

The Eclipse

is a thing of the past, but HOFFMAN, the jeweler, is at the old stand, where a call will convince you that his stock and prices eclipse all competitors.

C. F. HOFFMAN, The Jeweler. BICYCLE REPAIR DEPT.

Travelers' Guide. Passenger trains arrive and leave Reynoldsville as follows: Allegheny Valley Railway.

A Little of Everything.

Williams for shoes. We will celebrate. Buy Robinson's shoes. Johns & Thompson, tailors. Missionary convention to-day. Republican primary Saturday. Leather belts of all kinds at Millirens. There will be a Fourth of July celebration in this place. Don't forget it. Our shoes are the sort you like better every day you wear them. Robinson's. A West Reynoldsville man was arrested and fined last week for abusing his wife. Plyler & Chitester, grocers, have added their names to the early closing list. If you want a good fitting suit or an overcoat, go to Johns & Thompson, merchant tailors. Armstrong Szuklecoice, a Polander of DuBois, fell dead while out bicycle riding Sunday morning. Nobby suits, the very latest style, is what Johns & Thompson, merchant tailors, are turning out. Try them. The early closing of the stores gives our business men an opportunity to get better acquainted with their families. Don't make arrangements to go out of town to celebrate the Fourth of July, as there will be a big time here that day. The Sykesville Baptist Sunday school observed Children's Day Sunday. The program was good and the collection large. A Prudential insurance agent of DuBois, was held up near Falls Creek Monday night by two masked men and robbed. Fedele Ciofous and Maria Dicoceci, of Soldier, were married by Squire E. Neff at his office in this place last Saturday. Captain Violet Urban and Lieutenant May Batchelder went to Oil City Monday to attend a meeting of Salvation Army officers. The Helping Hand Society of the M. E. church cleared about $28.00 out of the ice cream and strawberry festival in Bee Hive building Saturday evening. The mite box opening of the Woman's Baptist Mission Circle was held in the Baptist church Thursday evening. A good program was prepared for the occasion. One of the horses owned by Ex-Sheriff Burns, that fell into the Sandy Lick creek several weeks ago, died last week from injuries received when it was in the creek. There was quite a large crowd in the court house at Brookville Monday attending the county treasurer's sale of seated and unseated lands, which were sold for taxes. A sufficient amount of money has been raised by John M. Hays to pay off the debt remaining against the public drinking fountain at corner of Main and Fifth streets. A collection will be taken in the Presbyterian church next Sunday for the famine sufferers in India. Dr. Ewing, who will attend the missionary meeting, which begins this afternoon, will speak on the famine in India Thursday evening.

The persons who have engaged to entertain delegates in attendance at the Presbyterian Missionary convention are requested to be at the Wednesday afternoon session. We have greater desire that Sherwin-Williams paints should give satisfaction than the man who owns the house. We have more at stake. Reynoldsville Hardware Co. George Robertson, of Desire, and Miss Retta Rutter, of Winslow township, were married Wednesday afternoon of last week by Squire E. Neff, at his residence on Hill street. The Ingelov Club, composed exclusively of young ladies, hired a four horse turnout and drove to DuBois in style last Friday. There were fourteen young ladies in the party. Louisa Storms, a lassie about six years old, fell on a little express wagon one day last week and cut a gash in her forehead large enough to require three stitches to sew up the wound. At the Woman's Relief Corps State Convention held at Gettysburg last week, Mrs. Dr. C. C. Rumberger, of Tionesta, formerly of this place, was elected Department Chaplain. Persons leaving their orders at Clark's green grocery, next door to postoffice, can get fine large strawberries from a Paradise farm to can. These berries will be fresh from the vines. The Sykesville band boys have received new uniforms—dark blue trimmed in white. They are nobby suits. This band will accompany the Sykesville K. of P. lodge to the reunion in this place to-morrow. There will be communion services in the M. E. church next Sunday. The regular services will be held at the usual time except love feast will be held at 6.30 p. m. instead of the regular Epworth League services. Squire John M. Hays, who returned recently from a trip in Missouri, has a fine selection of zinc and lead ore he gathered at some of the mines while there. Squire expects to return to Missouri in a couple of weeks. The Puxsawney Spirit, acknowledged to be the best country newspaper published in Western Pennsylvania—excepting THE STAR, of course—entered its twenty-eighth year of existence last week. The Spirit is an ideal newspaper. The Children's Day exercises in the M. E. church Sunday morning and evening were attended by large congregations. The morning exercises were given by the little folks and the evening exercises by older scholars. One of the features of the program at the Presbyterian church this Wednesday, evening will be the rendering of the missionary exercise "The Conquering Cross," by fifty boys and girls taken from the Junior and Intermediate C. E. Societies. Dr. T. H. Robinson, one of the professors in the Presbyterian Theological Seminary in Allegheny City, preached in the Presbyterian church at this place Sunday morning and evening. He is a scholarly gentleman. He preached two excellent sermons. The president, directors and general manager of the P. R. R. and president and other officials of the A. V. R. Y. passed through this place Friday on a special train of Pullman, observation and dining cars. They were out on a tour of inspection. Misses Irene Phillippi and Rose Black gave a picnic in Frank's Park Saturday in honor of their guest, Miss Coletta Fassenmyer, of New Bethlehem. About fifty attended the picnic, and it is hardly necessary to add that they had a jolly time. Henry Brumbaugh, a young man of Rose township, near Brookville, was found dead in the bushes alongside the B. & P. R. Y. track near Falls Creek last Friday morning. The supposition is that Brumbaugh was struck by the B. & P. southbound "flyer." In setting the item last week about the sale of flowers by Misses Aldine Reed and Jessie Campbell, the compositor unintentionally changed the day from Saturday to Sunday and the mistake was not caught in the proof. The girls will sell flowers Saturdays. We have a car load of doors and sash that were bought for cash before the last few advances, consequently we can sell while this car lasts at prices that defy competition. It would pay you to examine our stock and get our prices before making your purchases. Hall & Barton. The funeral of C. Meade Lucas last Thursday afternoon was a very large one. The services were conducted at the residence of Frank S. Hoffman by Rev. W. Frank Reber. The deceased was a member of James L. Burns Lodge No. 506, B. R. T., and a number of members of that lodge attended funeral. Cora, seven-year-old daughter of Mrs. William Whalen, died at the home of William Christie, near Pancoast, Friday from diphtheria. Mrs. Whalen had gone to Mr. Christie's several weeks before to do some work and had taken her children with her. She was only there a few days until she was ill with diphtheria. Cora took the disease soon after and died.

Invitations Out. Invitations are out for the wedding of K. C. Schuckers and Miss Amelia Morrow, which takes place on the 20th inst., one week from to-day. Teacher's Examinations. The annual examinations for teachers' certificates will be held at Reynoldsville Saturday, July 7. Full particulars will be published next week. Another Corps. Another corps of engineers is at work surveying a railroad line between this place and Puxsawney. The whyfore of the numerous surveys between the towns mentioned is not for publication at present. Money in Treasury. The financial statement of the West Reynoldsville public school will be found in this issue of THE STAR. The statement shows that district to be in good financial condition—all debts paid and $234.34 in treasury. Annual Meeting. At the annual meeting of the Reynoldsville Cemetery Company Monday evening two new directors were elected, John M. Hays and Henry C. Deible, and J. J. Sutter was elected president, A. T. Bing secretary, and James K. Johnston treasurer. Prohibition Convention. The Prohibitionists of Jefferson county held their county convention in the court house at Brookville yesterday and nominated Solomon Shaffer, of Reynoldsville, for Congress, and J. C. Sprankle, of Sprankle Mills, for Assembly. There was no nomination for district attorney. That was left in the hands of a committee. Candidate for Congress. Stewart H. Whitehill, Esq., one of Brookville's bright lawyers, announces his name in THE STAR this week for the Democratic nomination for Congress. Mr. Whitehill is a scholarly gentleman who has been a faithful worker in the Democratic ranks. If he secures the nomination and should be elected, he has the ability to fill the office he seeks with credit to the district. Drew Another Man's Pay. Some person who knew Benjamin Hocking's number and the mine he works in, got into the pay office of the J. & C. C. & L. Co. at this place Saturday before Mr. Hocking arrived and forged his name to the pay roll and drew his money. The mistake was not discovered until Mr. Hocking stepped up to the pay window for his envelope. It is very likely the guilty party will be discovered. Will Celebrate. There will be a big Fourth of July celebration at this place under the auspices of the Sons of Veterans. Bicycle races, ball game, fire works, &c., &c., will be on the program of amusements. Full particulars will be announced in THE STAR later. The attractions will be such that it will not pay our people to leave town, and outsiders who come to town will be well entertained. Prizes will be offered to lodges turning out in parade. Will Illuminate To-Morrow Night. To-morrow, Thursday, evening, unless something unforeseen occurs to prevent it, Reynoldsville will be illuminated with electric lights. The lights were turned on at the power house last evening and everything worked nicely. The street lamps to be used are pretty, the very latest thing in the market, and are away ahead of the lamps used by any other town in this section. Don't forget that what improvements our town is getting are up-to-date. Tank Completed. The thirty-six blower tank at glass plant has been finished and the brick layers have departed. Glass blowers who have been here to see the plant say this is the best tank they have ever seen, and that the plant all through is the best in the country. The reason for this is because the general manager, August Boulanger, is one of the best glass blowers in the country, and the plant was built under his directions. There is a little carpenter work to be done yet and the Star glass plant will then be ready for operation, but will not be started until September first. Teachers Elected. At a meeting of the West Reynoldsville school board Monday evening the teachers of last year were re-elected and an additional teacher added, as the school is too large for four rooms. The corps of instructors for the coming term are as follows: Prof. A. J. Postlethwait, principal, Misses Orpha Beer, Hannah Stauffer, Clara Carrier and Tracy Dempsey. The school board has selected a good corps of teachers. A committee was appointed to make arrangements for the additional school room required, as there are only four rooms in the public school building of that borough. The millage laid by the school board is 10 mills for school and 2 mills for building purposes. Keystone Got Third Prize. The Keystone band of this place got third prize at the annual tournament of the Northern Pennsylvania and Western New York band association held in DuBois last Friday. A mishap occurred when the Keystone band was playing the contest piece which may have caused our boys to lose first or second prize. The DuBois Express says: "The Reynoldsville band was third on the platform and but for an unfortunate accident might have ended in a better place than the one assigned them by the judges. The wind was blowing strong and the music of several players was tossed about, another's music rack was blown over and all in all the boys from the neighboring town were up against the toughest kind of luck. Still they secured the third prize, and after rendering their selection were tendered a hearty ovation."

Dr. Hamilton for Assembly. Dr. S. S. Hamilton, of Puxsawney, who is seeking the Republican nomination for Assembly, was in Reynoldsville yesterday looking after his political interests. There are a large number of voters in Reynoldsville who will vote for Dr. Hamilton at the primary election Saturday. The Spirit, published at his home town, in speaking of his candidacy says: "He is out hustling these days, and from the many cordial assurances of support received from leading Republicans all over the county feels confident of success. The Doctor is a genial, energetic and intelligent gentleman, who will take pride in doing everything possible for the interests of his constituents as well as the State at large. He is a Republican of long standing, firm in the faith and loyal under all circumstances. He has long entertained an ambition to represent his county in the Legislature, but has given way in the interests of others for the sake of party harmony. He now believes that this is his time and the leading Republicans generally appear to be of the same opinion." K. of P. Reunion. The Knights of Pythias reunion at this place to-morrow promises to be no small affair. At least twenty lodges will be largely represented. A special train will arrive over B. & P. R. Y. at 10.00 a. m., which will bring a crowd, besides those that will arrive on A. V. R. Y. trains and drive in. Grand Chancellor Scott Dibert and Supreme Chancellor Thomas Sample will arrive on A. V. R. Y. train No. 13 at 11.27 a. m. The parade will be in the afternoon. The K. of P. lodge is furnishing flags to all the business places that will decorate, and it is expected that the town will be handsomely attired. A Wicked Bronco. A sewing machine agent from DuBois, who was driving a bronco pony, came to grief on Main street Saturday afternoon by the pony running off, scattering agent, machine and wagon along the street and raising quite a commotion for a few minutes. Near Davis McCracken's store the machine fell out of wagon and was completely demolished, and near the Burns House the wagon collided with a telephone pole and was badly disfigured. The bronco was caught before any person was injured. Number of Voters in Borough. Edwin Hoare, register in first precinct of this borough, was in Brookville Saturday making his returns. Mr. Hoare's report shows that there are 402 voters in his precinct, about 300 children of school age, that there were 34 births and 7 deaths during the past six months. Mr. Cooper, register of 2nd precinct, reported 388 voters, 367 children of school age, 27 births and 2 deaths. This makes a total of 790 voters in the borough. Don't Forget It. Remember that County Treasurer Reitz will be at Hotel Imperial to-day to receive Winslow township taxes, to-morrow at same hotel to receive Reynoldsville borough taxes and Friday forenoon at the Ross House to receive West Reynoldsville taxes. You save ten per cent by paying your state, county, bond and dog taxes and mercantile licenses to county treasurer. Called to Ohio. Mrs. Albert Reynolds was called to Andover, O., Thursday by the serious illness of her brother-in-law, James S. Morley, who died Thursday evening. Mr. Morley was one of Andover's prominent citizens. He was postmaster in that town a quarter of a century. He served one term as Mayor. Mr. Morley was about seventy years old. Republican Primary. Saturday the Republican primary will be held in Jefferson county. As there is a warm contest on for the nomination for Assembly and district attorney it is likely that there will be a large vote cast. We could name the successful candidates this week, but will wait until next week to make that announcement. District Conference. The summer session of the Clarion District Conference of the M. E. church will be held at Perryville, near Parker, July 9-11. Orders for reduced rates can be secured by applying to Rev. James H. Jelbart, Johnsonburg. A good program has been prepared for this session. Hope Hose Co. The regular monthly meeting of Hope Hose Co. will be held this evening instead of Thursday evening. It is desired that there be a full attendance as there are matters of business to be looked after, among which is to make arrangements to attend the firemen's meeting at Kane. Democratic Primary. The Democratic primary election in Jefferson county will be held on Saturday, June 23rd, from 3.00 to 7.00 p. m., at the regular places for holding the general election. Bids Wanted. The county commissioners are now ready to receive bids for the erection of the poor farm buildings. See the advertisement for bids in this issue of THE STAR. Now that the hot spell is here it becomes a question with some of us how to keep our food fresh and pure, our milk from souring and our butter from becoming greasy. The best way we know of is to buy a Leonard Cleanable Refrigerator, the best refrigerator made, both for service and cleanliness. For sale by Hall & Barton. The nicest selection of fancy half hose at Millirens. Buy the best shoes. Get them at Robinson's. See the display of fancy vests at Millirens. John Flynn, merchant tailor, makes up-to-date suits. Try him. Our bicycles are strictly high grade. Every wheel fully warranted. Prices from $25.00 up. Hall & Barton. New golf hats at Millirens.

Moore-Koehler Nuptials. At 2.30 yesterday afternoon, at residence of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Koehler in West Reynoldsville, Miss Elizabeth Koehler and Vernon Lee Moore were united in the holy bonds of matrimony in the presence of immediate relatives and a few friends. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, of which church the bride is a member. Miss Carrie Albright was bridesmaid and John Reddick was groomsmen. After congratulations and good wishes an excellent wedding dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Moore received a number of presents. They drove to Falls Creek in time to catch the evening train for Ridgway, where they will remain several days and then return to Beechwoods, where Mr. Moore has a home ready for his bride. Miss Elizabeth Koehler was a member of the M. E. choir, teacher in Sunday school, member of the Epworth League and was one of the most faithful and consistent members of the church. She was always willing to do "what she could." Mr. Moore is to be truly congratulated in getting such an excellent young lady as his wife. Vernon Lee Moore is the son of David B. Moore, a well-to-do farmer of Beechwoods. He has been engaged in lumbering and farming several years, and will take his bride to a farm home that is ready for her occupancy. We extend congratulations. Neck Broken. Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Wilson were called to Reidsburg, Clarion county, last Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Wilson's brother, David Reed Hindman, who was instantly killed on Tuesday. Mr. Hindman was having a new barn built and was assisting the workmen in raising a heavy timber when a part known as the "bent" fell on him, breaking his neck, collar bone and shoulder blade. Mr. Hindman was a highly respected citizen of Clarion county. He was somewhat of a politician and held a number of township offices, and in 1896 was elected treasurer of Clarion county. Speaking of his treasurership the Clarion Republican says: "He filled the office with credit to himself and honor to the county, leaving the large balance of some $38,000 for his successor and his accounts in the very finest condition." In speaking of his family relations and social life the Clarion Republican says: "As a husband and a father he was always kind and indulgent, denying nothing that was for their good or pleasure and he was always happiest in their society. He was liberal and generous to all calls made upon him. As a business man he was prompt in all his dealings and kept his word as his bond. He was a faithful member of the Baptist church and died in that faith." Died in a Hospital. Mention was made in last week's issue of THE STAR of the death of Rev. J. W. Crawford, former pastor of the Reynoldsville M. E. church, but we could not give any particulars at that time. We have since learned that he died in a hospital at Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Crawford had attended the general conference at Chicago and stopped off at Cleveland on his way home to visit a friend. He was going to depot with his friend to return home when he said, "I am fainting," and he fell to the pavement, fracturing his skull, rendering him unconscious. He was taken to hospital where he died a few hours later. It is not known whether he died from effects of the fracture or that apoplexy caused his death. When the accident occurred a telegram was sent to Mrs. Crawford, who was at Meadville, but she reached Cleveland just a few minutes too late, as her husband expired while she was in the waiting room of the hospital. Remains were buried at Meadville. Rev. Crawford was licensed to preach in 1869, and served as pastor of fourteen different churches of the Erie conference. He was pastor on the Cranestown charge at time of death. Going to Clearfield. Eleven delegates were appointed from the Reynoldsville Baptist church to attend the Clearfield Baptist Association meeting at Clearfield this week. The Young People's Union meets at 10.00 a. m. to-morrow. Thursday evening an address will be delivered by Rev. W. H. Conrad, D. D., of Philadelphia. The Association opens at 10.00 a. m. Friday. Eminent ministers from Philadelphia will be present. Directors' Convention. The fifteenth semi-annual convention of the Jefferson County School Directors Association was held in this place yesterday, beginning at 10.00 a. m. County Superintendent Tutrick was present. The attendance was not very large. A number of important topics were ably discussed. Lutheran Church. No services in the Lutheran church next Sunday at this place, or in any of the churches connected with the Reynoldsville charge. The pastor, Rev. G. Johannes, will attend the meeting of the Pittsburgh Synod at Ligonier, Armstrong county, and will be absent until about the 20th inst. We are selling nails and wire at strictly market rates, regardless of what they cost us. Our loss is your gain. We also have a large stock of strictly pure white lead, linseed oil, ready mixed paints, varnishes, brushes, etc. In fact we have anything you want in our line and the price is right. Thomas' family in Prescottville. W. M. King, who has been spending considerable time in Clarion county lately, was in town over Sunday. Franklin Johnson, of Shamokin, Pa., who was visiting his grandfather, John Goodwill, returned home yesterday. Dr. J. B. Neale, G. M. McDonald, Esq., and Jacob Deible went over to Mosquito Creek Monday to fish for trout. W. N. Conrad, of Brookville, candidate for the Republican nomination for district attorney, was in town yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Heck, of Penn Yan, N. Y., were visitors at S. B. Rumsey's the past week. Mr. Heck is an old soldier. Harry Barton and family, of Patton, spent a few hours with the former's brother, Samuel Barton, in this place Saturday. Mrs. August Boulanger, wife of general manager of the Star Glass Company, will start next Monday on a pleasure trip to Paris. Rev. C. E. Ferguson, a Methodist Episcopal minister of Elmira, N. Y., visited his sister, Mrs. James Irving, in this place last week. Squire J. L. Long, of Sykesville, traveling agent for the McCormick harvesting machines, is selling a large number of machines. William Mahon, a wealthy farmer of Marion Center, Indiana county, who was married to Mrs. Ann Gibson, was in town several days last week. Mrs. Andrew Thompson Bing left this place Saturday on a month's visit in Buffalo, N. Y., Boston, Mass., and West Lebanon, N. H. The latter place is where her son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. P. P. Womer, reside. B. W. Stone and family, of Turtle Creek, Pa., spent several days of the past week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Stone. Mr. Stone is general foreman of the Westinghouse electrical shops. He came home to see his sister, Miss Agnes, who is ill. See the Union-made overalls and pants at Millirens. Our $2.00 shoes are handsome and serviceable—fit perfectly. Robinson's. Low prices, good fits, first-class work at John Flynn's tailor shop. Fifty pair of misses' shoes that were formerly $1.50, now $1.00 at Williams'.
