Alex Stokes, and she has invited twenty little friends to attend her birthday picnic, which they are holding near Kline's school house to-day. He was married several months ago. Peter B. The annual report of the Reynoldsville school board and the auditors' report of the school funds of this borough will be found in this issue of THE STAR. Read it. Misses Clara Geisler and Katie Kerr, teachers in the primary department of the Catholic Sunday school, gave their scholars a picnic in Frank's Park last Thursday. Lost—In Punxsutawney July 4th, a note for $100.00, payable to M. C. Wolfgang, of Sykesville, Pa. Finder is requested to send same to above name and address. The Ladies Aid Society of the Lutheran church will hold an ice cream festival on July 21st in the Star block both afternoon and evening. The public is cordially invited. Miss Janet Snedden, who was principal of the Prescottville school last year, has been elected by the Brookville school board to teach the Longview primary school. Miss Snedden is a good teacher. Mrs. F. K. Arnold offers her Main street property for sale. This is one of the most desirable residence properties now left in that section. Full particulars can be had of Mrs. Arnold or J. B. Arnold. The report that Joseph Fuller had committed suicide and that his body was found hanging from a tree near New Kensington, was a false report, even though it was published in a Pittsburg paper. The Presbyterian church is thankful to Mrs. John H. Kaucher for a picture presented to the church, entitled "Love's Melody," also to Hon. S. B. Elliott for flowers furnished for mounds on church lawn. Hopkins mill was shut down the latter part of June until July 17th. The reason for the long shut down is shortage of logs, caused by low water. If there is not a flood before 17th the logs will be rafted from Wiggott's to mill. There will be services in the churches of Reynoldsville Lutheran church on next Sunday as follows: Chestnut Grove at 10.30 a. m., Emerickville at 3 p. m., Reynoldsville Lutheran church at 8 p. m. Reed; recording secretary, Anna Kunes; treasurer, W. F. Herpel. Since that time Miss Nellie Dougherty was elected to fill out the full corps of teachers. Misses Whitmore and Dempsey graduated and Miss Beer was taking a post graduate course. Two West Reynoldsville girls were given a hearing before Squire J. D. Woodring Saturday forenoon for assault and battery. They were bound over to court and had considerable difficulty to get bail so they would not have to go to jail. The charge of assault was made by another feminine of the same borough. Frank H. Beck, bookkeeper for the J. & C. C. & I. Co. at this place, has moved his mother and two sisters, Misses Grace and Edith Beck, from Randolph, N. Y., to Reynoldsville since our last issue. Hall, of this place, went over into Canada the first of this week on a fishing expedition. Italian Band. The Italians of this section have organized a brass band and have engaged a teacher from Buffalo, N. Y. The teacher arrived Friday but the instruments are not all here. There will be 27 pieces in this band. The band room is at Prescottville. Shot on Hides. There has not been any hides shipped into the tannery at this place for some time and part of the tannery is now idle, and as the hides are worked through each department, that department will be forced to stop work until more hides arrive. Mr. Palen does not expect the shut down to last any length of time. Harry Schlabig Married. June 27th Harry L. Schlabig and Miss Florence Harren, of Buffalo, N. Y., were quietly married in Buffalo. They immediately started on a wedding trip to Pittsburg. They are spending part of their honeymoon with Harry's parents at this place. Harry's many friends in Reynoldsville have been extending congratulations. Taking a European Trip. Prof. G. W. Lenker, principal of the Reynoldsville schools, started yesterday morning on a European trip. He expects to be absent seven weeks. Will visit Ireland, Scotland, England, France, Switzerland, Germany, Belgium and other places. Prof. sails from New York to-day on the Oceanic, the biggest and fastest passenger steamer afloat. Worked Out His Fine. A stranger dropped into town July 4th, got full of "fire water," became obstreperous, was locked up and Thursday morning was taken before the mayor for a hearing. The fellow was fined, but he failed to have any "blithy lurs" sticking about his garments and Mayor Mitchell's sentence was that he work out his fine on the streets. Goes to Beaver Falls. Prof. John F. Bower, of Fredonia, Pa., assistant principal of the Reynoldsville schools last year, has been elected as teacher of German and Latin in the Beaver Falls high school. The term is nine months and the salary the same per month as he received here. In writing to a friend about the Beaver Falls position, Prof. Bower says: "The work will be much easier and more to my taste than the work at Reynoldsville was." Kicked by a Horse. George McClelland Hall, an employe at Ex-Sheriff Burns' livery stable, had a narrow escape from instant death one day last week by the kick of a horse. It was a strange horse that had been put in the barn to be fed and "Clell" stepped up to the stall to feed the animal when it let go with both hind feet and one of the iron-clad hoofs caught the man above the right eye, fracturing the skull and rendering him unconscious for some time. The doctors had little hopes of "Clell's" recovery at first, but he is getting along very well now. Darr-Hall Nuptials. Since our last issue Will T. Darr, one of Brookville's promising lawyers, and Miss Hope Hall, of this place, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hall, on Grant street, by Rev. W. Frank Reber, pastor of the Presbyterian church. The wedding was a private affair. They drove to Brookville the same evening they were married and are now keeping house at the capital of Jefferson county. Miss Hope Hall had only been a resident of Reynoldsville about one year, but she succeeded in making many friends during her stay here. Reynoldsville Gun Club. The latter part of June the Reynoldsville Gun Club was organized with a membership of twenty-eight, and all the members are good marksmen, very few of the "blue rocks" escaping them. Fred A. Alexander was elected president, John A. Welsh secretary, and Ed. Gooder treasurer. A committee of five, John O'Hare, Ed. Gooder, George Hughes, Henry Shields and John A. Welsh, were appointed to secure location for trap. We have been informed that Father Brady and James Irving are considered the best marksmen in the club. There will be a shoot to-morrow. Sandy Lick Hotel Razed. The "old Sandy Lick" hotel, which was built by Archie Campbell almost 40 years ago, is now being razed to the ground by Dr. J. W. Foust, and doctor is finding some good pine lumber in the old building. Joseph S. Hammond, stenographer in the J. & C. C. & I. Co. office at this place, and John Reed, now superintendent of the mines at this place, have purchased the two lots occupied by the "old Sandy Lick" from Dr. Foust and Dr. Russ. Reed and Hammond expect to erect a fine dwelling apiece on these lots. Mr. Reed will build on corner lot.

RAILROAD CHANGES. Number of A. V. R'y Employees Likely to be Moved From This Place. About the first of August the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will assume control of the A. V. R'y and there will, likely, be some radical changes at this place and most all the employes will be moved to other places, although there has been no official announcement to that effect. However, it is pretty certain that the Low Grade Division is to be attached to the P. & E. Division of the Pennsylvania system and that Mr. S. B. Rumsey, superintendent of Low Grade, is to be offered the superintendency of another division of the Pennsylvania system. This would remove the dispatchers, clerks, supervisor, train master and others from Reynoldsville to Renovo, a fine lot of men whom the townspeople would be sorry to lose. Officials of the Pennsylvania will go over the A. V. to-morrow on a special train and after that trip something more definite will be known as to the changes that will be made on this division. Mr. Rumsey, who has been superintendent of the Low Grade Division thirteen years and a half, does not know whether he will accept a new division or retire from railroading entirely, as his health is not very good. There are various rumors afloat as to what changes will be made by the Pennsylvania company, but as stated before it is all conjecture at present. Killed by Lightning. Marion Smith, a young man about sixteen years old, who was working in the harvest field with his father, James A. Smith, a farmer of Grove Summit, was struck by lightning and instantly killed Saturday afternoon. There was no rain falling at the time and Mr. Smith and son were hurrying to get through before it did rain. Mr. Smith was working about two rods away from his son when the lightning struck, and he turned his head in time to see the pitchfork fall, which the boy had in his hands, and see his son whirl around two or three times and drop dead. The young man's left side was badly burned. Funeral was held at Grove Summit M. E. church Monday forenoon, conducted by Rev. J. G. Harshaw. Marion Smith was a cousin of R. E. McKee, of this place, and Jas. W. Stevenson, of New York, who is visiting here. Mr. Stevenson attended the funeral. Jurors for August Term. The jury commissioners whirled the wheel Saturday and ground out the following jurors from this section for the August term of court: Grand jurors—C. A. Stephenson, Reynoldsville, John Benson, West Reynoldsville, O. H. Broadhead and Jacob Schwem, Winslow township. Petit jurors—D. W. Atwater, Wm. M. Foster, F. S. Hoffman, John Butson, Sam'l Dougherty, W. T. Cox, Reynoldsville, John M. Norris, Robert Hillis and John Dougherty, Winslow township. Traverse jurors—David Hartman, William Booker, Walter Williams, W. H. Moore, Reynoldsville, William Deemer and V. B. Holman, Winslow township. Will publish full jury list in our next issue. "The Inverted Y." Rev. James H. Jelbart, of Johnsonburg, who is well known here as an able and eloquent speaker, will deliver his popular lecture, "The Inverted Y," in the M. E. church at Rathmel to-morrow, Thursday, evening, July 12th. Admission 25 cents; children 10 cents. This is a good lecture and it will be well delivered. Rev. Jelbart will give this lecture in Reynoldsville later in the season. The proceeds will be applied to the building of the new M. E. church at Johnsonburg. Finally Elected a Principal. The Brookville school board had a deadlock on the election of a principal, and it was only by Prof. T. B. Galbraith, former principal, withdrawing his application that the board succeeded in electing a principal last Friday evening. The board had held three meetings and taken one hundred ballots, but the tie remained on. Prof. G. E. Kramlich, who was principal of the Big Run schools the two last terms, was elected principal of Brookville schools. Bangert Has a Libel Suit. Charles J. Bangert, editor of the Falls Creek Herald, has been sued for criminal libel by Fred R. Schofield, a DuBois attorney. Charley gave $500.00 bail for his appearance at the next term of the Clearfield county court. Schofield was a candidate for nomination for district attorney at the recent primary election in Clearfield county and the matter that Schofield objects to was published after the primary election. Bicycle Race Monday. A warm twenty mile bicycle race will take place on the DuBois track next Monday afternoon between three bicycle riders of Reynoldsville, Fred Kline, Joseph Laverick and Thomas Grieks, who were in the races at this place July 4th. Each one of these young men, or their friends, are to put up $25.00, making the prize to winner $75.00 and gate receipts. The money for Kline and Laverick is already up. Admission fee to see race 25 cents.

Struck by Lightning. During the heavy storm that passed over this section late Friday afternoon lightning struck the barn of Thomas S. McCreight, in Paradise, and Madison J. McCreight and O. S. Groves, who were lying on some hay in feed room, had a very narrow escape from sudden death. The electrical bolt struck the lightning rod and ran down through barn, giving the two young men and the horses in barn quite a shock. The sole of Madison's left shoe was torn off, his pants were torn on right leg and his right hip was injured enough to draw blood. Groves was knocked speechless and for a time it was thought he was dead. The barn filled with smoke and in Groves' speechless and semi-unconscious condition he thought he would be burned to death. Madison could not walk, but he was able to crawl to the barn door and call for help. Both young men were carried into the house and a doctor hastily summoned. A team of horses had been put in barn with harness on to wait until storm was over, and the horses were effected by the lightning. The harness on one horse was torn off and the animal was knocked down and could not get up for a few minutes. The barn was damaged very little and the dampness of the hay very probably prevented a fire. Jos. Britton Dead. Joseph Britton, one of the highly respected farmers of Beechwoods, died at 2.30 p. m., Friday, July 6th, with diabetes, from which he had been suffering for three years, but was able to be around until the day before he expired. Funeral services were held at the residence at 2.00 p. m. Sunday, conducted by Rev. George H. Hill, pastor of the Beechwoods Presbyterian church, of which the deceased had been a member about 40 years. Interment was made in Beechwoods cemetery. The funeral was a very large one. Mr. Britton was one of the old citizens of the Beechwoods. Joseph Britton was born in Ireland about 67 years ago. In 1853 his parents moved to Beechwoods, where Joseph ever after resided as a tiller of the soil. He was an honest, upright, genial gentleman. He is survived by his wife and son, William H. Britton, and four brothers, William, of Beechwoods, James, of Philadelphia, George, who lives in Brookwayville, and John, who lives near Brookwayville. William H. Britton, the son, lived on the farm with his father. Death from Appendicitis. William Earl Smith, aged 6 years, 9 months and 8 days, oldest son of Francis D. Smith, of the Reynoldsville Hardware Company, died at 8.15 Tuesday evening, July 3rd, and was buried in the family lot in Beechwoods cemetery Thursday. Funeral services were held in the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church Thursday forenoon, conducted by Rev. George H. Hill, pastor of Beechwoods Presbyterian church. The boy's death was the result of appendicitis. He took sick the Wednesday preceding his death and everything possible was done to save the boy's life without an operation up until Monday afternoon and then an operation was performed, but it did not save the young life. One year ago last May William suffered with appendicitis but the doctors succeeded in getting him through the trouble. William Earl Smith was an exceptionally healthy lad and his death is a severe blow to his parents. The boy was a bright little fellow. Reynoldsville Vs. Big Run. The Reynoldsville ball club defeated the Big Run club at this place on the afternoon of July 4th. At end of the fifth inning the score was 2-3 in favor of the home team, but after that our boys got 8 runs and shut the visitors out, making the score stand 2-11 at end of the ninth inning. The Big Run boys played a good game, but our boys were in good trim to play ball and they played an errorless game. Walter Williams pitched for our team and Riely was catcher. They made a good battery. "Chad" Bitters, of Reynoldsville, pitched for the Big Run team and worked hard to defeat the home team, but his efforts were in vain. The Big Run catcher had two fingers injured in fifth inning and had to retire. With one or two exceptions, in calling balls, Mike McCullough, the umpire, gave the visitors a square deal. Starting Another Store. Milliren Brothers, clothiers of Reynoldsville and Kane, with an additional partner, L. L. Newman, of Philadelphia, will open a large store in Clearfield—$15,000 stock. Glenn A. Milliren, who will buy most of the goods for the three stores, will go to Clearfield to-day to complete arrangements for store room and will start for Philadelphia, New York City and Boston this evening to buy stock for the new store. Milliren Bros. have been successful in Reynoldsville, their Kane store has even surpassed their expectations, and we believe they will make a success in Clearfield. They always sell at reasonable prices and give their customers good goods, which is one of the secrets of their success, and another reason why they succeed is because they believe in printers' ink—they are good advertisers. Injured in Mine. David Johnson, a coal miner, was injured in Big Soldier yesterday afternoon by a fall of coal. He was badly cut about head and face and received a severe pick wound on back, three inches above kidneys, which he don't know how he received. Must have fallen on pick. Mr. Johnson was alone when accident occurred and was not found until two or three hours afterwards.

THE CELEBRATION! Parade, Bicycle Races, Ball Game, Foot Races and Fire Crackers Galore. The Fourth of July celebration at Reynoldsville was not the greatest celebration ever held in this place, yet there was a good sized crowd in town and the Sons of Veterans, who had charge of the "doings," gave the people all they advertised. The boom of the "jumbo" firecracker was heard from early morning until late at night. At an early hour out of town people began coming in from all directions and before 9.30 a big crowd of good natured people were waiting for the Sons of Veterans to let the eagle loose. The first thing on the program was the parade, which was composed of a number of orders, the fire companies of this place and the Sykesville and Troutville brass bands. Fifty dollars in gold was offered to the two lodges having largest percentage of members in line. Mazomania Tribe, No. 341, Improved Order of Red Men, got first prize—$25.00 in gold—and the Patriotic Order Sons of America, No. 298, got second prize—$15.00 in gold. After the parade the Red Men got the $10.00 sword, scabbard and belt, in the tag of war. The bicycle races, ball game and dance in Frank's Park were the afternoon amusements, and the foot races, hurdle race, hop, step and jump, &c., were evening amusements. The races resulted as follows: First prize in one-mile bicycle race was captured by Fred Kline, second prize, Joseph Laverick; three mile bicycle race, first prize, Fred Kline, second, Thomas Grieks; boys' fifty yard dash, first prize, John Bohren, second, John Matthews; one hundred yard foot race, Reynolds Gibson first, Fred Bohren second; one hundred yard hurdle, first prize Frank Bohren, second Reynolds Gibson; hop, step and jump, Fred Bohren first prize, Frank Bohren second. The ball game between Reynoldsville and Big Run teams was a good game. The dance in Frank's Park was well patronized all day and evening. After the Sons of Veterans had all their bills paid they had about $70.00. There was not much drunkenness in town for a Fourth of July celebration and there were only one or two fights. The people who spent the Fourth in Reynoldsville had just as good time as many of those who went to other towns and at a much less expense, as all the fun was free in Reynoldsville. Drifting With the Tied. Charles S. Cadman, a twister in the silk mill at this place, was married July 4th to Miss Edith Wilson, of Manchester, Conn., at the home of bride's parents in that city. Mr. Cadman and wife arrived in Reynoldsville Friday morning and will reside here for the present. They will live with Mr. Cadman's mother on second floor Arnold block. R. E. Smith, of Warsaw township, and Sarah Thompson were married at the residence of bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Thompson, in Winslow township July 2, at 8.00 p. m. by Squire E. Neff. James E. Coleman and Hannah T. Uplinger, both of McCalmont township, were married at home of bride's parents in McCalmont township July 3, at 4.30 p. m., by Squire E. Neff, of Reynoldsville. John Kerry, of Brookwayville, and May Sutley, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sutley, in West Reynoldsville, July 3, at 8.30 p. m., by Squire E. Neff. Knights Golden Eagle. The Knights of Golden Eagle lodge at this place elected the following officers, who will be installed to-morrow evening by District Grand Chief, William E. Reed: Past Chief, Thomas Mason; N. C., Thomas Justham; V. C., Robert Barker; Sir Herald, Earl J. Johns; Venerable Hermit, Arthur Tyson; High Priest, William H. Trudgen; Clerk of Exchequer, "Gip" Musser; Keeper of Records and Seals, Edwin Hoare; Treasurer, John Trudgen; trustees, William Booker, James Tyson and Benjamin Jones. Ladies' Lodge Officers. The Ladies' Golden Eagle lodge at this place has elected the following officers, who will be installed next week by District Grand Templar Mrs. Tamar Sayers: Noble Templar, Lina Dickey; V. T., Mary E. Robertson; Prophetess, Dorothy McGinnis; Priestess, Hannah Tyson; G. R., Tamar Sayers; G. E., Annie Yewens; G. F., Laura Frantz; M. C., Kate McKee; G. L. P., Etta Tapper; G. O. P., Laura Hetrick; trustees, Frances Reed, Helen Howlett and Mary A. Cottle. Let Contract To-Night. A meeting of the stockholders of the glass plant will be held this evening, at which time the contract for the building of thirty dwelling houses near the plant will be let. It is very likely that these houses will be built of brick. Will Elect Teachers. The Winslow township school board will meet in this place on Saturday, July 28th, to elect thirty teachers for the coming term. The wages they will pay will average from $30.00 to $45.00. You are protected when you buy guaranteed clothing at Shick & Wagner's.
