One of our exchanges says: "A man is likely to get the Chin Changes" trying to keep run of these Chinese characters."

According to the Kittanning Times there is not a prisoner in the Armstrong county jail. The officers in that county are not doing their duty.

One drink don't make a drunkard any more than one swallow makes a spring. They each help to their own ends however, and if the first drink did not come there would be no drunkards.—Falls Creek Herald.

"Any pensioner, the victim of strong drink and dissipated habits, who makes a public nuisance of himself may be investigated by Uncle Sam, and if found guilty is likely to be dropped from the pension rolls." This is the latest ruling of the department sent out to pension agents.

The mercantile tax law, which was declared constitutional recently in an opinion rendered by the supreme court at Philadelphia, will add very materially to the state revenues.

Some people forget to be Christians in hot weather. What it is scientists have never been able to ferret out, but there is something about the intense heat of summer that affects people's minds and brains, making them lose their tempers and sometimes their senses.

"The Saw that Doesn't Wobble is the One that Cuts the Ice." BY "UNCLE WILLIAM" (W. J. W.) From time to time immemorial odd sayings have been buried.

The young man leaves his boyhood home, he's smart and worldly wise, His wisdom teeth are not yet cut and scales are on his eyes.

When a man embarks in business he invests his little store, Then sentimentally he figures on percentages galore.

There's nothing made by being of a vacillating mind, In doing good and noble deeds such never are inclined.

Court wisdom and her satellites and ever be Her way are ways of pleasantness and all her paths are peace.

If a christian, be a christian from early morn till night, Endeavoring at all times to battle for the right.
