TO THE SENIORS.

Eleven silent Seniors wonder, Sedately and reflectively ponder, Or that signless future yonder, Reflectively ponder over that date, When each shall pass through school-life's gate.
Sorrowfully forestall that short duration When each shall quit these halls of education.
Eleven Seniors anticipate that time When they shall leave High School's confine:
Each anticipate that date When he can be called a graduate; Or when traversing life's weary walk, And discouraged by its voice's mock, Can justly state with sad sincerity, Those were days of joy and hilarity.

TO THE JUNIORS.

Eight ambitious Juniors surmise, Which of us shall win the prize, Which of us by accents sweet Shall bring the judges to his feet; Which of us by subtle grace Shall receive the highest place, Or whose story most aptly told Shall receive the treasured gold.
Eight anxious Juniors await, Daily questioning their fate: Anxiously await that time When some in prose and some in rhyme, Shall clearly demonstrate their fate; Anxiously await that ordeal, When seven plaudits shall kneel And justly praise the one Who has run the race and won.

LOCALS.

Miss Grace Leek entered the Sub-Junior class last Monday.

Prof.—What are parallel lines? Bright Sub-Jr.—They are lines which are parallel.

Miss Gillespie, of Punxsutawney, visited Miss Florence Hays over Sunday.

Margaret Stoke has returned to school after a week's absence on account of sickness.

The teachers of Winslow township, West Reynoldsville and Reynoldsville boroughs held a local institute in Assembly hall last Saturday, March 17th.

Two new students entered school on Monday last.

The Seniors have started their orations for commencement.

Rev. Vibbert gave an interesting talk on tobacco last Friday morning at chapel.

Miss McNeil, of Brookville, was the guest of Sophia Heckman last week.

Room No. 12 gave a social in the Star building last Saturday evening.

Frances King and Corne Deible are absent this week on account of sickness.

Miss Espy, of North East, and Misses Caroline and Erma Robinson, visited chapel and the High School last Monday.

The amount of money deposited in School Savings Bank Monday morning was $46.59.

That all of the High School gallants have not assumed complete control of that organ which causes the face to redden and make a fellow feel like seeking some place of contentment, was very clearly demonstrated last week as our "pretty" black haired Sub assumed that purple tint to its highest degree of brilliancy when called upon to assist one of our learned Seniors in her work.

The program rendered last Friday in literary society was very interesting. It consisted of recitations by Sallie Montgomery, Sophia Heckman, Elsie Mohny, Alice Evans, Maud Bush and Edward Foster, and an essay by Ira Bowser. The violin solo by Ethelyn Winslow and vocal solo by Florence Stone showed talent as well as practice, and an oration given by Harry Hoppel in his usual pleasing manner ended the program.

A Fiendish Attack.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electric Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50c at H. Alex. Stoke's drug store.

A Great Prize Offer.

We have a great prize offer to make the farmers of Jefferson county! By a special arrangement with the publishers of the Farm Journal, a most excellent farm paper that costs 50 cents a year, we are able to offer one year's subscription to THE STAR and FIVE years' subscription to the Farm Journal—the two worth $3.50—all for the small sum of $1.25. Of course this only applies to advance paying subscribers. We can furnish a few papers at this rate, and if you want them on these terms, you must act QUICKLY! Sample copies of the Farm Journal will be sent free on application. Address,
C. A. STEPHENSON,
Reynoldsville, Pa.

Rathmel.

Dr. Hoffman and wife visited in Brookville last week.

N. A. Hendley, of New Kensington, was in town last week.

Miss Annie Lobough, of Crenshaw, visited friends here last week.

Miss Annie McNeil, who has been very sick for some time, is getting better.

Miss Mary Smith, of DuBois, visited her parents at this place Saturday and Sunday.

James Hyndman and wife, James Hunter and wife, of Bradford, Pa., are visiting friends here.

There was a singing class organized in the M. E. church last Wednesday evening with 32 members.

Rev. Williams, of Allegheny, Pa., Baptist minister who preached here seven years ago, preached here last Saturday evening and Sunday morning.

John Russell, two years and two months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Marshall, of Rathmel, died Saturday and was buried in Prospect cemetery Monday afternoon. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Chisholm, Presbyterian pastor.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Jennie McPherson and Mr. Cunningham this, Wednesday, evening, March 21st. The wedding will be at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McPherson.

Mrs. Thos. Woods, aged sixty years, died at her home Sunday night, March 11th, of grip and pneumonia. Mrs. Woods was highly respected and had many friends. She was a member of the A. P. L. A., who attended the funeral in a body Friday afternoon. Services were held at the house by Rev. Williams, of Allegheny, Pa., assisted by Dr. A. J. Meek, of Reynoldsville. She leaves three daughters, one son and a husband to mourn for her. Mrs. William Clawson, of this place, Mrs. Bennett, of Big Run, Pa., Mrs. Tush, of near, Pittsburg, Pa., worthy, of Denver, Col., all of whom were here to attend the funeral.

Soft Coal Market.

Coal Trade Journal.] In soft coal there is an easier feeling in all the markets, which offers occasion for remark when one recalls the high pressure of the winter season, and tonnage can be had at less figures than prevailed when the grand boom was on and everyone was talking "famine" simply because their immediate wants could not be supplied promptly; there was thus a speculative element introduced into the trade and the result was that some people paid a high figure for their supplies and there are some jobbers who are caught with a tonnage that cost more than rates now current. None of the larger firms went into this thing, but continued to take care of their regular trade, and they are now in shape for an equitable reciprocal arrangement with these same customers. New prices for the season are to be higher than were those of last year; as we have heretofore said, this is due to higher prices for mining, increased railroad charges and a profit to the consumers. The storm caused a serious delay in the delivery of coal to Buffalo with the result that some of the districts depending on this market are unable to get what they wanted in the line of soft coal, much to their regret. The weather has opened again, however, and the shippers expect within a few days to have plenty of coal in sight. The freight agents of the bituminous coal roads met at Buffalo last week and fixed the freight rate from the Pittsburgh district at $1.15 per ton and from Reynoldsville and Allegheny river points at $1.00.

He Fooled the Surgeons.

All doctors told Renick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world. Surest pile cure on earth. 25c a box, at H. Alex. Stoke's drug store.

The Farm Journal is cheap but not too cheap to be good; it is full of ginger and gumption, and has as many other good things in it that you can use as any paper at any price. It will be sent five years to subscribers of THE STAR who pay arrearages and one year in advance and 25 cents extra, or $1.25 for the Farm Journal for five years and THE STAR for one year.

For Sale Cheap.

Four acres of land in Prescottville with a six room house, good cellar, and fifteen fruit trees thereon, will be sold very cheap. Inquire at THE STAR office.
