The woman had taken a dose of iodine with the intention of "shuffling off this mortal coil," but some of her friends discovered her suicidal intention soon after the poison had been swallowed and they ran to nearest drug store for help, which happened to be the store where Vincent is head clerk. He sent in a call for a physician and then equipped himself with the neces sary emetics and was soon at the woman's side administering the medicine, and before the doctor arrived Vincent had his patient in a fair way to

James Hodge Committed Suicide.

James Hodge, of Rathmel, committed suicide yesterday afternoon by cutting his throat from ear to ear with a pen knife. He had been unable to work for almost a year on account of stomach trouble which worried him and finally ffected his mind. His family was afraid he would harm himself and watched him closely. His razor and knife were put out of his way. Yesterday afternoon he went to home of his nephew, next door to his own, and found a sharp knife which the nephew had been using and forgotten to take with him. Mr. Hodge forgotten to take with him. Mr. Hodge slipped the knife into his pocket and went out to closet about 3.00 p. m. and about four o'clock he was found dead. He deliberately used the knife, laid it down on seat beside him and held his head over a closet hole to let the blood run into closet. Mr. Hodge leaves a wife and six children. He was about fifty-two years old. He was a member of the Improved Order of Red Men of this place and had been receiving weekly benefits from this order until recently. Benefits would have been renewed next week. Special meeting of Red Men will be held this evening to make arrangements to attend the funeral.

At 3.00 p. m. Thursday, May 10th, Miss Blanche Davis, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Davis, and N. A. Headley, of New Kensington, Pa., were married at residence of the bride's parents on Jackson street. The nuntial knot was that he Roy A. J. nuptial knot was tied by Rev. A. J. Meek, pastor of the Baptist church. Miss Anna Davis was bridesmaid and L. E. Mitchell, of New Kensington, was groomsman. The wedding party was small, only immediate members of the family and a few invited guests were present. After the ceremony and con-gratulations an excellent wedding dinner was served. Some valuable pres-ents were given. Mr. and Mrs. Head-ley left on the 5.08 p. m. train the same day for New Kensington, their future home, where Mr. Headley has a good position in the tin mill.

Miss Blanche Davis was one of Reynoldsville's finest young ladies. She was a consistent member and hard worker of the Baptist church; a member of the choir. She was a graduate of the Clar-ion Normal music department. She had many friends who will miss her from their ranks. Mr. Headley was an employe at the Jefferson Supply Co. store in this place a year or two ago and is well known in town. THE STAR joins with their host of friends in wishing them happiness and prosperity.

Red Men at Church.

Last Sunday morning there was a large audience at the Baptist church. The pastor, Dr. Meek, preached a sermon to the I. O. R. M. More than one hundred Red Men were present and occupied fourteen front pews. After a brief history of the origin and growth of the Order, the motto, "Freedom, Friendship and Charity," was made the basis of the sermon. The church was decorated with potted plants. A large choir furnished very excellent music. A male quartette sang an appropriate selection with good effect. Miss Florence Stone sang "Calvary" to the delight of all present. Misses Millie Hoon and Katle King presided at the overan. organ.

West Reynoldsville Council.

The West Reynoldsville town council met in regular session May 8th, with the following members present, A. B. Weed, Samuel Sutter, James Orr, Richard Miller and James Shobert, the first named in the chair.

Minutes of last regular meeting were read and approved.

Bills amounting to $27.25 were ordered paid.

Dr. Burgoon Jailed. Dr. J. A. Burgoon, of Pittsburg, for-merly a resident of Reynoldsville, who was familiarly known as "Huldekooper," was committed to jail at Pittsburg Sat urday for contempt of court. He was released Monday morning. Mrs. Sybills Burgoon, wife of the doctor, has brought suit against him for desertion and nonsupport. The case was on trial Satur-day and doctor had discharged his counsel and was trying his own case when he used an obscene adjective in speak-ing of his wife's attorney, and for that reason the Judge sent him to jail for contempt of court.

The tenth annual convention of the Jefferson County Sanday School Asso-ciation will be held in the M. E. church at Brookville on Wednesday and Thurs at Brookville on Wednesday and Thursday of next week, May 23rd and 24th. An interesting program has been prepared for the entire convention. The names of Rev. Perry A. Reno and W. S. Stone, of this place, appear on the program. Rev. Reno's subject is, "Irreverence in Sunday School; the fact, the cause, the sin, the remedy." Mr. Stone's subject is, "How to Interest Young Men in Sunday School."

Dr. Howard L. Kaucher. Dr. Howard L. Kaucher, oldest son of John H. Kaucher, cashler of First National bank in this place, who has been a student in the Medico-Chirurgical College, Philadelphia, three years, graduates from that institution next Saturday. Only about one-third of Howard's class, some of whom had pre-viously practiced medicine, passed the examination, which was rigid. Mrs. Kaucher is in Philadelphia to attend commencement. It is very proba-that Dr. Kaucher will locate in Philadelphia.

Major McMurray's Opinion.

We attended the closing exercises of the Reynoldsville school last Wednes-day evening, May 2nd, not on anybody's invitation, but on the exercise of our privilege as an American citizen. We invitation, but on the exercise of our privilege as an American citizen. We desired to see how the Reynoldsville young people who are going out from her high school would acquit themselves, and incidentally to hear Ernest Gambie sing and Ex-Governor Hastings talk. We are glad we went. The evening's exercises repuld us well for our trip and the small expense connected with it. ed with it.

From our standpoint the exercises by the graduates were excellent. In mat-ter and style of composition they com-pared favorably with such commencements generally, and some of them were quite above the average. Evidently the performers had been well trained, for the recitations in merit of delivery were exceptionally good.

The exercises were all plain, intended to show the qualities of the graduates in composition and public speaking, and there was no "dress parade" or elaborate stage effect. A real merit of the exercise was its comparative brevity, the whole performance, including Governor Hastings' address did not exceed two hours and a half in length.

Beyond all exercise Performance Land

Beyond all question, Professor Len-kerd has done most excellent and successful work in the Reynoldsville public schools during the four years of his principalship of them. He ranks among the best educators in the county.—

Too Fast for Green and Conser.

George Hughes bought a spirited team of "goers" several days ago and Monday he hitched the bay nags to a wagon to drive to Big Soldier. John "Marks" Conser and Thomas Green thought they would like to ride behind a fast team and they crawled into the wagon to accompany Mr. Hughes, but by the time they got to the Baptist church "Marks" and Tom had fully decided that the team was too fast for them and they immediately proceeded to vacate the wagon. Tom got off one side of the wagon as graceful as a tum-ble bug and "Marks" managed to get out over the end-gate without taking a tumble. Mr. Hughes, who is a lover of fast horses, evidently decided to stay in the wagon and on the hill above Presbyterian church he persuaded the team to stop and wait for Tom and "Marks, but these gentlemen had concluded not to go to Big Soldier Monday forenoon and did not follow after the wagon.
