

The Star.

Subscription $1.50 per year, or $1.00 if paid strictly in advance.

C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub.
WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 22, 1900.

An independent local paper, published every Wednesday at Reynoldsville, Jefferson Co., Pa., devoted to the interests of Reynoldsville and Jefferson county. Non-political, will treat all with fairness, and will be especially friendly towards the laboring class. Communications intended for publication must be accompanied by the writer's name, not for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. Interesting news items solicited. Advertising rates made known on application at the office in Froehlich-Henry Block, Lengthy communications and change of advertisements should reach this office by Monday noon. Subscription price $1.00 per year, in advance. Address all communications to C. A. Stephenson, Reynoldsville, Pa. Entered at the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Pa., as second class matter.

A Great Prize Offer.

We have a great prize offer to make the farmers of Jefferson county! By a special arrangement with the publishers of the Farm Journal, a most excellent farm paper that costs 50 cents a year, we are able to offer one year's subscription to THE STAR and FOUR years' subscription to the Farm Journal—the two worth $3.00—all for the small sum of $1.25. Of course this only applies to advance paying subscribers. We can furnish a few papers at this rate, and if you want them on these terms, you must act QUICKLY! Sample copies of the Farm Journal will be sent free on application. Address, C. A. STEPHENSON, Reynoldsville, Pa.

Live and Dead Town.

The Pennsylvania Record, a monthly published at Altoona in the interests of real estate business, has this to say upon the above subject: "Some communities progress, while others either stand still or retrograde. Sometimes this is due to the people themselves. A town will never grow unless the people in it care something for success. If each cares only for the individual prosperity, the town is destined to become dead. If the live towns are investigated, they are found to be towns in which the people have an interest in each other. They help along public enterprises both by good will and money. The dead towns are those in which the people want an indemnifying bond guaranteeing a profit of no less than ten per cent before they will make an investment."

An habitual liar is probably one of the greatest nuisances that any community is called upon to endure. He not only sets the tongues of gossips wagging against respectable men and women, but he makes enemies of friends, causes disturbances, and breaks up the peace generally. A liar has been known to sever the strongest bands of friendship, to wrong the most innocent men, and even to step into the homes of happy families, plant a seed of discord, and finally separate man and wife.—Falls Creek Herald.

What the society of this country most needs at the present is a substitute for swearing which will express one's feelings and yet be refined. The man who will make such a discovery will have accomplished more than Columbus. We have a few men and boys in this community who are either illiterate, unrefined or ungentlemanly enough to swear before ladies. If we were as wicked as sin we would try to have more respect for women and children than to utter vile expressions in their hearing.—Kittanning Republican.

It looks funny to see a full grown and full feathered young bird hanging around one of its parents and letting such parent provide all its food for it, but it is not a bit funnier than to see a big chump of a boy smoking a cigarette and getting three square meals a day, provided by the toil of his old father, or a young woman who lets her mother do the family washing while she plays a Strauss waltz on the piano or works the head of a pug dog on a doily. The time soon comes when the old bird makes the young hunt for its food or starve, and the same policy could well be employed by many a father and mother.—Ex.

Teachers' Educational Meetings.

A series of educational meetings for teachers will be held as follows: August 27, Brookville; August 28, Reynoldsville, August 29, Brookwayville; August 30, Punksutawney. Sessions will be held in the public school buildings of the places named, beginning at 9.00 a. m. The afternoon sessions will close at 4.00 p. m.

These meetings are designed especially for teachers who have never taught and for those who have taught only a few terms. None of these teachers can afford to be absent from a meeting at some one of these places. All teachers are cordially invited to attend. Persons preparing to teach within a year or two will be benefited by attending.

Directors and all persons interested in the progress of the schools of Jefferson county are most cordially invited to meet with the teachers.

The instruction will cover the most common everyday problems that a teacher must face and deal with them in the most practical way possible.

Come prepared to ask questions about your work. Bring note book and pencil.

The following practical teachers will be present to take part in the instruction: Dr. D. J. Waller, Indiana, Pa., Dr. A. J. Davis, Prof. C. E. Rugh, Prof. W. Y. Welch, Clarion, Pa., Prof. J. L. Allison, Punksutawney, Pa.
