

A Fortune AND A Rare Chance

When we were in New York last week we found a clothing manufacturer who had over $20,000.00 worth of good seasonable suits and had to raise $10,000 in spot cash inside of twenty-four hours. Here was our chance to buy this great stock at less than 50 cents on the dollar, which we did. This would have been a big undertaking for all the clothiers in Jefferson county, but we knew that the men of Reynoldsville and vicinity are good judges of clothing, therefore we bought this marvelous stock at less than the cloth alone would cost.

Now we make a Special Sale for One week only starting Monday, July 30, and ending Saturday, August 4.

This sale will be regarded of great importance by the economical shoppers of Reynoldsville and for many miles around. Our preparations for this sale have been made on an unusual extensive scale and the result is that the crowds which will respond to this announcement this week will be confronted with over $20,000.00 worth of seasonable and desirable merchandise

Purchased by us at less than 50 cents on the Dollar.

The following is but a partial list of the good things that await you. Improve the opportunity by coming early to this great sale.

Men's Business and Dress Suits.

We do not, as a rule, advise men to buy a $5.50 suit, because they are quite often the dearest in the end. These however are not $5.50 suits except in the price. In every other respect—make, finish and quality—they are $11.00 and $12.00. Our fortunate deal makes them yours at .. $5.50 ..

If you are particular about your clothes, so much the better for us, because these suits will meet your approval. They are made of imported wools and are finished like tailor-made. Hand-made lapels, hand-stuffed shoulders, and they come in the newest single and double-breasted styles. Suits that are actually worth $14, $5.00, $16.00 and $18.00 during this sale go at just half price.

Notwithstanding this reduction sale, we are not neglecting assortments of new and wanted things. Let us impress on your mind the importance of calling at this store this week and see the sweeping reductions.

People who want to Double their Dollars,
Who want $2.00 Worth of First-Class Merchandise for $1.00,
Will be in their Glory this Week.

Their highest expectations will be exceeded by this wonderful offering of extraordinary and exceptional values. If you're wise you'll come at once and see these bargains.

Soft Coal Market.

Coal Trade Journal.]
Buoyancy seems to be a feature of the soft coal portion of the fuel industry, and though trade is not up to that rushing condition of a few months ago, yet every one appears to be most hopeful as to future conditions, and there is no likelihood of any depressed price, for wages are on such a basis as to preclude any extended reduction and therefore one may very safely say that when a more extended demand is apparent that values will increase. In having a wages rate for the year, from April when the boom was on, there is no doubt that labor gets the best of the conditions this time, and operators might well take these matters into consideration. Buyers who have been holding off for a more decided bargain are more likely to be disappointed and they will do well to get forward any supplies of which they may stand in need later on. The larger producers are surely very independent at present, for many of them are working on business that is of sufficient volume to keep their plants going fairly well, and as we have said, they look for better things later on.

Lake freights on coal out of Buffalo are now down to 50 cents, as against the strong opening at the beginning of the season at 75 cents, when there was a boom on in so many things and the promise of "nothing less to be taken."

Rathmel.

Mrs. Jack Shott, of Oil City, is visiting friends at this place.

A. W. Mulholland is doing considerable repairing about his dwelling houses.

Misses Mable and Grace McPherson, of Big Run, are visiting relatives and friends here.

Mrs. Eon. Hoeking had both her arms broken last Tuesday by falling off a neighbor's porch.

A festival for the M. E. church is the next thing on the program—Monday evening, August 6th.

James Mohney buried his six-week-old baby Monday. Short services were held at the house, conducted by Rev. A. J. Meek, of Reynoldsville.

G. L. and J. F. Henry spent three days on the huckleberry mountains last week. They reported the berries plenty everywhere but where they were.

Daniel Noliniski while at work in the Rathmel mine Monday came in contact with the rope that hauls the coal out of the mine and was very badly hurt on the back.

Paradise.

Noah Strouse was in Brookville Saturday.

Misses Ninco Keller and Lizzie Fritheart, of near Big Run, visited here Sunday.

The people who were out for huckleberries last week report a good time and lots of huckleberries on the old Mob farm, but failed to bring any snattle rakes home.

The four young gentlemen who have been visiting at Noah Strouse's the past three weeks, intend driving back to McDonald tomorrow.

There will be communion at the Strouse church on Sunday, August 12th. Preaching on Friday evening and Saturday afternoon and evening.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George G. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. It is a godsend to weak, sickly, run-down. Only 50c. Sold by H. Alex. Stoke, druggist.

The Parisian Way.

It must be hard for the untraveled Anglo-Saxon to grasp the idea that a poet can without loss of prestige recite his lines in a public cafe before a mixed audience. If such doubting souls could, however, be present at one of these noctes ambrosianae, they would quickly realize that the Latin temperament can throw a grace and childish abandon around an act that would cause an Englishman or an American to appear supremely ridiculous. One's taste or sense of fitness is never shocked. It seems the most natural thing in the world to be sitting there with your glass of beer before you while some rising poet whose name ten years later may figure among the "Immortal Forty" recites to you his loves and his ambition or brings tears into your eyes with a description of some humble hero or martyr.—Ellot Gregory in Scribner's.

She Heard It.

The surprised choir had done its duty for the evening service. But all during the church hours there had been a peculiar sound outside as if a child were crying. In reality it was something the matter with the organ. It could be heard distinctly in the auditorium of the church. When the choir sang the recessional and marched slowly out of the church into the dressing rooms, one of the young ladies among the sopranos asked the woman who takes care of the robes:

"Did you hear that awful squeaking out here?"

"Yes, indeed, mum; I could almost understand the words."

And nothing more was said on the subject.—Detroit Free Press.

Soldiers Avoid the Bean.

"I have noticed," said the old soldier, "that there is one vegetable which the veterans of the civil war religiously avoid. That is the bean. It proved a very staying article, but after we had campaigned on it from Shiloh to Nashville and from Antietam to the Wilderness we were ready to cry 'Enough!' I understand it is used but sparingly in the kitchens of soldiers' homes. It will take another generation to rehabilitate this vegetable in the affection of the American people."—New York Mail and Express.
