

June, the Month of Hot Weather

And we want to make this month eclipse all former months in business and we have the goods and prices to do it. Not a clothing house in town as well able to take care of the Clothing and Gent's Furnishings goods trade as we are.

Don't Ask Me

If I am hot enough. Wait until you see me half hour from now—then you may ask me with an easy conscience if it is hot enough for me. Fact is, I'm a trifle overheated in my haste to reach McClelland's for one of their Serge or Crash Suits.

What is the use of wearing a heavy suit when we can sell you a genuine Serge Suit for $10.00 and a first-class Crash or Linen Suit for $2.00 to $4.00. So come and look our line over and you will go away pleased.

Mothers, About Wash Suits.

Our line of these popular suits was never finer and cheaper. Exclusive patterns and fabrics turned and sewed with utmost care. We have a special line of boy's D. B. coats in linen that are just what you want for your boy. Prices from 50c. the suit to $2.00.

Shirts.

Correct dressers who appreciate exclusiveness, perfection of fit and good workmanship find the Monarch and Gold and Silver make the very best makes. Come and look this line of Shirts over and be convinced that we have the strongest line of 50c., 75c. and $1.00 shirts you ever saw.

Get next to you a suit of our French Balbriggan Underwear.

The greatest Underwear on the market for 50 cents the garment.

The Last Touch

Is what gives a distinction to a man's dress—it is his Necktie.

Our furnishings are calculated to appeal to the most cultivated tastes. They have been selected with special reference to what a well dressed gentleman should wear, so come and see that we are the store you are looking for.

Designed to Meet You, Sir.

Let us sell you a Hat. We offer you the best things—Quality, Assortment and Low Prices. Ice is a good thing but you can't wear a float of ice in your head. What is next best is one of our Straw Hats.

Don't buy until you have seen them. Ours are exactly what you want.

Sunday School Convention.

A full report of the Jefferson County Sunday School convention, held at Brookville May 23-24, was received from Secretary W. H. Cowan after THE STAR was published last week. As the report is lengthy and late, and we published a short report last week, we will not publish the report in full this week.

The following officers were elected for ensuing year: President, Austin Blakeslee, of Coal Glen; for vice-president, Matthew H. Smith, of Grove Summit; for secretary, W. B. Cowan, of Brookville; for treasurer, S. A. Craig, of Brookville; for primary superintendent, Mrs. George W. Means, of Brookville; for superintendent of home department, John Lowrey, of Punxsutawney; executive committee, Alex. J. Truitt, J. L. Allison and J. B. Eberhart, of Punxsutawney. At the suggestion of the State secretary, a normal superintendent was added, and the name of C. C. Benscoter, of Brookville, was suggested for that office.

The secretary says: "The addresses were all good, and close attention was given to the work throughout all the sessions. There were present 105 delegates, besides pastors, superintendents, and other interested workers. The church was handsomely decorated, and looked very pretty. This was not only the largest, but the best convention ever held by the association."

As stated last week in THE STAR, the convention will be held in the M. E. church at Punxsutawney in 1901.

A Candidate for District Attorney.

James V. Murray, Esq., of Lindsey, was in town the other day looking after the voters of Jefferson county and incidentally informing them that he is a candidate for the office of District Attorney. Six years ago Mr. Murray was a candidate for the same office and after he had been defeated he accepted it manfully and supported the ticket from top to bottom, allowing his opponent, Mr. Strong, to have a second term without a contest. Mr. Murray is a lawyer of nine years steady practice, and it is seldom that a county has the opportunity to elect an attorney of this vast experience to the office of District Attorney. It behooves Jefferson county to avail itself of this opportunity of electing an experienced man for the office.—Falls Creek Herald.

Life and Death Fight.

Mr. W. A. Hines, of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in Consumption. Hundreds have used it on my advice and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at H. Alex. Stoke's drug store.
