Reunion of Odd Fellows.

The Northwestern Central District Anniversary Association will celebrate the eighty-first anniversary of Odd Fellows by holding a reunion in Brookville on Thursday, April 26th, 1900, and the members of the organization throughout the district are looking forward to that time in anticipation of witnessing the most successful anniversary meeting in the history of the association. The details for the reunion are under the direction of Brookville Lodge No. 217, one of the oldest and most influential lodges in the district, and its membership will see to it that nothing is left undone that will in any way tend to the pleasure, comfort and entertainment of their visiting brethren, whom they expect to be here by thousands.

The program has not yet been perfected, but there will be a grand street parade of lodges in regalia, in which it is expected that several thousand of the members will participate; public meeting, to be addressed by prominent members of the order throughout the district; business meeting of the association to fix place of next meeting; conferring of all degrees of the order by well-known degree staffs, and various other interesting features that will make it a day of pleasure and profit to all who attend.—Brookville Republican.
