S. SHAFER, Chairman.

Information for School Boards.

Smooth lighting rod salesmen are working school boards and selling charts, such as the so-called New Education, and prices obtained for such charts varies from $7.50 to $60.00 per set. The school board that pays $60.00 gets the same thing as the one that pays $7.00. Prices are governed by the "greenness" of the school board. Side payments or "grafts" for getting signatures run high in most cases. The cost of charts to salesmen averages from $3.00 to $4.00 per set. Thousands have been sold at retail for less than $10.00 per set. In 10,000 set lots such charts are made for $2 per set.

F. G. RICHARDSON.

It's mighty queer how people will rear upon their hind feet and paw the air when some item of news happens to be a little off in facts, yet these same people wouldn't tell you the item if asked for it before the paper was printed. There are some people from whom you could not draw a local with a cork screw—they absolutely don't know any news. But after the paper comes out, they will say you were misinformed about some local happenings and wonder why you can't get things straight.—Kane Republican.

Soft Coal Market.

Coal Trade Journal.

Soft coal is actively going forward to all the lake ports of shipment, and the movement this year is expected to be much in excess of last season. Local wholesale dealers in bituminous coal declare the present supply in Buffalo is fully adequate. At the eastward it is said that in the way of contracts business is not so brisk as the outlook for strength would seem to indicate as reasonable.

At Buffalo the soft coal is quiet, and though there is no particular effort to crowd the market, all of the shippers and dealers are doing a good business. Prices are firm and steady, and consumers are willing to pay what is asked, as no effort is made to cut quotations. Complaint is made by the producers of a scarcity of miners and very few of the mines are operated to their full capacity. This has caused a slight scarcity of coal for the Buffalo market, but not enough to make any appreciable difference except to strengthen the prices.

How true it is that it is the immensity of things that shocks or interests. The great hue and cry over the recent mining accident in Utah attracts attention because so many were lost at one swoop as it were. To get the coal in Pennsylvania last year, cost 719 lives, and there were 1,517 injured; these came as a few at a time so that no great stir was made, but it is an appalling list, nevertheless.

The growth of the soft coal trade is of such magnitude that really none of the hard coal agents are such big fellows to-day as they were only a few years ago. The total output of hard coal is but twenty per cent of the annual production of coal in this country.

Rhoda Royal Shows.

The Great Rhoda Royal Shows will be here, and it will be well to remember the date. No show ever visited this section of the state as well equipped, better recommended, and bringing with it as good a class of attractions as does the Great Rhoda Shows. Its menagerie contains the rarest of animals, its museum the oddest of features, and the performance furnished is made up of the highest salaried artists, and the trained animals better than any other similar organization on the road this season. In every city and town where the Great Rhoda Royal Shows have been seen the press and public have united in sounding its praises. Conservative papers have pronounced it positively the best and grandest exhibition ever seen in the town.

Such sincere endorsements are sufficient guarantee for success here. Two shows will be given daily, at 2 and 8 p. m. On the morning of the day of exhibition a grand street parade will be given, starting from the exhibition grounds at 10 o'clock. Immediately after the parade, upon the return to the grounds, will be given a free outdoor exhibition.

At Reynoldsville Tuesday, June 5th.

Spare the Census Taker.

With warm weather will come the census taker. Either is an aggravation, and combined the result is an affliction. But since such things must be borne, it were well that they be borne with patience and politeness. It is not going to please people when a man or a woman comes asking searching questions as to one's age, sex, religious and political affiliations and previous conditions of servitude. But it is the law and the law must be lived up to. Nor must this seeming impertinence be held against the enumerator. He or she is simply discharging a plainly defined duty.—Cincinnati Commercial.

The Country Editor.

The Hon. Champ Clark, of Missouri, in opposing the Loud bill in Congress, said: "The rural editor—God bless him—is the most persistent of teachers. Like charity as described by St. Paul in the thirteenth chapter of Corinthians, he suffereth long and is kind; he envieth not himself, is not puffed up; doth not behave himself unseemly; seeketh not his own; is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in truth; beareth all things, endureth all things. He is the backbone of every community, the promoter of every laudable enterprise, the worst underpaid laborer in the vineyard. Counting his space as his capital he gives more to charity, his means considered than any other member of society. He is a power in politics, a pillar in the church, a leader in the crusade for better morals. He is pre-eminently the friend of humanity."

A Woman's Awful Peril.

"There is only one chance to save your life and that is through an operation," were the startling words heard by Mrs. I. B. Hunt of Lime Ridge, Wis., from her doctor after he had vainly tried to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. Gall stones had formed and she constantly grew worse. Then she began to use Electric Bitters, which wholly cured her. It's a wonderful stomach, liver and kidney remedy. Cures dyspepsia, loss of appetite. Try it. Only 50c. Guaranteed. For sale by H. A. Stoke, druggist.
