

The Star.

Subscription $1.50 per year, or $1.00 if paid strictly in advance.

C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1900.

An independent local paper, published every Wednesday at Reynoldsville, Jefferson Co., Pa., devoted to the interests of Reynoldsville and Jefferson county. Non-political, will treat all with fairness, and will be especially friendly towards the laboring class.

Communications intended for publication must be accompanied by the writer's name, not for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. Interesting news items solicited. Advertising rates made known on application at the office in Froehlich-Henry Block. Lengthy communications and change of advertisements should reach this office by Monday noon.

Subscription price $1.00 per year, in advance. Address all communications to C. A. Stephenson, Reynoldsville, Pa.

Entered at the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Pa., as second class mail matter.

A Great Prize Offer.

We have a great prize offer to make the farmers of Jefferson county! By a special arrangement with the publishers of the Farm Journal, a most excellent farm paper that costs 50 cents a year, we are able to offer one year's subscription to THE STAR and FOUR years' subscription to the Farm Journal—the two worth $3.00—all for the small sum of $1.25. Of course this only applies to advance paying subscribers. We can furnish a few papers at this rate, and if you want them on these terms, you must act QUICKLY! Sample copies of the Farm Journal will be sent free on application. Address, C. A. STEPHENSON, Reynoldsville, Pa.

An Episode of the Hunting Season.

[With apology to Punsutawney Spirit.]
Said an old grey squirrel to her three big sons,
From a hole in a chestnut tree:
"Now this is the season for dogs and guns,
When the Man 'n' his dog makes us flee.
He stalks through the woods with his thunderstick,
And whenever you show your head
He rathet it up—and you fear a click—
And 'bang!' it kills you dead."
The rodents trembled and shook with fear,
And every one of the lot
Crouched close to a limb and picked up his ears.
When they heard the sound of a shot!
Then they hurried away in leaps and starts,
And hid in the top of a tree,
And looked and listened, with throbbing hearts.
Till the old squirrel saw Dr. King, H. B.
"A false alarm!" cried Grandmother Grey,
"But it nearly frightened me sick,
For I thought John Welsh was coming this way."
With his terrible thunder-stick!
But now we can chatter and scamper about
Without the least cause for dismay.
For there be some of these Man Cubs
That can't hit a load of hay.

The Youth's Companion's 75th Year.

The new volume of The Youth's Companion for 1901 will mark the paper's seventy-fifth year of continuous publication—seventy-five years, during which it has had the approval of three generations of readers. The constant aim of The Companion is to carry into the home reading that shall be helpful as well as entertaining—reading that shall contribute to the pure happiness of all the family. Strong in the assurance that every reader gained is a friend won, the publishers offer to send The Companion free for the remaining weeks of 1900 to those who subscribe now for the new volume for 1901. There will not be an issue from now until 1902 that will not be crowded with good stories and articles of rare interest and value. Diplomats, Explorers, Sailors, Trappers, Indian Fighters, Story-Writers and Self-made Men and Women in Many Vocations, besides the most popular writers of fiction, will write for The Companion not only next year, but during the remaining weeks of this year. The new subscriber will also receive The Companion's new "Puritan Girl" Calendar for 1901, lithographed in 12 colors.

Illustrated announcement of the volume for 1901 will be sent free to any address, with sample copies of the paper.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION,
Boston, Mass.

Newspaper Laws.

According to some of the latest laws newspaper publishers may cause individuals, who take a paper and refuse to pay for it, to be arrested for fraud. Under this ruling, also, any one who allows his subscription to run along for a time unpaid and then orders it discontinued, or orders the postmaster to mark it "refused" and send a postal card to the publisher, is liable to arrest and fine the same as for theft and other crimes.—Newspaper Talk.

Letter to Priester Bros.,

Reynoldsville, Pa.

Dear Sirs: Some think we take a good deal of risk in inviting complaints of Devoe lead and zinc—we authorize our agents to sell it under this guarantee:

"If you have any fault to find with this paint, either now in putting it on, or hereafter in the wear, tell your dealer about it."

"We authorize him to do what is right at our expense."

The following story tells how little the risk is:

J. H. Asher & Co., hardware dealers, Rhinebeck, N. Y., have sold Devoe from '76 to now, and have had just one complaint in all this time.

Three sides of a house were perfect; the fourth was as bad as the three were good.

Explanation—it rained the night before the fourth side was painted; and the painters didn't wait for the wood to dry.

What is done in such a case? Whatever the dealer, who sold the paint, considers it fair to do. We leave it to him. He may not do exactly what we should do if we were there; but we are not there. The best we can do is to leave it to him.

Yours truly,

F. W. DEVOE & CO.
