

SUNDERED.

O love, since you and I must walk apart, Spare me one little corner of your heart— A shrine That shall be wholly mine!

A FICKLE IMMIGRANT.

Her Experience With Two Lovers at Uncle Sam's Barge Office. "There seem to be manifold opportunities among the immigrants coming to America on shipboard for falling in love, particularly on the slower steamers, when people are thrown together for a period of from 12 to 18 days."

"Another case was equally ludicrous. A Swedish maiden of somewhat fickle mind fell in love with a fellow voyager without apprising him of the fact that she was betrothed to another man whom she was to meet at the barge office and marry. It was her intention to hurry ashore with her new lover and outwit the former by a prior ceremony, but the red tape of the office prevented that, and the first lover came to welcome his bride. She then as promptly fell in love with No. 1. But when No. 2 pleaded and threatened, she could not decide which one she loved the better, so she was detained while the two men haunted the large office, glaring at each other.

"When the detention time had elapsed, the bride, still not knowing her mind, was sent unceremoniously back on the same steamer that brought her over, both jilted lovers abandoning the field in despair. But on arriving on her native soil once more the maiden dared not face her people, so back she came, having just money enough to pay her passage, and sent for lover No. 1, declaring that she loved him the better. He replied that he was very much obliged, but as he had already married a handsomer girl in the interval he was compelled to decline to come for her. The maiden then sent word to No. 2 to like effect, but he declared that he had had enough of the fickle feminine, and thus in defeat the maiden was transported back again to face the leers and jeers of her native hamlet."

Why He Wanted a Receipt.

There was a lawyer in the Indian country who had none too good a reputation for honesty, says the Chicago News. One of the aborigines employed him to do a little legal business. It was done to the client's satisfaction, the fee duly paid and a receipt for it duly demanded. "A receipt isn't necessary," the lawyer said. "But I want it," replied the red man. There was some argument, and the attorney finally demanded his reason. "Since becoming a Christian I have been very careful in all my dealings that I may be ready for the judgment," answered the brave sentimentally, "and when that day comes I don't want to take time to go to the bad place to get my receipt from you." The receipt was made out and promptly delivered.

Thrive Without Meat.

It is the religion of nearly all Asiatics to abstain from eating flesh, fish or fowl, because it is a sin to kill for food anything that has instinct, "lest it be hindered on its upward way." Besides, according to the doctrine of transmigration of souls, one might kill and eat one's grandmother. But, aside from that, vegetable food, it is claimed, makes better muscle and bone than meat. Anyway, it is well known that the steredores of Constantinople and other eastern ports never eat meat, and that, as a class, they have no superiors anywhere in the world in physical strength.

Saved by Seaweed.

"I was once saved by seaweed," said an old sea captain, "down in the Falkland Islands. We were being washed on a lee shore when the skipper, an old fellow from Nova Scotia, picked up a vine that was floating on the water and hauled it in until it got pretty near as big as a man's body; then he made it fast, and we swung by it, as good a cable as you would want to see—and one of the curiosest things."—Philadelphia Press.

Mechanism of a Fish.

People marvel at the mechanism of the human body, with its 402 bones and 60 arteries, but man is simple in this respect compared with the carp. That remarkable fish moves no fewer than 4,386 bones and muscles every time it breathes. It has 4,320 veins, to say nothing of its 94 muscles.

Tact is being more and more recognized as a valuable instrument in man's welfare and happiness.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The most magnificent tomb in the world is deemed to be the palace temple of Karnak, occupying an area of nine acres.

Under Water. Strange acquaintances are to be made under water. H. Phelps Whitmarsh, who for a time adopted the calling of pearl fisher in Australian waters, tells this story of meeting a submarine monster: "It was a muddy day, and everything in consequence looked blurred and exaggerated. In the yellow distance I saw an immense dark object moving slowly toward me. As it came nearer I made out a central body with several great arms, or feelers, waving rhythmically. My heart was in my mouth. "I felt sure it was an octopus. Then, when I was about to stir up the mud at my feet to avoid being seen, I discovered that the enemy was nothing more than a fellow diver. The feelers I had imagined were his arms, legs and lines.

"A shadowy giant about 12 feet high, with huge hands and a head like a small barrel, was approaching. He walked slowly, his heavy boots raising the mud behind him like a cloud of dust, and his great central eye glomed darkly. Although I knew him to be a man, it was with difficulty that I refrained from taking to my heels. At sight of me he, too, was startled, but he quickly recovered, and we shook hands. Then we nodded, grinned, showed each other the state of our bags and parted."

Honest Confession.

"Young man," said the careful father, "if I consent to your marrying my daughter will you furnish her the luxuries to which she is accustomed?" "Well," said the young man, "it is more than likely that I won't be buying her as many theater admissions as I have been doing for the past year."—Indianapolis Press.

Ready For Use.

"Beg pardon," said the long haired visitor, "but is there a literary club around here anywhere?" "Yes, there is," said the editor significantly, reaching under his desk. "Are you a literary man?"—Catholic Standard and News.

Ordinances.

(NO. 65.) AN ORDINANCE authorizing the laying out, construction and building of a public sewer in Main and Tenth streets from a point on said Main street in front of the old school property now owned by A. M. Applegate to Tenth or Taylor street and along Tenth or Taylor street to south side of Jackson street. WHEREAS, It appears by a petition and affidavit on file in the Council chamber of the Council of the borough of Reynoldsville, that a majority of property owners in interest and number abutting on the line of Main and Tenth or Taylor streets, on the line of the proposed improvement have petitioned the Council of said borough to lay out, construct and build a public sewer in Main and Tenth or Taylor streets from a point on said Main street in front of the old school property, now owned by A. M. Applegate, to Tenth or Taylor street and along Tenth or Taylor street to south side of Jackson street in manner and form as directed by law; that said sewer is a public necessity for the convenience and health of the citizens and that the costs and expenses of the same be assessed upon the property benefited according to benefits, if sufficient can be found, etc., in accordance with the provisions of the acts of assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, relating and regulating the same.

Sec. 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the town council of the borough of Reynoldsville, in Council assembled and it is hereby ordained and enacted by authority of the same that a public sewer be laid out, constructed and built in Main and Tenth or Taylor streets, beginning at a point in Main street opposite A. M. Applegate's, thence in Main street to Tenth street, thence in Tenth street to Jackson street. Sec. 2. That said sewer shall be built as follows: Diameter of the sewer pipe to be decided upon by the council, to be placed not less than three feet below the surface of the present street so that connections with the same can be properly made from cellars six feet in depth, reckoning from level of center of street, the Sewer Committee of the town council of the borough of Reynoldsville be and is hereby authorized and empowered to proceed to buy material, employ an engineer and laborers, and make all necessary contracts for laying out, constructing and completing of said sewer.

Sec. 3. That the said sewer shall be subject to all the rules, regulations and ordinances of the borough of Reynoldsville now in force or that may be hereafter passed, regulating such sewers and sewer system in said borough, and no person shall be permitted to tap such sewer or connect therewith until such person or owners of property has paid his or her proportion of the costs of the construction of said sewer and complied with all the rules and regulations as aforesaid.

Sec. 4. That the costs and expenses of the same to be assessed and collected in accordance with the provisions of the acts of assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, relating thereto and regulating the same.

Sec. 5. That any ordinance or part of ordinance conflicting with this ordinance be and the same is hereby repealed so far as the same effects this ordinance.
