

An independent local paper, published every Wednesday at Reynoldsville, Jefferson Co., Pa., devoted to the interests of Reynoldsville and Jefferson county. Non-political, will treat all with fairness, and will be especially friendly towards the laboring class.

A Gerat Prize Offer. We have a great prize offer to make the farmers of Jefferson county! By a special arrangement with the publishers of the Farm Journal, a most excellent farm paper that costs 50 cents a year, we are able to offer one year's subscription to THE STAR and FOUR years' subscription to the Farm Journal—the two worth $3.00—all for the small sum of $1.25.

The Volunteer Boy.

"The boy who is crowding the recruiting offices in the hope of a trip to China, should bear in mind a few things," says the Pittsburg Times. "The opportunity for adventure and travel is promising. The young fellow who sees service in the Orient will come home with a knowledge of the world that his fellows left here will hardly have the chance to procure."

Guilty of Dishonesty.

We have repeatedly said in this Advocate that the man who regularly spends more money than he makes is guilty of dishonesty. Nor is the case altered by the fact that he may succeed in postponing the day of settlement.

Buffalo and Niagara Falls Excursion.

On Tuesday, August 14th, the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg R'y will give the public another opportunity to visit Buffalo and Niagara Falls at extremely low rates. This excursion, coming as it does at the height of the vacation season, coupled with the low rates of fare and time limit, will be one of the most enjoyable of the year.

Hot Enough, Eh?

Take up the fat man's burden, go soak your shirt in sweat, and seek in vain for a cooling breeze with face all streaming wet; go try and find some shady spot where you can sit and stew and have some snozner spring this gag.

No man can long hold the esteem of others, sagely remarks the Oil City Blizzard, until he possesses real manhood which makes him faithful to all good causes. The charlatan may use cunning disguises, but the mask which may hide for a time the selfish and sordid purpose is sure to be torn off and his real character exposed. There ought to be a more generous recognition of men who give proof that they are moved by patriotic impulses and are upright in action. We may differ from them as to what is best and wisest, but wherever we can discern in their aims an honest purpose for the public good, it should appeal to our gratitude and not fall of recognition.
