GOING TO FARM.

Four Society-bred Gentlemen are Doing the "Wandering Minstrel" Act.

A quartette of McDonald's leading society gentlemen drove to Jefferson county Thursday, where they will assist the father of two of the gentlemen in harvesting. After the work on the farm is done they will drive through the country selling song books, mandolin strings and incidentally to pick up a few odd pennies doing the "Wandering Minstrel" in small towns. Of course it will look rather out of place to see four society-bred gentlemen attired in the garments of the typical farm hand, driving horses hitched to rubber-tired vehicles, but that is their mode of travel. At Kittanning they tuned their strings and played; as they did so the people stood with mouth wide open staring at the quartette in blank amazement, while the boys brought forth sounds like Orpheus' lute, whose golden touch could soften steel and stones, make tigers tame and huge leviathans forsake unsonned deeps to dance on sands. Joe, being a vocalist, to their instruments tuned a deploring dump, and it was long into the night before the sweet concert was broken up. Joe's duties also included "passing the hat." They will visit Luthersburg, Sykesville, Troutville and Reynoldsville before returning home, which will be in about two weeks. We will not mention the names of the boys because they might consider this a roast, and as we overheard Will tell John they would get Doc and Joe to assist them in doing the reporter if anything appeared in the Record concerning their trip.—McDonald Record.

The four young men referred to above are now sticking their feet under Noah Strauss' dining room table three times a day.

Paradise.

Noah Strouse was in Pittsburg last week.

Edward Hillis has begun to build a new house on the old homestead.

Miss Tena Strouse visited her sister, Mrs. J. J. Pifer, of Dutch Paradise on Sunday.

Mrs. Adline Cernern, her daughter, Mira, and son, Lewis, of Greensburg, are visiting friends here.

William Dougherty had to move his family out of the house into his wagon shed on account of his house sinking.

Peter Wells killed a black snake the other day and if it had been four feet longer it would have been six feet long.

About fifty young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Strouse on Thursday evening and had quite a nice time.

A couple of our ladies came in contact with a polecat a few days ago and after one of them shot at and missed the cat, the other lady shot and hit it where the other missed it. Charles Strouse happened along and killed the animal.

The Appetite of a Goat

Is envied by all whose stomach and liver are out of order. But such should know that Dr. King's New Life Pills give a splendid appetite, sound digestion and a regular bodily habit that insures perfect health and great energy. Only 25c at H. Alex. Stoke's drug store.
