

The Star.

Subscription $1.50 per year, or $1.00 if paid strictly in advance.

C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub.
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1900.

An independent local paper, published every Wednesday at Reynoldsville, Jefferson Co., Pa., devoted to the interests of Reynoldsville and Jefferson county. Non-political, will treat all with fairness, and will be especially friendly towards the laboring class. Communications intended for publication must be accompanied by the writer's name, not for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. Interesting news items solicited. Advertising rates made known on application at the office in Freshich-Henry Block. Lightly communications and change of advertisements should reach this office by Monday noon.

Subscription price $1.00 per year, in advance. Address all communications to C. A. Stephenson, Reynoldsville, Pa. Entered at the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Pa., as second class mail matter.

A Great Prize Offer.

We have a great prize offer to make the farmers of Jefferson county! By a special arrangement with the publishers of the Farm Journal, a most excellent farm paper that costs 50 cents a year, we are able to offer one year's subscription to THE STAR and FOUR years' subscription to the Farm Journal—the two worth $3.00—all for the small sum of $1.25. Of course this only applies to advance paying subscribers. We can furnish a few papers at this rate, and if you want them on these terms, you must act QUICKLY! Sample copies of the Farm Journal will be sent free on application. Address,

If a boy wants to be spider-legged and weak-kneed; if he wants to be short-winded and sunken-chested; if he wants to be thin-jawed and dead on his feet; if he wants to grow into a scrub that no business man wants to employ, let him be a cigarette fiend. Otherwise let him keep the nicotine out of his windpipe.—Ex.

Judas betrayed his Savior with a kiss, and from that hour to the present day the world has been betrayed with a kiss. A young man kisses a maid and makes her his wife, and as the wife of Magdalen and the glitter of the wine lure him away from her side, he tells her a lie and seals it with a kiss and the young wife believes it. The son has a kiss for his mother while she toils for him with a needle, and in a year the gambling hell has more attraction than the woman who bore him. The daughter has a kiss and a lie on her lips for mother as she wishes mother had not so much to do, while she sits for hours on the front veranda and reads novels. A kiss and a smile has been the ruin of millions, while a kick and a cuff have often made heroes.—Ex.

Reynoldsville is certainly a good business town, and yet we feel like saying for the benefit of our home merchants that almost every line of trade is well taken care of here and our present stores are amply able to supply the wants of everybody. Generally when a town strikes a boom there is an influx of small business houses which cut up the trade so during the boom that nobody makes any money, and when the almost inevitable reaction comes, during the dull season of the year, the weaklings drop off like dead branches from a tree, and such failures or breakups hurt the town's business reputation. We hope Reynoldsville will be spared the mushroom business places that have injured legitimate business in so many towns when times were on the boom.

Zinc and Grinding make

Devote Lead and Zinc Paint wear twice as long as lead and oil mixed by hand.

The man who never reads a local paper and has no use for it has no business to dictate how such a paper should be conducted. A local paper that can survive without his financial help can also survive without his advice.—Newspaper Talk.

The Bravery of Woman

Was grandly shown by Mrs. John Dowling, of Butler, Pa., in a three years' struggle with malignant stomach trouble that caused distressing attacks of nausea and indigestion. All remedies failed to relieve her until she tried Electric Bitters. After taking it two months she wrote: "I am now wholly cured and can eat anything. It is truly a grand tonic for the whole system as I gained in weight and feel much stronger since using it." It aids digestion, cures dyspepsia, improves appetite, gives new life. Only 50c. Guaranteed, at H. Alex. Stoke's drug store.

Excursion to Pittsburg.

Experts estimate that the apple crop will aggregate from 80,000,000 to 100,000,000 barrels. Irrespective of the census, this is sure to give us at least a barrel apiece, including an equal allotment for the baby, without counting an occasional swig of cider.—Pittsburg Times.
