County Commissioner W. C. Murray, who resides at Brookville, was confined to bed at the home of his brother, Dr. John H. Murray, in this place, four days the past week with the grip. He was able to return to county seat Monday afternoon but was not feeling very frisky.

A friend of the Italian who was stabbed in the row at Big Soldier Sunday night, was in town Monday trying to get out a warrant for the man who used the knife, but as this fellow didn't even see the stabbing affair he could not make information and could not get a warrant.

A foot ball team from Big Soldier drove to Coal Glen and played a return game with a team of the latter place Saturday. The score was 2-1 in favor of the Soldiers. In the first game, which was played at Big Soldier two weeks ago, the Coal Glen team won by William T. Cox and wife went to Summerville last Friday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Cox's cousin, Oscar Averill, who died at DuBois from lockjaw, result of stepping on a rusty nail. Mr. and Mrs. Cox spent several days at Summerville with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Brocius.

Elmer E. Woodward, assistant in postoffice, Pearl Barto, Seloe Mohney, Samuel Collins and Reynolds Gorsline went to the wilds of Clearfield county vesterday to seek for a cool place to camp out the remainder of this week. These hot days make us all wish for a "lodge in some vast wilderness."

If you were to stand on the bank and throw dollars into the creek, people at the best would think you were foolish, but you are doing just as foolish by trying to burn gas in a big iron cook stove, for you are wasting dollars every month that you could save by using a gas range. We have them at all prices. Hall, Barton & Co.

Some Italians at Big Soldier, who had been drinking more or less beer and whiskey, had quite a lively row Sunday evening, in which revolvers and knives were used freely, but no one was seriously injured, although there were some very narrow escapes. One Italian was stabbed in leg. The night watchman, who was an onlooker, had an extremely narrow escape. A bullet just glazed past his head and was buried in the building back of him.

Mrs. Adam Sulick, who lives at No. 4 mines, below Horatio, about three weeks ago began losing her evesight, and now is totally blind. Physicians have examined her eyes, which appear to be as bright looking as anybody's, but can do nothing for her. There is nothing on the surface that would indicate that her eyes had been injured, and the physicians think that possibly

Didn't Want Goose Feathers.

Will Move to Renovo.

M. E. Weed, who was Superintendent Rumsey's clerk, will be moved from this place to Supt. Roberts' office at Renovo. Mr. Weed is just the kind of a citizen that a town cannot well afford to lose, and his legion of friends will be sorry to part with him and his estimable wife.

Ten Mining Machines,

The Brinker Coal & Iron Company of West Monterey, Pa., of which company George Mellinger of this place is a member and also general superintendent of the mines, has recently completed the work of putting in a large compressor and now have ten mining machines at work in the mines.

Must be Vaccinated.

School time draweth nigh and there are a number of children of school age who have not been vaccinated yet, and we have been requested by a member of the Board of Health to state that the vaccination law will be enforced when school opens. Parents had better look after this now and they will save time and trouble later on.

Finger Blown Off With Dynamite.

Don, seven-year-old son of S. M. Gourley, who resides near town, found a dynamite cap in the barn last Wednesday afternoon, which he thought was a small tin box and with a nail and hatchet he proceeded to open the box. After the explosion Don was minus the end of large finger of right hand. The doctors amputated finger at second

Another Literary Society.

A number of young people of the Presbyterian church have organized a literary society which they have christened, Presbyterian Literary Society. The society is to meet every Monday evening and they will read the latest and best books published. The officers of the new society are as follows: President, Miss Ella E. Seelev; vice-president, Will Herpel; secretary, Miss Alberta Ressler: treasurer, Miss Lois Robinson.

S. of V. Encampment.

The S. of V. field encampment held near Summerville the past week was the best encampment ever held in the county, at least so say those who attend-The following Sons of Veterans from this place attended the encampment: Postmaster A. M. Woodward and wife, E. S. Strawcutter and wife, Wm. P. Woodring and wife, Charles McPherson, John and Ellsworth Kirkwood. 'Squire J. D. Woodring, one of the old veterans, and wife, also attended the encampment Sunday.

Former Citizen.

Andrew Sharpe and wife and part of their family are visiting George Sharpe, a nephew, and other relatives at this place. Eighteen years ago Mr. Sharpe moved to Nebraska, where he has resided until the present, and after his visit here he will locate in Iowa. Mr. Sharpe says he notices many changes in the town since he moved away almost a score of years ago, but more especially does he notice a change in the surrounding community, as many of the hills have been cleared of timber and are now fertile fields.

Thos. Holt Dead.

Thomas R. Holt, who was married to the eldest sister of our townsman, Wesley Motter, died at his home near Stanton at 9.30 a. m. Sunday, August 5th. Funeral service at the Stanton M. E. church yesterday afternoon. Mr. Holt was a well-to-do farmer and highly esteemed christian gentleman. He was born near Stanton almost 72 years ago and spent all his life in that vicinity. When a lad he joined the M. E. church and was a consistent and faithful member. He is survived by his wife, two sons and two daughters.

Lawn Fete and Band Concert.

The lawn fete and band concert on the Reynolds lawn, next to S. T. Reynolds' brick block, last evening attracted quite a large crowd. Don't fail to attend this evening not only to hear the famous Keystone band play but to also spend some money. The lawn fete is given by Hope Hose Company to raise money enough to pay the expenses of taking the Keystone band to the convention of the Northwestern Firemen's Association to be held in Kane next week. Hope Hose Company members will pay their own expenses. Patronize the boys this evening.

Bitten by a Rattler

James Lusk sr., of this place, bought a live rattle snake from John Dillman Saturday evening and started to drive to his home on Pleasant avenue with the reptile in his hand. When near the Chinese laundry on Fourth street the snake bit the index finger of Mr. Lusk's right hand. A numbness began to come over his hand and arm, but he drove on home and put the snake and horse away before seeking medical aid. About an hour elapsed before a physician's services were secured and by that time Mr. Lusk was in a dangerous condition. He was unable to speak and had well developed symptoms of lock-jaw. His throat, as well as hand and arm, was swellen and he suffered great pain, besides being unable to retain in his stomach any liquid to counteract the poison. The flesh around the bite was cut away and the wound cauterized, and hypodermic injections administered to keep up heart action until the effects of the shock to his system had worn off. Sunday Mr. Lusk's condition had greatly improved, but the danger of losing the arm was still great.

Moving Bee Hive Block

H. Alex. Stoke, who recently purchased the Bee Hive block at corner of Fifth and Main streets, is having the building, a large two-story frame, moved on to the rear end of the lot across Fifth street, just back of gas office, where the building will be set on solid foundation and the three store rooms down stairs will be for rent and the second story will be used for dwelling rooms. Contractor Thomas E. Evans is moving the building.

Mr. Stoke is having the old Bee Hive building removed preparatory to the carrying out of his plans of erecting a large brick business block and an opera house where the Bee Hive now stands.

"Sunset Camp."

The following young people, accompanied by Mrs. C. A. Stephenson as chaperon, went to "Sunset Camp," in Beechwoods, yesterday to remain a week or ten days: Frank P. Alexander, Louis O. Mellinger, Vincent G. Reynolds, Paul Riston, Thomas Adam and Will Herpel, Misses Winnie Farrell, Frankle King, Julia Stoke, Jessie Irving, Dorothy Sutter and Wilhelmina Priester, of Reynoldsville, Miss Lulu Wilson, of DuBois, and Miss Louisa Dellbrook, of Wheeling, West Va. An experienced cook, imported from a neighboring town, accompanied the party to keep the larder well filled.

Surprise Party.

Mrs. Frank Kincle, of Blairsville, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. P. Mc-Cleery, in Prescottville, is well acquainted and has many friends at Rathmel and Prescottville, and these friends decided it would be appropriate to give her a surprise party. The time was set, the word was passed around and Monday evening a number of friends and the Rathmel brass band assembled at the residence of Supervisor McCleery and had a right jolly and pleasant time for a few hours. Refreshments were served and the band played a number of selections.

King Humbert Memorial Services.

The Italian Society of this place, which has a large membership, held memorial services in the Catholic burch Monday morning in honor o King Humbert, who was assassinated over a week ago. Solemn high mass was observed. The society marched to the church. They had their banner draped in mourning and also carried a large picture of Italy's lamented king, which was draped in mourning. A very fine silk American flag was carried at the head of the procession.

Will Travel in Special Car.

Wednesday morning of next week a special car will be set in on siding in Pennsylvania yard at this place to be decorated and trimmed up to take the members of Hope Hose Company and Keystone band to Kane the following morning. The car will be attached onto regular train at 6.47 Thursday morning, and at Ridgway car will be attached to a special on P. & E. and arrive at Kane about 11.00 a. m.

Brewery and Ice Plant.

There is some talk of a large brewery being built at this place. Several capitalists from Punxsutawney and Brookville were in town last week looking around to see what inducement the town had in the way of good water supply and site for the brewery. A large ice plant will be built in connection with the brewery.

Nominated for Congress.

At a meeting of the Democratic At a meeting of the Democrate Twenty-eighth congressional district conference, held at Ridgway Wednesday evening, J. K. P. #### Western Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McConnell, of Hopkinston, Iowa, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. McConnell at Frank's Tavern the first of this week. They are now visiting the former's brother, D. B. McConnell, at Falls Creek. Their trip to this section of the country was for a three-fold purpose, first to attend the wedding of Mrs. McConnell's sister, Miss Amy L. Steiner, who was married to Robert P. Smith, of Pittsburg, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac F. Steiner, in East Brookville, on Tuesday evening of last week. Second, to attend the golden wedding anniversary of Mrs. McConnell's parents, which was held at their residence in East Brookville last Wednesday. In speaking of the golden wedding the Brookville Democrat says: 'Me, and Mrs. Steiner have lived in Brookville forty-two years, enjoying all that time the friendship and high esteem of all who knew them. The wish of all these is that the closing years of their life may be full of restfulness and such peace as the world can neither give nor take away."

Thirdly, lastly, but not least, their reasons for coming to the "Keystone State" was to visit relatives, old time friends and look again upon the scenes of childhood days.

Chautauqua Lake Excursion.

Sunday, August 12th, is a day set aside by the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg R'y Co. for another delightful excursion to famous Chautauqua Lake and Celoron. These summer day excursions to this great resort bring recreation and enjoyment not found at any other resort on the continent. The grand steamer trip to Mayville and return, a distance of forty miles, which is included in the railroad rate, is a most delightful experience and will long be remembered. Special train will leave Falls Creek at 8.25 a. m. Returning train will leave steamboat landing at 7.00 p. m. and Jamestown station at 7.10 p. m. (Eastern time). Round trip tickets will be sold. at $2.00 from Falls Creek. For further information, consult nearest agent of the company and see excursion bills.

The Dog Nuisance. Now that the cow nuisance has been abated, and our town no longer has the appearance of an extensive dairy farm. and our citizens are no longer disturbed and our citizens are no longer disturbed in their sleep by the clatter and jingle of the annoying cow bell, would it not be a good thing if our councilmen would turn their attention to the dog nuisance? We doubt if there is a place on earth where there are more worthless curs to be found to the square foot than in our city. We do not know just what can be done, but would suggest that the maximum tax be levied on every "dogoned" dog in the city, and that owners be com-pelled to keep their dogs shut up, at least during the night time.—Johnsonburg Breeze. It cannot be possible that there are more dogs in Johnsonburg than we have here in Reynoldsville.

Big Stock Company.

Just Returned from Klondike

Benjamin Sykes, of Troutville, Pa. was a guest at the Hotel Griswold las night, having just returned from the Klondike regions, after several months absence. Mr. Sykes said his trip was absence. Mr. Sykes said his trip was not taken with any idea of looking for gold, but to see the country and get a general idea of the new land about which so little has been known in the past. He said that there were still great chances for making money in the Klondike country, providing a man had sufficient capital to carry him along until he found a favorable opening in business. -Pittsburg Times Aug. 3. Benjamin Sykes is a brother of our townsman, George W. Sykes.

Picnic Yesterday.

Members of the Baptist congregation and friends held a picnic on David Reynolds' lawn yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Anna Reynolds, who has not been well and is not able to go to the woods to attend a picnic. ## Grange Picnic.

The Grangers of Paradisc Settlement held a picule in William Dougherty's grove last Wednesday. The attendance was not as large as it has been in former years, but those who attended had a real pleasant time. A game of base ball, foot ball, music and a speech were some of the day's amusements. Albert Strauss' "fumblers" and John Dougherty's "strike-easy" clubs crossed bats on Dougherty's ball ground. The score was 7-8 in favor of the "fumblers." Frank Sutter and "Doc" Campbell were the pitchers and each one of them 'fanned out" one or two strikers in every inning. If the manager of some lengue team had seen the work of Dr. R. W. Norris on first base and Dr. J. Clair Dougherty in right field he would not have hired them immediately at a big salary. John Dougherty can work as hard at playing ball as any other man in the country. The grand stand-rail fence-was weil filled with lady spec-
