"FORGETTIN."

The night when last I aw my lad His eyes were bright and wet. Be took my two hands in his own, "'The well," says he, "we're met; Asthore machree, the likes o' me I bid ye now forget."

Ah, sure, the same's a thriftin thing; 'Tis more I'd do for him! I mind the night I promised well, Away on Latlandim, In every little while or so I they forgettin Jim.

It shouldn't take that long to do. An him not very tall; An him not very tall; The quare the way I'll hear his voice, A boy that's ont o' call. An whiles I see him stand as plain As e'er a six foot wall.

Och, never fear, my jewel! I'd forget ye now this minute, II I only had a notion O' the way I should begin it, But first and last it ian't known The heap o' throuble's in it.

Hymlf began the night ye went An han't done it yet; I'm mearly fit to give it up, For where's the use to fret? An the morning's fairly spoilt on me Wid mindin to forget. -Moirn O'Ne

-Moira O'Neill. THE KING WAS BETTER.

But the Doctor Got Little Credit For His Efforts.

A story illustrating the good sense and humor of the late King Humbert is told at the expense of his physician, Dr. Saglione. Sometimes the king. from his hunting lodge of Castle Fusano went to the sea and amused himself by shoveling sand into a cart. "Take care, your majesty," said Saglione one day, "not to perspire too much." "Ah, my dear Signor Doctor," answered the king, resting his chin on his two hands that grasped the handle of his spade, "this muscular exercise does me much more good than your prescriptions." "Yes, but one must abuse nothing." "But I tell you that I feel very well, and you are afraid you see in this poor shovel a competitor." And, laughing heartily, the king finished filling his cart.

However, by exposing himself in every way without exercising any care, the king contracted bronchitis, which took a chronic form and gave him a rather troublesome cough. This cough was a source of anxiety to the faithful doctor, as he could not convince his patient of the necessity for taking medicine. Occasionally the doctor was even sent away abruptly by the king. who would say, "I have not called you. Why did you come? You may go. I thank you very much."

One evening, however, the doctor thought he had gained his point, and he prepared for the king in his bedroom the powders he was to take during the night. The next morning Dr. Saglione rose very early, being very anxious to know the effect of his medicine. He was received in the bedroom and at once asked, "Well, how does your majesty feel this morning?"

"Much better-I may say quite well." was the response.

"Ah." observed the doctor, rubbing his hands with satisfaction, "you see the results of listening to reason." "What do you mean?" asked the king.

"The powders!"

"Bravo!" shouted Humbert. "Go into the next room and see what you can find."

The powders were in the waste paper basket.

Such Is Fame.

"There is bound to be a fly in the honey," said the disconsolate looking citizen. "There's always some small circumstance that prevents joy from being complete."

"What is the trouble now?" "The leading paper of my community

SOUSA AT THE EXPO.

Famous Bandmaster's First Ansear-ance Since His European Tour.

The inimitable John Philip Sousa and The inimitable John Philip Sousa and his wonderful band, fresh from a tri-umphant tour of Europe, including the Paris Exposition, where it scored the most remarkable hit ever made by an American musical organization abroad, will be the special attraction of the Pittsburg Exposition next week. The opening concert. Monday afternoon, Sept. 24, will be the first that the band has given since its return to America.

Sept. 24, will be the first that the band has given since its return to America, and it is safe to assume that it will re-ceive a royal welcome from its Western Pennsylvania friends. In December last Commissioner Gen-eral Peck, of the United States com-mission to the Paris Exposition, ap-pointed Sousa and his band as the official American band at the great French Exposition. Nothing could surpass the reception accorded to the organization. Its catch '___erika. the organization. Its catchy decide a music, particularly the compositions of its leader, instantly caught the popular fancy and became the rage of Paris. French words were set to the airs of the band, and special tidbits were hummed in the shops and cales and in the street.

From Paris, the band went to Berlin, where it took the Germans by storm.

JOHN PHILIP SOURA. From Paris, the band went to Ber-lin, where it took the Germans by storm. In Belgium it met with the same over-whelming success, the Academy of Arts. Science and Literature in Hain-ault. conferring upon Sousa a grand diploma of honor, and the decoration of artistic merit of the first class. Similar triumphs were scored in Frankfurt, Mu-nich, Hamburg. Cologne, Dresden and Leipsic. Everywhere the perfect pre-cision and discipline, the refined en-semble and the rich tonal quality of the band created a sensation. To Sept. 1, the band sailed from Eu-rope on the American Liner St. Louis, transpace of the promenade deck for-was the occasion of one of the stars and the rich tonal guality of the band sciled from Eu-rope on the American Liner St. Louis, teamed up the bay, the band occupied the center of the promenade deck for-ward. Three large silk flags, the Stars and Stripes, presented by the French exhibitors at the Paris Exposition; the from the people of Paris and the official frag of the city of Frankfurt, were un-from the people of Paris and the effect and cheered. So remarkable was the en-thusiasm aroused by the scene both on the band will go East for an engagement of the other of next week starts and there and abroad as a matter in America and abroad as a matter in the close of next week and the strated national attention. Indeed, the band will go East for an engagement it to weeks, returning to the Exposi-tion of the band was regarded both in America and abroad as a matter it to an efficient of the close of next week for an the borse in the Chapert de la fort and will go East for an engagement it we weeks, returning to the Exposi-tion of the band was regarded both in America and abroad as a matter it to one of the band was regarded both in America and abroad as a matter it to an efficient of the Chapert de la fort and the Chematograph pictures of the bandwill go East for an engagement it we weeks, returning to the Exposi-tion now He Broke It. An irascible old gentleman had met in early life with an accident which left him with a broken nose, a deform-ity about which he was known to be a left him little sensitive.

One day a new inquirer propounded the old question."How did you manage to break your nose?"

The old gentleman answered solemnly, "To tell the truth, my friend, the accident was caused by my poking it into other people's business."-London Answers

Nordica's Recipe For Success. "It is work, work, work, that makes success." she once exclaimed. "Work five minutes, and you will succeed five minutes' worth, but work five hours, and you will succeed five hours' worth.' "But," I said, "remember your natural gifts."

"Plenty have natural voices equal to mine," she answered. "plenty have tal-ent equal to mine, but I have worked." -Saturday Evening Post.

Want Your

Suppressed Monstruction

Red

BURGH RAILWAY.

printed my picture the other day." "That was nice."

"And it said that I was one of the people whom everybody knew; that my fame was such that it had spread be yond the confines of my native city and was carrying light into the regions beyond."

"Splendid!"

"Then they got a bit rushed in the office and put my friend Wiggins' name under my picture.

"That was a little unfortunate." "It isn't the worst. Not a soul noticed it except my wife. And all she said was that she didn't think it looked much like Wiggins!"-Washington Star.

Disappointed.

A young man of this city rang up a lady acquaintance of his in Court street some days ago, but instead of her answering the phone herself her elder sister did so. The young man recognized the difference at once and said in a suave, mellow voice:

"Won't you please deliver a message to Miss Clara?"

Delighted at the prospect of carrying a message that might result in giving her some insight into the relation that existed between her sister and the young man at the other end of the line. she answered:

"Why, certainly, with the greatest of pleasure." "Well, tell her to come to the phone." -Memphis Scimitar.

Four Good Habits.

There are four good habits-punctuality, accuracy, steadiness and dis-Without the first of these time patch. is wasted. Without the second, mistakes the most hurtful to our own credit and interest and that of others may be committed. Without the third, nothing can be well done, and without the fourth opportunities of great ad-vantage are lost, which it is impossible to recall.

Shakespeare, among his many allualons to the sweetness, the innocence and the helplessness of the lamb, only once cites it as an article of food

The Lombards introduced the custom of charging interest for the money.

The First Early Evening Paper. The plan of this Paper not being generally known, the Proprietors most respectfully take the Liberty of submitting the following Sketch of it to the perusal of the Public.

The Noon Gazette will be regularly published every day at Twelve o'Clock and will contain all the actual news of the Nine Morning Papers, cautiously and faithfully selected from them. Every Species of Misinformation and Untruth will be guarded against with the utmost care, and the Communication of real authenticated Intelligence only will ever be the grand Object of this Print.

Besides the Advantage of having all the News of the Nine Morning Papers comprized in one, the Noon Gazette will contain a Postscript with every Article of important Intelligence that may arise on the Morning of its publication, so that as well as a universal Morning Paper, this Print will be found little, if at all, inferior to any Evening Publication .- From The Noon Gazette and Daily Register, 1780.

Some Ink and a Shirt.

I once remember having a noted London doctor out at sea for a little amateur fishing. He would like to see a loligo cuttle caught, he said. I warned him of what was likely to happen when gaffing was on, but he did not care. "Surely," he said, "I can dodge such guesswork as this must be for so short a time."

I felt dublous as to the result, seeing his white shirt was a prominent object through his having such an open vest. Finally a cuttle took the bait, and as I drew it toward us the doctor lost all thought of himself and his adornments in his admiration of the movements and the beautiful eyes of the creature when in an instant, as I gaffed it, the whole ink charge struck him in the throat and sadly blackened his white habiliments.--Contemporary Review.

no wonder they call it roasting a man to rake him over the coals .- Phila-Inhia Record.

What You Want

To select from. Ask for what you don't see in our store-IT IS HERE.

&FULL AND COMPLETE LINE

WE WISH TO MENTION-House.. Remember that in the line of Furnishing STOVES. The place to buy Goods.. We have samples on TINWARE, BED ROOM SUITS, our floor in season. GRANITEWARE, LOUNGES, 75 to 100 styles of Heating Stoves for gas. WOODENWARE, COUCHES, coal, wood and oil fuel, FIBERWARE, CARPETS, and in LAMPS, LINOLEUMS, Kanges and CUTLERY, WINDOW BLINDS. PAINTS AND OILS, TABLE CUTLERY. We can at all times COLORS, In fact, anything needed for House show you 30 to 40 styles BRUSHES. Furnishing. and kinds to select from. At lowest prices is at Our Motto: BEST GOODS FOR LEAST MONEY. Linoleums, Floor Oil Cloths. THE REYNOLDSVILLE HARDWARE CO. GIVE US A CAI THEHARDWARE CO. E REYNOLDSVILLE, "PA.