There was a "corn husking" at D. L. Brumbaugh's last Thursday evening. Over one hundred bushels of corn was husked.

The woods in this vicinity was full of hunters yesterday and considerable small game was brought into town last night.

In the foot ball game at Brookville yesterday between Brookville and DuBois teams neither team scored. Goose eggs for both teams.

Don't fail to see the yacht scene in "Master and Man" Monday night at the opera house. Prices 15c, 25c and 35c. Ladies 15c. Monday night only.

Free mail delivery was inaugurated at Kane last Thursday. Kane is a live little city, far above some of the other would-be-cities along the P. R. R.

Charles Roller, a lad nine years old, had his right hand badly injured one day last week by a buggy running over it. Charley fell in front of buggy.

There will be a pie social at the Murray school Saturday evening, Nov. 10. Proceeds for a school library. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

August Walter has opened a boot-blackening establishment in a little room next to Ed. Phillips' barbershop. August expects to handle daily papers.

The Star Glass Company will ship orders of glass to-day and two of the latter part of this week. The company is making excellent glass.

The Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will hold a market on Wednesday afternoon, November 10th, in the new building. Your patronage is solicited.

Brockerhoff, who opened the coal mine at Pancost in Philadelphia Monday, was well known in this place as a nephew of Frank K.

The bar-rooms were closed yesterday and a thirty glass worker bought all the Jamaica Ginger that one drug store had in stock—seven bottles.

Edward Phalen and Frank Bohren, of this place, played with the Brookville team against DuBois team yesterday. Reynolds Gibson and Bert Burns, of this place, played with DuBois team.

Hopkins saw mill was shut down Monday and Tuesday of this week in order to give all the employes an opportunity to vote. Many of the mill hands hold residence in other parts of the state.

L. W. Perrin and N. T. Rhodes bought Amos Reitz's meat market in West Reynoldsville about a month ago and on Monday of this week Mr. Rhodes sold his interest to Mr. Perrin, who will continue the business.

Mrs. Elizabeth Sheno, an Italian woman of Big Soldier, aged 47 years, was buried in the Catholic cemetery Thursday. The Italian lodge and Venezia Peter Yanuty brass band of Big Soldier attended the funeral.

The coaling trestle on Low Grade Division, just north of freight station, was torn down the past week. This trestle was built over seventeen years ago. It was condemned several years ago and had not been used since that.

One hundred and nineteen tickets were sold at Reynoldsville for the cheap excursion to Pittsburgh Sunday over the P. R. R. Over eleven hundred people took in the excursion. Two sections were required to haul the excursionists.

John S. Smith and wife, who moved from this place to Nobleson, Pa., five or six years ago, moved back to Reynoldsville last week. This couple are old citizens of this town and their many friends here will be glad to have them reside in our midst again.

A young lady and gentleman of town made an election bet Saturday night, as follows: If Bryan is elected the young man is to wheel the lady up one of our streets on a wheel barrow, and if McKinley is elected the young lady is to wheel the young man up street.

Thomas Degnan, John Kelley, Fred Foley, Reynolds Gibson, Bert Burns, George Heckman, Frank Bohren, Charles Wensel, Arthur Barkley, James Degnan, Jr., and Frank Eckman were in Brookville yesterday afternoon to see the football game between Brookville and DuBois teams.

Hallowe'en pranks were not numerous nor very destructive to property at this place. The grand stand on ball ground was turned upside down and a few small outhouses upset, but that was about the extent of the pranks here. The little people got considerable fun out of throwing corn and beans against windows.

Ethan E. Stewart, the marble dealer, started for Richmond, Ky., yesterday to erect a fine monument over the grave of Ellis Mitchell, brother of Lawyer C. Mitchell, of this place. When Mr. Stewart finishes that work he expects to meet his family at Washington, D. C., and go from there to Florida to remain several months. He will return in time to take orders for spring work.

Mrs. Julia O'Halaran, aged 85 years, died at Crafton, suburb of Pittsburg, Saturday morning and was buried in the Catholic cemetery at this place Monday afternoon beside her husband, Michael O'Halaran, who died ten years ago. This old couple had lived in Reynoldsville a number of years and were well known here. After Mr. O'Halaran's death, Mrs. O'Halaran moved to Crafton, where her son, John was working and mother and son resided together.

The Falls Creek Herald, one of our live exchanges, made its appearance last week with a new and unique heading. The name of the paper is intertwined with a railroad map, taking in the section of country between Pittsburg, Buffalo and Rochester. As Bangert said to editor THE STAR Saturday evening, "the map is by no means accurate and will not stand careful study, but it governs the idea intended and is a little different from the headings used by the ordinary run of newspapers."

Messrs. Munn & Co., publishers of The Scientific American, of New York, are now making their usual magnanimous (?) proposition to country newspapers for 1901, which is a copy of the above magazine for one year—price $3.00—for a 24 inch advertisement—worth $10.00—for one year. That is about equal to some of the patent medicine propositions that country papers are honored with. Many papers are foolish enough to accept such an offer and so long as they do Munn & Co. will continue making such propositions.

Dave B. Levis' big production of "Uncle Josh Spruceby" will be seen at the opera house on Friday, Nov. 9th. A carload of special scenery, big band, a solo operatic orchestra, and a company of 25 people are some of the features promised, and many novel specialties will be introduced. The play this year is handsomely staged and a splendid company of acting people has been engaged for the production. The great saw mill scene is introduced with all its startling realistic effects among other special scenery carried by the company. Parade at noon. Prices 25c, 35c and 50c. Tickets on sale at Stoke's drug store.

Hallowe'en Social.

The Ingelow Club held a Hallowe'en social at the home of Miss Jessie Irving, on Jackson street, last Wednesday. The girls had a jolly time and Hallowe'en tricks were numerous. Excellent refreshments were served by the hostess.

Two Men Injured.

Holland Clawson and Thomas White, who were working together in Big Soldier mine, had a very narrow escape from sudden death last Wednesday by rock from roof falling on them. Both men were badly cut on the head and White's left leg was injured. White was so badly injured that he was confined to bed a few days.

Prohibition Meeting.

The Prohibition meeting held in Centennial hall Wednesday evening was well attended. Rev. Perry A. Reno was elected president of the meeting, which was opened with prayer by Rev. A. J. Meek. Captain Herman, of Salvation Army, was the first speaker and he was followed by Rev. James H. Jellbart, of Johnsonburg, and Rev. D. A. Platt, of Brockwayville.

Another Foot Ball Team.

Another foot ball team has been organized by some of the old members of the Reynoldsville foot ball team. Dr. Harry B. King is manager and Frances McDonald captain. The players are: Herb Burns, Edward Phalen, Rielly Burns, Joseph Williams, Francis McDonald, Bert Burns, Fred Bohren, Reynolds Gibson, Frank Bohren, Harry Coppell, A. H. Fasenmyer, Eugene McGill.

Buried in Sybrit Cemetery.

The remains of William Mottern, the young man who was killed by a train of cars on the R. & F. C. R'y crossing near the Jefferson Supply Company store at this place last Tuesday night, were taken to the home of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Mottern, at Eleonora Wednesday afternoon and on Thursday forenoon was buried in the Sybrit cemetery, Paradise. This young man was a nephew of Miss Barbara Deemer of this place.

Jailed Monday.

Constable John Null, of Sykesville, took John Yarmosaz, a young chap of Big Soldier, to Brookville jail Monday afternoon on the charge of larceny. The crime was committed three months ago and Yarmosaz skipped out, but Constable Null captured him near Allegheny City Sunday afternoon and brought him back to Sykesville where he had a hearing before "Squire Sykes Monday and was bound over to court, and being unable to secure bail was taken to jail.

Returned the Pocket Book.

One evening, eight or ten weeks ago, Mrs. W. B. Alexander's pocket book was stolen from the sideboard drawer while she was at a neighbor's a few minutes. The pocket book, which was an extra good one, contained some papers, calling cards and about $27.00 in cash. Some time last Sunday night the thief returned the pocket book and dropped it in between the screen and front door of house, where it was found Monday morning. The papers and cards were in pocket book but the $20.00 gold piece and other money was not there.

Easy Game.

C. W. Hoffman, a student in the Western University of Pennsylvania at Pittsburg, who wanted to vote, came home Friday night on B. R. & P. R'y "flyer," arriving at residence of his father-in-law, Robert Waite, near this place, about daylight Saturday morning. Mr. Hoffman wanted rabbit for breakfast and he took a gun and started out. A few rods from the house he shot a rabbit and inside of fifteen minutes he returned to house with three rabbits. It is convenient to have game playing within a stone's throw of your residence.

Dr. Riker's Lecture.

Rev. Dr. A. B. Riker, president of Mount Union College of Alliance, Ohio, lectured in Assembly Hall at this place last Friday evening on, "What Shall We Do With the Boys?" Doctor held the close attention of his large audience for two hours. He said to the editor of this paper Saturday morning, "That was a fine audience I had last night. They were punished longer than they would have been had they not been so attentive." Doctor Riker said some excellent things, but his lecture did not come up to what the people had expected.

Political Meeting Saturday.

Bills were posted in town last week announcing a citizens' meeting in Centennial hall Saturday evening. The Keystone band played several pieces in front of the hall and one in the hall before the meeting was called to order. William C. Schultze was elected president of the meeting, with a number of vice-presidents. R. E. Koehler was elected secretary. William Fairman, Esq., the silvery tongued orator from the banks of the Mahoning, was advertised as one of the speakers, but on account of another engagement Mr. Fairman could not attend this meeting. A. C. White, Esq., of Brookville, was the first speaker, A. D. Deemer, of Brookville, candidate for Assembly, made the second speech and S. H. Whitehill, Esq., of Brookville, made the closing speech.

BURGLARS AT SYKESVILLE.

"Squire Long and Zate Lawson Heard Bullets Whizzing Around Their Heads."

"Squire J. L. Long and Zate Lawson, of Sykesville, had a thrilling experience with three burglars at Sykesville Friday night. "Squire Long lives opposite Shaffer & Rupert's store and about midnight Percy Long, son of "Squire's, who had been sitting up with a sick friend (?) returned home and called his father and said he thought there were robbers in Shaffer & Rupert's store. "Squire hastily dressed himself and got Zate Lawson out and with one revolver and a Winchester rifle the two citizens started out for midnight game, but the robbers had selected their plunder and left the store before the two citizens were ready to trap them. There was a very heavy fog, but Long and Lawson saw their men running up Main street and opened fire on them and the burglars returned the compliment and "Squire Long says bullets whizzed around his head lively for a few minutes, but the two citizens kept up the chase and gained on the burglars until they finally dropped their plunder and got away. The burglars succeeded in carrying a small amount of goods away in their pockets, but on account of the chase by Messrs. Long and Lawson the firm of Shaffer & Rupert did not lose much by the visit of the midnight customers. It is a wonder some person was not killed.

Union Prayer Services.

On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings of this week the Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist Episcopal churches will hold union services for prayer in behalf of China. This evening the meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church, led by Rev. A. J. Meek; Thursday evening in M. E. church, led by Rev. W. Frank Reber, and Friday evening in the Baptist church, led by Rev. Perry A. Reno. It is hoped that these meetings will be well attended. In the appeal for prayer in behalf of China is this statement: "The christian churches on this continent have now many sacred graves in China, and it is God's call to China's evangelization."

"Out of the shadows of night,
The world moves into light;
It is daybreak every where."

At the close of prayer meeting tonight there will be a meeting to which all the Sunday school workers of all denominations of town are cordially invited to attend.

Local Institute.

Teachers' local institute will be held at Sykesville on Saturday, Nov. 17th. Program as follows:

Devotional exercises, Rev. J. H. Palmer; "Benefits of the Opening Exercises," Ira Couch, Wayde Breaker, J. A. Long; "Characteristics of a Reading Lesson," Anna Davis, N. E. McCall, Mrs. Ross; music; recitation, Laura Ennis; "Man's Value to Society," Henry Foltz, Ethel McCreeght, May Corbett; "When Does a Child's Education Begin," Cora Foltz, W. P. Miller, Nettie Coax; music; query box, John Ross; address, Prof. W. C. Purdy; "Is the Vertical System the Practical System of Writing in the Public Schools," R. C. Wilson, Jos. R. Wilson; recitation, Nelle McPherson; music; "Growth of Education," C. M. Shaffer, Sarah Corbett; address, Prof. R. B. Teltrick.

Committee, C. M. Shaffer, W. P. Miller, Jos. R. Wilson.

Imported His Own Pictures.

Lyman H. Howe's strictly high-grade and first-class Moving Picture exhibition will be at the Reynolds opera house on Saturday evening Nov. 10th, and will present a program that is new in its entirety. It is undeniably the finest animated picture exhibition in America to-day. Mr. Howe uses none but the best pictures on the most popular and interesting subjects. He has found that the people want only the best and he has spared no expense in giving it to them. With this object in view Mr. Howe spent three months in Europe collecting notable subjects that will be presented at this exhibition. Tickets 25c and 35c.

Forgot to Say Grace.

A preacher who attended district conference last week stopped with a family on Jackson street that did not feed him on chicken at every meal, in fact he had been there for four meals before he was given chicken to eat, and when he stepped into the dining room for fifth meal and discovered chicken on the table he was so much exercised over it that he actually forgot all about saying grace until the chicken had been eaten and then he apologized to the family.

"Uncle Josh Spruceby."

"Uncle Josh Spruceby" is one of those old rural plays, with exciting climaxes that pleases a great many theatre goers. They have a good band and orchestra and the specialties are good.—DuBois Courier. At Reynolds opera house Nov. 9th. Tickets on sale at Stoke's drug store.

Every pair warranted to do good service. Robinson's shoes.

Nothing finer than the creamery butter at Barto's. Try it.

Light colored golf hats, all shapes at Millirens.

If you want a perfect fit, order suit from John Flynn, the tailor.

MCKINLEY ELECTED.

Entire Republican Ticket Elected in the County.

DEEMER CARRIED THIS BOROUGH

State and National Election News Will be Found on Inside Pages of this Issue.

William McKinley was re-elected President yesterday. The fight in this borough was for Assembly. A. D. Deemer, Prohibition-Democratic candidate for Assembly, defeated Dr. S. S. Hamilton, Republican, by 38 votes—35 in first precinct and 3 in second precinct. The first report was that Deemer beat Hamilton 55 votes in 1st precinct, but that was a mistake.

McKinley's vote in the county is about 5,700 and Bryan's about 3,000.

McKinley's electoral vote in 1896 was 271 and Bryan's 176. The Pittsburg Post says McKinley's electoral vote will probably be 305 and Bryan's 142.

For Assembly, Dr. S. S. Hamilton, Republican, defeated A. D. Deemer, Prohibition-Democratic, something over 1,200 in the county.

Tabulated returns of a few precincts of the county will be found on 4th page, and news from the State and National election will be found on 6th page.

There were eight Socialist votes polled in the borough.

Seven voters in 2nd precinct of this borough did not vote for Assemblyman. Election returns were received in Elk rooms and in the Star building.

Ladies of the Helping Hand Society of the M. E. church served sandwiches and coffee in the Star building last night.

David J. Lane Dead.

David J. Lane, an old citizen of Reynoldsville, died suddenly at his home on Jackson street at 6:00 a. m., Monday, November 5th. Mr. Lane had been indisposed for several years and was confined to his bed several weeks before he expired, yet his friends had no idea that his life would end so soon. The attending physician thinks that a stroke of paralysis is what caused his death. David Lane was born at Somerseshire, England, July 17, 1830, making him 70 years old last July. He came to America in 1852. On the 3rd of July, 1855, Mr. Lane was married to Frances Yarworth, at Towanda, Pa. Unto this couple nine children were born, one son and eight daughters. The son and five daughters preceded the father to that "bourne from which no traveler ever returns." About twenty years ago Mr. Lane moved to Reynoldsville, where he was well known having been in the dray business about a dozen years. Funeral services were held in the M. E. church at 2:00 p. m. to-day (Wednesday) conducted by Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of the M. E. church. About forty Sons of St. George, of which order the deceased was a member, attended the funeral in a body and paid their last tribute of respect to a faithful and zealous brother. Interment was made in Beulah cemetery. The deceased is survived by his wife and three daughters, Mrs. John Yarworth, of Coal Glen; Mrs. Fred Copeland, who has been staying here several weeks, but expects to go to Tennessee in a couple of weeks, and Mrs. Samuel M. Whittaker, of Reynoldsville.

David Lane was a kind hearted gentleman and his friends were numerous.

Rare Theatrical Treat.

Local theatre-goers have a rare theatrical treat in store in the coming of the famous Erwood Stock Company to the opera house for a three nights' engagement, commencing Monday next. On Monday evening the great comedy-drama, "Master and Man" will be produced, Tuesday "The Danites," and Wednesday "Kidnapped." To stage each scene correctly a car load of special scenery is carried and on Monday evening the yacht race in the third act is alone worth the price of admission. Up-to-date specialties will be introduced nightly, making a continuous performance of high merits.

Prices during the engagement remain the same, 15c, 25c and 35c, while on Monday evening ladies will be admitted for 15c, providing they secure their seats in advance at Stoke's pharmacy, the tickets being placed on sale Saturday morning.

Art and Chrysanthemum Excursion to Pittsburg.

The Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg R'y Co. announce Sunday, Nov. 18th, as a day set aside for their annual fall excursion to Pittsburg. Among the attractions in the iron city on this occasion will be the great Art and Chrysanthemum exhibitions. The latter show this year is pronounced finer and far superior to any previous exhibit, while the Carnegie Library Art Exhibition, with the added attraction of a large number of new paintings from noted galleries of Europe, makes one of the most remarkable exhibits in this country. A special train will leave Falls Creek at 7:25 a. m. and returning will leave Allegheny (P. & W. station) at 6:00 p. m. Fare from Falls Creek, $1.50 for the round trip. For full information see excursion bills or consult the nearest agent of the company.

Bargains in mill seconds, blankets, yarns, &c., at the Reynoldsville woolen mills.

Fashionable vaudeville will be introduced between the acts of "Master and Man" Monday night by the Erwood Stock Company. Prices 15c, 25c and 35c. Ladies 15c. Monday night only.

READING ROOM OPENED.

Music, Speeches, &c.—Large Number Present—Your Assistance Needed.

The Young Men's reading room on Fifth street was formally opened Monday evening with prayer, songs and speeches. There was a large crowd present. Rev. Perry A. Reno, president of the Association, presided and the following program was rendered: Prayer, Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D.; solo, Miss Florence Stone; introductory speech, Rev. Reno; speech, Hon. S. B. Elliott; song, male quartette, F. H. Beck, Frank P. Alexander, Dr. Harry B. King and Will Hoppel; reading, Prof. H. C. Lavenworth; speech, Rev. G. Johannes; solo, Miss Lois Robinson; short speeches by Rev. W. Frank Reber and Prof. G. W. Lenkerd. Mrs. A. M. Woodward, president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, was called upon for a few remarks and she responded in a neat little speech and in behalf of the Union handed the president of the Association six dollars as the Union's first contribution to the Association with the promise to give more. The Union has been trying to get a reading room started for a number of years and now they propose to do all they can to keep the reading room open. The reading room is already provided with a few good books and some of the best magazines published, but more reading matter must be provided to make it a success. It is to be hoped that this is the beginning of what will eventually be a large reading room with a gymnasium attached. No town in the country needs such an institution more than we do in Reynoldsville. We have many young men loafing on street corners and in hotels who should be provided with a pleasant place to spend their spare time profitably. The reading room is a step in the right direction and every good citizen of the town should encourage the thing in a substantial manner.

The Paris Exposition.

The Moving Pictures that will be presented here in the Reynolds opera house on the evening of November 10th, under the auspices of Young Men's Reading Association, will be given by Mr. Lyman H. Howe's own company. Mr. Howe made a special trip to Europe to secure Moving Pictures of the Paris Exposition and judging from his past success in the moving picture world, it is a foregone conclusion that the program will be the best that money and experience can procure. This exhibition is without doubt the most satisfactory and elaborate in America to-day. Mr. Howe's collection for this season will surpass all his previous efforts, and give our citizens the very best that can be seen in this line. Tickets 25c and 35c.

Winter Excursion Tickets on P. R. R.

On November 1 the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will place on sale at its principal ticket offices excursion tickets to all prominent winter resorts in New Jersey, Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Cuba, and Central America. The tickets will be sold at the usual low rates, with the usual liberal return limits. The magnificent facilities of the Pennsylvania Railroad with its many connections and through train service, make this the favorite line for winter travel.

An Illustrated Book, Descriptive of Winter Resorts, and Giving Routes of Travel and Rates for Tickets, Will be Furnished Free after November 1 on Application to Ticket Agents.
