines and Will J. Shaffer filed a Bill in Equity in the Court of Common Pleas of Jefferson county on January 13th, praying the court for a preliminary injunction at first, and to be made perpetual hereafter, restraining T. M. Kurtz, chairman of the Republican county committee, "from issuing or publishing a call for a primary election for the nomination of a candidate for Congress and a candidate for State Senate on the third Tuesday of February, 1900, or any other date prior to the third Saturday in June, 1900; or from holding or attempting to hold any primary election for said purposes on the said third Tuesday of February, or on any date prior to the third Saturday of June, 1900, until further order of this Honorable Court."

The preliminary injunction was granted and Friday, January 19, was the date fixed by Judge Reed to hear the evidences of all parties interested. It required all of Friday and Saturday to hear the case. Judge Reed's decision was in favor of the defendant, County Chairman Kurtz, and the Judge said that Mr. Kurtz could issue a call for the holding of a primary election at such time as he desires.

Parents' and Patrons' Day.

The value of a school depends upon the parents, pupils and teacher; a good school requires good parents, good pupils, and good teachers. To raise the educational standard there must be the hearty support of every one interested in the advancement of our public schools. In no way can success be more quickly or more surely gained than by bringing parents into contact and sympathy with the teachers and the schools.

With this end in view, Wednesday, January 31, 1900, is set apart as "Public School Day" for the schools of this county. Parents and patrons are urged to lend encouragement to the schools by their frequent presence during the term, but a special invitation is extended to them on this day.

It is desired and requested that each teacher arrange for the proper observance of the day. R. B. TETRICK, Supt.

A Grand Street Parade.

Much is anticipated of the street parade promised to be given by Welsh Bros.' Greater Majestic Dramatic Company on Friday, January 26th. Over fifty people, gorgeously costumed, appear in this resplendent processional spectacle, there is a big herd of elegant comparisoned Shetland ponies, numerous floats and tableaux carts emblematic of the great play, "Ten Nights in a Bar-room" which will be given in a spectacular rendition in the evening. This organization is unquestionably the largest ever projected for this great moral drama. A high class symphony orchestra, under the guidance of Prof. Henri Wagner, discourses up-to-date music between the various acts.—It.

Citizens' Meeting.

The citizens of Reynoldsville are requested to meet in Stoke's hall at 8.00 p. m. to-morrow, Thursday, for the purpose of considering the question of building houses for the glass workers.
