 Last Friday in Assembly Hon. S. B. Elliott gave a continuation of his talk on color. His discourse was conclusive proof of the commonly accepted theory that a motion produces first, sound, then heat, then light, which passed through a prism and broken or dispersed is shown to contain all the colors and their combination.
 His discourse was clear, at times witty, and always forceful. We would like to give a more lengthy account of this very pleasing exposition, but our column is about all in and so will only say that we are glad to have him with us at any time.

GLASS PLANT NOTES.

Gathered by Local Reporter and Clipped from Exchanges.
 The Camp Glass works at Smethport which was shut down after blowing about a week, on account of the difficulty over the wage scale, started blowing glass again Wednesday night, the management having signed the new L. A. 300, K. of L. scale. Twenty-four blowers and gatherers reported for duty and all is merry as a marriage bell. This is a stinging blow to the Burns contingent, as they were banking on this factory not starting until the cutters and flatteners had given in.—Kane Republican.
 There will be a select dance held in the Star Building next Saturday evening, October 20th, by the "Original Four." Music will be furnished by Reed's orchestra. The committee having charge of the dance is, A. Schuster, Harry Best, George Staley and Ed. Bauser.

John Arvano, blower, Leon Hatchat, and Edmund Brasser, gatherers, were in Pittsburg several days last week.
 John Suttis, Joseph Kalerech, Harry P. Finch, Alfonso Carlett, Clarence Hines, Will and Charles Fisher and several other glass workers of this place attended the blowers, flatteners, gatherers and cutters meeting held at Mt. Jewett Saturday evening.
 A young fellow visited the glass plant recently and when he saw the glass as it comes from hands of the blowers he remarked: "I thought they were making window glass over here, but it looks to me as if they are making glass sewer pipe."

In response to the call for a mass meeting at Mt. Jewett last Saturday, at least one thousand Window Glass Workers, comprised of blowers, gatherers, flatteners and cutters, took the town by storm, and demonstrated beyond the possibility of a doubt that the majority of the glass workers in this district are imbued with the spirit of unionism, and will resent any attempt to crush it out. Special trains were run from Bradford, Smethport, Kane and Falls Creek, and each arriving delegation was met by the band and escorted to their hotels, amid the cheers of the good citizens of Mt. Jewett.
 At eight o'clock the men formed into line and marched through the town, being cheered on every hand, and singing constantly. "We'll hang Simon Burns on the sour apple tree" until their throats were sore. The line of march was up Main street from the depot to McClellan Avenue, and back again to the opera house which was filled to suffocation.
 V. T. Morgan as temporary chairman called the meeting to order and called for nominations for permanent chairman. Chas. Smith, of Kane, was selected chairman and in a few well chosen words stated the object of the meeting, viz., to hasten the movement of amalgamation of the four trades. Pres. H. G. Tussey of the Cutters' League was introduced and stated the necessity of a united organization, and left a good impression on all his hearers. Mr. Tussey was followed by Samuel Githens, of Bellevue, who enthused his audience with his earnestness and his eloquence. Wm. Phillips, of Kane, then made a few brief remarks which were well received. L. C. Goltzinger, former National Secretary of the Window Glass Workers' organization, was then introduced. Mr. Goltzinger reviewed the past strength and glory of L. A. 300, and contrasted it with the present demoralized condition of affairs, and made an eloquent appeal for amalgamation, setting forth the benefits to be derived from such a course. There was not a single incident to mar the perfect concord and harmony of the meeting, and a spirit of good fellowship and fraternity prevailed.
 After the meeting a general love feast was held, and any skeptical one could have read the hand writing on the wall, which interpreted means, "United we stand, divided we fall" and that "an injury to one is the concern of all," and will be resented not by one separate trade but by the amalgamated trades of blowers, gatherers, flatteners and cutters, impregnable and invincible.—Kane Republican.

The members of the high school exchanged a few of their old books for new ones. We would say in behalf of the High school pupils, many thanks. It is hard to study with a lesson torn out of your book every here and there, and half the lessons that are left in annotated so badly that one is confused beyond endurance. We note with pleasure the improvement in the appearance of books since the new ones have replaced the old, but we think there is still room for exchanges.
 Last Friday evening, through the kindness of Prof. Lenkerd, the Senior class was afforded the opportunity of measuring the altitude of the hill above the school building from the crossing at the corner of the building to the reservoir. They found the reservoir to be one hundred and fourteen feet and six inches higher than the crossing in front of the school building.
 A man from out of town was heard to remark that he thought it would add greatly to the appearance of the school grounds if the fence surrounding it were removed. We heartily endorse his statement.
 The Shakespearean Literary Society rendered quite an interesting program last Friday afternoon. The program was devoted entirely to Longfellow. The audience was especially pleased by Mr. Leavenworth's recitation. Mr. Leavenworth recited "The Famine" in a manner that shows he enjoys the work, and takes great interest in the welfare of the society.
 The following persons visited Shakespearean Literary Society last Friday: Misses Nellie Armor, Grace Beck, Inez Brown, Lydia Mellinger and Mr. Glenn Milliren.
 A number of the High School students attended a party last Friday evening at the home of Miss Ollie Dunn.
 Mock trial next Friday. For something funny as well as instructive, come.
 Friday the Shakespearean Society inaugurated the following officers: Pres., Clement Flynn; Vice-Pres., Maud Hoon; Sec., Tom Nolan; Editor-in-chief, Edie Milliren; Assistant Editor, Viola McGaw; Local Editor, Kathryn King; Critics, Frances King and Christine Brown; Program Committee, Jay McGaw, Verdi Daugherty and Maggie Stoke.

A query box has been arranged for the benefit of the High School.
 In chapel the other morning Prof. Lenkerd announced that the library would be opened that day. The opening exercises were violent and noisy and, we presume, painful.
 Prof. Lenkerd went for chestnuts last Saturday. It is said that he climbed far more trees than he got chestnuts.
 W. A. Lofts, of Buffalo, N. Y., formerly a student in our schools, was a visitor at chapel Monday morning.
 Miss Maude Bush, who has been sick, has returned to school again. We are glad to have you with us, Maude.
 James Muir was welcomed by his friends and the members of his class, the Seniors. This swells the number to seven.

West Reynoldsville Council.
 The West Reynoldsville town council met in regular session October 9th, with the following members in attendance: A. B. Weed, James Orr, Samuel Sutter, Richard Miller and John Benson.
 Minutes of last meeting read and approved.
 R. E. Koehler was present and stated that Mr. O'Donnell had arranged for a strip of ground for an alley back of his property on Pike street, and asked council to take some action in opening this alley, as it was almost impossible for a team to get in or out from his property. The street committee was instructed to look over the ground and report at the next meeting.
 The report of Burgess showed $5.00 collected for fines, and a balance in his hands of $7.15.
 No report submitted from G. W. Dempsey, tax collector, or W. L. Johnston, treasurer.
 The secretary was instructed to notify Mr. Dempsey and Mr. Johnston to make a report regularly at each monthly meeting of council.
 Bill of Reynoldsville Electric Co., amounting to $45.43, and of J. V. Young, amounting to $30.97, were ordered paid.
 Mr. Weed called attention to railing being torn down on sidewalk in front of Bartle's and Barry's on Broadway. The street committee was instructed to see that repairs were made at once, and also to see that any other guard rails needing repairs were put in proper condition.

Letter to Miller & Ewing,
 Reynoldsville, Pa.
 Dear Sirs:—Porterhouse so much neck so much; all the way between. Just so with paint. Devoe lead and zinc is the porterhouse. Nobody wants the neck; the between, some say, is good enough for them.
 But Devoe costs less, not more, than between. Lead and oil is between; it is the old-fashion paint. But zinc has come in. Zinc toughens white lead. Devoe lead and zinc is the paint.
 If you paint in three years, you do it for looks. Devoe does not wear out in three years.
 Yours truly,
 F. W. DEVOE & CO.
