Tortured a Witness.

Intense suffering was endured by witness T. L. Martin, of Dixie, Ky., before he gave this evidence: "I coughed every night until my throat was nearly raw; then tried Dr. King's New Discovery which gave instant relief. I have used it in my family for four years and recommend it as the greatest remedy for Coughs, Colds and all Throat, Chest and Lung troubles." It will stop the worst cough, and not only prevents but absolutely cures consumption. Price 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at H. Alex. Stokes' drug store.

A Fine Old Gentleman.

Henry Garrett, well known in Reynoldsville and Punxsutawney, where he spent about twenty years of his life, but who has been with his daughter in Philadelphia for the past year, returned last week and will spend the summer at the home of Mrs. Sophia Hamm, of this place. Mr. Garrett is ninety-one years of age, and came all the way from Philadelphia alone. A peculiar thing about Mr. Garrett is that, after his teeth had been out for a number of years, a new set grew in about two years ago, when he was eighty-nine years of age. His faculties are well preserved and he is in all respects a fine old gentleman. The Garrett sisters, who introduced in the United States the system of training deaf children to speak, so that they can carry on a conversation by reading the lips, are his daughters.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

The life of a man, as far as we know it, may be well likened to a lead pencil. The fellow who lives too fast will soon wear his lead pencil of life out, and he is also liable to whittle away much of the lead of life in sharpening the pencil too sharp. Some lives, like some pencils, are made of good material and will last longer than the ordinary kind, while on the other hand there are many good ones wasted. The man who is careful not to waste the lead can get along pretty well through life even though he is of the penny variety.—Falls Creek Herald.

of our stock will teach you how to dress well on a little money. We believe that our goods are a little bit better and our prices a little bit lower than any other store in town. That we are not alone in this belief is shown by the large number of pleased customers who are wearing the clothes we sell. Among these customers are working men. They are the best dressed working men in the community because the clothes we sell are the famous Carrhart Brand of coats, pants and overalls, made in Detroit. We want every man who toils to know how good these garments are.
