

Rich red Rubies, Sapphires, Diamonds and Pearls—You will find them all At C. F. Hoffman's, Mounted in rings That will just suit the dear girls.

The best selection of all kinds of RINGS, bought direct from the manufacturers for spot cash, enables us to offer you goods at a price our competitors cannot touch. Come and see for yourself.

C. F. HOFFMAN, Jeweler and Optician.

Travelers' Guide.

Passenger trains arrive and leave Reynoldsville as follows: Allegheny Valley Railway. Eastward. Westward. Train No. 9, 6:53 a. m. Train No. 8, 6:53 a. m.

A Little of Everything.

Robinson's shoes. Johns & Thompson, tailors. Arrow Brand collars at Millirens. Brumbaugh & Hillis are selling furniture. Johnston & Nolan are selling overgaiters at cost. Opera house all week—a big show for a small admission.

Neal's Comedy Co. are playing to crowded houses at the opera house this week. Admission 10 cents; reserved seats 20 cents. We have just received a nice assortment of hot plates, gas ovens and ranges.

Auditors' Reports. The auditors' report of West Reynoldsville borough will be found in this issue of THE STAR. The report shows the borough to be in good financial condition. The resources over liabilities are $1,274.75.

Attended Golden Wedding. Mr. and Mrs. David Bawser, of Walk Chalk, Armstrong county, who were married March 26, 1850, celebrated their golden wedding on Monday of this week. Dr. A. H. Bowser and wife and David Cochran and wife were at Walk Chalk to participate in the celebration.

Lodge and S. S. Officers. Thursday night of last week new officers were installed in lodge No. 519, B. P. O. E., of this place. Past Exalted Ruler Fred. K. A. Alexander conducted the installation ceremonies. The new officers are: J. C. Scott, Exalted Ruler; A. P. King, Esteemed Leading Knight; George Hughes, Esteemed Loyal Knight; James E. Mitchell, Esteemed Lecturing Knight; John Conser, Tyler; G. M. McDonald, Esq., Secretary; Richard Taaf, Trustee; John O'Hare, Esquire; A. H. Fasnemyer, Inner Guard; Dr. Harry B. King, Chaplain.

Individual Communion Cups. Communion service was held in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and the individual communion cups were introduced for the first time in Reynoldsville. Some of the members have been talking of getting individual cups for use in the Presbyterian church here and when the pastor of a Presbyterian church in a nearby town offered to loan the individual cups of that church to the Reynoldsville congregation on Sunday on trial, the kind offer was accepted, and so far as we can learn the members of the church were so well pleased with the individual cups that a set will be purchased for the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. Glimpses of the People who are Passing To and Fro. Glenn A. Milliron is in Kane this week. David R. Cochran is in Pittsburg this week.

Careless Shooting. Just before noon Saturday some person shot a bullet through the front door of Wesley Motter's residence on Fifth street. Had Mrs. Motter been in the hall at the time it might have proven a serious matter.

Meetings Continued. Evangelistic meetings continue at the Baptist church, conducted by Dr. A. J. Meek, the pastor. Subject for services this week: This, Wednesday evening, "The Master Calling;" Thursday, "The Great Salvation;" Friday, "This is Not Your Rest;" Saturday, "The Meanness of the Devil;" Sunday morning, "The Heavenly Company;" evening, "God has No Pleasure in the Death of the Wicked."

Supper and Entertainment. The ladies of the Presbyterian Missionary Society gave a free six o'clock tea and entertainment in the lecture room of the Presbyterian church last Thursday evening to members of the church and congregation. Quite a large number were present.

Sheriff's Sales. Sheriff Jacob M. Chesnut, of Jefferson county, will expose to public sale at the court house in Brookville on Friday, April 6, 1900, the following properties: Property of R. E. Hogue, in Winslow township, one lot and dwelling house.

Miss Elizabeth Sutter, of Punksutawney, is visiting her brother, J. J. Sutter, in this place. James G. Pentz, a student in the Allegheny College, Meadville, is at home on a short vacation.

The Clearfield Public Spirit issued an industrial edition last week. It contained biographical sketches of prominent citizens, and was handsomely illustrated with half-tone cuts of buildings and cities.

Dummy on Flag Pole. Last Wednesday night three mischievous young lads had a dummy rigged up and perched in a tree on Main street, near school house, and by means of a wire they would let the dummy fall to the sidewalk when ladies passed. After becoming tired of their joke they pulled the dummy up the flag pole at the school house, where it hung suspended in mid-air until removed the next day by the janitor.

Daniel Sharp Dead. Daniel Sharp, one of our oldest citizens, departed this life at 1:00 p. m. Monday, March 26, 1900. Deceased was born in Columbia county, Pa., October 4, 1812, making him over four score and seven years old at time of death.

People Who Pay the Printer. The following persons have paid their subscriptions or added their names to our list since last report: William Ross, Reynoldsville, Nov. 15, 1900.

Charles King and Joseph Macro, students in the Bucknell University, Lewisburg, Pa., came home last Wednesday on a vacation. Miss Carrie Phillips, who has been in Philadelphia several years, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Phillips, on Jackson street.

John Yarger, father-in-law of J. H. Myers, of this place, died at his home near Strattonville last Wednesday. Mrs. Myers died Friday and her father died the following Wednesday. Cancer and Bright's disease was the cause of Mr. Yarger's death.

Small Blaze. Hope Hose Co. responded to a fire alarm at 6:30 Saturday morning at J. V. Young's planing mill. The fire was in the small brick boiler house about twenty feet from the main building. The windows, door and roof were burned off. This is the second time the same thing has occurred inside of a year.

Additional Stockholders. On the editorial page will be found a statement of the signature of E. A. Ferrin concerning the financial affairs of the Star Glass Company. The names of the gentlemen who became stockholders in the glass company Monday should certainly be a guarantee to our people that the company is on a solid basis, as the stockholders are all good business men.

Lindsey, Next. Prof. Alton C. Lindsey the popular dramatic reader will appear for the fifth time in Assembly hall on next Monday evening, April 2. Prof. Lindsey comes under the auspices of the public schools and needs no recommendation to a Reynoldsville audience.

Clarence Hyatt Reynolds, a student in the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy, is home for the summer vacation. Clarence passed the State Board examination and is now a registered pharmacist. E. Greenbaum, who has been bookkeeper at the silk mill since that plant was first started, has resigned his position here and will go to New York in ten days where another position is ready for him.